OPERA HOUSE.

The Berger Family.

Last evening was the occasion of the last performance by the Berger and Sol. Smith Russell combination in Wilmington during this season. This talented and in all respects meritorious company has met with a patronage here rarely accorded in Wilmington during the season of Lent. The Bergers and Mr. Russell leave behind them a kind and cordial remembrance, and we promise them an enthusisatic reception when they shall again visit their Wilmington friends.

To the press in other cities we commend them as deserving, to an extraordinary degree, courteous and friendly attention. Their performance, are of the highest order of artistic merit, and are chaste and elevating in tone to was up before Justice Woodford yesterday, a degree which renders them upassailable upon moral or religious grounds. A portion of the clergy of Wilmington have witnessed these admirable performances, and the Bergers and Mr. Russell have the emphatic endorsement of ell Wilmington play-goers as giving an exhibition equally distinguished by artistic and moral excellence. The ladies of the troupe are organients to their profession and immediately command respect and admiration by appearance. The male members of the troupe are gentlemen as well as artists. For Mr. Sol. Smith Russell we bespeak the special favor of our brethren of the "Fourth Estate." He is an artist of very unusual ability. His versatility is not more remarkable than his accuracy and fidelity in portraitures and characterizations, enhancing every phase of comedy and farce, Mr. Russell has a bright future before him, and is already far advanced upon the road to the highest protessional success.

The Bergers and Mr. Russell go hence to

Mrs. Oates' Troupe.

As before announced, this justly celebrated company of Burlesquers commence a three days' engagement here on Thursday evening next. The following from the Charleston Courier will show that Mrs. Oates is as great a favorite as ever with the lovers of genuine favorite, Mr. H. T. Allen, filling their parts in excellent taste.

Mrs. Oates, as "Joseph'ne," in the "Daughter of the Regiment," added new leaflets to her already rich and clustering chapter. We have seldom seen her happler in her personations; indeed there is in "Josephine" an adaptation, which seems especially suited to evoke all the strikingly brilliant and distinguishing traits so innate in this charming favorite. The natural effervescence of spirit, the genuine expression of devot d attachment to the friends of camp and field life, and the rollicking buoyancy of unconventional, honest manner and bearing, all came out as artiesely and as true as life itself. Her singing was especially admirable, and encores oft repeated, attested the chords which had been struck in the sympathizing auditors. "Good Bye, 8 weet Heart," was rendered with as much feeling as artistic and cultured excellence, and the hearers seemed unwilling to say good bye the hearers seemed unwilling to say good bye to the fair cantatrice.

THE OUTLAWS.

Latest from the Front-Capture of the New York Herald Correspondent— He "Aint Skeerd a Bit,"—Boss Strong

When the train on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad passed Moss Neck yesterday the passengers were regaled with a sight of two of the gang of outlaws, Stephen Lowrey and Andrew Strong. They had with them, as a prisoner of war, a cor-20 Welch Tubs No. 1 Cooking Butrespondent of the New York Herald, by the name of A. B. Henderson. This ambitious knight of the quill left this city for the " seat of war" on Monday last. He went to Moss Neck and from there to Shoe Heel. He left the latter place on Tuesday, when the train passed, and was put off at " Eureks," a station in the immediate neighborhood of Scuffictown, the headquarters of the outlaws, saying that he intended to interview them if it cost him his life. This purpose he seems to have accomplished to his satisfaction, as he was with them at Moss Neck yesterday and displayed no fear or anxiety in consequence. He had in his possession a rifle belonging to one of the gang and deported himself in a manner that indicated perfect ease as to the matter of his personal safety.

We learn as one of the results of Henderson's interview with the outlaws that since his meeting with them he has neither seen or heard any mention of Henry Berry Lowrey, which would tend to confirm the rumor that he has escaped from the county, or that he was killed or drowned, as has been reported. One of the passengers on the train yesterday farnishes us with the following dispatches which were to be forwarded from this place, one to the New York Herald, one to the wife of the correspondent, Henderson, and the other to a clergyman in New Jersey, probably a relative of Henderson, which were given to the conductor by one of the outlaws:

Base Ball.

The much talked of match game of base ball comes off at the corner of Sixth and Orange streets to morrow afternoon, at 216 o'clock. These who have never witnessed a game of this character should improve the opportunity thus afforded them of seeing it played. From every indication it will be an interesting and spirited affair.

Mr. Isaac Haney has been appointed by the HarPand Bailey Club officer of the day, to preserve order on the grounds.

Brady, the United States soldier, charged with the murder of Stephen Locklear, at Souffletown, Robeson county, some time last year, and who has since been confined in the jail of this county, had his trial at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, on Friday last, and was acquitted, the jury only remaining out about five minutes.

ATMOSPHERIC POISON. The spring sun calls up something besides the flowers and grasses. It evolves from the damp earth and turbid rivers, stagnant peols and black morasses, the gaseous provocatives of disease. From the offal and garbage of unclean cities, too, it exhales an efficie desof various types are now raging with unusual virulence in various parts of the country, and there are complaints from all quarters of a singularly unhealthy spring. What is to be done in this emergency ! The answer is simple and to the point. Strengthen the body,-Weakness predisposes the system to disease. Commence at once a course of the most genial tonics, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Be assured that the germs of spidemic and endemic fevers will never infect the physique that has been fortified and regulated with this glorious vegetable resterative. A moist atmosphere aggrevates dyspepsia, and all diseases of a bilious type, and the sudden thermometrical changes common at this season, are a severe trial even to strong constitutions. There is but one way of combatting these deletations sgencies, and that is by invigorating the body, and imparting a healthy activity to all its functions. The only specific required for this purpose is Hostetter's litters. Of all vegetable tonics and alteratives, it is the purest and the best. Its medicinal ingredients include all the juices and extracts of the most approved tonic, anti-billious and antiseptic products of the Botanic Kingdom and these
