Attempted Murder in a Church, Between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday St Patrick's Church, at the corner of Third and Mill streets, was the scene of a deed of blood which, in point of dramatic effect and weirdness, might be placed along side of some of the occurrences of mediaval times, when the Crusaders were wont to c'eave Moslem skulls one moment and perform their orisons the next.

St. Patrick's, as usual at this time of day, was crowded with a congregation of devout worshipers, who had gone thither to murmur their prayers and seek, in the sacred edifice, the consolations of religion. Prominent among the throng was to be seen a young man named Thomas Quinn, who, kneeling in the main aisle, by his devout appearance and close attention to the book in his hand, seemed to be wholly wrapt in religious revery. Suddenly, starting to his feet, he was seen to hurry to the Pledging candidates under oath, and it door. As he passed out, and while yet they perjure themselves send them to the within the porch, he met an old man named Francis Stewart, more than eighty years of age, who was tottering into the church.

Just as he was passing the old man, Quinn raised his hand, in which a knife was seen gleaming, and with a fierce stroke staboed him in the face. A stream of blood spirted from the wound, and the old man sunk to the floor. Quinn then turned and went back to the church, where he resumed his devout posture, at the same time laying his bloody knife on the husband. Cameron is now under arthe floor. While still in this position Sergeant Callahan and Officer Kunney arrested him and started with him to the Third street Police Station.

Mr. Stewart, the wounded man, was borne to his home in the neighborhood, where his wounds were dressed. They were found to consist of a long gash commencing just above the eye and running down the length of his face and a cut in the neck touching but fortunately not severing an artery. He will probably re-cover from the injuries. Quinn is undoubtedly insane. He has for two years past been in the employ of the Globe Rols ing Mill Company, and has never been intemperate. For a few days his actions have seemed strange to his fellow-laborers, but at no time was he thought to be dangerous. He did not know the victim of his assault, and afterward claimed that it was made in obedience to a higher power. At the Station House last night be Every Axe Warranted ! was engaged in reading his prayer book and affected to know nothing of the circumstances that had thrown him into a felon's cell. He will probably be taken before the Probate Judge this morning on an inquest of lunacy .- Cincinnati Enquir er, April 4th. A

Mother Dragounade-South Carolina in Chains-The Old and the Young Arrested-A Famine Threatened. NEWBERRY COURTHOUSE, S. C.,

April 2, 1872. Editors Dispatch: In a time of profound peace our community has been thrown into a state of confusion and alarm by military arrests under the alleged Ku Klux act. The work began yesterday. Up to this time sixteen arrests have been made in this county. In the adjining county of Laurens some sixty have been arrested, including many old infirm men. At this particular time the effect of these acts of the General Government will be most disastrous—the busy season has just set in-labor is uncertain -we are burdened with onerous taxes. All branches of trade and industry must under such rule stagnate. Energy will be paralyzed. The honest man who has been endeavoring to recuperate his fallen fortunes to help maintain infancy and old age, to educate the young, to meet the exorbitant demands of the State, must be ruined. And for what? Merely to gratify malice, or worse, if possible, to put gold in the pockets of officials, and there-by secure the election next fall.

Joalous Girl's Mistake. A girl of sharp wits in a Western city, discovered recently that her lover was about to take another girl to a ball. She thereupon bribed his hackman to permit her to take the reins at the proper moment, and instead of driving the pair to the ball-room, she took them several miles out of town to a dense wood, where she left them exposed to a pelting rain storm—the young lady in a low-necked muslin dress and kid slippers, and her escort in ull party toggery and thin boots. Their situation was not comfortable, but house where there happened to be an accommodating minister, and the two, besad'y brooding over her misadventure.

Reported Double Murger.

On yesterday information was received in this city of a double murder, which was reported to have occurred near Graniteville, in Edgefield county, South Carolina, on Wednesday. According to the intor-mation obtained, two gentlemen one hours, and it was thought they had been

A resident of a Georgia town attended a camp meeting recently. The first day he "got religion;" on the second the officiating clergyman preached powerfully from the text: "If thy right hand offend thee cut it off and cast it from thee." The new convert was only too ready to make a sicrifice for his faith. On his right foot were three immense corns, which ached day and night. It was a clear case, and a deltly applied razor relieved him of the offending member at once. He was found half dead from lose of blood, and if he recovers will be a cripple for life. The text in question is a dangerous one. In 1867 a Loudon fanatic quoted it as his reason for having gouged out one of his eyes, and in 1871 a crazy Pennsylvanian pleaded it as an excuse for his tolly in having chopped off all his fingers.

The New York Star pays the following ust and deserved compliment to the late

General Robert E. Lee: The same of Lee, indeed, may have been exaggerated by some of his partisans as a general, but we are at a loss to conceive what sort of a friend this can be who thus comes forward to depreciate him at a time when death has precluded all reply. It was his fate, indeed, to be ultimately defeated by Grant; when his resources were utterly exhausted; but, notwithstanding this result, we have no hesitation in saying that he may be seen that the saying that he may be seen the saying that he may be seen the saying that he may be saying the saying that he may be saying the saying that he may be saying the saying the saying the saying that he say saying the sayin ing that he was as superior to Grant as the great Napoleon was to the Duke of Wellington, though subdued by him, and that posterity will place him in the front rank of modern generals.

The following are the planks of a plat form recently adopted by the German In-"1. Election of United States Senators by the popular vote. 2. One term principle for Presidents. 3. Reservation of the publie domain for actual settlers, 4. Civil service reform. 5. New international policy. 6. The amelioration of the condition of the workers. 7. General amnesty. 8. penitentiary. 9. Against future subsidies 10. Abolition of protection tariffs."

Another Virginia Poisoning Case. A despatch from Harrisonburg, Va. 31st -ultimo, to the Alexandria (Va.) Gazette, says: "A coroner's inquest was held yesterday and to day on the body of Mrs. John Cameron, at Mt. Crawford, in rest and will undergo an examination."

Baltimore Lock Hospital. DR. JOHNSON.

Physician of this celebrated Institution, discovered, when in the Great Hospitals of Europe, viz: England, France and elsewhere, the certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all excesses or abuses of the system.

Weakness of the Fack or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Lisorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—shorer and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting, their most brilliant hopes or anti-ipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible, destroying both tody and mine.

YOUNG MEN

YOUNG MEN Especially, who have become the victims of sontary vice, that greadful and destrictive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening senates with the thunders of elequence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Power (Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic & eakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places nimself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously conflice in his honor as a gentieman, and confidently rely upon his skill and physician. as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately Cured and full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the senaity paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too aptic commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands this subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those lailing into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pieasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symploms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Lough, Consumption, Decay and Death.
