OUTLINES.

Horse disease reported on the decline yesterday in New York. A Jersey City man has the horse influenza. Reported that thirty-two persons were buried in ruins of buildings blown down by a hurricane in the province of Syracuse, Sicily. Trouble in the Prussian Diet over local self-government in the rural districts. There was an exciting debate in the Spanish Cortes Monday between the Radicals and Republicans in which the head of the government, Zorrilla, participated. Lord Masses's county seat in Limerick county, Ireland, destroyed by fire. Loss $750,000.

THE "LIBEL" CASE AGAINST THE JOURNAL.

At the request of Solicitor Cantwell Judge Russell charged the Grand Jury in the Superior Court of this county, last Monday morning, relative to the law concerning libel. A bill of indictment for libel had been sent by the Solicitor to the Grand Jury against the editors of the Wilmington Journal, the alleged libellous publication being an article calling Judge Bond, of the U. S. Circuit Court, a scoundrel.

Judge Russell charged that the words set forth in the bill of indictment were sufficient to constitute a libel, and that the jury had no discretion, but must find a true bill.

Nothing further had been done with the matter up to yesterday evening. Considerable indignation is felt in the city at what is regarded as an attempt to stifle the freedom of the press. People will talk, Judges or no Judges; and they will think, whatever Bonds, light or heavy, are put upon them. The Baltimore judicial luminary scarcely counts his friends in this section by the legion.

We await further developments before commenting on this wonderful case of libel.

THE ADDRESS.

Read and heed the earnest appeal of the Conservative and Liberal Republican Executive Committees which we publish this morning.

Action is the word, fellow-citizens. Forward to victory!

"Greeley ain't your choice, and therefore you'll not vote for him? Well, is Grant your choice?"

Your head's level, "intirely," on this, Mr. Fredericksburg Herald.

AN EARNEST APPEAL.

Our Executive Committees Speak.

To the People of North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 18, 1872.

The National Democratic and the Liberal Republican Committees have recently held consultations in New York, and surveyed the Presidential election, to take place in the United States on Tuesday, the fifth day of November.

They are hopeful and even confident of the success of our nominees in this great contest for peace and reconciliation, for a pure and honest administration of the government, and the preservation of the sacred principles of civil liberty itself. In this review of the political situation, they do not hesitate to say that much, very much depends on the vote of North Carolina. All admit that we did well and nobody on the 1st of August last; and but for the frauds and gross violation of the election laws of this State in that struggle, our victory would have been complete, instead of partial as it was.

We appeal to you now, friends of republican freedom and good government, to be ready for the final contest, so soon to be decided. Work earnestly and manfully for the right. Be vigilant and active in defence of the principles of our noble and inspiring cause of Constitutional liberty. Be not deceived by false representations, or swayed from the line of duty by the threats of those who thus disgrace official authority or by any other mode of intimidation or corruption, nor seduced by the blandishments of official patronage, so freely offered by those who live on public plunder and the taxes paid by an impoverished and oppressed people. We urge you to vote as freemen, freely and independently, in the full, intelligent, and untrammelled exercise of all the rights of an American citizen. Be sure to attend your precinct, in your own township on Tuesday the 5th of November, and see that your neighbors do likewise. Let the registration books be closely examined previously, and proper challenges made to all illegal votes. Challenge, too, on the day of election, every attempt at illegal voting. It is all important to our success that a fair election and a full vote of our friends, both Democratic and Liberal Republican, be cast at the ballot-box. This will secure a certain triumph in North Carolina, and on our vote may depend

A Genuine Sampson Ku Klux.

Several months since a certain U. S. Marshal, or Deputy U. S. Marshal, was travelling through Sampson county looking after so-called Ku Klux. To prevent exciting suspicion as to his real motives he travelled in the disguise of a tobacco wagoner, and in the course of his perambulations he came across a man by the name of Zach. Royal, who, upon being plied with a quantum sufficit of "real-eye," provided by the astute official for such cases, became quite communicative. The tobacco wagoner alias U. S. Marshal pretended to sympathize with the persecuted Ku Klux, and finally Royal not only confessed that he was one of the persecuted fraternity, but that he was the man that killed Minis Herring, the colored man who, it will be remembered, was shot and killed a year or two ago, which was the occasion of the arrest of several citizens of Sampson, charged with implication in the said assassination or murder. Royal also intimated that he was fearful of being arrested for the murder, when the disguised official offered to assist him in keeping clear of the fangs of the law by taking him with him. Royal thereupon accompanied him to Raleigh and upon his arrival there he was committed to jail. He remained in confinement but a short time, however, before he was released upon the ground of his having turned State's evidence and implicating a large number of other citizens of Sampson of being members of, or sympathizers with, the so-called Ku Klux organization. Upon his pretended revelations warrants were issued for the arrest of a number of prominent citizens of Sampson and for a time considerable excitement existed in the county, which finally subsided, until within the last week or two, on the eve of the approaching Presidential election, when the work of persecution again commenced and a number of the citizens of the county have been torn from their homes and carried to Raleigh, probably at the instigation of this same man Royal. Since the release of Royal from prison he has remained about Raleigh, but finally, for what cause is not known, he conceived the idea of returning to Sampson county. He made his appearance in Clinton on Saturday last, when he was immediately seized by the authorities, as we learn, and lodged in jail on the charge, which he himself confessed, of having murdered Minis Herring.

Escaped Prisoner.

El Hill, the escaped Work House "bird," whose capture and attempted suicide by jumping into the river was mentioned in yesterday's paper, succeeded in effecting his escape from the Guard House on Monday night and is again at large. It seems that he was lodged in the Guard House in his wet garments, in which condition he remained until about 8 o'clock before his wrists to the hand-cuffs which bound his wrists could be obtained so that he could change his clothes. He was then taken into the Guard room by the stove, as he was shivering with cold, where he could more comfortably divest himself of his dripping garments and replace them with dry ones. This he did very expeditiously, and the officer in charge of him turned to get his keys, with the view of taking him to his cell, when the prisoner suddenly darted for the door, which stood slightly ajar, and was "good and gone" before the astonished officer could say "Jack Robinson." Immediate pursuit was made, but it was not natural to suppose that a man who had sworn that he would die before he would go back to the Work House would suffer himself to be recaptured after having once gotten the start of his would-be capturers. At last accounts not the least trace had been discovered as to his whereabouts, and as he had evinced such an unqualified aversion to the business of brick making it is more than probable that he will hereafter keep at a convenient distance from those who would see him re-established in his old quarters. Of course no blame could be attached to Superintendent VanArminge for the escape of the prisoner.

Election of Officers.

At the regular meeting of the Friendship Temple of Honor and Temperance, held Monday night, the 28th inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: H. E. Foster, W. C. T.; W. T. Spooner, W. V. T.; Stacey VanArminge, W. R.; W. M. Monroe, W. A. R.; W. Hurst, W. T.; S. F. Walcott, W. U.; R. Mintz, W. D. U.; J. B. Barlow, Jr., W. G.; Joseph Ward, W. S.; J. B. Barlow, Sr., W. C.; G. W. Sealey, Sr. W. P. C. T.; W. L. Tart, Jr. W. P. C. T.

Died in Hospital.

A deformed white man by the name of John King, who, it will be remembered, had to be carried from place to place on the shoulders of some person, he being unable to walk, died at the City Hospital on Monday night and was consigned to his last resting place in the City Cemetery yesterday. The unfortunate man was taken to the Hospital for treatment on the 21st instant, he being then in a very precarious condition.

A good rain would be welcome just now.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Dr. James W. Blount and Isaac B. Kelly, Esq., Democratic sub-electors for the county of Duplin, will address the people at the following times and places: Falson's, Monday, 28; Warsaw, Tuesday, 29; Magnolia, Wednesday, 30; Boney's Store, Thursday, 31; Clamneton, Friday, Nov. 1; Snatchett, Saturday, 2; Kenansville, Monday, 4.

COL. FULLER'S APPOINTMENTS.

Col. Thomas C. Fuller, Greeley and Brown Elected for the Third Congressional District, will address the people at the following times and places: Kenansville, Duplin county, Wednesday, Oct. 30; Fayetteville, Cumberland county, Saturday, Nov. 2.

Appointments by Bishop Atkinson.

Beaufort, November 8th. Newbern, 10th. Durhams Creek, 12th. Kinston, 14th. Holy Innocents, 15th. Goldsborough, 17th.

Local Notes.

—Cold enough for frost last night. —The stove business is looking up. —The water in the Cape Fear is falling again. —Register and vote—for Greeley and Brown. —An exciting runaway took place on Market street yesterday. —Those who have to register before voting at the coming election should do so at once. —Apples will probably go up in price, as they are feeding sick horses on them in the Northern cities. —Have you moved from one ward to another since the August election? If so, you must register in the ward in which you now reside. —The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday was that of Amelia Bradley, charged with disorderly conduct, who was found guilty and fined $3 and the costs. —Horace A. Bagg, Esq., a well known citizen of this county, who has been in very bad health for some time past, was on our streets yesterday looking very much improved. —In consequence of a failure to secure hospital facilities, the College of Physicians and Surgeons have concluded to postpone the course of winter lectures heretofore advertised. —Will our "City Fathers" be so good as to take a look at the sidewalk on the Northern side of Market, near the corner of Third street, and give us the result of their observations? —The Grand Jury have not yet returned a true bill in the suit for libel which certain officials are seeking to bring against the Editors of the Wilmington Journal, at the instance of Judge Bond. —The lost child alluded to yesterday as having been picked up on the streets and carried to the station house for safe-keeping, was claimed by its frightened parents on Monday night and taken home. —The registration books for the 1st and 2nd divisions of the First Ward are kept open at the office of W. H. Merrick, J. P., over Mr. F. M. Agostini's store, on Market street, from sunrise to sunset. —The lost package advertised in yesterday's STAR was handed in promptly. Having a local circulation at least fifty per cent. larger than that of any other Wilmington paper, the STAR ought to be a pretty good advertising medium. —Old Boreas seemed to delight in throwing sand in the eyes of pedestrians yesterday. It was a "cool" proceeding on his part, as all were convinced who became exposed to his rude blasts on the dry and dusty thoroughfares. —Owing to his engagements in Court, J. J. Cassidy, Esq., Registrar for the Second Ward, has but very little time to devote to his registration books. When Court is not in session those wishing to register will find him in the Court House, where his books will be open. —The Grand Jury returned four true bills yesterday.

Locked Out.

The Grand Jury, upon meeting yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of entering upon the discharge of their duties, found themselves locked out, Solicitor Cantwell, who usually occupies the room as an office, being absent with the key in his pocket. They waited until about 4 o'clock, standing disconsolate and indignant at the door, when finally an adjournment was held until 10 o'clock this morning. Their failure to get in the room appropriated for their use may account for the fact that no action was taken yesterday in the matter of the libel indictment against the editors of the Journal.

Charge Not Sustained.

The case of Joanna Nixon, colored, charged with stealing a trunk, containing a watch and other articles, from Mr. Stephen Craig, came up before Justice Cassidy yesterday, who, upon hearing the evidence and finding the charge not sustained, dismissed the case and the defendant was discharged.

Look Them Up.

Previous to the war a Young Men's Christian Association was in existence in this city and many volumes from its library were borrowed and not returned by our citizens. A friend suggests, in view of this fact, that if families would search for them and return them to the present association the missing volumes could be put to good use.

The Horse Disease.

By order of the Mayor, City Marshal Canaday has issued a proclamation prohibiting the importation of horses to this city, from any State where the horse epidemic exists, until further orders. This is a sensible step on the part of the authorities and one which will meet the approval of our citizens generally.

Spirits Turpentine.

—Col. Lee M. McAfee is prostrate in Shelby with consumption. —Miss Jennie Patterson had large and appreciative audiences in Charlotte. —Ramsay, the Good Templar, is stirring up Temperance in the Albemarle region. —Jordan Stone, editor of the News, is attending the Weldon fair as its Secretary. —The Charlotte Home is sorry to learn that W. F. Phifer, Jr., had his hand crushed by a cotton gin. —Col. Lewis Hanes says he will not vote for Grant under any circumstances. So much for Radical misstatements. —The Intelligencer says Statesville was surprised last Sunday evening by the arrival of one hundred and fifty Ku Klux so-called. —A U. S. soldier attempted to escape from the barracks in Raleigh on Saturday, says the News, he was overtaken, arrested and placed in "durance vile." —It is estimated that there were 15,000 visitors in Charlotte on Saturday, the most of whom came to see John Robinson's circus and menagerie. So says the Democrat. —John Capps, Sr., of Long Creek Township, says the Charlotte Home was found dead in his bed. The Coroner was not called in. He was the oldest man in his township, and an excellent citizen. —Says the Greenville Spectator: Mr. H. F. Harris has been appointed postmaster at this place, vice John Congleton, resigned. Mr. H. has also been elected as commissioner of the town, vice Calvin Cox, retired to rural life. —The Era is using the names of prominent Greeley Conservatives as being in favor of the O'Connor fraud. Among these are Capt. G. H. Gregory, of Martin, now commanding for Greeley, Col. M. Long, of Salisbury, and Mr. Arch Henderson, of Calaburg. The Radicals are trying to sell themselves into a victory, but they will only succeed in lying in defeat. —Mr. Turner is at Orange Court to prosecute Holden for the outrage he ordered Kirk & Co. to commit upon him. Judge Tourge will certainly see to it that no harm comes to his friend, the Governor, by reason of conviction under the indictment, says the Sentinel. A penny and cost will be the extent of the punishment. —The Charlotte Democrat reports the following fair accidents: Mr. Frank Little, who sells beef in the city, was severely injured last week by a kick from his mule. —A race horse on the Fair Ground track pawed down his owner, Mr. Franklin, and injured him severely. —A horse run away with a buggy, broke a man's leg, broke the buggy and caused the horses attached to two wagons to run off. —It would be more honest in the fellows who encouraged Ku Kluxing and belonged to the Klans, to come square out for Grant instead of pretending to be for O'Connor. The supporters of O'Connor are nothing but Grant men in a flimsy and dishonest disguise, some of whom have adopted the garb to keep out of the penitentiary for their connection with the unlawful Ku Klux organization. —Charlotte Democrat: There are two, three or four of these fellows in the State. —The Democrat thus speaks of the late Charlotte Fair: The Fair last week was well attended considering the terrible bad weather. It rained every day except Saturday, and the mud was very bad. But notwithstanding the inclement weather there was a good show of articles in each department. The Address of Col. D. Wyatt Aiken of South Carolina, on Thursday, was one of the best of the kind ever delivered anywhere. We heard several eminent gentlemen speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It was practical and suited to the occasion. —We see it stated in some of our exchanges that N. H. D. Wilson, Esq., assignee of the Bank of Cape Fear, will carry a case up to the Supreme Court of the United States, involving the question of the constitutionality of the Homestead Act, so far as it applies to debts contracted before the adoption of the present State Constitution. When the Supreme Court of the State decides this case to be irrespectively its nature, we believe the Radicals conceded that it was a "political necessity," and if the Supreme Court of the United States now decides that the former decision of the State Court was illegal, and does not apply to debts contracted before the Homestead Act became a law, then the exemptions now claimed by parties under the Homestead Act, so far as old debts are concerned will be of no avail. —Statesville Intelligencer.

PROCLAMATION.

Owing to the horse malady that is now raging in nearly all of the Northern cities, which has proved to be contagious and very dangerous, the city authorities have decided not to allow any horses or mules to be brought in the city from any State which is affected with the DISEASE, until further orders. Persons who are dealing in horses will take notice, as the above will be strictly enforced. By order of the Mayor, W. P. CANADAY, City Marshal.
