Weather Report. WAR DEPARTMENT,

Office of Chief Signal Officer, Washington, March 12 4:35 P. M.

The bacometer will continue rising during the night over the South Atlantic, Middle and New England States, with clear and clearing weather, the latter continue on Wednesday; it will continue falling west of and throughout the Mississippi valley, extending its influence on Wednesday to the Eastern, Gulf and Middle States with south to east winds, and rising temperature. An area of very low barometer will probably move eastward over Iowa during to n ght, as quite a severe storm preceded by brisk and high southeast and northeast juds and rain and snow from Iowa to lower Michigan and northeast, and thence south-ward to Arkansas and Tennesse by brisk southerly and southwesterly winds, with coudy weather and rain. Daugerous winds are not anticipated for the Atlantic and Gulf coasts to-night.

Robeson County. We could hear nothing additional from Robeson county yesterday in reference to the reported killing of Boss Strong, a member of the Lowrey garg, but learn that the people generally are satisfied almost beyond a doubt that young McQueen, or Donahoe, did his work well and that at least one of the noted band of desperadoes has been placed beyond the power of doing further mischlef.

Campaign Closed in Sampson County.

The Sentinel of Tuesday says: Carrow's Deputy U. S. Marshale, yesterday returned to this city after five weeks campaign against the Ka Klux of Sampson county. We understand that a large number of suspected parties were arrested and bound over to the U. S. Court. The people of Sampson are as quiet and law abiding as any people in this broad Property holders on Seventh street, between Chesnut and Mulberry, are load in their complaints of the action of the authorities in removing, as they allege, an excellent pavement which they had just put down at their own expense and replacing it with an Inferior one. The one laid down by the pariles alluded to, was eight feet wide, solid and substantial. This has been cut up, the pavement narrowed down to about four feet and a half in width and a narrow piece of scanding run along the walk, as an apology for a curb. We know nothing of the motives which Influenced this action on the part of the authorities, but we must confess that it looks a little singular.

OPERA HOUSE.

Pautomimie.

The Abbott Pantomime Troupe concluded their brief engagement at the Opera House last night, the largeness of the audience testifying the appreciation in which this excellent company is held by the play goers of Wilington. The performance last night was in anything superior to that of the previous evening, and the risabilities of the large crowd were taxed to the utmost extent. We commend Mr. Abbott and his splendid company to the amusement loving public wherever they may go, as coming nearest to "filling the bill" and gratifying public expectation of any similar organization we have seen in a long time. The only regret is that they could not, consistently with their engagements ahead, remain longer in our eity.

The Berger Family.

The Berger Family Swiss Bell Ringers, of whom we have heard so much lately, and whose performances have elecited such favorable comments from the Press of the different towns and cities they have visited, arrived here last evening and will open their engagement to-night. They are accompanied by the celebrated Sol. Smith Russell, who the New York Evening Telegram pronounces a " young gentle man possessed of a great fund of natural humor, a quick perception of anything comic, and a wonderful power of facial expression." The musical critic of the N. Y. Tribune, speaking for Sheriff of New Hanover. In fact, we learn of their performances in that city, says: "There is genuine and versatile talent in the Berger Family, and its entertainment is at once chaste and piquant, delicate and spirited, a luxury to the ear and a joy to the emotions and the understanding. The gentleness and purity which should hallow every pleasure offered to youth are especially prominent in the performances of the Berger Family Swiss Bell-Ringers."

MARINE DISASTER.

Schooner Sunk-Four Men Found

As the steamship Metropolis, Capt. Castner, was going down the river yesierday morning, a small schooner was discovered sunk near Big Island, with four men clinging to her. Capt. Castner immediately lowered a boat and dispatched it to the assistance of the men. who were taken off and carried to Smithville, It was ascertained that the name of the schooner was Troy, and that she was loaded with wood and peanuts. She was sunk during the prevalence of the heavy wind yesterday morning and was probably overloaded.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Extracts from the Proceedings. According to previous notice the Board of County Commissioners met Monday night and resolved itself into a board of education for the county, as previded by act of General Assembly, when it was moved and seconded that A. R. Black, Esq., be appointed County Examiner for the ensuing scholastic year.

No other business being ready for the action of the Board, an adjournment was had until Friday evening next, at 7% o'clock.

The Board of County Commissioners then met and transacted the following business: It was ordered that the petition for a bridge over Black River, at Point Caswell, be built, under the supervision of Commissioner A. R Black, at a cost not exceeding $2,000. It was further ordered that Commissioner Black be authorized to contract for the building of said bridge with some responsible person at the, lowest cash price, and when the same is complete! in accordance with the contract to the satisfaction of the Committee on Roads and Bridges, they are authorized to approve the bill for the same, to be paid out of funds in the hands of the County Treasurer, not otherwise appropriated, when properly audited and approved according to law. It was ordered that the following communication from the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Brunswick county to the chairman of this Board be furnished to the city papers for publication :

BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

SMITHVILLE, March 9th, 1872.

Dear Sir: I was instructed by the Board of Commissioners for the county, which met on the 4th last, to notify your Honor that they refuse to pay the bill of the City Hospital, nor will they pay any bills in future.

It was ordered that the matter concerning the jail be referred to the Committee on Pub-Adjourned to meet on Monday night next, at 7% o'clock, to consider the tax bill.

that the negro man who was with the team of four mules belonging to Mr. John Mintz, that were drowned in Buffalo creek about two weeks ago, was, on Friday last, drowned in Broad river, ten miles southeast of this place. A Mr. Hall was also drowned at the same time and place. The two above named and a young man named Mintz got into a boat and were going down the river, when suddenly the boat was drawn into a whirlpool or suckhole, throwing them all out into the water. The young man Mintz swam to the bank, but the other two, overcome by the suction power, went down into the abyss and were drowned. - A correspondent of the Raleigh News thus refers to the performance of the Berger Family of Swiss Bell Ringers at Charlotte: They are not the equals of the perfect musicians who in 1855 made a tour of the State; but they are a family of talented young artists, who discourse most delightful music. They are at home upon any instrument, and play alike upon the bells, harp, violin, cornet and flute.

Their bell-ringing is so vastly superior to that of the Peak Family, as to seem a different thing altogether. They are accompanied by the great humorist, Sol. Smith Russell, whose reputation is national. Notwithstanding he will appear in Raleigh after the renowned Lingard, I venture to say that you will never have heard anything more thoroughly laughable and enjoyable than his character songs and comic lectures. His control of his facial muscles is surprising.
