A bill concerning the Texas Pacific Railway passed the Senate Saturday.
Wormho has left Washington for Louisiana, with fight in him.
Bill to pay awards Southern Claims Commission passed Senate and goes to the House.

The Era, smiling in anticipation, says they are going to call the brat "State of Alleghany" when it comes.
The Radicals of East Tennessee and West Carolina want it, for they think it will be "Republikiun" and Eastern Carolina Rads and Western Tennessee Democrats are said to favor the scheme because it will make the two old States respectively Republican and Democratic.

If the sacred legend, "Ecco Homo," displayed over Grant's chair at the Inauguration ball outrages Christians, how ought they to feel at actually beholding the man as he is.

Can't we have the press announcing the arrival by direct line from Europe of cargoes of immigrants? Happy Norfolk!

The Louisiana election bill failed, did not pass, as we stated Sunday morning.

WASHINGTON.

Grand Preparations for the President's Inauguration—Great Crowd of Visitors—The Inaugural Address and Other Ceremonies—Debate in the Senate on the Louisiana Bill, &c., &c.

Washington, March 1.
The city is already greatly crowded with strangers, and every train that has arrived to-day and to-night was perfectly loaded down with passengers.

The most extensive preparations continue to be made for the inauguration, and there seems to be no doubt that everything will be on a grander scale than has ever been known before.

The President has completed his inaugural address. It will make from one to two columns in the Appeal.
Secretary Fish has addressed communications to the members of the diplomatic corps, requesting them to appear in full court dress at the ball.

Many windows on the avenue have been rented for twenty dollars apiece for Tuesday.
The two Houses will probably have to sit a part of Sunday.

Immediately on the opening of the evening session of the Senate, Mr. Davis moved to reconsider the vote of rejecting the Louisiana bill. This gave rise to an animated debate. Mr. Morton finally opposed the motion, saying that the dangers of the Louisiana situation were greatly exaggerated, and that the only trouble there now emanated from Warmoth, who having run Louisiana for four years, now wanted to run the United States Senate.

Messrs. Carpenter, Segar and Stephenson advocated reconsideration. The Kellogg Senators said they were anxious to give the people a chance to elect their own government, but there was no time this session unless the appropriation bill was dropped. Stephenson replied that if all were anxious to give the people a fair chance, there was nothing to prevent their doing so; that a question of free government was more important than any appropriation bill.

Senator Stewart moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, which was lost—yeas, 26; nays, 28. After further debate Morton renewed the motion to lay on the table, and it was agreed to—yeas, 29; nays, 28.
Governor Warmoth and Senator McMillan came into the Chamber just before the vote was taken.

Burned to Death.

In our issue of Sunday morning we published a brief paragraph announcing the burning to death of a colored woman on Market, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, which sad catastrophe happened between 1 and 2 o'clock, just as we were going to press. The name of the woman was Rebecca Roberts, and she is said to have been between 40 and 50 years of age. She had been waiting for one of her sons to return home and had lain down on a pallet before the fire, where she dropped asleep, and it is supposed that her clothing became ignited by a spark from the fire. Upon awakening and finding herself enveloped in flames she made frantic appeals for help, but just as she wished for succor arrived she fell to the floor and expired. The Coroner held an inquest on Sunday and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Cane Fibre—Its Increasing Importance as an Article of Commerce.

The Virginia papers are commenting on the constantly increasing demand for the cane fibre manufactured at this place. As an article of commerce it is increasing in importance and promises to become a very considerable item. The Petersburg Appeal, for instance, says that an average of 80 bales per day passes through that city en route for the paper mill at Fredericksburg. Why not establish a paper mill here, where every facility for making it a success is right at our doors? When will our men of business and of capital arouse from their lethargy to a sense of the great future which is within their grasp?

Robbery on Board of a Vessel.

Some scoundrelly thief went on board of the Spanish Barque Desagano, lying near the foot of Dock street, on Sunday night, cut the braces and stole a number of blocks and carried them off. The police were put on the track yesterday morning and finally succeeded in recovering the lost articles, the person who had them in his possession stating that he had purchased them from a colored man. This is the coolest and most daring act of robbery we have heard of in some time. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the theft, as he was a stranger to the person who purchased the stolen property.

Epidiocy Among the Cats.

We stated some days since that the canine population were afflicted with the epidicy, and we now learn that the same disease has got among the cats in this city. One gentleman informs us that two of his feline pets have had it in an aggravated form, one of them having suffered so severely that she will hereafter be of no service, both of them having previously been first-rate mousers.

The Volunteer.

By a telegram to Mr. W. H. Ohl from the proprietors of the Lorillard Line in New York, received yesterday, we regret to learn that the Steamship Volunteer will prove a total loss. The cargo, however, is all dry and safe, and will probably soon be forwarded to this port.

Ladies' Benevolent Society.

The officers and visitors of the Ladies' Benevolent Society are requested to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Society at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association on Tuesday next, at 4 o'clock P. M.
