Ine Wilmington Life. The Wilmington North Carolina Life Insurance Company has entered upon a new carrer of prosperity. Under the control and management of the experienced officers and agents who are now devoting their attention to this new out popular and flourishing institution, its course in the future cannot be otherwise than onward and upward. It will be seen by tueir advertisement in another column that the capital stock of the company is to be increased to $500,000. Its special features and advantages, as set forth in the advertisement and to which we invite the attention of our readers, are such as to make a most favorable impression. The Directors and officers are all prominent North Carolinians, noted for their integrity and superior business qualifica. tions, while all the funds of the Company are invested in this State and circulated among our own people, thus rendering it deserving of every encouragement at their hands. ### Burglary and Robbery.

The store of Mr. James Bagley, situated on Fourth, between Harnett and Davie streets, was broken open on Thursday night, between 1 and 2 o'clock, and between 150 and 200 pounds of bacon "taken and carried away." The thief entered by the front door. A white woman was sleeping in a shed adjoining the store and the noise made by the burglar in effecting an entrance awoke her. She hastened to the dwelling of Mr. Bagley, which is on the same lot, to inform him of the fact, but when Mr. B. arrived at the store the "bird had flown."

A Pleasant Affair.

A surpr se party, consisting of a number o the friends of Mr. Daniel, Kahnweiler, met at his residence on Thursday night to welcome home himself and bride. It seems that Mr. K. had some how or other got an inkling of the honor that awaited him and his lady, and the party found a sumptuous repast awaiting them, the surprise party thereby becoming the party surprised. Ample justice was done to the delicacies and refreshments under which the tables fairly grouned, after which toasts were drank, congratulatory speeches were made and many wishes expressed for long continued prosperity and happiness to host and hostess. Altogether it was an exceedingly pleasant affair and will doubtless be long remembered by those who were so fortunate as to be present.

A NEW DODGE.

A Swindler Brought to Grief. A young man by the name of Chris. Hayatt, formerly a member of the police force, was arrested by Officer N. Carr, yesterday afternoon, charged with obtaining money under false pretences. It seems that Hayatt was out of funds and finally resorted to a new "dodge" heretofore unknown in this city to "raise the wind." With this object in view he fixed up a pesitton for aid for the distressed widow and orphaned children of the late Monroe Grady, who was accidentally killed at Union Depot ever since it had an existence. So we learn on Friday of last week. Armed with this document he went the rounds of Water street and succeeded in collecting from the mer- known and prominent citizen of Wake, chants and others about $20. His success, bowever, flually caused him to lose his discretion and he commenced spending his money ite freely for liquor, oyster stews, &c., and - The city hog cart, under the superabund-

He therenpon made inquiries in regard to the alledged widow and orphans, which elicited the information that Mr. Grady had never been married and that therefore Hayatt himself was the 'widow and orphans" to whose benefit the funds were to be appropriated. He therenpon lodged complaint with Justice E. S. Woodford, who issued a warrant for his arrest, with the result already stated. The defendant, will have a hearing before Justice Woodford this morning, at 10 o'clock.
