The "blonde young gentleman from Philadelphia" who engineers the railroad schemes of Col. Tomuel Scott, is now in Columbia doing his "level best" for the New York, Norfolk, Tom-Scott and Charleston Rail way. Kames is his name, and Kames never lies; but he couldn't tell the truth in forty trials, with a "dead rest." Among other statements, he informed a member of the South Carolina Senate that Wilmington had offered him a subscription of one million of dollars, conditioned that the road pass through this city. For sterling integrity and heroic devotion t truth, Kames is our man.

It seems that the ship which caused the disaster off Dungeness was the Spanish steamer Murillo, as reported in our dispatches at the time. She has arrived at Cadiz. She sustained no damage by the collision. cers and crew will undergo judicial investigation in reference to the disaster. No particulars are furnished in the dispatch.

A. H. S. is "standing for the eighth," so we are told by his paper, the Atlanta Sun. Yes, and he'll stand for the eightieth, if you let him; he'll stand for an office, or he'll stand for a Bourbon. That's the worst of it; if he'd move forward once in a while, we'd have a little patience with him.

The Virginian says Gen. Smith, now on a visit in Norfolk, has received a dispatch stating that Commodore Maury is critically ill in Lexington. We hope that the distinguished scientist and patriot may recover. His death at this time would be a serious loss to Virginia and the South.

We can't see into the Jay Cooke-Rothschilds-Syndicate-FivePerCent. advertisement, received by telegraph last night, " worth a cent." Or rather, which is the same thing, it can't be seen in THE MORNING STAR to-day a cent's worth.

Some time ago the Advance Some time ago the Advance gave an account of the extraordinary crop made by Peter Philips, colored, on the plantation of Dr. J. J. Philips, in Edge-combe. It is now furnished by a reliable gentleman with a memorandum of the crop made by Dempsey Bryan, another colored man on the farm of H. Bryan, Est., which is still better. With one horse he made 6,948 lbs. of lint cotton, or over 17 bales, 55 barrels of corn, which with the cotton seed, fodder and shucks, will sell for $1,647, at the present market value. This is hard to beat.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1873.

Yesterday morning, between 9 and 10 o'clock, fire was discovered in the dwelling house on the West side of Third between J. F. RUECKERT.-Pianos and Organs Nun and Church streets, owned by the Stokley estate and occupied by Mr. Mark Craffey. The fire originated in a closet on the lower floor, in which was a bureau filled with clothing and other articles. Dr. D. M. Buie, who resides near by, hastened to the spot and found the flames spreading with great rapidity, while the family were basily engaged in removing the furniture, &c., from the building. He procured buckets and by working energetically the flames were finally extinguished. The damage was considerable, amounting altogether, including the furniture destroyed and the injury sustained by the building, to about $150 or $200. There was no general alarm, the streets in the vicinity being deserted at the time and Dr. Buie and colored man about the only males in the neighborhood when the fire was discovered. But for his timely arrival and energetic efforts the fire would no doubt have been quite a serious one. It is believed to have been purely accidental, and is supposed to have been caused by the casual igni-

Mr. James Fleet, a well known and worthy citizen of this place, met with a se rious accident yesterday afternon, about 5 o'clock. He was on board of the Schr. Sunny South, lying at Mr. F. W. Kerchner's wharf regulation drill of the Order as soon as poson North Water street, superintending the work of unloading her cargo of salt. A bag had been hoisted from the hold, Mr. Flee standing at the time between the railing and hatchway of the vessel, when, in attemptthe term of two years. His colleague is ing to get it to the wharf, by some mean Past Grand Chancellor Alex. T. London, the bag swung back with great force, striking Mr. Fleet in the back and precipitating him through the hatch way into the hold of the vessel, a distance of about fifteen feet. After the cereeasier, but his injuries are necessarily very monies were concluded able addresses were painful and distressing. It is to be hoped however, that they will not prove serious in Representatives London and Blocker and in their results.

> Another Assault on the Public Streets As Mr. Gaston Hill, who resides in the outhern portion of the city, was returning o his home about 9 o'clock on Thursday night, he was suddenly assaulted by an individual armed with a knife, who made a thrust at him and succeeded in making a rent in his cost, but falled to injure his person. Mr. Hill was armed with a good sized stick, with which he struck at his as sailant, whereupon the latter turned and fled. It was so dark at the time and the affair was ended so quickly that Mr. H. failed to recognize his assailant or to distinguish his color.

Etiwan Fertilizers,

We have heretofore neglected to call the attention of our Farmers and Planters to the advertisement of the above excellent fertilizers. These are comprized of the Etiwan Guano, the Etiwan Crop Food and the Etiwan Dissolved Bone, all of which have been thoroughly tested and highly recomended for the uses to which they are adapted. They are manufactured by the Sulphuric Acid and Superphosphate Comextended to them by the Wilmington pany of Charleston, of which Messrs, Sprunt & Hinson are the Agents in this city.
Superior! Court.

The entire day, yesterday, was occupied in the trial of the Speight case, for larceny, commenced on Thursday afternoon. The examination of witnesses was concluded early in the afternoon, when the argument of counsel commenced, but, without closing, Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, Mesers, John L. Holmes and John London appear for the defence and Adam Emple, Esq., assists Solicitor Cant-well in the prosecution.

Serious Accident.

A colored man employed in blasting rock at the Sanders place, near what is known as Prince George's Creek, in this county, met with a serious accident on Tuesday last, It seems that he had ignited a fuse and retired for some distance, but finally returned under the impression that it had gone out, when it suddenly exploded, a piece of rock striking him on the neck and lascerating it in a fearful manner. The chances of his recovery, we learn, are very slight.

Attempt at Burglary. Some thief attempted on Thursday night to effect an entrance into the store of Mr. W. G. Fowler, Jr., on Front, between Church and Castle streets, by boring a hole through the front door with an auger so a to slide the bolt. As the attempt was unmecessful it is supposed that the burglar was frightened from his purpose by some one passing III Stolen Horse Captured. Officer John Bell, of Rocky Point Town ship, succeeded in capturing a stelen horse at Colvin's Creek, in this county, about 10 o'clock on Thursday Light, and bringing him safely to this city. The animal is said to have been stolen from a Mr. Carraway, of Goldsboro', about twelve months ago, and the alleged thief is now in jail at that place.
