GONE AGAIN.

Our junior editorial "we" left us again this morning. We don't know whether he has gone to see his relations or to lobby some bill through the Legislature. Something has carried him to Wake C. H.; and he didn't look at all like a man who expected to be tried for his life, either. Well, we know how it is ourself-this habit of "touring" it for a few days. It's a patriotic business in which the best newspaper men of the day sometimes indulge. The junior carries with him our best wishes. As he stepped aboard the train this morning he was singing "Come, Birdie, come," with a gusto that would have put Katie Putnam to the blush.

In the National House of Represent atives, the Credit Mobilier Committee have made a long report. Blaine is exculpated. In regard to the Senators implicated, the report states that the evidence has been sent to the Senate for its

This is a sweet business throughout, and will long be remembered as one of the most delightful episodes in Congressional life.

THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT.

The City Council of Macon, Ga., have unanimously tendered President Grant an invitation to visit that city. We consider this action timely and proper, and would be glad to see it taken by every city in the South. President Grant will visit the South not as a Federal General or as a Republican politician, but as the President of the United States; and we trust he will be everywhere received with the respect due the high position he occupies.

SHOCKING MURDER.

A Colored Man Near Burgaw Murders His Own Wife-Particulars of the Bloody Deed.

From a gentleman who arrived here from Burgaw, in this county, yesterday afternoon, we have the particulars of the terrible tragedy that occurred near that place on Monday, in which a colored man by the name of Sam. Perry murdered his wife. Perry lived at a place called Lillington, a small settlement made up almost entirely of colored people, about one mile and a half from Burgaw. Some time in the early part of last week a man living in the settlement carried home two or three barrels of whiskey and Sam. immediately commenced indulging in his favorite pastime of getting drunk, indulging to such an extent that he was attacked with delirium tremens and became a terror to the whole neighborhood. He was finally taken in hand by Magistrate John Penny, who locked him up for three days, but released him on Monday on the promise of Perry, who was then perfectly sober, that he would behave himself and not drink any more whiskey. Immediately upon his release, however, he went to his house, seized a loaded rifle and shot his wife (who had accompanied him home) through the breast, killing her almost instantly. Mr. Penny and others heard the report of the weapon when it was discharged and hastened to Perry's house to see what was the matter, apprehensive that some thing terrible had happened. Upon arriving there they found the poor woman weltering in her blood, but the murderer had disappeared, and when our informant left Burgaw yesterday no trace of him had been discovered, though every effort was being made to find out some indication of his whereabouts.

Sam Perry is about 40 years of age, his wife having been some 5 years his senior. He is a native of South Carolina, having come to this county with Sherman's army, and is dark complexioned, of medium size and about five feet four inches high.

No inquest has as yet been held over the body of the unfortunate woman, but it of Aldermen concurred in, upon condition is presumed that Coroner Hewlett will go up for that purpose this morning.

Freshet in the Cape Fear,

The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday last had the effect to considerably increase the already heavy freshet in the river, and reports by the Hurt and Lee, which arrived yesterday, indicate that the water is still rising. One report has it that at Fayetteville from Saturday night to Sunday morning there was a rise of twenty feet. When the steamer came down yesterday a good deal of stock was noticed on different knolls along the river, being surrounded by water, and it was expected that they would be washed off during last night. One poor old sow was noticed sitting on a log, disconsolate and lonely, with the waters surging and splashing around her, but apparently oblivious of the fact that she would soon be engulfed by the merciless waves. If the feshet continues to increase in volume much damage will undoubtedly ensue.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Feb. 14, 1873. Mr. Allen introduced the following bills: A bill in relation to costs in civil actions. A bill to amend Code of Civil Procedure n relation to appeals.

A bill to amend section 343 of the Code f Civil Procedure. Mabson, col., called up bill regulating the ale of tar, requiring that the same be sold by weight and not otherwise.

Mabson supported the bill, and Messrs. Ellis, of Columbus, Allen, Dunham, Mur-phy and Respess opposed the measure as eing detrimental to the general interests of the manufacturers of tar as well as to the shipper. Bill laid upon the table.

The bill incorporating the Carolina Central Railway Company was put upon its

Mr. Humphrey moved to strike out the amendment heretofore passed requiring said corporation to complete the road though Shelby to Rutherfordton, and to insert the following: "That should this cor-poration purchase the Western North Carolina Railroad, or in any way obtain the control of that road, it shall not have the right to take up the track of any part of said road, but shall maintain the same and complete it to Asheville within two years after such purchase or control; and failing to do so, shall forfeit all right to control the same under any title acquired for such

Messrs, Allen and Humphrey warmly supported the adoption of the substitute, Mr. Welch opposed the striking of the substitute requiring the road to be completed to Rutherfordton, as he deemed that it would be unjust to the people of that section, who had subscribed to the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rntherford Railroad, not to complete the road as the charter of the company.

Mr. Dunbam argued that the corporators in the Carolina Central Railway had nothing to do with the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company, farther than to hold mortgage bonds upon the same; that the latter Company was utterly unable to complete the road, and that the new cor-porators desired and had to go in some other direction than the one required in the charter granted to the W., C. & R. R. R.

He thought that so long as the corporators and no aid from the State, they should not be restricted to any given line. Mr. Seymour could not see how the corporators could be restricted, and would vote for the striking out of the amendment. The motion to strike out was adopted. The amendment offered by Mr. Humphrey was adopted.

Mr. Miller offered an amendment, requiring the Central Railway Company to complete the W. N. C. Railroad, should they get possession of the road, to the town of Shelby, within twelve months after said should have been obtained.

The bill as amended passed its third reading-ayes 33, nays 3. Mr. Waring moved to reconsider the vote, and that the said motion to reconsider be laid on the table. Adopted.

Mr. Welch introduced a bill declaring what portion of the debt of North Carolina is valid and to pay off the same. The bill authorizes the Governor to appoint three discreet and able persons as Commissioners on the part of the State's interest in railroads and other public improvements; to ascer-tain the debt contracted anterior to the war, as well as the amount actually expended for the legitimate purposes for which appropriations were made of the bonds is sued from the Public Treasury during and since the war. That after this shall have been ascertained, the said Commissioners be empowered to assign all interest which the State may have in said public improve-ments to the parties holding such legitimate claims against the State in such proposition as the aggregate interest of the State in such improvement bears to the ascertained aggregate claims, in consideration of the sur-render of all claims against the State. That the people of North Carolina, in their reprepresentative capacity, declare that they sol emnly protest against any other compromise of their liabilities. Mr. Norwood opposed the consideration of the resolution, and moved its reference to the Committee on Public Debt. Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, thought his peo ple had but little idea of carrying the whole debt of the State, and he wanted an expression of the Legislature upon the subject.

Mr. Powell said his people did not have much idea of paying the public debt, if it could be avoided. Bill made special order Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, introduced a bill insuring the completion of the Western road to Greensboro.

ing it the duty of Superior Court Judges to approve or disapprove of the Clerk's judg-ment in special proceedings within 20 days was taken up and passed its several reading. On motion of Mr. Rhodes, the bill to relieve County Commissioners was taken up and passed its several readings.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS. The Senate bill to alter the constitution in regard to the public debt was taken up and passed its second reading by the follow ing vote:-Yeas, 81. Nays—Messrs, Abbott, Bryant, of Halifax, col., Bunn, col., Dudley, col., Jones, of Northampton, col., King, col., Lloyd,
