

OUTLINES.

Hon. Wm. Greenvor, Liberal nominee for Congress first Missouri district. Ship Yokohama, laden with kerosene, collided at sea with steamship Nite and was set on fire. Louisville is intensely excited over the fatal accident caused by the falling of a building Friday night, heretofore reported. The architect and contractor were both arrested Saturday, charged with the murders of the members of the Nette family and were held in bail of $5,000. Wiley's hollow-ware works and foundry, Pittsburg, burned at a loss of 300,000. Carlist agitation continues in Catalonia. It is believed the insurrection at Ferrol, Spain, must collapse on first attack of Government troops. Riot at the home of the father of the Government, much blessed Covington. An Indiana delegation stands nine Republican to four Democrats, the Rada getting both Congressmen-at-Large. Prof. Frazier dead. Propeller burned on Lake Ontario. Twenty thousand dollars worth of sample waxes abstracted from the Heiss House, Chicago, Saturday morning. Engine at Lewistown Bridge, Penn., ran into an omnibus, killing the driver and wounding seven passengers. Crowd at Seward's funeral estimated at 6,000. Spanish Government is investing Ferrol. Northern Ku Klux break into the Waterford, N. Y., bank and rob it of $800,000.

GREELY MUST CARRY NORTH CAROLINA.

A little more energy than we displayed in the State election will give North Carolina to Greeley. To so great a consummation of our hopes shall we not strain a point, and say we will do a little more? It is no ordinary political contest. We view it as a great national crisis—one that may, probably will decide the character of our Government for the future. In such light do the Liberal-Democratic press of the country and the best thinkers of every class regard this election. Can we then be indifferent to a matter of such tremendous import to us and all ours down to the latest posterity? Can we be callous now? Can we stand idly by while polluting, vandal hands wreak their hate on the fair temple of our liberty? We think not; we hope not.

Let us resolve, then, to place grand old North Carolina—God bless her from mountain to seashore—near the head of the Liberal column in November. That can be done. It must be done, if we would restore the proud patriot prestige of the noble days of yore. We address ourselves earnestly and with all the spirit and love of our native State, of which in the supremest moment of our life we are master, to the true people of North Carolina. We ask them to do their simple duty at this hour. We ask them to do all that duty demands at their hands. If there is sacrifice to make, let them make of their pleasures and business a splendid memorial Macaria for all after-time. Let them for once forget self, and hold selfish considerations in abeyance until after the fifth of November shall have pronounced the fate of the Republic. For a few days and weeks let us give our noble commonwealth all our care, all our best thoughts, all our best strivings. If we never have been heroes before, let us be heroes now. But the race of heroes is not run out in the Old North State. The spirit of our ancestors has not departed. We have not debased our manhood, thank God. We are, we feel, a true people still; and must resolve in our inner soul ever to remain true.

One strong, steady, determined effort will place the matter beyond doubt or peradventure. We should make that effort. We should roll up our sleeves this week, and go into the business of electing Greeley with more determination than any people ever before exhibited. Our vote may elect him. The election is going to be very close, in all probability, with the chances rather in favor of the great Liberal candidate. Let us make the vote of North Carolina sure for him. Work can do it. Then, citizens of North Carolina, let us work as we never worked for any political cause before—let us work to elect Greeley and Brown and preserve the vital principles of civil liberty and the essence of our freedom as well as its form.

The Raleigh News learns that a large and attentive audience greeted Mr. Dupre, Assistant Elector, at his first appointment. He opened the ball in Moore county, on the 10th inst., and after his speech, organized a large Greeley and Brown Club. The people of Moore are thoroughly aroused, and will do even better than they did in August. State Fair commences to-day.

Funeral Obituaries of Col. John A. Rowland, at Lumberton.

On Sunday last, at 7 o'clock A. M., about forty members of the Masonic fraternity left the depot of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad on a special train chartered by St. John's Lodge No. 1. When they left Abbottsburg their number had reached about sixty, the addition of about twenty having been made from the different Lodges along the line of the road. The train arrived at Lumberton at 10:45 A. M., when the members formed in procession and marched to the Hall of St. Alban's Lodge No. 114, where they found about one hundred Masons from St. Alban's and the other Lodges above Lumberton as far up as Wadesboro in waiting. By the request of the Master of St. Alban's Lodge, St. John's Lodge No. 1 was requested to conduct the ceremonies. The officers of that Lodge then opened St. Alban's Lodge in due form, and, after appropriate ceremonies at the Lodge room, a procession was formed and proceeded to the beautiful grove, near the Methodist Church, where a stand had been erected and seats provided for about five hundred persons. They were found nearly all filled with a very interesting and intelligent congregation. The services were opened with a beautiful ode by the choir of St. John's Lodge, led by Bro. J. C. Mann, organist, (the Lodge having carried an organ with them.) After the preliminary services, Rev. Brother Archibald McQueen delivered a very eloquent and instructive Masonic sermon, which was listened to with marked attention by the vast crowd. Brother (we use the term to distinguish the person as a Mason) Robert Strange then pronounced the eulogy, which was brilliant with flashes of genius and lofty thought and was beautiful in its deep pathos, which brought tears to the eyes of many. His effort was, in fact, just what might have been expected from the gifted orator. The music was furnished by the Lodge choir and was a marked feature of the occasion, reflecting much credit upon the members. Returning, the party left Lumberton at 3:45 P. M. and arrived at Wilmington at 7:15 P. M. The day was delightful and everything passed off very pleasantly. Our Masonic friends speak in very flattering terms of the treatment they received at the hands of the good people of Robeson, who did everything possible to promote their pleasure and comfort.

County Commissioners.

The Board met in adjourned session yesterday morning. The following was adopted: Whereas, R. B. Frayer, appointed and elected Sheriff of the county of New Hanover on the 24th day of September, has failed to qualify by giving bond as required by law, the office is declared vacant. The Board then went into an election for Sheriff, but failed to make a choice, and postponed the further consideration until Tuesday at 11 o'clock. There were seven ballots, the vote standing in each, Black 2, Pennypacker 2, Hooper 1. The matter of the Bridge over Prince George's Creek was referred to Commissioner Morris, with power to act, provided the cost should not exceed $125. Applications for Liquor Licenses were received and granted to J. A. Scarborough and G. W. Armstrong. Wm. McLaurin was relieved from duty as Register in Fourth Ward, and P. M. Rice appointed in his stead. Herring Bell was appointed poll-holder in Lincoln township, in place of John A. Jones. Ephraim Hawes was appointed poll-holder in place of Lot McAllister in Caswell township. Andrew Nixon was appointed Register in place of J. L. Capps, in Grant township. The Board adjourned until Tuesday at 11 o'clock.

APPEAL AT ROCKY POINT.

Dr. W. T. Ennett is Violently Assaulted by a Colored Man and Shoots His Antagonist—The Wound not Considered Serious.

An altercation occurred on Sunday evening last at the above place between our esteemed fellow countryman, Dr. W. T. Ennett, and a negro man by the name of Jonas Batts. The Doctor was hiding quietly in his buggy, with flowers to strew upon the recent grave of a deceased friend, when he was attacked in an unprovoked and wanton manner, by this man with a bludgeon. Dr. Ennett entreated his adversary to desist, but all to no purpose, he continued to advance upon him, until, forbearance ceasing to be a virtue, he fired upon Batts with a pistol, the shot taking effect upon the fleshy part of his face. It was as reported to us wholly a measure of self-defence. Dr. Satchwell was immediately summoned, who judged the wound though severe not to be dangerous. Batts was on yesterday up and walking about. Esquire McPherson has made the proper arrest, preliminary to an official investigation in his court, Dr. E. having surrendered himself for that purpose. Batts has the character of a bad, revengeful man, having as we learn before threatened Dr. Ennett's life.

Local Notes.

Uncomfortably cool last night and frost probable. There was no case for trial before the City Court yesterday morning. Two colored and one white patient were sent to the City Hospital yesterday. Special communication of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, F. and A. M., this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. The formal opening of the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, on Princess street, will take place this evening, at 8 o'clock. The fortieth regular monthly meeting of the Wilmington Building Association will be held at the rooms of the Library Association to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock. We hear the sermon of Rev. J. T. Harris, of Magnolia, who preached in Front Street M. E. Church on Sunday evening, spoken of in very high terms by members of the congregation. The city authorities are almost daily called upon to assist some poor unfortunate on their homeward voyage. Yesterday one poor white female, sorely afflicted, was sent to her home at Florence, S. C., and a colored man, sick and destitute, was assisted to his home at Goldsboro. Capt. H. C. Brock showed us yesterday some specimens of chestnuts, the product of our common American chestnut-tree grafted with an Italian variety. They were very fine and show what might be accomplished in Western North Carolina if the people of that section would only make the effort.

Rice Culture in North Carolina.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, writing from this city under date of Sept. 23d, gives an interesting statement in reference to rice culture on the Cape Fear before the war. Thirty years ago, says the correspondent, the rice fields of the Cape Fear River produced a crop of 200,000 bushels, the most of which was shipped to Northern cities, where it was cleaned and prepared for market. Fifteen years later, just before the breaking out of the war, the yield of the same region had increased to 500,000 bushels, and at that time there were several mills in Wilmington, in which the rice was cleaned before it was sent coastwise to New York, or Baltimore, or shipped to foreign ports. In 1871, rice was planted on only one or two farms, and the entire crop was only 10,000 bushels—less than the amount consumed in the State—and this year three planters only have ventured to put in a crop of rice; and although the yield to the acre will be the greatest remembered by the oldest rice planter around Wilmington, the crop will not exceed 40,000 or 50,000 bushels. In company with Col. McIlhenny, the writer visited the abandoned rice fields on the West side of the Cape Fear, in Brunswick county, and was fully informed as to the causes which have led to their present impoverished condition. In fact, the correspondent states that nowhere in North Carolina has he seen so many evidences of the poverty and ruin brought upon the Southern people by the war as along the banks of the Cape Fear River from this city to and including Fayetteville. Capital and labor are the great desiderata needed to retrieve these lands from the ruin which the war brought them to.

A Gathering of the "Happy Family"—A Republican Meeting and Its Results.

Quite a spirited meeting of the Republicans of New Hanover was held at the Court House last night for the purpose of organizing a County Executive Committee. The Committee was duly organized, with G. Z. French, of "Excelsior" fame, as Chairman. The meeting was not wanting in the usual concomitants of personal abuse, incident to Radical gatherings. A member proposed that the Committee should adopt a resolution endorsing the appointment of Abbott by the District Committee as Elector for the District. Another member thought it inexpedient for the Committee to saddle itself with such an incumbency and stated that at a caucus of the Committee during the day they were almost unanimous in their opinion to Abbott, only one or two being in his favor. Another member of the Committee denounced this assertion as false, and after the adjournment of the meeting a collision occurred between them, which bid fair at one time to end in a "free fight" among the various members. Finally, however, peace was established between the contending factions for the time being. But Abbott was not endorsed!

A Preacher in the Work House.

Among the convicts in the County Work House is a colored preacher by the name of Howard, sentenced for thirty days for stealing a piece of meat. He has probably got into his present position designedly, so that he may be better able hereafter to discourse, practically, upon the many vices and immoralities of his day and generation. It is to be hoped he will make good use of his vocation when he regains his freedom.

Tax-Payers, Attention!

You have four days more in which to pay your State and County Taxes, without incurring costs. Call at No. 12 Market street and settle before the four days expire, and save cost. D. PROCTOR, Tax Collector. Oct. 15, 1872-4t.

Arrested for Assaulting a Woman.

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of a colored man by the name of Joe Chadburn, familiar in police circles, who is charged with going to the house of another colored man, by the name of Joseph Gause, on Sunday night, during his absence, and cursing, abusing and beating his wife. The accused will probably have a hearing this morning.
