A Tremendous Excitement.

Decidedly the most exciting event of the week transpired at the foot of Market street sesterday afternoon. The occasion of the excitement was a matter trifling in itself, but had the effect of drawing together a large the sum of $100 for his appearance before Justice Woodford yesterday. He failed, however, to make his appearance and up to late last evening he had not been heard from. We learn that there are a great many more than an effort by certain parties to get a couple of, obstinate mules on brought before the Lodge; also, work in the Esquires Degree. A full attendance is desired.
