

OUTLINES.

The paying teller of the Richmond, Va., State Bank has defrauded the bank of $10,000 and absconded. —Thirty or forty thousand horses are now afflicted with the new malady in New York and the disease has extended to other places. It is assuming more serious phases. —Wreck of a bark and probable loss of seven lives near Cape Henlopen Friday night. —Spanish Cortes refuse to abolish capital punishment for political offences. —Engineer and fireman killed in an accident on the Baltimore Western bound express. —Vast beds of copper and coal found in Texas by Scientific Exploring Expedition. —U. S. troops are being quartered throughout Alabama. —Many persons drowned and much property lost by the overflowing of the Po. —Boiler of Graves shipyard at Norfolk, collapsed, killing two persons. —A horse driver has been taken with the horse malady in Boston.

THE HORSE SICKNESS.

Rages in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Rochester, Detroit and many other points. It is spreading with frightful rapidity over the whole country. Business suffers seriously in New York. Broadway, says one paper, is as deserted as a village lane. It is a most singular epidemic.

We haven't heard of a single case of outrage in Alabama, and yet the Despot sends his troops thither. Will the people sustain Grant in these tyrannical courses?

THE MURPHY-ORRIN BARGAIN.

Mr. Chandler's Admission—Why the Custom House Compact was Broken.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

The Hon. Wm. E. Chandler, Secretary of the Grant Republican National Committee, expressed his views, last evening, in regard to the relative merits of the various candidates for the Mayoralty, and especially in regard to the reasons which rendered the Administration managers unable to control the Republican vote for O'Brien. In reply to the question as to whether it was true that the Administration managers here had made a compact with O'Brien to give him $40,000 so soon as he should have raised ten political association banners, and that, when this number had been raised, the sum agreed upon was refused, and only $20,000 offered to O'Brien, Mr. Chandler said that so far as he knew there was no such compact. If any such promise, or any agreement looking to material help had been made to O'Brien it must have been by Thomas Murphy.

While he knew nothing of the terms of any compact to support O'Brien, there was undoubtedly a tacit understanding, and the administration leaders here are anxious to carry out the agreement. The nomination of Havemeyer, however, had rendered this very difficult.

Meetings about the State.

NEONTA, Oct. 24.

The Liberal demonstration in this village to-night was a great success. A large number of stores and private dwelling-houses were brilliantly illuminated, and a torchlight procession with two bands of music paraded the streets. Muddy roads, darkness, and threatening weather did not keep the farmers away. They poured in from all directions, bringing the most encouraging reports of the progress of the campaign in their neighborhoods. Ex-Gov. Seymour was the principal speaker. He had come from a sick bed, against the advice of friends, and his feeble health compelled him to limit himself to an hour's time. He made a thoughtful, dispassionate, and patriotic address, urging his hearers to cast aside the prejudices of party, and look at the issue of the canvass as American citizens desiring a pure Government.

ELMIRA, Oct. 24.

The Liberal gathering here, last night, was one of the most remarkable that has been held in Chenango county or in Western New York during the present campaign. The Hon. S. S. Cox made one of his most effective speeches and was applauded to the echo, especially when he referred to the frivolous manner in which the great writ of habeas corpus had been set aside by Grant's Administration. He spoke of it as one of the great rights guaranteed by the Magna Charter, pictured the scene in the field of Runnemeade when that great bill of rights was granted by King John to the barons, and showed how dangerous to the liberties of any people the least infringement upon it is.

NYACK, N. Y., Oct. 24.

A cold, rainy day and muddy streets were some of the discouraging elements with which the Liberal Republicans and Democrats had to contend yesterday in carrying out their political demonstration at Nyack.

Citizens of all the surrounding towns had agreed to join in the demonstration, and the numerous Liberal organizations that were to have taken part guaranteed a procession of from 3,000 to 5,000 men.

DANVILLE, Oct. 24.

An immense mass meeting assembled here to-day to hear Gov. Hoffman on the issues of the campaign. At least 3,000 people, full of enthusiasm for Greeley and Kernan, listened in deep attention to the Governor's able and exhaustive arguments. He addressed his closing remarks chiefly to Democrats, saying that every Democrat who remained at home and failed to vote Greeley thereby sanctioned the violation by Grant of every Democratic principle.

ANGOLA, Oct. 24.

The canvass throughout Erie county is one of the warmest ever known, and the Liberal meetings especially are all large and well attended. A joint meeting of Republican and Democratic Liberals was held here last night, and the audience was unusual in size and character. The principal speech of evening was made by the Hon. Wm. Dorsheimer of Buffalo, who spoke most eloquently for about an hour and a half.

BUFFALO, Oct. 24.

Although there had been little effort to make the Liberal meeting at the Rink in this city, to-night, a success, from 1,500 to 2,000 of the honest voters of Buffalo gathered there at the time announced for the meeting, to hear S. S. Cox and Wm. Dorsheimer.

TARRYTOWN, Oct. 24.

Nearly 10,000 people assembled in the muddy streets of Tarrytown, last evening, to witness the torchlight procession of Liberal Republicans and Democrats, who turned out to welcome the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew.

WAKING UP.

From some counties in Western North Carolina, we learn that our friends are waking up! Our public men are advancing to the front!—Mass meetings are being held, and the spirit among the people is decidedly improving.

In some counties in the State, we will make handsome gains on Judge Merrimon's vote.

Keep the ball rolling!—Raleigh News.

Trouble in the Camp.

Under the head of "Look Out for Traitors," the Raleigh Era, Radical organ, charges that Geo. M. Arnold, colored, formerly of this city, while pretending to be for Grant, is really secretly working for Greeley. The Era further charges that Arnold will publish a letter, which has been prepared for him at Democratic headquarters in Raleigh, containing a direct attack on Supervisor Perry. There are other prominent colored men besides "Col." Arnold who are having their eyes opened, and calling them traitors will not mend the matter much.

—The public discussion in Nash between the Baptist Minister and Universalist champion didn't take place.

—A piece of Honiton lace was on exhibition at the Charlotte Fair, made by Mrs. Lucas of that place, aged nearly 80.

—W. B. Peterson, formerly of Weldon, will soon begin the publication of a paper to be called the Pioneer, at Florence, S. C.

—The Enquirer says the man reported killed at Killquik was too quickly put under ground. He was only badly beaten.

—The Tarboro Enquirer says: About twenty-five bears are said to have been killed in Beaufort county during the last week.

—The "Great Fox" and his Humpty-Dumpty company will probably visit Raleigh some time during the coming winter, says the Sentinel.

—Since the 1st of July last, says the Era, Col. I. J. Young, collector of internal revenue for this district, has sold $125,000 worth of stamps for tobacco and liquor.

—The Mail says a negro who was left by the train at Whitaker's ran four miles to Battleboro, and overtaking the train went on his way to the Goldboro fair rejoicing. Some rumors.

—A fine horse will be the prize awarded the successful knight at the tournamet, to take place in Weldon on the last day of the Fair. This is a splendid chance for good riders to ride for a horse to ride, says the News.

—The Journal of Commerce says that a new daily paper is soon to be started in Newbern. Mr. Edward Guthrie publisher and Rev. John Long editor. Mr. G. is a good practical printer and Mr. Long is a writer of ability well known in this State.

—The Weldon News informs us that the Messrs. Riddle, who own several saw mills on the Wilmington road, between Enfield and Halifax, had an order, a few days ago, for a million feet of lumber to be shipped to South America. There's enterprise for you.

—A day or two since, the room of Dr. Joseph A. Drake, an eminent physician, broad brained citizen, and worthy representative of the county in the last Legislature, was broken into, and about $40 worth of clothing abstracted, says a Nash correspondent of the Weldon News.

—At the recent term of the Superior Court, says the Era, Judge Watts decided the suits of the Governor's Directors appointed for the Insane Asylum, Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum, Penitentiary, and Keeper of the Capitol, against the appointees of the Legislature, in favor of the Directors. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court.

—In the case of W. H. Howerton against S. McD. Tate for possession of the W. N. C. railroad, the facts were submitted to Judge Cloud this week at Salisbury. He has not rendered his decision at this writing. These cases will be argued and decided on appeal by the Supreme Court at the next term which commences on the first Monday of January next.—Era.

—The Newbern Journal of Commerce thus speaks of Judge's Merrimon's address at the Goldboro Fair: The address of Judge Merrimon, as we anticipated it would be, was worthy of the occasion, and of the great abilities of the distinguished speaker. Of her great men, and she has many, North Carolina has none whose names are so calculated to reflect great and deserved honors upon her than does Judge Merrimon's. The Directors of the Fair were fortunate in securing him as their orator.

—Somebody competed at the Goldboro Fair for the carpet bag prize offered by the carpet bagger Nason, of Newbern. He insists to our people. The following description of the article is furnished by the Raleigh News: After a brief survey of the article, the pleasant smile of Geo. W. is quickly transformed into a hideous scowl, he drops it and with rapid strides leaves the hall. The carpet bag is then taken up by a friend and thus described: A beautiful blue satin miniature of a carpet bag, the loops of which are made with hemp cord, a fringe of white and black, negro's woolen ornaments the sides and bottom, as an edging; suspended from the bag is a negro's knot, also made of hemp; a miniature key is hanging by its side, which fits nicely in the small lock; the bag is opened and found to contain a kind of negro's hair and several strips of paper containing the following inscriptions: "Stolen Railroad Bonds," "Corruption in high places," "We shall and will rule our country," and one or two others that our friends have forgotten. Nason left by the next train for Newbern.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

CRIMINAL IMPOSITION.

A bad bill substituted for a good one is simply a loss to the pocket of the taker; but a person who has substituted for a life-sustaining medicine, the man who concocts, or sells, or recommends such an article, is a criminal impostor, and deserves to be visited with a heavier penalty than if he had counterfeited gold pieces or forged bank bills. Many vile, unwholesome poisons now being offered for sale in various parts of the country as "tonics" and "restoratives," are recommended by their dishonest proprietors and vendors as superior to the famous national specific, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Desperate attempts are made to thrust these pernicious compounds into the hands and down the throats of life-long patrons of the great vegetable stimulant and stomachic; and although these compounds against health and life very rarely succeed, it nevertheless seems to be a duty occasionally to warn the credulous against them. Hostetter's Bitters, the unequalled remedy for cerebral indigestion, confirmed dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, malarious fevers, constipation, constitutional weakness, and the functional disorders of the weaker sex, has for twenty years stood at the head of all medicines of its class—so far above them as to render competition futile. It has not yet reached the meridian of its popularity, its sale being larger now than at any period since its introduction. Its utility as a preventive of disorders engendered by an insubstantial atmosphere or unwholesome water is admitted by physicians practicing in unhealthy districts, and it is recommended as a remedy by many practitioners who will not take the responsibility of prescribing the adulterated liquors of commerce.
