Body Identified.

It has been ascertained that the dead body found near Leesburg on Monday, the 10th inst. and which could not be identified at the time the Coroner's inquest was held, is that of Duncau Parker, a well known colored man of this city, but formerly a resident of Fayetteville. He went on the steamer Northeast as sort of pilot and left the boat, which had grounded in the river near Leesburg, stating that he felt he was going to be sick and that he should make his way to the station and take the train for home. Deceased was a shoemaker by trade and a very worthy man. He was about 80 years of age.

Wealey Parker and Charles Atkins, the former a trother of the deceased, left here last night for the purpose of bringing the remains to this city. They are expected to arrive at the depot with the body at 11% o'clock, from whence it will be taken to Pine Forest Cometery. The friends and acquaintances of deceased are requested to be present.

Supreme Court. We learn from the Raleigh papers that the Court delivered opinions in the following cases on Monday:

By Psanson, C. J.
Sol. W. Nash, et al., vs. W. & W. R. R. Co.,
from New Hanover. No error—judgment

State w. John Brown, from Robeson, Error Cannon, Stokley & Co., w. H. H. Robin-sou et al., from New Hanover. No error-

Bool. Rush of al., or. Haleyon Steamboat Company, from Camberland. No error—judgment afficmed. J. D. Williams et al., vs. H. A. Monroe, from Camberland. No error—judgment affirmed.

BY BOYDEN, J. State vs. Needbam Fordle et al., from Bladen. No error-judgment affirmed.

The Tribute.
We have received the first number of The Tribune, a weekly paper just issued by H. H. Helper, Esq., at Salisbury and to be devoted to the cause of Liberal Republicanism and Reform in North Carolina. The Editor's salutatory says it will labor with all its ener gies to secure the election of Greeley and Brown, and those candidates who may be their supporters. It is neatly printed, is filled with interesting and important matter and will doubtless be a valuable auxiliary to the good cause in this State. Among other attractions it contains a very correct likeness of Horace Greeley, the next President of the United States. The Tribune will be furnished to sub-scribers at $3 a year.

A friend, writing as from Whiteville, Colum-Ricken's cotton farm on the 15th inst., and saw several forms and one or two full opened blooms. He has about 35 or 40 acres planted in cotton, which is in a fine condition. His corn and potato crops are also very good. Mr. McRacken is one of the lise members of the Columbus Agricultural Society and if nothing happens to his crop be expects to compete with our best farmers at our next annual Fair.

Cotton,
We received yesterday, through Col. E. R.
Liles, two stalks of cotton, which he informs us were taken from a field of 40 acres on the plantation of Lir. T. B. Britt, near Lilewille, the plant averaging "half thigh high." Mr. Britt has 800 seres in option, all of which is fine, as the specimen furnished us would indicate.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1872.

-The County Commissioners meet this

- The fish market was almost bare yesterday afternoon. - The Wilmington Commandery, Knights

l'emplar, will have a meeting this evening. - "Dolly [Varden potatoes, at 25 cents a peck," is a sign in front of a store on Market

- Our "Commercial" returns his thanks to Messrs. Parker & Taylor for the present of a match safe.

- The Friendship Temple of Honor and Temperance will have a meeting this evening for work in the degrees.

- There was no session of the City Court yesterday, Acting Mayor Brink being unable to "scare up" a solitary case.

- The owner of a small coral hand, dropped at the Acdaemy of Music last night, can get the same by applying at this office.

- The Knights of Pythias have received a handsome carpet for their new Hall, costing $300, which was being put down yesterday.

- The 36th monthly meeting of the Wilmington Building Association will be held at the Commercial Exchange this (Wednesday)

- The new Hook and Ladder Company had 1 P. M., from 3% to 7 P.IM., and from 8 to 10 a meeting Monday night, but, without transacting any business, adjourned until Tuesday night next.

- A train will leave here on Saturday evening to convey the colored Masons of this city to Charleston, wherea grand jubilee is to come off on Monday. - The annual examination of the Tileston Normal School, under the supervision of Miss Amy M. B. sdley, will take place on Wednesday next, the 26th inst. - "Why are drunkards like the Radicals in the coming Gubernatorial election? Because they want their 'Tod.'" At last accounts the perpetrator of the above was still at large.

- Our city agents were later than usual in delivering their papers yesterday morning, caused by the sickness of our pressman, which acessitated the substitution of a person no familiar with the duties.

- A number of gentlemen of this city will hold a meeting on Friday evening next for the purpose of forming a Chess Club. The meeting will take place at the rooms of the Library Association at 814 o'clock.

- Delegates to the Republican County Convention, which is to be held at Rocky Point on Saturday, the 29th inst., will be appointed tomorrow. The township meetings will be held at 12 M., and the Ward meetings at 8:30 P. M.

- We are requested to state that the place of electing Republican delegates in the Third Ward has been changed from the Armory Room to the headquarters of the Grant and Wilson Club, on Princess, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets.

- A monster owl, measuring about four feet from tip to tip, fell to the ground in the middle of Market street, near the corner of Front, last night. It was quickly surrounded by a crowd, who succeeded in capturing the immense bird.

-The annual musical entertainment and commencement exercises of Hillsboro' Female Seminary takes place on Thursday, the 27th inst. The programme is an exceedingly attractive one, and among the names mentioned we notice those of eight young ladies from

- Our readers must not forget that the Wil nington Burlesque Theatrical Troupe will render the amusing and exciting Burlesque entitled "The Swamp Angels, or The Lowrey Bandits of North Carolina," at the Opera House on Thursday night. They should have a rousing house.

- An alligator, about six feet in length, was landed at the wharf foot of Chesnut street yesterday afternoon. His alligatorship was captured by a colored man a short distance up the Northeast river, who fastened him securely with a rope so he could do no damage and brought him to the city in his cance.

-Mr. W. D. Paice, the "Lightning Calculator," is stopping at the National Hotel. He is agent for a book of that name, and will give practical demonstrations of its usefulness on our streets during the week. Mr. Price is a crippled Confederate soldier and is deserving of consideration at the hands of our citizens.

Her talent as displayed in her readings and recitations is of the highest order, while to her many accomplishments, literary and otherwise, is added the graceful demeanor of a polished lady and a personal appearance which attracts the admiration of all who see and hear her. Among other testimonials of appreciation of which she was the recipient last night was the present of a number of handsome boquets which were thrown upon the stage. Miss Patterson takes her departure this morning.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

- Chills are shaking the Raleigh-

- Raleigh is to have a social

The Raleigh News now has an afternoon issue. - Greeley stock is running high

- Excursions to the mountains are all the rage in Western N. C. - Judge Merrimon leaves Raleigh to-day for a campaign in the West.

- The Sentinel says the crops from Raleigh to Trinity College are promising. The wheat crop turns out well. - A man named McDowell, of Macon county, is the father of twenty-seven children and is 76 years of age. -- Mr. Lacy Phillips, an old and prominent citizen of Newbern, died on the 16th inst., after a lingering illness, aged 64 years, - A moneyed "rad" of Raleigh is rash enough to bet that Merrimon will not receive 10,000 majority in the State. The lunatic asylum is crowded. - Brasley Mules, living in the eastern part of Mecklenburg county, cut wheat all day on Monday and was found dead in his bed the same night about 12 o'clock. - The Raleigh Sentinel says It is said that the proposed new Methodist Church is to cost $40,000, and will be located at the corner of Hargett and Salisbury streets, opposite to the residence of Mrs. Taylor. — The Charlotte Democrat says: John T. Schenck, colored, Mail Agent on the A., T. & O. Railroad, was arrested in Statesville on Saturday morning last on the charge of concealing stolen tobacco. The tobacco was found in his possession.

- It may not be generally known. says the Charlotte Democrat, that a sister (Hannah) of the great Daniel Boone, the pioneer of Kentucky, is living in Caldwell county, N. C. She has remarkably good health, is now eighty-five years old, and bids fair to reach a hundred.

- The Charlotte Southern Home says: Our exchanges from all parts of the South tell of the splendid crop of wheat. Gen. Wm. Neel, of this county, who has been a farmer for fifty-three years and the owner of a merchant flouring mil for forty years, says that there have been some larger yields in this section, but the quality is superior to any he has ever

- Speaking of Hon. A. W. Ven-able, the Raleigh News says: This distined citizen of Granville, is at on a visit to his son, Col. T. B. Venable. of Oxford. He still retains much of his former bouyancy of spirit, yet the infirmities of age are visibly evident in his appearance. He has recently been on a visit to the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, of Warren. We are credibly informed that both of these gentlemen are supporters of Horace Greeley for President.

- The Statesville Intelligencer — What should a man take with him when calling upon his affianced? Affection in his heart, perfection in his manners, and confection in his pocket.

— Twenty-six young ladies, pupils of the Normal University of Ohio, petitioned the faculty for leave of absence to attend the Cincinnati Convention. They desired to vote for Judge Davis.

— The Statesville Intelligencer says: During last week, Baldy Gaither and George Graham, colored, both implicated in the murder of Miss Margaret Seamon, were brought out before Hon. And derson Mitchell, under a writ of habeas corpus, and after hearing a large amount of evidence, were both recommitted for trial at the next term of the Superior Court.
