Green Corn Muffs. Boil a dozen ears of green corn, and when cold graze it off as for pudding; beat six eggs and stir gradually into a quart of milk; stir in the grated corn until you have a moderately thick batter; then add a little salt; place your muffin rings on a hot griddle and nearly fill them with the batter; bake quickly, and eat hot with butter.

Change of Books. The new registration which was made a few months ago, it will be remembered, was for a city election, the selection of Aldermen. The election in August will be for State and county officers and our friends must bear in mind that different registration books will be used.
