Weather Report.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, July 26—4:35 P. M.
Probabilities.

The low barometer now in New England move to-night of the coast of Maine with continued rain along the immediate coast, and east and southerly winds, clear and clearing weather on the upper lakes, with diminishing northern winds and thence southward to the Ohio and Mississippi valleys; partly cloudy weather and southerly winds on the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts, with possibly continued rain on the latter.

THE CITY.
NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
J. A. WORTH.—Sale of N. C. Presbyterian. Last Infant's Gold Armlet.
J. C. STEVENSON.—Notice to Tea Drinkers.
W. J. RIVERS.—For County Commissioner.

Condon's Stand It.
A very worthy colored man stated yesterday that he had been opposed to the Manning party and expected to vote the Rocky Point ticket, but at the same time he wished to hear what Price and others had to say and went to the meeting Thursday night for that purpose. When he got there, however, and found what a scene was being enacted—men denied the freedom of speech by their opponents and rudely assailed because they dared to have and express opinions of their own, he determined henceforth to have nothing to do with such a party. He further said that he went to the meeting a Grant Republican and left it with the firm determination to cast his vote for Horace Greeley.

Large Melons.
Mr. I. H. Brown, of Lillington, in this county, writes: "The farmers on our section need not boast of their large watermelons any longer, as the soil in the town of Lillington is equal to that of the South, if not superior. I have just weighed a 'mountain sweet,' raised by Mr. L. M. Charles, of this town, which weighed 40 pounds, measured 4 feet in circumference and 14 inches in diameter. This melon was raised from a vine without any manure, but the soil was naturally adapted to melons, being a rich sandy loam. Persons wishing to obtain seed can get a few by application to Mr. Charles."

Intimidation.
We learn that the Committee on Law and Order, appointed at the late meeting of the Liberal Republican Club, have the names of several who were conspicuous in trying to muzzle the freedom of speech by threats of personal violence, etc., in front of the Market House on Thursday night, and that they intend to bring the matter before the Federal Court at its next session in this city. The penalty for such conduct, upon conviction, is four years in the penitentiary, coupled with a heavy fine. Look out!

A assault with a tumbler.
We learn from a gentleman who was present and witnessed the affair, that James Heaton, one of the Republican candidates for the House of Representatives from this county, entered the Germania Saloon, corner of Front and Dock streets, last night, and, without any provocation, made a furious assault upon Mr. Smith, the bar-keeper, striking him on the head with a tumbler and inflicting a severe wound. Such demonstrations as this will not add to Mr. Heaton's popularity in the community. There were a number of peaceably disposed persons in the saloon at the time, who were naturally very much shocked at the occurrence.

Petition for Remuneration.
We were shown yesterday, a petition, which is to be signed by the Registrars in the several wards and laid before the Board of County Commissioners, at their next meeting, praying that suitable compensation be allowed them for the performance of the duty assigned them in addition to the three cents a name which is provided by law.—Nearly all the Registrars are men of families, and, as they cannot follow their usual avocations while acting as such, we hope the petition will meet with the favorable consideration of the Board.

Philomathian Society.
At a meeting of the Philomathian Literary Society, held last evening, the following young gentlemen were elected to serve for the ensuing term:
President, J. M. Cronly.
Vice President, T. W. Meares.
Secretary, W. L. Smith, Jr.
Treasurer, J. G. Bradley.
Supervising Commissioner, M. S. Willard, W. L. Smith, Jr., W. G. Mand.
Finance Committee—J. G. Bradley, I. N. Carr, C. M. VanOrsdell.
The Society numbers twenty-six members and is in a flourishing condition.

Col. Waddell.
We are requested by Col. Waddell to state that he was unwell and broken down with fatigue the day of his appointment at Sandy Run. He however intended going, but at the last moment was disappointed in procuring the vehicle he had engaged, when it was too late to secure another.

Sweet pickles.
Twelve pounds of fruit, six pounds of sugar, and one quart of elder vinegar, cloves and cinnamon. Let the fruit boil in above until soft; take out, put carefully on a dish, let the sugar boil down, then put on fruit again and boil a few minutes; fill jars and seal with glass paper dipped in white of egg.

Local News.
— Register and vote.
— Only five more days in which to register.
— Mebane & James' ice cool soda water was delightfully refreshing yesterday.
— Go at once and see if your name is properly entered upon the registration books.
— The candidates on the Manning ticket had a meeting in Federal Post Township yesterday.
— Registration in the Second Ward, up to yesterday evening, footed up 33 whites and 35 colored.
— In the sub-division of the First Ward registration footed up yesterday evening a total of 83 whites and 283 colored.
— We learn that the name of that part of the seacoast now known as Middle Sound has been changed to Greenville.
— We learn that Mr. W. S. Benjamin, Registrar in the First Ward, has been relieved, and Mr. Nich. VanSolen appointed in his place.
— A good shower of rain was anxiously looked for yesterday, but failed to put in an appearance. It is getting very dry and dusty.
— The third quarterly meeting for Fifth street M. E. Church commences to-day. Services this morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Closs.

— Hon. O. P. Meares and Col. E. D. Hall, of this city, will address a grand Conservative mass meeting at Kenansville, Duplin County, on Tuesday next.
— It will be seen by reference to our State News column that Hon. Carl Schurz's appointments at other places in the State will preclude his addressing our fellow citizens before the election.
— The thermometer in the City Hall, one of the most thermometric localities in the city, indicated 97 degrees at 3 P. yesterday M., showing that it was decidedly the warmest day of the season.
— Pool's infamous circular, "Read and Circulate," is being distributed in this section. This slanderous document is being sent throughout the State under the frank of Senator Pool.

THE PIOUS POW-WOW.
Fred Douglas, Langston and Smith.
At the Radical meeting at City Hall last night, James A. Lowrey was appointed Chairman, with a long list of Vice Presidents. The Chairman introduced Fred Douglas, the noted colored orator, but Fred was too hoarse and weak to speak. It was announced that he would address his friends and the public this evening, when he should feel recuperated from his indisposition and fatigue.
One Smith, a colored Demagogue from Washington, was introduced and made a dry, prosy, sanctimonious talk, in which he didn't touch the North Carolina election one time, but did in preacher's parlance tell his auditors to "seek the Lord." This burst of blasphemy called forth some little laughter.

John M. Langston was the next orator. We heard Langston's opening remarks and a portion of the rest of the speech, but the jam on the steps was so great we lost some of it. He is a good speaker, his principal fault being a tendency to verbosity. He is a bright hued mulatto, which fact he seemed to be proud of, as he mentioned it. Langston talked about parties, Grant and Greeley, government, etc., his speech being far above the capacity of his colored auditors. He tried ingeniously to prove that the Democratic party is dead, and had gone over to the Democrats. At a late hour we left Langston speaking to a considerable thinned out audience.
The addresses were pitched in too high a key for the crowd, and did not seem to excite the wanted enthusiasm. The pliers part of the performance, however, seemed to take, as some of the poor colored people did not appreciate the sanctimoniousness of introducing the Divine name and functions into common political use. There were probably five hundred persons out, mostly colored. The meeting was conducted in an orderly manner.

A New Dodge.
We learn from the most undoubted authority that Capt. E. M. Shoemaker, one of the Radical County Commissioners, called on the Registrar of the sub-division of the First Ward, yesterday, and directed him to take the old Registration books and transfer therefrom all the names of persons in the precinct who have not already registered to the new book he is now using. It will be remembered that, on account of the fact that the First Ward has been divided into two separate precincts, an entire new registration is necessary. The old registration, therefore, is not to be taken into consideration, but every voter in the two precincts of the First Ward has to re-register before he can vote. Capt. Shoemaker, however, wants the Registrar to copy all the names from the old books of voters residing North of the centre of Blades and Moore streets, which constitutes the sub-division of the First Ward, and who have not already registered, into the new book, and we suppose the same direction has been given to the Registrar in the other precinct. This is a new dodge of the Radicals and one that should be looked into by the Conservative challengers at once.

Improvements.
We learn that it is proposed at an early day to erect two one-story brick fire-proof offices on the vacant lot adjoining the Court House on the east, to be used respectively by the Judge of Probate and the Register of Deeds. The march of improvement is steadily onward.

Mayor's Court.
The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:
Robert W. Starks, charged with disorderly conduct. Case dismissed.
Harriet Price, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged on the payment of costs.

— Hon. Carl Schurz is on his way to North Carolina. He will speak at Greensboro on the 27th, Charlotte on the 29th, Concord on the 30th, Company Shops on the 30th.

— A gentleman writing from Mitchell county, to the Citizen says: Mr. Wilson Burlison, Jr., who lived about four miles from Bakersville, was killed by lightning on last Wednesday. It seems that he had started to put his mare and colt in the pasture, near his house, when his wife, hearing the clap of thunder, went out and found him and his mare and colt all there lying dead.

— At the last term of the Federal Court that met in Raleigh, says the Sentinel, there were fourteen hundred and odd indictments against the Ku Klux. Of these only six were tried. Fourteen hundred were continued, and for what? The answer is patent to all—that they might have the indictments held over them as a threat that if they voted against Caldwell and his party they should be prosecuted and punished. It is vote for Caldwell or go to the penitentiary.

— Under the head of "Importing Voters," the Salisbury Watchman says: It is said on good authority that the Reds are now engaged in bringing negroes from South Carolina and Virginia into this State for the purpose of carrying the election. The Greeley Patriot says over three hundred have been brought into Guilford county alone from various parts of the country. We understand that there are about sixty strange negro votes registered in this Township. They have been brought here to vote and they will do it, unless our people are constantly on the look out.

A Diabolical Radical Attempt to Drive Women of Their Rights—White Men of Nash, Vitandants and Avenge Your Outraged Neighbors at the Ballot.
Charles T. Burford, a Virginian by birth, married a daughter of Robert Griffin, a citizen of Nash, and settled among us several years since. He is one of us. Some time ago he applied for license to retail, between this point and the Falls to the United States Revenue Department. C. D. Upchurch, Deputy Collector, told him to "go ahead, his license would be all right." He sold liquor a short while and stopped. Upchurch never asked him for the money, though he stood willing and ready to pay, until two weeks since at Smith's store at the Falls. Burford replied, "very good, I'll pay you at Rocky Mount this evening." Upchurch did not meet the appointment.
Last Thursday the infamous detective, Banks, came down and arrested Burford, had a short talk with him, and told him "if he'd vote for Caldwell and the Radical ticket, he might go home and stay there."
Banks also summoned as witnesses G. W. Smith, I. W. Bass, Harry Dancy, all

Conservative citizens, to go to Raleigh at once.
These men swear "they don't know anything about it; didn't know he ever kept liquor or a shop."
Burford don't deny selling, and is ready to pay the license. Then why get Conservatives to go to Raleigh as witnesses just on the eve of election, who don't know anything about it, when he confesses it, and when any number of negroes do know something about the matter.
Freemen, will you see your course of justice converted into political engines to oppress your brothers and neighbors?
We can count twelve votes this outrage has made for the cause of honesty.—Rocky Mount Mail.

Death of Hon. A. H. Arrington.
Archibald Hunter Arrington breathed his last at his residence, near Hillsboro, Nash county, on Saturday, the 20th inst. Mr. Arrington had been in delicate health for a long time, and everything that medical skill, and the attentions of friends could do to alleviate his sufferings and prolong his life, was done.
He was sixty-two years of age at the time of his death. He was twice married. His first wife was Mary Arrington, and his second was Kate Wimberly, both of whom he survived. He leaves eight children, who have the deepest sympathy of this whole community.
Among the distinguished sons of Carolina, who have worked for her prosperity and welfare, and whose lives have been eminent for shining virtues, both public and private, the name of A. H. Arrington will occupy a conspicuous position. In his death, Nash county, where he was born and raised, has sustained the loss of her most highly honored and distinguished citizen, and North Carolina, his native and beloved State to which he was devoted with all the affections of a true son, has given up one of her truest and best.

In all the high and responsible positions to which Mr. Arrington has been called by his people, he has always been true to his principles, his pledges, and his honest convictions. At a very early age he was elected to the United States Congress from the Raleigh District and subsequently represented the Newbern District, defeating Hon. Edward Stanly, recently deceased, in one of the hottest contested campaigns, perhaps, every known in the State.
Mr. Arrington was a member of the Convention of 1861, and was sent as a delegate from this District to the Peace Convention in Philadelphia soon after the war. He represented this District in the Confederate Congress and while in Richmond was especially distinguished for his kindness to the soldiers, whose calls on him were never slighted.—Battleground Advertiser.

On Everybody's Tongue—Eulogiums of the great National Regenerator of Health, Pleasanton, Ky., are on everybody's tongue. This gratuitous viva voce advertising is better than all the paid puffing to which the owners of bogus bitters are obliged to resort. It has a spontaneousness about it which carries conviction to the mind of the auditor. But it is a well known fact that the proprietors of the Pleasanton Bitters have never relied upon newspaper bolstering to establish the success of a preparation which owes its astonishing popularity mainly to the testimony of thousands who have either experienced or seen the eye-witness of the immense physical good it has wrought throughout the length and breadth of the land.
