

Wilson spoke at Lancaster. — Heavy frosts at the Northwest. — Yorkes and Marcer, friends of Hartrauf, in the Penitentiary for embezzling, were released upon the Governor's pardon.

TOO THIN. — Yesterday evening the Governor of Pennsylvania released from the Penitentiary two notorious embezzlers of public funds. These men, Marcer and Yorkes, are pets of Auditor General Hartrauf and are said to be partners in his "addition, division and silence."

The whole thing is too thin, and Hartrauf is not yet vindicated from the charges against him of corruption.

The Chairman of the Executive Committee of Stokes county, W. W. King, Esq., is a working man. He has already organized fourteen Greeley and Brown clubs. It is said that our cause is gaining ground in Stokes.

THE CASE OF RAMSOUR. — The case of young Ramsour, of Cleveland county, confined on a sentence of eight years in the Albany Penitentiary, as a Ku Klux, is fully stated in the letter below, from Professor Taylor, of Wake Forest College. The statements of Professor Taylor, wherever he is known, will command implicit belief. The letter was written to the editor of the Religious Herald, of Richmond, Virginia.

DEAR BRO. DICKINSON: I desire to lay before the readers of the Herald a plain statement of facts in regard to the arrest, trial and conviction of a young man who was last year a student at this place. In doing this I have a two-fold object: First, to enable thinking Christian men in all sections of our country to form an idea in regard to the operations of the Ku Klux Klan. Second, to lead men of influence to use such means as may result in the release of this unfortunate youth.

About last Christmas, Mr. D. S. Ramsour, a student of seventeen years of age, came to my room and told me there was a warrant out for his arrest on the charge of conspiracy and murder. With much feeling and youthful ingenuousness he told me that some time before, while at his home in Cleveland county, N. C., he had, with a few companions, hidden a few miles in the night and returned without molesting any one.

On the night of December 30th, the College was surrounded by United States soldiers, and the young man taken from the hall of his debating Society and hurried off to Columbia, S. C. He was incarcerated until April, when he had the semblance of a trial. The charge of murder was struck out of his indictment, and by the advice of his lawyers he pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy.

Mr. Ramsour is a member, and his father a deacon, of a Baptist church. His conduct, while a student, was most exemplary. I will not lengthen this article by making any reflections. I believe that those who are informed in regard to trials in United States Courts in the South, it is needless to say they are mere farces. This youth was sentenced to eight years' confinement in prison and one hundred dollars fine.

Presentations to a Retiring Official. — The articles to be presented by the merchants and Railroad employees to a prominent Railroad official, who has just resigned a position which he filled with so much credit to himself and usefulness to the Company and the public at large, will be on exhibition at Mr. T. W. Brown's Jewelry store until 12 o'clock on Monday.

— The individual who got off a good thing has been endeavoring to get on again.

Telegraphic Communication with Rockingham, Richmond County.

Friend Stewart of the Rockingham Observer sends us the following over the wires: "ROCKINGHAM, N. C., Sept. 28--3 P. M.

"To the Wilmington Star: "The Observer sends greetings to the STAR. With the Railroad and telegraph, Rockingham will soon be a city."

We are glad to see our sister town keeping pace with the march of improvement. We extend our congratulations to our contemporary, whom we have always found to be a close Observer of passing events, that he is now to experience the full benefits of both steam and electricity. The office at Rockingham was opened yesterday and the above was the first dispatch sent over the wires from that place.

The State Fair. We learn from Raleigh that the prospects for the approaching State Fair, to commence in that city on the 15th of October, are of the most encouraging character. The grounds and the race track have been placed in elegant condition, a number of fast horses will be on hand, and the Secretary has been advised of a large number of articles that will be on exhibition from a distance. We hope to see the Cape Fear section well represented on the occasion, as every person in the State should feel interested in the Raleigh Fair.

Family Excursion. The last family excursion of the season will take place on the steamer Waccamaw on Wednesday morning, Oct. 2nd. The steamer will leave her wharf at 8 o'clock. The Railroads will furnish excursion tickets to Wilmington and return for one fare. A good string band has been engaged. All objectionable persons excluded.
