INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 22. At the suggestion of the Chairman the Liberal Committee, the memers of the State Committees came ogether here this evening for a comarison of views and the adoption of me vigorous action for the retention dincrease of Hendricks' majority November. The prominent reprentatives of both parties were present om every district in the State. eeches were made by M. C. Kerr, W. Voorhees, Col. Stillwell Dowlg, and many others, and reports om all the localities were briefly ven. The general tone was surisingly buoyant, and necessary funds ere subscribed with great alacrity. ther matters of moment to the sucess of the contest were discussed and

A feeling of very general enthusion was excited by the unanimity and vigor with which a renewal of the the was determined. The chief ort will be to bring up such lagging mocrats as endangered the result remaining from the polls in October, d so appealing to their better innets that a great cause shall not be nt in jeopardy through party prejuce or personal whim. The testiony from all sides is conclusive that he State stands socure for a very andsome gain on Mr. Hendricks' ote, and ever at the worst it cannot reduced as the Grant people exusted chemselves in that one repe effort. Meantime, the local asses are to be kept up vigory, and the strong speakers at work in the doubtful tricts. So far as can be learned a these representative Liberals both parties, the depression conseent upon the disheartening frauds in eansylvania and this State has alost wholly disappeared, and there determination to pile up such a ajority in November that counting fraud will be useless to attempt reduce it. General speech making be discontinued, though five or districts are to be effectively orked up to arouse the dormant Deocracy. The excellent reports from Illinois border are largely instruental in stregthening the hands of Indiana Liberals, and the effect be an agreeably increased vote the remote border counties. The ders were quite earnest in expresssensibly sanguine views of the ret in these two States, and the only hand that other Northern States held as well to their work in order Indiana and Illinois will confirm wisdom of the Liberal movement enator Hendricks and the Hon. George H. Pendleton at Chleago.

LIBERALISM IN ILLINOIS,

CHICAGO, Oct. 22. One of the largest and most effective Liberal meetings of the campaign was held here this P. M., in the open space on Market street. The Hon. Thos. Sayre presided and the speaking was opened by Senator Hendricks, who discussed the general political situation, pleading for reconcillation and reform and setting forth the claims of Mr. Greeley upon liberal minded and patriotic citizens. His voice rang out clearly above the heads of his vast audience, and he received flattering demonstrations of respect and concurrence. The Hon. G. H. Pendleton was received with the aforesaid weapon penetrating his perprolonged cheers. He stepped aside from his line of action for a moment to flatter Chicago on her reception and then went earnestly forward in review of the issues of the day. The crowd listened attentively to his arguments, breaking up at a late hour with cheers for Greeley and Brown.

Knights of Pythias Again.

In our issue of Wednesday last we stated upon information from a semi-official source that there would soon be a Lodge of this Order in full operation at Enfield, and that there was also a fair prospect of the erection at an early day of Lodges at Wilson, Rocky Mount and Battleboro! We now earn that within the next sta or eight days there will be another new Lodge of this flourishing Order instituted in this city, making four altogether and constituting Wilmington not only the pioneer but the grand head-centre of Pythian progress in this part of the country. Newbern and Lumberton, in addition to the places mentioned above, will also soon boast of a Lodge of the Order in their midst.

The new Rituals adopted at the last session of the Supreme Lodge are expected in a few days and it is anticipated that their arrival will add a new impetus and stimulate an awakened interest among the members of the Order in our city.

A storm visited this locality on Wednesday evening and raged with great fury during the entire night. On the line of the Charlotte road we learn that it was even more severe than it was here. It is to be hoped that the large amount of rain that fell will have some effect in raising the river between here and Fayetteville.

We expect to hear of more or less damage to shipping on the coast. The weather was very threatening during the greater part of the day yesterday and a high wind prevailed during the forenoon.

Radical documents, elaborately illustrated and gotten up at the public expense, withon from Washington as to the out regard to cost, are being extensively t of persons to vote whose names circulated in this latitude under the frank not on the registration books, and of one Allan Rutherford, who is trembling of such a character as induces in his boots with every "ninety-inch stride" say to you that the judges are no danger of prosecution for re- Auditor of the Treasury.

SHOOTING SCRAPE.

An Old Colored Man Shoots a Colored Boy, Mistaking Him for Some One

A shooting scrape occurred at the stillyard of Messrs. Blossom & Evans, in the northwestern section of the city, yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock. The parties were an old colored man by the name of Melton and a young colored lad, about 16 years old, by the name of Henry Jones, and the shooting seems from present appearances to have resulted from a case of mistaken identity. The old man Melton was employed as watchmen in the yard and states, we learn, that he had been bothered so much by some young colored man whom Jones had the misfortune to resemble that he had resolved to put an end to the annoyance by putting an end to the cause of it With this rather dangerous and daring object in view he seems to have prepared himself and when young Jones came along yesterday morning, all unsuspecting the dire vengeance which had been aroused and which so imminently threatened his longer continuance on this mundane sphere, he was suddenly startled, while passing through the public highway which leads through the yard in question, by the sharp report of a fire-arm in close proximity to him and the sharp twinges caused by several shot from son. Painfully wounded by the discharge, which was found to have proceeded from the weapon of the irate old watchman, the services of Dr. W. W. Lane were called into requisition, when it was found that one of the shots had entered just above the left eye of the victim, another had penetrated the temple, another entered somewhere about the face and several had found lodgment in the legs. His wounds were dressed at the office of Dr. Lane, where he had been taken on a dray, and he was then carried home. We learn that it is the opinion of the physician that the wounds are not necessarily dangerous.

OPERA HOUSE,

Harry Macarthy and His Troupe,

The first appearance of the grand Macarthy Combination in our newly fitted-up and tastefully arranged Opera House, was greeted last night with an audience considerably superior in numbers to what might have been reasonably anticipated from the ugly appearance of the weather. In fact, it was both large and appreciative. The performance of the great comedian, Harry Macarthy, was all that might have been exnected by a Wilmington audience, where his merits have long been known and ap preciated. His character songs elicited much laughter and applause, which was changed to a feeling of sympathy and interest when he rendered that touching ballad-"The Irish Emigrant's Lament"-a favorite of his, and in the dramatic effect of which he rarely fails to draw tears from the eves of his

Logrenia, in his tricks and illusions, has few superiors, and his various performances drew forth frequent and flattering testimo nials of appreciation. The tricks of his learned birds and trained Russian cat were also very wonderful, and were handsomely

Prof. O'Reardon is another old acquaintsace of Wilmington play-goers, but his per! formances on the plane, and his wonderful musical invention of Tumbleronicon, are too strikingly original and skilfully executed to lose interest by being often seen or heard. His feat of playing two tunes on the piano, one with the right hand, one with the left, and whistling a third at the same time, is an evidence of remarkable musical skill and was heartily appreciated.

Mrs. Lotte Estelle Macarthy, in her character act and in "Barney's Courtship" elicited much praise.

Taken altogether, the performance was very fine and we shall expect to see a full house both to-night and to-morrow night, which will close their engagement here.

Liberal Republican Club Meeting. Another enthusiastic meeting of the Liberal Republican Club was held last night. Delegates were present from Lincoln Township Club, which numbers 45 members, nearly all colored men, and Coumbia Township Club, which numbers 23 members. It was ascertained that the Point Caswell Club is rapidly increasing its membership and bids fair to eclipse in point of numbers all the other clubs. Mr. W. S. Benjamin's address was postponed until next Tuesday night in order to allow other delegations from the county to be present.

During Fair we ek we always have to turn off work. - Among the articles on exhibition at the Virginia and N orth Carolina Fair at Norfolk we notice a specimen of scuppernong wine from this city, exhibited by Mr. J.

- We learn that legal proceedings will be taken on Monday next against all delinquents who are indebted to the City Treasurer for special taxes. "Step up to the captain's office and settle." - Our information that the Board of Al dermen would meet on Monday night next we find to have been incorrect. They adjourned to the regular meeting, which takes place on Monday night week. - The Radical pow-pow at City Hall last night was quite largely attended, but the enthusiasm was nothing to brag on. Attorney General Williams made a very longwinded speech and a very prosy one at that, judging from what we heard of it.

- He was fortunate indeed who could keep his hat in position vesterday forenoon without holding on to it with both hands, and many was the nobby affair that was sent whirling and meandering through the muddy streets, with its owner in full chase.

- During the hardest of the rain of the fearful storm which raged on Wednesday night, some one entered the STAR office and stole the "local" umbrella. Fit night for such dark deeds, but a terrible one to be without an umbrella, a fact which the thief seems to have appreciated.

- The News local relates a two-barrel yarn, explaining how Parhan, the Steward of the Yarborough House, didn't find the milk in the cocoanut, because a young confectionery clerk, fresh from the country, had sucked it out. Washingtonlike, he 'fessed the deed, and was smilingly pardoned. Y-e-s! - A mellow dram-atic narrative is related in yesterday's News, about two young Canadian travellers, tremulously apprehensive of injury from the Ku Klux, who were in Raleigh at the time of the Sentinel office explosion. They pleaded for mercy as if the Judgment day had arrived; "Oh God, save us from the Ku Klux!" One lost his hat, and both rushed frantically to their room, and left the place next day.
