OUTLINES.

The New York Times denounces the President for some recent appointments...

WASHINGTON.

The new Government sworn into office to-day at the White House...

New York Constitutional Amendments.

Some of these amendments are non-essential, but most of them are of the very first importance.

The New Secretary of the Treasury.

The appointment of Mr. Richardson is understood to mean that the Administration is committed to a continuance of Mr. Boutwell's financial policy.

A Tough Story.

The Greeley Tribune says: "Mr. Graham recently found a petrified frog in excavating a well."

Vessels in Port.

There are at present 1 steamship, 3 barques, 8 brigs and 10 large schooners in port.

Improvements.

Dr. T. B. Carr has purchased the property of Mrs. Marks, on Second, between Market and Dock streets...

Mr. H. W. Connor, a young merchant of Charlotte...

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. R. P. HALL & Co.—Hair Renewer.

More About Shooting on the Streets at Night.

Complaints still reach us of the frequent firing of guns and pistols on the streets at night.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:

Attempted Robbery.

Yesterday morning, about 8 o'clock, one of the numerous gangs of sneak thieves who infest the city attempted to rob the residence of Mr. R. C. Clowe.

Arrested for Stealing a Shawl.

A colored woman by the name of Viola Burr was arrested yesterday on the charge of stealing a shawl belonging to another woman at one of the colored churches on Sunday night last.

Our Colored Firemen.

We learn that the colored Steam Fire Engine Company (Cape Fear No. 3) of this city have extended an invitation to the colored firemen of Charleston and Columbia to visit this city some time in May.

Emigrants.

Four families, comprising in the aggregate about thirty persons, arrived here yesterday from the neighborhood of Lockwood's Ferry, in Brunswick county.

The Robesonian describes a new cotton chopping machine...

Local Notes.

The dust was terrible yesterday. Sound parties and picnics are coming in vogue.

The Julia Heyn, from this port, arrived at London on the 1st inst.

The Sch. F. St. Clair Edwards, 7 days from this port, arrived at New York on the 17th.

Fine shower last night, which will have the effect to lay the dust if nothing more.

The German Barque Leopoldine Praxide, Voight, arrived at Liverpool from this port on the 1st inst.

The Sch. Ada Ames, from Rockland, Me., for this port, arrived at Vineyard Haven on the 15th.

Some thief, armed with skeleton keys, made an unsuccessful attempt to enter the residence of Mr. P. Heinsberger on Tuesday night.

The woods east and south of the city was on fire early last night, but quickly succumbed to the shower which commenced falling about 9 o'clock.

The discharge of fire-arms in the neighborhood of Sixth and Castle streets for a time on Tuesday night is said to have resembled a brisk skirmish on the eve of a battle.

Several fine pavements have recently been laid down on Chestnut street, near the corner of Seventh, and we hope the example will be followed by property owners in other localities.

Shooting and hallooing, interspersed with cries of murder, were heard somewhere in the vicinity of Seventh and Chestnut streets Tuesday night, between 11 and 12 o'clock, but we have failed to trace any outrage in that quarter.

A Car Broken Open and a Large Quantity of Baggage Stolen.

On Monday morning last Messrs. Edward Kidder, James Chadbourne, O. G. Parsley, Wm. H. Northrop and Geo. Parsley, of this city, left on the 3:45 Southern train for the purpose of attending a Convention of saw mill owners at Savannah, Ga.

In a Hurry.

As our Agent for the Northern portion of the city was in the act of sliding a paper under the door of a subscriber on Second, between Hanover and Brunswick streets, between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning, he discovered some one approaching him.

CITY ITEMS.

BAH—We were shown yesterday, by Mr. Andrew Johnson, at his Stall in the Market House, a specimen of the finest, fattest Mutton that we have gazed upon in a long time.

Job Printing.—We call the attention of merchants, clerks of courts, sheriffs, lawyers, railroad and steamship officers and agents, and all others having orders for printing, to the facilities offered at Messrs. B. F. French & Son's Printing Office for the prompt and faithful execution of all kinds of Job Printing.

The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the Weekly Star having largely increased the circulation of the latter, advertisers will find it an admirable medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.

BOOK BINDER.—The Morning Star Book Binder has all kinds of Binding and Ruling in a workmanlike manner, and at reasonable prices.

MENTAL DISTINCTION.—The well known Gorton Junction, on the great thoroughfare of the Northern Virginia, has been selected by the State as the site of an increasing population, proud as well as the proprietors, its citizens, in mass meeting assembled, have voted to change the name of their town to "Aries."
