NEW RAILROAD LINE.
We announce with real pleasure the presence in our city of Mr. Arthur Holmes, the Attorney of the new railroad corporation to be known as the Atlantic and Pacific Seaboard Railway. Mr. Holmes has come here to solicit the substantial co-operation of our people in this great enterprise; and we cordially wish him success.

The road, as projected, will run from Norfolk, Va., to Charleston, S. C., via Wilmington. It will strike the North Carolina State line in Gates county, passing through the counties of Gates, Hertford, Bertie, Martin, Beaufort, Craven, Jones, Onslow, New Hanover and Brunswick to the South Carolina line, and thence via Conwayboro and Georgetown, S. C., to the city of Charleston.

From Suffolk to Wilmington the road traverses almost an air-line, and the saving of distance between Norfolk and Wilmington will be from 60 to 65 miles. There will also be a corresponding saving of distance between Wilmington and Charleston.

It will touch the head waters of the North Carolina Sounds and open up an area of territory nearly as large as the State of Massachusetts, developing its immense resources and bringing to our city an amount of trade that would add greatly to our growth and prosperity.

But we will not discuss the question further at this time than to say that we consider this road almost a necessity for Wilmington. And why we consider it a necessity we may attempt to explain in a future article.

THE ANGRY PELICAN.
From our night dispatches it will be seen that Louisiana laborers under all the misery of a state of perfect political chaos. Two Legislatures are in session. The military arm has been invoked by one of the factions. The clerk of the House of Representatives is incarcerated by the United States Marshal. The Custom House Legislature has impeached the Governor. A hotter old cauldron doesn't exist—Arkansas and Alabama being nowhere in the competition.

STATE FARMERS CONVENTION.
The Farmer's Convention will assemble in Raleigh to-morrow. All the friends of agriculture in the Old North State are invited to attend. We hope the attendance will be good. These meetings of farmers will do much for the material interest of our noble State if conducted with the right spirit.

575.00 in Cash for $1.
We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of the Nebraska State Orphan Asylum. Here is a chance to win a fortune in a Public Legal Drawing, and at the same time help a noble and worthy institution.

Enterprising.
We learn that the new Hall at Sumter, S. C., intended for a theatre, &c., is a splendid structure for a town of that size. It is of wood, but is finished off in excellent style, with good stage, dressing room, etc. The scenery is being painted by Mr. C. R. Burr, of this city, whose skill as an artist in his line is excelled by few. The lower part of the building is used for stores and Market House. Judging from what our informant, Mr. J. W. Spalding, says of the new structure, it is admirably adapted for the purposes for which it was built and reflects great credit upon our Sumter friends, who evidently believe in keeping pace with the times.

Sudden Death.
Mr. Purdie Richardson, of Wadesboro, died suddenly in that town, on Sunday morning last, at the advanced age of 72 years. He was taken ill about 5 o'clock in the morning and died before a physician could reach him. His death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease. Mr. Richardson was one of the most prominent citizens of the place and his sudden demise causes much sorrow in the community.

The Officers.
The following is a list of the officers of the Atlantic and Pacific Seaboard Railway Company: President, Gen. Charles B. Stuart, New York; Vice-President, Henry M. Drake, Wilmington; Secretary, W. A. Greenleaf, New York; Treasurer, J. A. Graham, New York; Attorney, Arthur Holmes, New York.

Local Notes.

—There were no cases for trial before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning.
—Boatmen pronounce the river at Fayetteville so low that boats cannot leave there with full freights.
—We are indebted to Hon. A. M. Waddell, our Representative in Congress, for copies of the Daily Globe.

—Gilbert had some splendid oysters on hand yesterday, as usual, and they were going off like hot cakes. For luscious bivalves, commend us to Mr. Gilbert.

—Preparations are being made to lay a stone pavement on the North side of Market street, which is to take the place of the dilapidated brick pavement in that locality.

—The Brig Adelaide, Capt. Wilson, which arrived at this port on Sunday, from Havana, had heavy weather on the voyage, losing some of her spars, which will necessitate slight repairs.

—John Smith, charged with assault and battery on Simon Jones, both colored, had a hearing before W. H. Merrick, J. P., yesterday, who dismissed the case at the cost of the prosecutor.

—We are in receipt of an invitation, with the compliments of Mr. Bruce Williams, of this county, to attend the celebration of the 38th anniversary of the Emancipation and Philanthropic Societies of Wake Forest College, to take place on the 14th of February, 1873.

A Band of Thieves Come to Grief.

Reuben Looney, who has frequently been before the police court on the charge of violating city ordinances, was arrested at the foot of Dock street, yesterday afternoon, by Officer R. H. Brown, under suspicious circumstances. He was taken to the Guard House and, upon making the usual search incident to the arrival of a new prisoner, four boxes of fine cigars were found secreted under his overcoat. Upon being closely questioned, he implicated two other colored boys, Ed. Murphy and John Mott, in the thievery which had been going on, whereupon warrants were issued for their arrest and they were subsequently captured and lodged in the Guard House to keep company with Looney. Upon the person of Mott, one of Looney's confederates, a jar of brandy peaches was found. The parties will probably have a hearing before the Mayor's Court this morning.

Meeting of Israelites.

The necessary Committees were appointed and the meeting adjourned.

Masonic.
John Nichols, Esq., of Raleigh, who was elected Grand Master at the late session of the Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., at that place, has appointed Thos. M. Gardner, Esq., of this city, Deputy Grand Master. As Mr. Gardner enjoys the reputation among the fraternity of being pretty thoroughly posted in everything that pertains to the "mystic order," his appointment cannot prove otherwise than satisfactory to all concerned.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Kate Putnam Troupe.

A large and fashionable audience greeted Miss Putnam upon her first appearance in Wilmington. Almost any hyperbole of praise, in our notice of this initial performance of Miss Putnam, would be warranted by the manifest and appreciative delight of her auditors. The radiant incidents of artistic success and of demonstrative enthusiasm on the part of the audience, made this brilliant occasion a real ovation, which, we are sure, gave the fair artist a vast deal of satisfaction.

Our judgment of Miss Putnam, as seen for the first time, is that she is a remarkable blending of Maggie Mitchell and Lotta, two extremes of contrast, to be sure, but yet making a rare aggregate of artistic merit. She exerts Maggie Mitchell in depth and pathos, though she hardly equals Lotta in those piquant and pungent features which make the latter a veritable work of drollery. Yet Miss Putnam is a better actress in the aggregate than either of the talented artists we have named.

Our brethren of the press in Raleigh, Norfolk and Richmond, had not exaggerated Miss Putnam's stage attractions. The average dramatic critic is often spoony and always susceptible in the presence of golden tresses, shining eyes and nimble feet, making a bewildering aggregate of charms which sings and dances and capers about the stage, suggesting only visions of beauty and filling the soul with mirth and melody. As Dick Swicell observes, Miss Putnam, as "Little Nell," is lovely and she's a stunner.

The company is an excellent one. Mr. Browne is a light comedian of fine abilities. We like him at first sight, and are satisfied that he will wear well. We have not space to discuss the company in detail.

It is useless to deny it; we are captured by Miss Putnam, and in the language of the Raleigh critic, "Let's all go to-night" to see Meg's Deversion and the Little Rebel.

Rocky Point.

Dr. E. Porter, of the enterprising village of Rocky Point, in this county, gives notice in our advertising columns that he will sell thirty building lots at that place on the 20th of December. The rare inducements here held out to purchasers to secure property in the centre of a great agricultural region is only equalled by the liberality of Dr. Porter, who, we are informed, has announced his purpose of donating one-sixth of the proceeds of the sale to the building of a church at that point, the particular denomination to use the same to be determined by the citizens. He will also donate three other lots, each to a separate denomination, on which to erect church edifices. With such incentives as this, we may naturally conclude that Rocky Point will soon be a flourishing village.

Persons wishing to attend the sale will be charged only one fare for the round trip on the W. & W. Railroad.

Death of a Prominent Merchant.

The announcement of the death of Capt. W. R. Bass, which occurred in this city on Sunday last, will prove a source of no little sorrow in the community, in which he was held in the highest esteem. Capt. Bass was a native of Wayne county, where he was born in the year 1833. He has been a resident of this city for the past three years and endeared himself to all with whom his business and social relations brought him in contact. The Chamber of Commerce, of which he was an active member, had a meeting yesterday and passed resolutions of respect and condolence. His funeral took place from the First Baptist Church yesterday afternoon, his remains being followed to the grave by the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member, the Chamber of Commerce and a large number of our citizens generally. Truly can we say, in this instance, a good man has fallen.

Legislature of North Carolina.

EIGHTEENTH DAY.

[Condensed from the News and Sentinel.]

SENATE.

RALEIGH, Saturday, Dec. 7, 1872.

President Morehead in the Chair.
Reports of standing committees were presented by Messrs. Fleming, Welch, Love and Todd.

Chair announced as committee upon the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad, Messrs. Fleming, Worth and —.

Senate concurred in House resolution on constitutional reform. This resolution instructs the Joint Select committee on Constitutional Reform to enquire into the propriety of amending article 5, sec. 6, of the Constitution of North Carolina.

House resolution on taking a recess that a recess of the two houses be taken from the 18th of December to the 15th of January next, was considered.

Mr. Dunham thought it was apparent to every one there should be a recess. Mr. Murphy considered the proposed recess unnecessary long. He had hoped to see the business of the session ended by the last of December, but he found that to be impossible. He preferred no recess, and yet he would not see the session end without a recess of the two houses be taken from the 18th of December to the 15th of January next, was considered.

Mr. Fleming's amendment that the Legislature adjourn sine die on the 18th inst., was lost.

The original resolution, that a recess be taken from the 18th inst. to the 15th of January, was adopted.

HOUSE REPRESENTATIVES.

Speaker Robinson in the chair.

By Mr. Perry, of Bladen: A bill to allow the commissioners of Bladen to adjust the debt of the county; calendar.

The bill to authorize the imprisonment of persons convicted in the U. S. Courts in this State in the State prison, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The resolution authorizing the State Geologist to publish a pamphlet descriptive of the climate, soil, minerals, &c., of the several counties of the State was taken up, and after some discussion was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections favorable to the claim of Mr. Warlick of Burke, was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Marler, was indefinitely postponed.

The bill for the relief of Sheriffs and other persons was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Maxwell, was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Marler, was indefinitely postponed.

The cotton market here is a growing place. The cotton market here is said to be first-rate. There are 4 stores, 2 eating houses, a Methodist church, a good school, 3 liquor shops, one doctor and a coffin maker.

—The Goldsboro Messenger is glad to learn that, all things considered, the Clinton Fair last week was quite a success and reflected credit on the officers of the Sampson county Agricultural Society and the people of Sampson generally. The exhibition of hogs and cattle is spoken of very complimentary. The attendance, too, was very fair.

—The American Geographical Society of Cooper Institute, New York, have requested of Governor Caldwell the collection, for the exhibition at the Vienna International Exposition, of such maps, large photographs of striking scenery, reports, State surveys, and statistical information, as may best portray the material progress, the prosperity, and unequalled advantages of our country. So says the Star.

—The Grand Lodge of Masons elected these officers for the ensuing year: John Nichols, Raleigh, Grand Master; Thos. M. Gardner, Wilmington, Deputy Grand Master; Clinton A. Cilley, Lenoir, Grand Secretary; Senior Grand Warden; Robert W. Hardie, Fayetteville, Junior Grand Warden; William Anderson, Raleigh, Grand Treasurer; Donald W. Beale, Raleigh, Grand Secretary; Rev. J. C. Marcom, Harrell county, Grand Chaplain; Samuel A. Williams, Oxford, Senior Grand Deacon; E. P. Edwards, Concord, Junior Grand Deacon; J. W. Gidney, Shelby, Grand Marshal; H. A. Gidney, Madison county, Grand Sword Bearer; J. W. Beasley, Bertie county, Grand Pursuivant; H. C. Prempert, Raleigh, Grand Tyler.

Have you seen that dependent, drowsy, debilitated, free frequent headaches, month tastes badly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, are you suffering from liver or biliousness? Nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. dec 10-16w2-v7,74,84

"Can't do without it."—This is what the stage and horse car companies, livery stable keepers, drivers of carts, and all grocers and traders say of the MURRAY LUMBER. They "can't do without it." And why? Because it infallibly reduces the external swellings, &c., which, under various names, impair the usefulness and value of the skin of quadrupeds, and also because, for sprains, strains, galls and other injuries to horse-flesh is liable, it is the most trustworthy preparation in the market. For these recommendations compare only a portion of its claims to public confidence. The period of its existence, its long and successful use, its recognition as a specific for many of the most agonizing disorders which afflict the human family, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, headache, toothache, sore throat, earache, toothache, and like ailments, and its application to cuts, bruises, burns and scalds. dec 10-16w2-v7,74,84

When the pure medical restorative, now so widely known as DR. WOLFE'S SCUM-BURNER, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession, some twenty years ago, its proprietors well aware that it could not, without escape, be the subject of all new and useful preparations, they determined to invest in it with the strongest possible safeguard against counterfeits and imitations, to render all attempts to pirate its name and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them to be a pure and perfect preparation. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for the purpose of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation, and report of the results, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the United States responded. Their conclusions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the medical profession, as no reliable could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were either adulterated, or contained some deleterious medicinal purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Scum-Burner, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant, as a diuretic, tonic and restorative. dec 10-16w2-v7,74,84

Dear little Emma, her sufferings o'er,
With tears and sighs will well;
