OUTLINES.

Daily's loss by the burning of the Fifth Avenue Theatre was over a fourth of a million. The building belonged to Mrs. James Fisk. —— The Herald's Washington special says Grant has used Attorney General Williams as a cover in the Louisiana usurpation. —— Georgia State Immigration Convention at Macon was largely attended. —— Ship Bennington, bound from Liverpool to Callao, wrecked off Canaries, loss of eight persons. —— Two or three fatal stabbing cases in New York Wednesday night. —— In a collision of passenger trains on the Macon and Western R. R., 37 miles from Atlanta, eight negroes were killed and ten or twelve negroes and three whites injured. —— New York markets: Cotton, 20¼@21¼ cents; Gold, 111¼. —— All available regular troops have been sent from Havana to the scene of the war at Holquin. It is said the Cubans will elect Agramonte President in place of Cespedes.

The character of the myrmidons who execute the harsh Ku Klux law is fully shown up in the extract we make to-day from the Hickory (Catawba county) Eagle. It is a specimen brick from the Radical kiln (kill) and amply illustrates the misgovernment of the South by that party. But this outrage is reinforced by those published in yesterday's STAR.

The sinking of the Bennington and the collision on the Macon and Western Railroad are the latest horrors.—Nearly a score of human lives were destroyed in these calamities, only the persons on one boat having been lost by the Bennington disaster.

A Bohemian of the Boreal regions, determined to freeze the genial current of the soul, informs us that a French gentleman and his wife are still taking ocean baths at Cape May.

Notes and Gleanings.

LOYAL REGULATORS.

A POOR CONSUMPTIVE HASTENED TO HIS GRAVE BY BRUTAL TREATMENT FROM KU-KLUX HUNTERS.

[From the Hickory Eagle.]

A friend on the South Fork, writes, speaks of the death of Mr. Sidney Yoder, a highly respected young man living in that section.

Our correspondent says: "The week preceding the United States Circuit Court at Statesville, in November last, Andy Ramsour, Peter Sharp and John Miller, went to Yoder's house at night, firing several shots at the house as they approached, greatly alarming Yoder, his wife and children, and arrested him as a Ku Klux. Yoder was in feeble health—a consumptive. But notwithstanding this, the blood-hound of this trio, who has so often abused, and in the most wanton manner, his official authority, had him tied, and run him about over the neighborhood that night, hunting down other victims. From this night, our correspondent states, his health began to decline, visibly, and continued to decline until he sank away to his eternal rest, on the night of the 24th following. He leaves two poor little children and a distressed wife to mourn his loss. Whether his blood is upon the hands of this inhuman wretch, or not, his conduct under such circumstances was barbarous, and such as to cause his removal from the position he occupies. We mean "Andy Ramsour."

The South Carolina Railroad Bonds.

The South Carolina Railroad Company announces that it is about to retire its non-morgage bonds and other temporary obligations through the proceeds of second mortgage bonds, the amount of the issue of which will be $3,000,000. The price of these, so the Treasurer gives notice, will, after the 31st day of December, be 75 per cent. and accrued interest. The bonds thus offered bear date Oct. 1, and have attached coupons for seven per cent. per annum interest, payable in April and October, in the city of New York. The first mortgage upon the company's valuable property, which is fully equipped and in excellent condition, amounts to only $1,000,000, or about $12,5000 per mile. For the new bonds payment will be accepted as follows, viz: Two-thirds of the purchase money will be received in the seven per cent. non-mortgage bonds of the company at seventy-five per cent., and the balance in cash. —Augusta Constitutionalist.

Cincinnati is bestirring itself to secure a direct connection with the Chesapeake and Ohio road at Huntingdon. According to the latest report only thirteen miles of road remains to be completed to give through communication from the Ohio to Norfolk. By the proposed road to Huntingdon Cincinnati will be brought some hundred and fifty miles nearer to the seaboard and enjoy all all the advantages of the trade of the rich sections through which the road passes.

Destructive fires are reported in various parts of Louisiana, and many of them have suspicious appearances of incendiarism.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XI.—NO. 88. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1873. WHOLE NO. 1,628.

The World's Greatest Warrior.

An English correspondent gives the following curious sketch of Von Moltke, Germany's great general: "While going to church I noticed near me the uniform of a general officer, some one who impressed me at first as the youngest, blondest and slenderest general officer I ever saw, and I tried to divine how promotion could have been so rapid in an army where everything is regular. I looked again, and the quick, elastic step, and slender, almost woman-like waist, contrasted strangely with his rank, which I noticed to be that of a full general. On looking into his face I was still more surprised to recognize General Von Moltke. We continued on to the chapel door together. He is a man of few words, of a singularly youthful expression of countenance and eye; and although one knows that he is seventy years of age, and heavy time lines mark his face, it is hard to shake off the idea that he is not a boy. He has a light complexion, a clear blue eye, flaxen hair, white eyebrows, and no beard."

Tittle Tattle.

Three weeks ago, His Holiness the Pope received some American ladies and gentlemen at the Vatican. The audience was short, in consequence of the Pope having been indisposed; but its brevity was compensated by the gracious manner in which His Holiness asked each lady her name and birthplace, and made some complimentary remark, or quoted some circumstances having reference to the locality in which they resided. One young lady who had carried out all the instructions of the master of the ceremonies, became so dreadfully confused on being asked by the Pope her place of birth, that she told her age instead, replying to the query addressed to her, "24, your Holiness;" and on the Pope's replying, "I do not know that place," she answered, "No! your Holiness, pray forgive me; I am 29 next birthday." How charmingly simple and touching!

Cold Comfort for Travellers.

The New York World devotes a column to the discussion of the question, "Are our hotels safe?" As the hotel plays a very important part in our social and business life, it is certainly of some importance to have the matter definitively settled. The editor then comes to the conclusion that, dangerous as may be our halls and theatres, the establishments alluded to are infinitely worse built and worse guarded—in short, they are nothing but "man traps," "funeral pyres," etc., etc., without fire-escapes or anything else that they ought to have in case of emergency.

— The following is the account of the explosion at the spoke and handle factory in Charlotte on the 31st, taken from the Observer: The steam had gone down and the machinery had been stopped until more steam could be made, the eccentric stopping fairly upon a centre. When sufficient steam had been made in the boiler to start the machinery again, the engineer turned the whole of it on, the eccentric still on a centre, he neglecting to prize it off until after he had turned the steam on. Failing to move the engine, he then resorted to a lever to move the eccentric, and was in the act of doing this when the explosion occurred, the water flying out the front part of the boiler, and completely immersing all those in the vicinity. The following are the names of the persons scalded: Eddy Lewis, white, aged about 7 years—seriously; J. G. Lee and Lee Rudsill, both white—seriously; Frank Thompson, colored—seriously; Jake Myers, the engineer—slightly; and a colored man, not an employe of the factory, whose name is unknown.

— Says the Raleigh Era: The collections of internal revenue in this city for the month of December 1872 amount to $39,82.30. Collections for the quarter commencing 1st of October and ending 31st of December, 1872, $115,97.24. And from the 1st of January '73 to the 31st of December, the collections amount to $379,940.93.

— Rev. F. H. Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lexington, sends the N. C. Presbyterian intelligence of a pleasant communion meeting, which was followed by several days' preaching with encouraging results.

— The Newbern Liberal thinks it strange a white man can't cough on the streets without being overhauled by the police, but a colored "gem'man" can whoop and race his horse with perfect impunity.

— Chicken and turkey thieves are disturbing the tranquility of Raleigh.

Terrible Accident.

Yesterday wasn't a first-rate day for "locals"; we can hardly class it as "low middling." The "fire fiend" did none of his lively work, and consequently nobody got a red ball or had the honor of steering the Hook and Ladder truck to the fire; pugilists did no fighting to speak of, and we can't even mention the weather as being "the coldest within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant." We looked over the Monthly Report of the Department of Agriculture, read carefully the latest issue of the Shelby Banner, and committed to memory the North Carolina Almanac; but in neither of these publications did we find anything calculated to create a local sensation.

This is sad, but it is true; and it fully establishes the fact that "A man's manners commonly make his fortune," and that General Washington was "First in peace, first in war, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

What effect all this is to have on the price of putty, Von Moltke himself cannot tell; but we see no reason in the world why our city market-house should not be removed and the whipping-post abolished in the State of Delaware.

Perhaps you may not see the connection just here; neither did the Southward-bound passengers see it at Weldon yesterday. And while discussing this question of States Rights, including the report of the Geneva Arbitration and the tax on distilled spirits, would it not be well for us all to be vaccinated? We cannot determine whether or not the Fire Department of this city has hose enough to draw the engines to fires; but to remove all doubts, we have determined to make no advance in our subscription rates. Therefore, we submit that the Constitutional Amendments are revolutionary, null and void, and that every good citizen should contribute something to the treasury of the Ladies' Benevolent Society.

As we said before, in reference to the Masque Ball, "General Taylor never surrenders." And this grows out of the fact that fifteen Conservatives voted for Merrimon and thereby prevented an appropriation to build a new post-office in Wilmington. And thus endeth the chapter, in the face of obstacles that would make anybody "feel like a MORNING STAR."

The Poll Tax.

As the Tax Collector for this county will soon enter upon the work of collecting the poll tax due by delinquents by attaching or garnisheeing the wages or debts due to such delinquents, we have thought the law in reference to this matter would not be uninteresting to our readers. Section 2 of the act to raise revenue, passed by the General Assembly at its last session, says: On each taxable poll or male between the ages of twenty one and fifty, except such poor and infirm persons as the County Commissioners may declare and record fit subjects for exemption, there shall be annually levied and collected a tax of one dollar and five cents, the proceeds of such tax to be devoted to purposes of education as may be prescribed by law. If any poll tax shall not be paid within sixty days after the same is demandable it shall the duty of the Tax Collector, if he can find no property of the person liable sufficient to satisfy the same, to attach any debt or other property incapable of manual delivary, due or belonging to the person liable, or that may become due to him before the expiration of the callendar year, and the person owing such debt or having such property in possession, shall be liable for said tax.

It will be seen by the above that delinquents will save themselves much trouble and expense by settling with the Tax Collector ere he commences the proceedings alluded to.

Assaulting Seamen.

A white man, who passes under the name of Owen Joseph Malarkey, was arrested yesterday on the charge of assault and battery on the persons of two seamen named Chas. Miller and Geo. G. Howe. The difficulty took place yesterday morning in the alley in the rear of the Seamen's Home. Malarkey proved quite belligerent when the police attemped to effect his capture and it was with considerable difficulty that he was finally lodged in the Guard House.

Chimney Sweeps.

It is a little singular that in a city as large as Wilmington, with so many idle hands daily visible on the streets, there can be found no one ambitious enough to undertake the business of a chimney sweep. It could certainly be made a lucrative business to any one who would embark in the enterprise, as we are confident there are hundreds of our citizens who would prefer to have their chimneys swept at regular intervals rather than follow the risky custom of burning them out.

Hold on to Your Overcoats.

Some thief stole a fine yellow overcoat from Mr. J. M. Clark, at the residence of Mr. D. J. Gilbert, corner of Second and Ann streets, a night or two since. He laid the coat on the banister for the purpose of entering the house and when he returned a minute afterwards it was gone. He would be thankful for its return before the next "cold spell" sets in.

— The Board of Aldermen meet in regular monthly session on Monday evening next.

Local Dots.

— The police force were paid off yesterday.

— There was no session of the City Court yesterday.

— The Board of County Commissioners meet on Monday next.

— Yesterday was warm and pleasant, but "Old Sol" had a poor showing.

— Macawber like, our amusement-lovers are now waiting for something to turn-up.

— Mr. Nat Raymer is agent for the "Wilmington Life" at Hickory Tavern, and the Eagle says he knows his business.

— "Old Prob." predicts rain for this latitude to-day and from appearences as we go to press he will not fall short of the mark.

— Mr. J. W. Spalding, who has just returned from Sumter, says Miss Jeanie Patterson met with very fair success in that lively town.

— Mr. Geo. N. Harriss, formerly connected with this paper, has assumed the position of Commercial Reporter and Business Manager of the Post. He has our best wishes.

— The Superior Court Clerk and Deputy are up to their eyes in work, preparing for the approaching four weeks' session of the Superior Court, which convenes in this city on Monday, the 27th inst.

— The officers of Mt. Olivet Council No. 9, F. of T., will be installed at their Hall this evening, at 7½ o'clock, by Mr. Wm. M. Poisson, D. V. P. The public are respectfully invited to be present.

— In our notice of the Masquerade Ball which took place on Tuesday night we neglected to make any mention of the character of "Don Cæsar de Bazan." The costume worn by the Don was procured in Baltimore, having been made expressly for the wearer by a celebrated theatrical costumer, and was really superb.

Another Fire.

Last night, about a quarter to twelve o'clock, our citizens were again startled by the alarm of fire, which was found to proceed from the building on Front street, between Market and Dock streets, occupied by Mr. J. S. Higbie as a crockery, glassware and toy store. Every effort was made by persons on and near the premises to extinguish the flames, but they spread so rapidly that in a few minutes the whole building was a mass of fire.

The Cape Fear steam fire engine arrived at the scene in an almost incredible short space of time and soon had a rousing stream on the fire which quickly brought it under control. The other engines were also promptly on the spot, and, with the assistance of Messrs. Hart & Bailey's foundry engine, saved the adjoining buildings, which at one time were considered almost certain to be destroyed.

The building burned was of wood and was a small, rickety affair. It belonged to Mr. L. A. Hart and was valued at about $600, upon which there was an insurance of probably about $200 or $300. It was located between the brick store of Messrs. Parker & Taylor, occupied as a tinware and stove depot and manufactory, and the store and saloon of Mr. Henry Bremer, also of brick, which did much towards confining the fire to the building where it originated.

Much of Mr. Higbie's stock was removed from the building, but in a damaged condition. Messrs. Parker & Taylor's loss is quite heavy from the breakage in removing his goods. The gable end of Mr. Bremer's store continued to burn at intervals during the continuance of the fire, but the flames in that quarter were not allowed to assume dangerous proportions.

All of the engines did good service and the Hook and Ladder Company was prompt and efficient as usual.

The wind blew heavily at the commencement of the fire and there were grave apprehensions at one time that the entire business portion of the city might be swept by the devouring element before morning, as sparks were being wafted in every direction; but, thanks to the fire department and the fact that the roofs of buildings were wet from recent rains, the fire fiend was checked in its devastating career.

It is stated that Mr. Higbie was partially insured.

Mr. Joshua Craig, who occupied a room adjoining the Higbie building as a gunsmith establishment, also lost heavily.

A Sampson County Pig.

Mr. B. S. Peterson, residing near Clinton, Sampson county, sends us the weight of what he terms the largest hog ever raised in Sampson county. There were three of them, a sow and two pigs, which aggregated 1,554 pounds. The heaviest of the pigs, aged two years, 10 months and 20 days, weighed 866 pounds. If any one can beat this we should like to hear from him.

P. L. Association.

We learn that the Pholomathean Literary Association of this city will celebrate the first anniversary of its organization, on the 7th of March next, by a ball to take place at City Hall. The Association now numbers thirty-two active members, all of whom evince much interest in its prosperity. We wish it that degree of success which its influence for good so evidently merits.

— The Fayetteville Eagle learns that John Averitt, of Cumberland county, so badly stabbed by David Watkins, alias "Monk Julia," is better and may recover. Monk is in jail.

— Nothing affords the Hickory Eagle greater pleasure (or causes it to feel prouder than to note the many signs of progress and development in Western North Carolina.

"In these days when alcoholic liquors are so largely consumed, and customers are so much in doubt whether their systems are not being gradually impaired by adulteration, it is well that one at least of the popular beverages of the period is reliable as pure—that is UDOLPHE WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHNAPPS. It is something to be assured by physicians and others of the scientific cognomenti that we have in this article a genuine extract which, taken in moderate quantity and under ordinarily healthy conditions of body, affords a beneficial stimulus to the animal functions, and even if taken in excess leaves but a minimum of the inevitable evils of abuse.

AN APPEAL

TO THE

HUMANITY OF SOUTHERN PEOPLE.

LEE CAMP, No. 1,
SOUTHERN CROSS BROTHERHOOD,
Richmond, Va., July, 1872.

OUR ORDER IS COMPOSED OF CONFEDERATE Soldiers alone, who have left an unblemished record during the war. Its objects are to perpetuate the memory and heroism of our fallen comrades, to aid the families of our former brethren in arms who need assistance, and to try and preserve the truth and purity of history.

We are now specially engaged in the sacred duty of raising funds to make Hollywood Memorial Association in removing the remains of our noble dead from Gettysburg and other points where they are neglected and mistreated, to Hollywood Cemetery near this city, where, through the untiring efforts of our ladies, an honorable resting place is provided, and an enduring monument erected to their memory; and when protected and cared for, they can only receive the honor bestowed on our "Memorial Day," in decorating their graves with flowers. There are yet at Gettysburg the remains of near ONE THOUSAND BODIES; they are from nearly all the States; and when we say, in some instances, the headless wrecks of the vicinity where they fell and lie are ploughing their bones about as if they were dogs, it is enough to make the blood of decent humanity boil, and the pocket—of all who are not false to feeling—false to principle—false to a cause once dear—open to remove these heroes from such indignity and inhumanity.

Some of them are from your State; some of them may have been your dear friends or your own kin; all of them lost their lives in your defence.

You professed to love them while living; you professed to love the cause for which they died. Shall their remains be dishonored when they lost their lives for you? Will you aid us to remove them to a safe and sacred spot, where the warm, noble hearts and gentle care of Virginia women can watch over them? Into whatever hands this appeal falls, we beg you to aid us in this cause, in which our whole soul is enlisted. Ask your friends to aid you. Do not hesitate because you cannot give much; remember, as drops make an ocean, so many small contributions will make a goodly sum.

Can't you spare a day or so to canvass specially for this purpose?

It is necessary to raise several thousand dollars to accomplish our purpose, but we not hesitate to undertake it, as we cannot think Southern people will close their hearts and pockets to such an appeal.

Remit all contributions to W. C. CARRINGTON, care Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company, Richmond, Va., he being Chairman of Committee.

Please act promptly; give as liberally as you can, but give something, and let us bring our brothers away from hostile hands and Northern prisons.
