Many lives were lost. - A Democratic caucus at the Missouri Legislature, held on Saturday night, balloted for a United States Senator without choice. On the eighth ballot the vote stood: Blair. 24: Phelps, 27; Bogg, 26; Anderson, 12; Napton, 6; West, 7; Rollins, 4, and three scattering. Sixty votes were necessary to a choice.

Arrayed in the dress of a Field-Marshal, wearing the cross of the Legion of Honor, the dead ex-Emperor will be buried at Chiselhurst today in the presence of large numbers ot Frenchmen and Englishmen. His son is already addressed as "Sire, Your Majesty Napoleon IV." by the handful of Imperialist refugees.

The Legislature re-convenes in Raleigh this morning. As we have said before, we hope the session will be as short as the business before the body will admit.

Mr. J. R. Webster has taken charge of the Reidsville Record. We hope Mr. Webster may find the newspaper business both pleasant and profitable.

LAST NIGHT'S MAIL

Louisiana-Arkansas Senator in Trouble-Credit Mobiller-Cotton

Tax, etc., etc. [Special Washington Telegrams of 13th, Condensed from Petersburg Index and Norfolk Journal.]

Louislana Chaos. The proceedings in the House today on Louisiana are regarded by judicious friends as favorable on the whole, and indicate an advance in sentiment. There was a difference in the ranks of both sides of the House as to the proper procedure how to remedy the present mixed up affairs in that State. | 1873: Butler thought the Pinchback man might not be legally elected, and he did not know but that the Warmoth party man was. Considered Louisiana in a state of anarchy, andwanted a new deal by Congress.

Shallebarger wanted Dogberry Durell's decision to stand, and let the matter go to the Supreme Court for decision.

Stephenson, of Ohio, in his remarks, said if some of those violent rascals (meaning those who opposed Pinchback) should cut each other's throats, he (Stephenson) would not regret it. Sensation in the House, in the midst of which, Stephenson found his level by sitting down on his wisdom seat.

The Democratic side of the House united in the cry to let Louisiana alone-Federal interference and Federal hands off her.

The resolution was adopted, referring the matter to the Indiciary Committee, and requiring them to investigate immediately into the present state of affairs of Louisiana, on the evidence and information before them conveyed by the President to Representative Sheldon has been offered the nomination for the U. S. Senatorship by Warmouth's party, but he has declined it as useless until the legal status of the Legislature has been established.

The Cotton Tax Refunding Scheme.

The bill to refund the cotton tax is and 35 members from the cotton growing States have signed a memorial stating that they intend to press the measure at the present session. These delegations are unanimous for the bill. This memorial is accompanied by resolutions from the Legislatures of Kentucky, Tennes-see, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Virginia and Texas, and memorials from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce. The Union Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis is in favor of refunding the tax. The bill chiefly favored is one providing for a commission to be appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate to hear and determine all proved up are estimated at something | Janauschek. less than twenty millions of dollars, and it is stated that they are nearly all held by original parties. The Credit Mobilier Muddle.

The investigation of the Credit Mobilier bribery to-day are regarded as fixing more deeply the corruption of Brooks. Dawes makes an ingenious statement but it contradicts his published desire of last fall and admits that he bought this stock and received a dividend of 35 per cent and felt snug until he heard of Duff Green's suit in Pennsylvania. This operated as an immediate disinfectant and he forthwith turned over his burden of sin to poor Ames.

The Arkansas Caldwell.

The committee investigating Senator Caldwell's election have unearthed rank corruption. L. T. Smith, Senator Caldwell's partner in the banking business, testified that Caldwell paid Gov. Corney fifteen thousand dollars to withdraw in his (Caldwell's) favor. After the election Caldwell paid Corney seven thousand additional for expenses incurred during the election.

No Small Pex. As a report has attained circulation in the community that there are one or more cases of small-pox here, we deem it our duty to state that if such is the case, neither the city authorities nor any of our physicians are aware of the fact, which they certainly would be if a case had occurred. We are satisfied that there is not a case of small-pox or varioloid in the city, and the only ground for the report is the fact that a young man, who is now well and walking about the streets, was afflicted with what is known as the chicken pox. Whenever it comes to our knowledge that there attracting much strength in Congress, is in reality a case of small-pox in the city, pronounced such by our physicians, we shall lay the information before our read-in length.

The public need scarcely to be reminded that this great artiste, who has flashed like a meteor across the American stage, but, unlike the meteor, remains to dazzle and to charm the beholder, is to appear in our Opera House next Monday night. She has by sheer force of genius and talent, enriched by liberal culture and hard study, fairly extorted such praise from the press as few actors ever receive. Nothing that we could say could add to the reputation she has already achieved, and we merely recur to the subject for the purpose of calling attention to the following criticism of the Washington Star on her acting in Mary Stuart, which is the piece selected for Monday night: Janauschek's acting at the close of the third act created a decided sensation. The change from her humble and patient, but dignified, pleading with the haughty Elizabeth, when goaded by the taunts of the latter, she rises to her full height and pours forth a torrent of flerce and bitter invective, which humiliates her revengeful rival, but thereby seals her own fate, is a picture which once seen can never be forgotten. At the close of the scene the great tragedienne was called before the curtain and greeted with a perfect storm of applause. Mr. Taylor, the leading man, bears an

Cape Fear Agricultural Association-Supplemental Premium List.

The Executive Committee of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, for the year 1872, at its last meeting, made the following amendments and corrections to the Premium List of the last Fair:

A medal was awarded to Miss Kate Burr. of Wilmington, for largest and most meritorious collection of Paintings.

Mrs. McGowan, of Raleigh, was awarded a Premium for Wax and Worsted Work. Messrs. Willard Bros., of Wilmington, were declared entitled to Dawson, Teel and Henning's Special Premium on Spirit Barrels, the other award having been errone-

A Noticeable Fact.

It is a noticeable fact, as we are informed by a friend, that Messrs. Jno. W. Baker and A. A. McKethan are the only residents of Favetteville who are now following the same occupations (unprofessional) in which they were engaged 35 years ago; while Dr. B. W. Robinson and Lawyer Wm. B. Wright are the only professional gentlemen, who were residents of the place at that period, now practicing. All the rest have either changed their business, removed to other places, or "gone to that bourne whence no traveller returns."

We were pleased to see in our office yesterday Col. Walter L. Steele, of Rockingham; Dr. Joseph A. Drake, of Nash, and Capt. R. T. Fulghum, of the Goldsboro Farmers' and Mechanics' Journal. The latter gentleman has bought the Reconstructed Farmer, which he will unite with the F. & M. Journal and publish as a weekly, retaining Capt. Thigpen on the staff of the consolidated paper. The F. & M. Journal will suspend one week in order to make the necessary arrangements.

Arrest by the Wholesale. Warrents were issued yesterday for the arrest af fourteen colored individuals, who are charged with disorderly conduct on the streets about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, while returning from a ball, by which they seriously disturbed the peace and quiet of the neighborhoods through which they passed. There were about twenty in the crowd, but only the names of the number mentioned above have thus far been ob-

- Mr. John Piver, who was assaulted on Monday night, was able to appear before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning to testify. He was in a very feeble condition, however, and is said to have fainted twice when he first attempted to leave his room. His wounds, though severe, are not as serious as at first supposed.

Death of a "Faithful Servant."

An old colored woman by the name of Mary Ann Quince, or Mary Ann Taylor, as she is better known, died here a day or two since, in the 62d year of her age, and was buried yesterday in Pine Forest Cemetery. At the age of 11 years she was given to Mr. J. A. Taylor of this city, and has remained in his family ever since, a period of 50 years. During all this time she has remained a faithful and trusted servant, devotedly attached to the family and enjoying the confidence and good will of all who knew her. At the close of the war, when most of the servants deserted their former masters and mistresses, this old woman, though free to leave and go where she would, decided to cast her lot with those who had cared for her and been her friends in the times gone by, blinded by none of the false allurements which influenced so many of her race to sacrifice the comfortable homes and steady employment which they might have held on to, even going so far as to refuse further remuneration or privileges than she had enjoyed while in a condition of slavery.

The Proposed Synagogue. We are requested to state that the Committee appointed at a late meeting of the Isrealites of this city, to solicit aid in constructing the proposed Synagogue, corner of Fourth and Market streets, have commenced their labors. They confidently appeal to the well-known liberality of the monied men of this city for assistance in erecting a suitable house of worship, and we hope that their call will not be in vain, especially as the Isrealites of Wilmington have never turned a deaf ear to such appeals from others. They expect to commence the erection of the building at an early day and are desirous of securing the necessary funds as soon as possible. The proposed edifice will be in a very prominent ocality and it is to be hoped that it will be such an one as will prove an ornament

Amusements Ahead. Among the theatrical celebrities already billed for this place the present season, besides Madame Janauschek, we may mention the Fox Pantomime Troupe, February 3rd and 4th, Owens, the celebrated comedian, Feb. 10th, and the Duprez and Benedict Minstrels, February 21st and 22nd.

First National Bank.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Wilmington, held at the office of the Company in this city, yesterday, the old Board of Directors were re-elected, as follows: E. E. Burruss, J. H. Chadbourn, W. H. McRary, E. Murray, J. Eli Gregg.

PUREATIVE PILLS have become a settled necessity with the American people. Indeed, cathartics always have been and always must be used, in some form, by all mankind. In this country the pilular form of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of aloes and rhubarb, rolled into a ball. Their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, the most skillful combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to cure that science can devise or skillful combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to cure that science can devise of art produce. When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as UDOLPHE WOLFE'S SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, was introduced into the world under the endorse ment of four thousand leading members of the med ical profession, some twenty years ago, its proprie-tor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful prepara-tions. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with the strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters and imitators, to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirits ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thou-sand physicians, including all the leading practition-ers in the United States, for the purpose of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the prepara tion and report of the result, accompanied each spec imen. Four thousand of the most eminent medic men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for memore or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medicinal purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a directic, tonic and restorative.

If the officers of these lines expect to continue receiving the patronage of "through passengers" they must, to realize their expectations, cause their trains to run the published schedule time.
