WILMINGTON, COLUMBIA AND AUGUSTA RAILWAY.

We are glad that an opportunity presents itself of saying something in favor of the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railway Company. We hear that the managers have at last waked up to a realization of the fact that local shippers have some rights which through-freighters are bound to respect, and that movements are on foot to furnish transportation to the immense quantity of local freights that is awaiting shipment along the line of that road. This is the report that reaches us, and we trust it may be true.

WASHINGTON.

Oakes Ames' Little Red Pocket Book. — Astonishing Revelations in the Credit Mobilier Documentary Proof of Collar's Perjury. He Nevertheless Addresses the Y. M. C. A., So Called, and with Him Departs Jerry Sneak-Finance Conference—Applications for Military Force by Carpet-Baggers in the South—Klux-Klux Parties. [Special Appeal Telegraphic Correspondence.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.

The little red pocket book, as Mr. Ames' memorandum book is called, was not forthcoming in Judge Poland's committee room, to-day, as it was expected it would be. He has sent for it to North Easton, and it is expected to-night by express. Notwithstanding the absence of the memorandum book, the developments were of the most exciting character. The interest in the investigation increases day by day, and if it should continue much longer the committee will be obliged to go into a larger room, or else to exclude some of the many visitors who resort to the committee room, for the number daily increases.

The evidence to-day was most damaging to Vice President Colfax. Only a few days since he stated under oath that he had never received a check from Ames of $1,200, and added that his account at the First National Bank would not show a deposit of that amount, about the time Mr. Ames alleged that the money was paid. It is a mystery how Mr. Colfax could have presumed to make such a statement, when a moment's reflection must have convinced him that the books of the bank were at hand and could be readily produced. The books were in the committee room to-day, and it appeared that on June 22d, 1898, Mr. Colfax deposited twelve hundred dollars. The ticket of deposit was also produced and was shown to be in Colfax's own hand-writing.

A chain of evidence has thus been established which it will be very difficult for Mr. Colfax to break. The check of Ames to "S. C." is dated June 20th, 1898. The books of the Sergeant-at-Arms show that this money, $1,200, was drawn on June 21, 1898, and now the books of the First National Bank and Colfax's deposit show that on June 22d he deposited $22,000—the amount of Ames' check. In spite of the testimony, which is so damaging, Mr. Colfax left for Philadelphia this afternoon, under an engagement to address the Young Men's Christian Association there. Senator Wilson has also gone on the same errand.

Senator Ransom has introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for the erection of public buildings at Asheville, N. C.

The Senate Finance Committee and House Banking and Currency Committee will shortly have a conference on finance matters.

The House Judiciary Committee agreed to-day to report a bill increasing the salary of the President to $50,000; also, increasing the salaries of the Vice President and Speaker of the House to $10,000 and of members of Congress to $8,000.

The subordinate officers of the Department of Justice in the South are constantly appealing to the Attorney General to furnish them with more force to execute the laws. The Attorney General refuses these applications generally and thinks the officials magnify their difficulties.

Some more Ku Klux prisoners will soon be pardoned.

The Concert To-Night.

All lovers of good music, and there are many in our midst, should remember that the grand Concert under the auspices of the Concordia Society will take place at the Opera House this evening. It is seldom that our citizens have had the opportunity of patronizing such a rare combination of musical talent as will cater for their appreciation this evening. Of the ladies, one attained her musical education under the same master with one of the most celebrated "queens of song" now known to the musical world, while others have achieved much celebrity as amateurs in some of our Northern cities. The entertainment will consist of both vocal and instrumental music rendered exclusively by ladies and gentlemen of the Jewish faith, and the proceeds will be applied to the fund for the construction of the proposed Synagogue in this city. Should the weather not prove too unpropitious there will no doubt be a large attendance. Price of admission $1, with no extra charge for reserved seats.

Superior Court.

The following cases were tried and disposed of by the Superior Court yesterday: Wm. H. Harrison, charged with forgery, was found guilty. Harrison is the colored individual, who, some months since, attempted to pass off a due bill upon Mr. J. H. Hines, of this city, purporting to be signed by Messrs. Williams & Murchison, but which, upon investigation, proved to be a forgery. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

G. W. Green, charged with assault and battery, was found not guilty and discharged.

G. Rosenthal, charged with assault and battery, submitted the case.

Cesar Hall, charged with larceny, was found guilty.

Railroad from Lumberton to Fayetteville.

We learn from the Robesonian that a meeting will be held in Lumberton on Monday next in behalf of the proposed railroad from that place to Fayetteville, and that a large attendance is expected. Hon. H. G. Onderdonk, Receiver of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, is expected to be present and to give the meeting the benefit of his information and experience in the construction of Railroads. He will also be prepared to tell how much aid may be expected from the road he represents, and about how much money will be required to be subscribed by citizens to insure the success of the enterprise.

This is a most important enterprise and we hope it will succeed.

Attempt at Bank Robbery.

We learn from the Enterprise that the People's National Bank at Fayetteville was entered on Sunday night last and an attempt made to enter the vault, which failed. The robber is supposed to have got in by the front door with false keys, but escaped through the back window. He made quite an earnest attempt to enter the vault, cutting away the mortar and brick near the entrance, but finding the job more formidable than he expected, desisted without getting anything for his pains. This, says the Enterprise, is the first attempt of the kind in that place on a bank since the days of Gray, who was hung.

On the Rampage.

An obstreperous individual "kicked up a dust" at the Gem Saloon yesterday morning and the proprietor, Mr. Morrill, sent a messenger after a policeman. Failing to find one on the streets, he was directed to go to the City Hall, where he met with no better success. Mr. M. in the meantime was holding his man as best he could, but he finally became so violent that he had to be used in return, and the unruly individual was hurried into the street, the light doors at the entrance to the saloon being broken down in the effort.

Where the police were all this time is a matter for conjecture.

Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railroad.

Allying to this scheme, the success of which is so important to the business interests of Wilmington, the Columbia Carrollian says:

"This project seems, if we may judge from the activity of its friends along the proposed route, to be pushed forward with vigor. It promises to make the trip between New York and Charleston in twenty-four hours, which will certainly commend it to a large class of business travelers, as well as to those who now complain of the vexatious delay in transportation of freight."

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:

Nathan Graham, charged with vagrancy, was committed to the County Work House for thirty days.

Adeline Shaver, also arraigned under the charge of vagrancy, was assigned quarters in the County Work House for the same period.

The Cape Fear Steamers.

The steamers running on the Cape Fear between this city and Fayetteville are about to be consolidated in two lines. The "Cape Fear" and "People's" lines are to be put in one, which will be comprised of three boats, while the "Express" will unite with Capt. Sam. Skinner, of the R. E. Lee, with three boats, leaving two of the old "Cape Fear" line and one of the "People's" line to be sold or run elsewhere.
