Splendid News from Granville—Saunders and Others doing Noble Work among the Colored People.

The Raleigh News learns that W.
U. Saunders, William Cawthorn, Haywood Reavis and Samuel J. Cross, all colored, have just completed a thorough canvass of Granville, with fine effect. There is no room to doubt that Granville will largely decrease her heavy Radical majority. We learn that a large number of colored men in that county are daily coming over to the support of Greeley, being thoroughly convinced that he is a much better friend to them than Grant.

WATCH.

Watch your tickets. See that the names of the candidates and all the Greeley and Brown Electors are on.
Don't vote a ticket unless you know it is all right. The Radicals are up to all sorts of tricks.

POLITICAL SUMMARY.

LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

Gov. Seymour addressed a large audience at Clinton, New York, Wednesday.

A large part of Poughkeepsie heard Francis Kernan and others Thursday night.

W. U. Saunders, the colored Greeley orator, writes in a confident vein about this State to the Liberal headquarters in New York.

Letters received daily at the headquarters of the Liberal Republican National Committee from all parts of the Union convey the most cheering intelligence.

In Schuyler county, New York, one John R. Woodward has been caught in the act of corrupting voters in the interest of T. C. Platt, Grant candidate for Congress in the 28th District.

A member of the National Committee, writing from California to the Democratic headquarters, says: We shall carry this State for Greeley and Brown, and elect over four members of Congress.

John Pope Hodnett writes that Cook county, Ill., will be carried for Greeley and Brown by 8,000 to 10,000, and the State by a handsome majority. Indiana, he claims, is sure for the Liberal candidates.

Theodore Tilton is carrying on a brave canvass in New Hampshire.
He spoke at Dartmouth College and Lebanon, on the 31st ult. to enthusiastic audiences. No enthusiasm among the Granite in the Granite State. Every indication points to a Liberal success Tuesday.

W. C. Newbury, a member of the National Executive Committee, writing from Virginia, says: Virginia is safe for Greeley and Brown. We shall carry the State and gain one Congressman. Our committees of both wings are actively pushing matters and no fear need be entertained of Virginia.

An important mass meeting of Democrats and Liberal Republicans occurred at Nantux Hall, Tompkins-ville, Long Island, Thursday evening.
The Liberal nominations were enthusiastically ratified, addresses afterwards being made by the Hon. R. S.
Tharin, Gen. Thomas S. Bourke, and others.

About 5,000 workmen of the XVth Assembly District congregated Thursday evening, at First-ave. and Nineteenth-st., New York, to participate in a spirited rally and to indorse the Liberal Republican and Democratic National, State, and county ticket. Messrs. Tilden, Lawrence and Kelley, among others, spoke.

The last of a series of Greeley and Brown mass meetings in Newark, N. J., was held in the Opera House Thursday evening. An immense concourse of people was in attendance.
The utmost enthusiasm and confidence in the Liberal Democratic strength of New Jersey prevailed.
Speeches were made by Gov. Parker, Senator John F. Stockton, John R.
McPherson, the Hon. John E.
Robinson and others.

The series of political demonstrations under the auspices of the Boston Printer's Greeley and Brown Club culminated Thursday night with a grand ratification meeting. Fan-

A Victim to the Poll Destroyer.

Many of our citizens, especially those connected with the fire department, will remember J. Frank Hazel, Esq., who officiated as orator on the occasion of the visit of the Washington Fire Company of Wilmington, Del., to this city about a year ago.

We have received a copy of the Times, a newspaper published at Smyrna, Del., where Mr. Hazel resided, announcing his death from consumption on Saturday of last week, he having contracted the terrible disease during the trip alluded to. Few men in Delaware, according to the Times, enjoyed as high and extended a reputation for talent and oratorical ability, coupled with almost unrivaled powers as a conversationalist, as the deceased. He was also noted for his kind heart and genial disposition, which won for him hosts of friends wherever he was known. During his brief stay in our city he made the acquaintance of many who will regret exceedingly to hear of his death. He was a devoted and able lawyer, and a feeling tribute to his memory in a speech delivered on Monday last.

A Commendable Spirit.

As an example well worthy of imitation, we would state that a gentleman, now engaged in one of the Railroad machine shops of this city, who has not been in this State long enough to vote, left for his home in Portsmouth, Va., yesterday morning, for the purpose of voting for Greeley and Brown.

He has been a life-long Democrat, but says that wherever his party leads in the effort to overthrow the tyrannical party now in power, he is content to follow. Let our friends everywhere but evince a like commendable spirit and Greeley and Brown will be triumphantly elected.

Repairing the Fire Alarms.

The different alarm bells were overhauled and put in order yesterday. To prevent any alarm to the fire department from the striking of the bells to test them the engineers of the various companies were notified. Notwithstanding this precaution, however, several young gentlemen were successful in getting the red ball during the afternoon.

Robinson's Circus.

As far back as we can remember, the advantage of Robinson's circus (then Robinson & Eldred's) was hailed by circus-goers with the most intense delight, and it has steadily gained in popularity and gigantic proportions until it has become decidedly the best travelling show in the country. This is given up on all sides, and the tremendous crowds which it draws at every point where it spreads its canvass is proof sufficient of its intrinsic merits. "Old John," with his stupendous establishment, will make his appearance in our city Tuesday morning and exhibit here two days. Those who desire to witness a really good circus, with specimens of the animal creation from all quarters of the globe, should avail themselves of this opportunity.

Enforcement of the Horse Quarantine.

Some person in Philadelphia having two very fine horses, which he was afraid would be attacked by the prevailing disease, shipped them on the steamer Pioneer to this port. They reached here yesterday and as soon as the fact became known to the authorities they were removed outside of the city limits, in accordance with the proclamation of the Mayor forbidding the introduction of horses from any infected State during the prevalence of the epidemic.

lespie, employed as a deck hand on the
