THE CITY.

RE-ADVERTISEMENTS. E. D. HALL, Agent.—Drawing To-night. VICK & MEBANE.—Direct Line.

Accident at Rockingham—A Swindling Concern.

During a performance of Deerfoot & Pierce's Indian Show at Rockingham, Richmond county, on Saturday last, the seats suddenly gave way and came down with a crash, precipitating the crowd to the ground.

We learn that two of the Indians belonging to the Company deserted at Shoe Heel, and it is reported that they expressed the intention of joining the outlaws in the swamps of Robeson county.

Since writing the above we have received the following: SHOE HEEL, N. C., Aug. 9th, 1872.

Dear Sir—The greatest humbug of the age exhibited here yesterday under the name of Deerfoot & Pierce's Indian Show.

Resisting an Officer.

Yesterday, between 12 and 1 o'clock, two colored men, named respectively Sandy Campbell and Melver, were engaged in cursing and quarreling on the street in front of the National Hotel when Officer Wilson of the police force approached and ordered them to move on and stop their noise.

An Accident and its Consequences.

We learn that H. E. Scott, Esq., Superintendent of the County Poor House, met with quite an accident on Saturday evening last. He was in the act of placing a rail on the fence when he accidentally stepped into an old well, which was overgrown with grass and weeds.

To Merchants, Mechanics and Others.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE. CAPE FEAR AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION, Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 12, 1872.

Personal.

The Charleston papers record the death of Mr. J. S. Bean, a printer by trade, but who relinquished the business sometime since and commenced merchandizing.

The Carolina Farmer.

The Richmond Evening News says: William H. Bernard, a native of Richmond, is editor and publisher of this admirably conducted farmer's vade mecum.

Local Dots.

Keep cool! Ex-Mayor Martin has returned. — Shrimps were plentiful in market yesterday.

Get a ticket in the drawing to come off this evening. — Right Rev. Bishop Atkinson was in Charlotte Saturday.

The sickly season is approaching. Clean up your lots and cellars. — A gentleman from Anson informs us that the crops in that section are splendid.

We were glad to meet our old friend Col. E. R. Liles, of Anson, in our sanctum yesterday.

There is a letter in the Columbia, S. C. postoffice directed to "O. G. Parsley, North Carolina."

Messrs. Vick & Mebane give notice that the British barquentine George Booth, of the direct line, Capt. Duncan master, will have quick dispatch for Liverpool.

No chance for Greeley! Collector Rumley authorizes us to say, positively and emphatically, that he is for Grant. Mr. Greeley will please retire to the shades of Chappaqua!

Two colored women, names unknown, had a savage encounter in Brooklyn yesterday morning, and a gentleman who witnessed the affair says they "made the fur fly" for a few moments.

A little scuffle occurred between a party of colored men near the corner of Eighth and Chesnut streets, late yesterday afternoon, but through the interference of bystanders it was "nipped in the bud."

To Mr. F. M. James, of this city, we are indebted for the first scuppernon grapes of the season, and nice ones they were. By the way, Mr. James was the first in the market with this delicious fruit last season.

The city has been a little disorderly for several days and nights past. We hope to see an improvement in this respect. Let Wilmington preserve her reputation as being the most orderly city of its size in the country.

Our City Agents have been unavoidably late in delivering their papers for a week or two past. This was caused by the fact that some of our press machinery got out of order, which necessitated the sending to Baltimore for new material, and in the meantime the press has to be worked by hand.

The following are the official reports from Yancey and Stokes counties, as forwarded to the STAR by the Register of Deeds of the respective counties:

YANCEY. Merrimon, 503; Caldwell, 372. For Congress—Vance, 334; Condlor, 305. For the Senate—Florence, Cons., 594; Gudge, Cons., 470; Moore, Rep., 465; Craig, Rep., 264. For the House—Byrd, Cons., 393; Proffitt, Cons., 332; Ray, Rep., 146.

STOKES. Merrimon, 903; Caldwell, 830. For Congress—Leach, Cons., 924; Settle, Rep., 875. For the Senate—Stafford, Cons., 901; Nisson, Rep., 798. For the House—Mitchell, Cons., 906; Tucker, 791. The Conservative county candidates were all elected by small majorities.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board met yesterday at 12 M. It was ordered that upon the presentation of certificate, signed by Commissioner Heyer, that the work has been performed on the bridge at Point Caswell and that it has been done according to contract, the Chairman is authorized to issue an order on the Treasurer for the first installment.

E. Schulken was granted license to retail spirituous liquors in this city. The Board took a recess until 10 1/2 A. M. on Wednesday.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning: Fannie Turner, charged with assaulting Mand Stewart with a hammer, was found guilty and fined $20 and the costs; also required to give bond in the sum of $200 for her appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

George Hall, charged with disorderly conduct. Prosecutor required to pay the costs. J. P. Brown, charged with disorderly conduct, was required to pay the costs.

George Davis, charged with disorderly conduct. Prosecutor required to pay the costs. Mary Moritt, charged with being drunk on the streets, was fined $3 and the costs.

George Scott, charged with being drunk on the streets. Judgment for the costs. Charles Bannerman, charged with larceny. Case dismissed.

A colored youth whose name we are requested to withhold, charged with disorderly conduct. Judgment for costs.

Another colored youth whose name we are requested to suppress, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2 and 20c.

The Bar and River Improvements.

It is a matter of no little concern to our business community and to the interests of our people generally, that no facilities have been afforded the Committee on Bar and River Improvements, for two or three months past, to visit the works and give to the Chamber of Commerce, as had previously been the case, a monthly statement of the condition and progress of the work, with such other information as the Chairman of the committee might see proper to lay before them, and through them the public. It is unfortunate that such is the case, and it is very important that our people should be kept advised in relation to the works, and we hope Capt. Phillips, the Assistant Engineer in charge, will endeavor to facilitate matters in this respect.

—What lady is fond of giving? Jennie Rossity.

The Drawing.

The grand drawing for the benefit of a Charity Hospital in this city, under the auspices of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, comes off at the Opera House this evening, at 8 1/2 o'clock.

Tickets will be disposed of throughout the day and also up to and during the continuance of the drawing. Music has been provided for the occasion and every arrangement made to insure a pleasant time to all. An invitation is extended to everybody to be present.

Those who have not secured tickets in this important benevolent scheme should do so at once. Last chance!

A Correspondent on His Travels.

We had a call yesterday from Mr. Z. L. White, correspondent of the New York Tribune. Mr. White is an able writer, a talented gentleman and a warm friend of the South and of Southern people.

He visits the State for the purpose of ascertaining something about our political status and we bespeak for him the kind attentions of our brethren of the press and others.

Our Chip Basket.

—What lady is used to war? Millie Tary. —Physicians recommend ladies to form walking clubs. This is a matter in which steps should be taken.

—An editor says he once partook of a beverage so strong that he could not tell whether it was brandy or a torchlight procession going down his throat.

—We've heard of a secret which was so big that it required all the women in town to keep it, and then they could not so without the help of their husbands.

—A Connecticut editor says: "Our early peas came up in two days after they were planted this year. Anybody's will if the hens are allowed to run in the garden."

—Copper-toed fans are sold for the benefit of young ladies who have no one to love, and who chew the stuffing out of any other kind in one evening when a hop is in progress.

—A gentleman advertised for a wife and received answers from eighteen hundred and ninety-seven husbands saying he could have theirs. This is given as an illustration of the value of advertising.

—A young merchant, who is trying to struggle along in a falsely economical way, took a class in a Sunday school recently. During the progress of the lesson, he asked, "What is solitude?" and was visibly disturbed when a miserable boy promptly answered, "The store that don't advertise."

The indestructible Tag is a great convenience to merchants. It answers the combined purpose of a direction label and business card. Call at the STAR Printing and Publishing House and supply yourself.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

—Crops promising everywhere. —The Raleigh Greeley club has over 100 members.

—Game—the last issue of the Shelby Banner. —It is proposed to form a Greeley and Brown Club in Goldsboro.

—Crops excellent in Fayetteville and vicinity, according to the Eagle. —The Eagle urges a move for the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad.

—Every mail brings to us reports of election frauds from every section of the State. —The grand Raleigh demonstration in honor of our victory takes place next Friday night.

—Newton Chandler, sentenced for rape, died on the gallows in Charlotte Friday, confessing his crime. —The fraud in Craven county is clear enough to throw out the entire vote before any jury, it is said.

—A friend from Lexington telegraphs the Sentinel that Willie Leach, reported killed, is likely to recover from his injuries. —Says the Raleigh News: Over 100 negroes from Virginia are reported as having voted at Townsville (Granville county) box.

—It turns out that the negro Young reported killed in Franklin county at the election was killed in a dispute while loading hay. —The young Senator elect from Rowan and Davie, Charles Price, Esq., is a native of Warren and is a "self-made" man, says the Raleigh News.

—The election returns in Craven were not publicly proclaimed, as the law requires, by the Tuesday after the election. Away goes the Craven vote. —Hunt up all cases of fraud, intimidation or bribery and report to Hon. Daniel M. Barringer, Chairman Democratic Conservative State Central Committee, Raleigh, N. C.

—Swain, Cherokee and other Western counties had no Rad. printed tickets and it is thought that only Caldwell was voted for on the State ticket; that will help us, doubtless, in the final count. —The Messenger is glad to learn that Messrs. I. F. Dortch, G. W. Best and T. B. Hyman, of Wayne, C. S. Wooten, of Lenoir, R. E. Edmunson, of Greene, Dean Hicks, of Duplin, and H. C. Lee, of Sampson, are among the assistant marshals appointed for the approaching Fair at Goldsboro.

—The Charlotte Observer learns that a difficulty occurred Friday on the farm of Dr. Bratton, in that county, between two negroes (names unknown) in regard to a quarrel between their children at school, when one of the disputants shot the other dead. —It is a common street rumor,
