The total vote, it will be seen, was 223, and this is the largest vote ever taken in the 42d Congress .-Messrs, Ames, Garfield, Kelley, Bingham, Brooks, Scofield and Dawes were present, but refrained from voting, and it thus appears that there were 230 members in the House-the fullest House that has been known this session. The closest vote was on the motion discharging the commitee. which was announced as yeas 104. navs 114; and upon substituting Sargent's preamble and resolutions for the resolutions of the committee. The vote on this was 115 yeas to 110 nays. But the excitement became intense when the votes were taken first on the resolution condemning Mr. Ames, and next on the resolution condemning Mr. Brooks. On the form er question Mr. Brooks voted no, and this was the only case in which one of the gentlemen inculpated voted. Mr. Ames did not return the compliment and vote "no," on the resolution to condemn Mr. Brooks. Of the 32 negative votes in Mr. Brooks' case 11 only were Democrats, and most of them voted in that way because they doubted the jurisdiction of the House. Of the 36 negative votes in Ames case 11 also were Democrats, and they voted to excuse high on the same oround that they voted to excuse B. ooks. The navs on the vote to censure

Ames were as follows:

Navys-Messrs. Adams, Averill, Barry, Beck of Kentucky, Brooks, Buffin gton, Butler, of Maussachusetts, Butler of Tennessee, Comingo, Conner, Dickey, Eldridge, E lliott, Esty, Farwell, Garrett, Hays, H ooper, Maynard, McHenry, Morph is, Negley, Packer, Peck, Pierce, Per ry, Rainey, Sawyer, Seeley, Sloss, Sna pp, Snyder, St. John, Twitchell, Voorhees, and Williams of New York-3 6.

The nays to censure Brooks were: Nays-Messrs. After the vote of censure, the reso tion discharging the committee was rejected-yeas 104, nays 114. A mo-tion to lay the preamble to Mr. Sargeant's resolution on the table was rejected-yeas 78, nays 131. A direct vote was then taken on the preamble, and it was rejected-yeas 98, nays 131. ## Highway Robbery.

Yesterday a white man appeared at the City Hall and informed the authorities that he had been attacked upon the highway and robbed. He gave his name as James Kennedy and says he is a native of Rochester, N. Y. He left this city on Friday with the intention of walking to Goldsboro. He arrived at the 11-mile post, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, a little after sundown, when a colored man suddenly sprang upon him from the bushes on the morning. roadside and gave him a blow on the head with a sharp instrument, which was repeated two or three times, when he fell senseless to the ground. The robber then proceeded to divest him of his clothing and to appropriate what articles he had about his person. After every thing else had been
