Change of Street Railway Schedule.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the schedule of the street railway has been changed to correspond with that made in the schedules of the Wilmington and Weldon and W. & A. Augusta railroads. Col. Klein also notifies the public, in connection with the regular schedule, that he will run one car hereafter until 11 o'clock each night. This arrangement will result in great convenience to the public; and as the proprietor of the line seems determined to spare no pains or expense in his efforts to please, there should be a corresponding exhibition of appreciation on the part of our citizens generally, which cannot be displayed to better advantage than by lending Col. Klein every possible encouragement. By this means he will not only be enabled to carry out his present views but can gradually extend his facilities for accommodating the public. The street cars have become to be a great institution, and one which, now that we have become so accustomed to them, it would be hard to dispense with. This being the case we hope to see more disposition on the part of our citizens to encourage the proprietor in his efforts.

In this connection we would state that Col. Klein is rapidly recovering from his long and severe illness and expects by the last of next week to give the business the benefit of his personal supervision.

Capture and Escape of a Thief.

For some time past the Master of Transportation at the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad has been missing goods from the warehouse, which were stolen and carried away at night, and the thief or thieves continued to elude the vigilance of the parties interested. Finally the matter was placed in the hands of Constable J. C. Hill, who succeeded yesterday morning in arresting one Bill Campbell, colored, in whose possession a portion of the articles stolen were found. The prisoner was delivered into the hands of a magistrate, and the preliminary examination of Campbell was to have taken place yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Constable Hill left the prisoner at the Magistrate's office and proceeded to hunt up and summon the necessary witnesses, but in the meantime, at Campbell's urgent solicitations, he was permitted to go home for the purpose of getting his breakfast, one Richard Leake, colored, being deputized to accompany him and to become responsible for his safety. The prisoner conducted himself in a becoming manner until he reached the vicinity of his home, north of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, when he suddenly broke from his guard, succeeded in reaching the swamp and at last accounts had not been recaptured.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:
Elijah Walker, charged with cursing, &c., was found not guilty and discharged at prosecutor's costs.
Richard Litgen, charged with trespass, assault and cursing Elijah Watkins, was found guilty and judgment rendered for the penalty and costs. Mayor respectfully recommended to remit the fine on the payment of costs.
John Brown, charged with stealing one ham, the property of C. W. Oldham, was found guilty and sentenced to pay the penalty and costs.
State vs. John Brown, charged with petty larceny. Ordered that when the fine and costs in the previous case be paid, or worked out, defendant be required to give security in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Concert.

A concert will be given at the Opera House on Tuesday evening next in aid of the "Ladies' Benevolent Society." The performers selected for the occasion constitute the highest order of talent and skill in the city, and all lovers of good music, whether it be vocal or instrumental, or both, may rest assured that their taste will be gratified to the fullest extent. But aside from this, the noble object to be subserved by this grand musical entertainment—to afford the Society means to aid the suffering poor of our city—should be a sufficient incentive to insure a crowded house. Reserved seats for $1, to be had at Heinsberger's Live Book Store. See advertisement for particulars.

Easter Sunday.

This day is celebrated as Easter Sunday and has always been regarded as the very queen of the highest of all the Christian festivals. The mournful season of Lent is past, the Saviour has been crucified and buried, and "now is Christ risen indeed," the first fruits of them that sleep. The name is derived from Eostre, a goddess to whom the Saxons and other ancient nations sacrificed at about this season. Paschal eggs, with colored shells, and toys in the shape of gigantic eggs, are still given to children on this day among different nations.

It is to be hoped that Mr. J. W. Spaulding, now that he has retired from the management of the Opera House, will devote his attention to getting up a good bath house for the benefit of our citizens during the heated term.

We learn that the Republican "Harmony Club" has recommended Mr. Elijah Hewlett, of Masonboro township, for the office of Register of Deeds. If he receives the nomination, how many disappointed aspirants will there be?

The County Commissioners, at their meeting on Friday night, adopted the tax bill, and appointed a Committee to examine into the condition of the parishioners at the County Poor House, with instructions to report at the next meeting of the Board.

How to Make Coffee.

Take any kind of coffee pot or urn, and suspend a bag made of felt or heavy flannel, so long that it reaches the bottom, bound on a wire fitting on top; put in the fresh ground coffee and pour on freely-boiled water. The fluid filters through the bag, and may be used at once, needs no settling and retains all its aroma. Do not boil it.

Printing Ink.

We keep a full stock of Robinson's News Ink constantly on hand. Winter ink now ready for shipment.

Shipping articles for sale at the office of the Morning Star.

College of Physicians and Surgeons.

An ingenious and skillful operation was performed at this institution on yesterday, in presence of the Faculty, by Professor H. S. Norcom, M. D., of this city, and one of the members. It was in the case of an indigent patient from Pitt county, in this State, who, disabled by a gun shot wound in the head of the thigh bone, came hither for relief, after four years of painful suffering. The ball was deeply imbedded in the bone, which could only be removed by excision and extraction. This is the first operation of an important character that has occurred there and we trust that it will be followed by many others, if they become necessary.

Our Chip Basket.

—Spring style—young lady jumping over a gate.

—Among other "sports of the ring" may be included weddings.

—Women, it is said, are self-indulgent only in the matter of dress.

—A bachelor's face is often the worse for wear—a married means for wear and tear.

—"What's in a dress?" says a popular writer—Sometimes a great deal and sometimes a precious little.

—Some people act as if their debts were like coffee, and would settle themselves in time by standing.

—Advice to husbands—settle as much money upon your wife as you can, for her second husband, poor fellow! he may not have a sixpence.

—"Have I not offered you every advantage," said a doating father to his son. "Oh yes," replied the youth, "but I could not think of taking advantage of my father."

—It was once remarked in the hearing of a little girl of 13 that all things came by chance, and that the world, like a mushroom, sprang up in a night. "I should like to know, sir," said the child, "where the seed came from?"

PLAIN WORDS FOR THE PEOPLE.

When broken down in health, strength and spirits, it is not necessary that we should ask a medical man whether an invigorant is necessary. Common sense tells us that it is. The only question to be decided is what the invigorant shall be. A standard tonic and restorative, which has been many years before the public, and in which millions of the intelligent classes repose the fullest faith, seems, in a case like this, to present the strongest claims to the confidence of the prudent invalid. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to possess these high recommendations. Its triumphant progress during a period of twenty years, its present popularity, and the uniform success which attends its use in indigestion, nervous debility, bilious complaints, fever and ague, and all ailments which depress the physical system and enervate the mind, entitle it to the rank of a standard national specific. It is regarded in that light by the community at large, and hundreds of thousands of both sexes resort to it at this season as a preventive of that numerous and harassing class of diseases which take their rise from the miasmatic winds and vapors of spring. It is a stimulant, a tonic, an alterative and a mild aperient—four essential restorative and protective elements of the materia medica—united in a single agreeable preparation. Every ingredient is vegetable, of the finest quality, and ably outlepture. Hostetter's Bitters is better known, held in greater esteem, and commands a larger sale, than any other proprietary medicine manufactured in this country or imported from abroad.
