COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ROOMS DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE Ex'tive Committee New Hanover Co.,

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 5, 1872. The members of the Democratic-Conser vative Executive Committee of New Hanover County are requested to meet at the STAR office, in this city, Friday afternoon, October 25th, at 3 o'clock. This will probably be the last regular meeting of the campaign, and as important business is to be transacted, every member is earnestly requested to attend.

JUST A MONTH FROM TO-DAY. One month from to-day the people of the United States vote for electors for President and Vice-President. On the fifth of November, the first "Sorrows of a Grant Candidate in Virginia."

from to-day. If Greeley is elected, he must be elected by the efforts of the true people of America. To these we make solemn address. Be men as your fathers before you were. Be men in remembrance of '76. Be men, now, or you may regret your sloth, timidity or criminal indifference, in the galling years that follow defeat.

More of Oakes' letters, revealing the secrets of the shameful Credit resigns Mobilier ring, are published. It is now said that Senator Conkling, of New York, held some stock in this stealing concern as a beneficiary; that is, it is supposed, he held the shares as a quid pro quo for his Congressional influence in behalf of the great fraud on the Government, which put money into the purses of the Union Pacific Railroad ring and their friends in Congress. McComb's counsel are going to make startling developments when the case comes up for trial.

The Radical party must rule by riot and terrorism. As proofs, vide the breaking up of a Baptist association in Cleaveland county, the attempt to raise a disturbance in Savannah on election day and the bloody conflict in Macon to get possession of the polls. How long, O people ! How long !

TIMELY TOPICS.

They are telling on Dr. Norton, Radical colored candidate for Congress from the bar or Norfolk district, Virginia. They tell bad, "queer" tales on the sable political Esculapius. Old ghosts of sins Norton tried to bury, "rise to explain," and Doc can't do a thing with 'em-expostulate, threaten, beg, do as he may or can. O how hard are the ways of honesty for a Radical officeholder or office-seeker. But it will not do for us to expect impossibilities, such as success in leading a blind camel through the eye of a cambric needle or finding a strictly reliable man among the fraternity of Off-Isee-cars. Read the Tribune's article on the Jubal Early Declares for Greeley. The Lynchburg Virginian . contains a letter from that brave old veteran General Jubal Early, in which we find the following outspoken language in refutation of the idea that he thinks of supporting Grant:

"If my opinion is of any weight with my old comrades and friends of the lower Valley, my advice to them is to vote with their party and their friends, and thus keep the State out of the hands of the vile herd that is anxious to prey on her vitals; and this advice I would give to all my old comrades and friends in the State. If there are any of them who have sworn in their wrath that they will never vote for Greeley and Brown, let them tear their names from the ticket, and vote for the ticket of native Virginians, headed by those true and noble sons of the State, my very good friends, Colonel Robert E. Withers and General James L. Kemper. There can be no dishonor in that, and we can trust those gentlemen to cast the vote of the State as they think her best interests require. "If any one to whom I have written or expressed my views heretofore shall think that I am guilty of inconsistency in expressing the sentiments therein contained, I can only say that it would be much more inconsistent with all my previous history for me to be giving aid and comfort to the worst enemies of my native State by preserving a neutrality in such a crisis as we are now in, and I have, after venting my wrath, concluded that it will be much more consistent to go along with my friends than to stand aloof from them."

PALMER AND DOOLITTLE.

ANDERSON, Oct. 1.-An overwhelming mass of peeple turned out here to-day to hear Governor Palmer and Senator Doolittle. No demonstration of the campaign can compare with it in number. Bands and banners and marching men were present, and the speeches were listened to by 10,000 people. No such outpouring has ever been witnessed, and the recent failure of Senator Morton to attract a crowd at this same point lends special importance to the event. HISTNESS CALL

Tuesday of the month, we shall all be called upon toldecide whether Ulysses S. Grant or Horace Greeley shall be our Chief Magistrate for the four years ensuing after the fourth of March next.

It is, and yet it is not, a question of Greeley against Grant.

A question of Greeley and Grantwhen you understand Greeley as representing the cardinal ideas of Civil Service Reform, of sectional reconciliation and national amity, of the su- If the art and literary collections are depremacy of civil government, of the restoration of the Constitution to its high place of power and affection in the hearts of the people.

Under these conditions, recognizing the old Philosopher as the living embodiment of the purposes of the grand Liberal party of the Union, the issue is Greeley and Grant. The people have made it so. They flung far from them the tight-fitting jackets of narrow partisanism, Democratic as well as Republican, and they have donned the martial robes of aggressive, onward, salvation-bringing Liberalism. The movement is the spontaneous uprising of the people in behalf of freedom and honesty and peace. It can not be stifled or repressed. It will flock to other points in France. Eighmust go on. Success will crown itglorious, triumphant, enduring success.

Looked at from another stand-point, the question of the day is not one of Greeley vs. Grant.

First, it is not in any sense a personal contest. Persons are subordinated to principles. Things give place to ideas. Idea and principle dominate.

But if the struggle for the Presidency of this great nation were a mere personal contest, would it not make infinite difference who succeeded? Look at the men-note the contrast.

Second, because this is as we have indicated the conflict of truth against error, of right against wrong, of honesty against thieving, of purity against shame, of economy against extravagance, of amity against hate, of peace against war, of liberty against despotism. It is therefore a greater and nobler warfare than any ever waged by or in behalf of indi- is, that the former desire to shake their

The Escurial, summer palace of the Spanish monarchs and repository of fine paintings, valuable books, parchments, etc., containing also the magnificent mausoleum in which repose the remains of all the Kings of Spain since Charles V., the father of Philip II, by whom it was built in fulfillment of a vow, was consumed in the early part of the present week. The foundation of the palace and grand monastery connected with the same were laid in 1563. It took twenty-one years and $15,000,000 to complete them. It was one of the most splendid establishments of the kind in the world. stroyed, the loss will be one of the greatest sustained by any country in late years. We trust the books and articles of menu are preserved. A later dispach reports these safe.

Another revolution has broken out i Mexico. The revolutionists, who are called pronunciamentoes in that unhappy country, have taken the city of Mazatlan, capturing General Flores, the Commandant, and the garrison. The whole State of Sinaloa is described as a wreck. The ports are closed. The mines have stopped working. The Government troops are moving on Du rango. Diaz and other Generals are at Chi huahua. Poor Mex ! Never at peace.

The people of Alsace and Lorraine who refuse to become German citizens are leaving those conquered provinces by tens of thousands. It is estimated that 88,000 will go to Nancy alone, while great numbers tcen thousand left Metz in a fortnight, leaving only 10,000 in that city. The exode will almost depopulate the two provinces, unless the influx of Germans to take their places is rapid.

New York is now enlivened by the Jerome Park races at Fordham. The lovers of turf sports are rolling in all the pleasures of jockeying, betting, admiring "fine flesh" and fast time, etc., etc., etc. But the meetings of the American Jockey Club are nothing when-Grant the President, is away. Thou art wanted, O Ulyss, at Jerome, to complete the success of the occasion.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.

A fair estimate made by Democratic canvassers of the States in which elections are to be held on Tuesday next, and which are to virtually decide the Presidential contest. is to this effect: In Indiana, notwithstanding the importation of colored voters from Kentucky and the discovery of plots for repeaters to pass from one town to another in the interest of the Republican party, it is believed that Mr. Hendricks, Democratic candidate for Governor, and the ticket for Congressmen at Large, will range from 8,000 to 12,000 ma-

In Pennsylvania, Mr. Buckalew, for Governor, is given from 12,000 to 15,000 majority. The contest on Congressman-at-Large, it is believed, will be very close in that State, and some Republicans, while conceding a Democratic Governor, claim they will secure the Republican Congressmen the receipts of the two preceding who are apportioned to the whole State. It may be added here that the Republican leaders who are confident of Hartranft's election state that he will secure ten thousand majority in Philadelphia and five thousand in the rest of the State, which will elect him by fifteen thousand.

In Ohio the Democrats are very certain to elect more than a majority of Congressmen, and are very confident, since the accessions from the German vote, of electing their State ticket, though that is not regarded so certain as in Pennsylvania or Indiana. nesday evening, after a brief illness. The republicans say that they were "badly scared" two weeks ago about Ohio, but that the State is no longer in doubt. Indiana is regarded as in more danger by the republicans than either Pennsylvania or Ohio. They say that the opposition is stronger and has less than a majority of a thousand to overcome. Such is a candid statement of the political situation to be solved on Tuesday next, derived from the best posted men of. both parties.
