METEOROLOGICAL RECORD. August 15, 1872. Table with columns: Time, Barometer, Thermometer, Wind, Weather.

North—All barometric readings are reduced to the sea-level and to 32 degrees Fahrenheit. Weather Report: Northern winds and clear weather prevail on Friday over the New England and Middle States.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Munson & Co.—Fine White shirts. Mrs. C. H. BARNARD—Notice.

Fire at Masonboro Sound. We regret to learn that the residence of Mr. Duncan M. Bryan, at Masonboro Sound, about seven miles from this city, commonly known as the Daniel Baker house, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

The Radical Jollification—Other Outrages. We have learned of other outrages perpetrated while the Radical procession was on its march Wednesday night, which shows the lawless spirit which characterized many who were either in the procession or following it.

Another white man who happened to be near, and it is said to make peace, and save this man from danger. They knocked him down and beat him. Some two more soon came when the negroes scattered or went on to join the procession.

Official Returns. The following official returns, forwarded to the State by the Registers of Deeds, have come to hand: TRENELL—Merrimac, 391; Caldwell, 347.

MORNING STAR.

Local News.

Several heavy showers of rain visited this city and vicinity yesterday. All the big prizes in the Charity Hospital scheme are yet to be drawn. Maj. J. A. Engelhard, of the Journal, is at the Sparkling Gate Springs.

History of the German Settlements and of the Lutheran Church in North and South Carolina. We have received, with the compliments of the author, Rev. G. D. Bernheim, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of this city, a handsome volume of 537 pages bearing the above title.

Mayor's Court. The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of Benjamin Williams, colored, charged with larceny, who was required to give bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the City Post Office, August 15, 1872. A—Charlie Ash, Isreal Martin, care George Aaron.

The Riot in Fayetteville. We had received some few particulars of the riot in Fayetteville on Monday night, on the occasion of the Radical jollification there, but as they were somewhat indefinite and conflicting, we preferred to wait fuller and more reliable particulars, which we give below from the Eagle.

The Radical torchlight and jollification meeting Monday night turned almost into a negro riot. It seems some of the most disgraceful and brutal acts were perpetrated at the dead hour of midnight. No one expected any row or danger and nearly all the citizens had retired to sleep.

Another white man who happened to be near, and it is said to make peace, and save this man from danger. They knocked him down and beat him. Some two more soon came when the negroes scattered or went on to join the procession.

Our Chimp Basket. Faces and water—girls in bathing. To dispel darkness from about you, make light of your troubles. A pleasant kind of husbandry—Removing a widow's weeds.
