Sleets in New York causes accidents. — Cubans make steady progress in their revolution. — Opera House at Elmira, N. Y., burned by an incendiary. — Another death in Philadelphia from coal oil explosion. — Great storm at Chicago and St. Louis. — A New York Marshal sentenced to ten years hard labor for shooting a man. — A terrible kerosene accident near Detroit. — Probable that Castelar will retire from the Spanish Cabinet. — Ministerial crisis imminent. — The news from Spain is very discouraging. — Virginia Legislature has endorsed Governor Walker's plan for Federal assumption of State debts. — Joint resolution in Virginia Legislature amending Constitution so as to provide for biennial sessions passed. — Curry, the Georgia Mormon, tried for violating law and found guilty. — New York Markets: Cotton, 19 1/2 @ 19 3/4, 11 1/2; turpentine, 57; rosin, 34 1/2 @ 35 1/4. — Bark Arcturion went to pieces off Savannah and 10 of crew were drowned.

Disgraceful Affair.

The U. S. Government have certain laws, and for the enforcement of these laws officers are appointed, but the following will show what mistakes are made in the appointment of said officers:

On yesterday (Monday) evening Detective Berry, who, if we mistake not, figured as an inmate of Cumberland county jail a year or more ago for violating the peace at this place, Collector Charles Upchurch, of Raleigh, and Messrs. Warren Carver and John Gary, of this place, marched into town at the head of a squad of U. S. soldiers having in charge 4 wagons and teams which they had seized for alleged violations of Revenue Law. It appears that Upchurch was drunk and was arrested for disorderly conduct, but secured bond and was dismissed. After being turned loose he became obstreperous and cursed and abused some of our citizens in a most disgraceful manner. On being remonstrated with by Constable Boone and Policeman P. P. Johnson he drew a pistol, whereupon he was arrested and carried to the guard house where he remained until tried before His Honor Mayor Frizell, this morning.

The people of Fayetteville have always abided the law, no matter how odious it may sometimes seem to be, and had Mr. Upchurch but done his duty in the premises he would not only have found no obstruction in his way, but would have been assisted, if necessary, in its discharge.

The soldiers appear to be very gentlemanly and afford a striking contrast to their officers at least. — Fayetteville Eagle.

The State Prison War in Nevada.

The Nevada people have been having a siege of their State prison. By a recent act of the Legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, who had been also Warden of the prison, was directed to give up the last named office. He refused to do so, claiming that he could not be legislated out of his place. All legal documents and judicial processes were in vain as weapons of dislodgement; and the Lieutenant Governor remained entrenched within the walls of the prison. Finally, the Warden who had appeared before the prison with a detachment of the State Militia and a piece of artillery. The contumacious Lieutenant Governor surrendered, indignantly claiming that he was there to compel by "military necessity." This is probably the first recorded instance of a man being taken out of a penitentiary by a militia force.

Mormon Matters.

Heretofore parties in Utah have been divided into Mormons and Anti-Mormons; but it is stated that a third party is to be organized which will occupy a middle ground, will seek to reconcile differences upon unimportant matters, and try to prevent any crisis which will interfere with the material prosperity of the Territory. Polygamy it will oppose, but not in a violent and revolutionary way. So we read. To us it seems that the only way to be rid of the nuisance and crime is to stop the increase of these adulterous connections at once. The mischief already done may not be remedied; but not another alliance of the kind should pass in the Territory without prompt legal prosecution.

A Western engineer has invented a hot-water pump with which to squirt hot water on to deaf persons who walk on the track. Thus another source of interesting items is ruthlessly cut off by the inventive genius of this country. Next they will invent non-explosive kerosene, and then what will the newspaper itemizers do?

The Akron (O.) Beacon authoritatively announces that Congressman James Monroe of that State will refuse to receive his $5,000 of back pay, and both he and Congressman Upson will restore the money to the Treasury in such a way as to bar all future claims to it.

A Corry, Pa., paper, speaking of the present depression of the town, says it is caused by lack of unanimity, lack of sociability, lack of home pride, distrust of one another, and a great desire for braggart display.

Local Notes. — Reports indicate a heavy gale below yesterday. — The storm signal was again displayed yesterday. — The "falling barometer" caused a demand for overcoats yesterday. — The steamer R. E. Lee carried out a very heavy freight yesterday. — Regular monthly communication of St. John's Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M., this evening at 7 o'clock.

— We learn that seven deserters from ships in port are now at large and around the city. — On the 24th, Wilmington peanuts were quoted in New York at 75 cents to $1.00 for old, and $1.25 to $1.65 for new. — A sailor deserter from one of the Norwegian brigades in port was arrested in the woods about ten miles from this city yesterday. — Several "scrimmages" occurred among members of the two Republican factions yesterday, growing out of the difficulty in the First Ward Tuesday night. — The Masonic fraternity turned out in force yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Daniel L. Savage, whose sudden death was noticed in our last issue.

An "Affair of Honor."

We learn that Duncan Holmes and Edward Roane, both colored, went beyond the city limits yesterday for the purpose of engaging in mortal combat. Upon arriving on the ground, however, as report has it, they concluded that the most sensible way out of the difficulty was to adopt the old fashioned style of "fist and skull." So at it they went and pummeled each other until "injured hands" was satisfied, when they returned to the city. It is said that the parties rode out to the "field of honor" and returned in the same buggy, and that they had no seconds—rather novel features in "the code," as understood by the ordinary run of duellists. The "affair," we suppose, grew out of the difficulty in the First Ward Tuesday night.

Sanitary. The near approach of warm weather should warn our authorities that the sanitary condition of the city is anything but enviable, or likely to conduce to the good health of our people. A general apprehension is felt that the coming season will be an unhealthy one and we should commence the work of warding off, as far as possible, the pestilential diseases to which our climate is liable. We have already alluded to the present condition of some portions of Water street, especially in the locality of the fire between Chesnut and Mulberry streets, where stagnant water is standing and offending the nostrils of people who pass in the vicinity, but there are many other localities equally entitled to the early and earnest attention of our "City Fathers."

The Republican City Executive Committee met yesterday in the City Court room and finally decided the action of the nominating Convention in the First Ward on Tuesday night to be null and void, whereupon another convention or primary election was ordered to be held in that ward on Friday next, the voting to commence at sunrise and end at sunset. This will afford the voters of that ward ample time to indicate their preferences among the candidates for the nomination for Aldermen without indulging in the unpleasant pastime of splitting open each other's heads in their hurry to deposit their votes.

Personal. We had the pleasure of a call yesterday from our old friend, N. B. Broughton, Esq., Editor of the Spirit of the Age, an able and spirited auxiliary of the cause of temperance in our State. We also had the pleasure of meeting Col. J. J. Hickman, the brilliant and accomplished temperance lecturer, who has achieved such a favorable reputation in his peculiar field of labor.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning: Two sailors, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $25 each. Wm. Fisher, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $25. Sarah Derry, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed. Ella Morrison, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Fire at Cerro Gordo. The store of Mr. P. L. Peacock, at Cerro Gordo, Columbus county, together with his stock of goods, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning last, about 2 o'clock. His loss is estimated at about $4,000, upon which, it is understood, there was no insurance. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

Sam. Perry, the Wife Murderer. Gov. Caldwell has issued his proclamation offering a reward of $200 for the arrest and delivery to the Sheriff of New Hanover county of Sam. Perry alias Moses Perry, who stands charged with murdering his wife near Burgaw, in this county, a few weeks since.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Two Cars Go Through a Trestle. Several Badly Bruised.—No One Seriously Hurt.—Narrow Escape of the Sleeping Car Crowded with Ladies, &c., &c. Intelligence was received here yesterday to the effect that quite a serious accident had befallen the passenger train on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad which left this city at 10:40 P. M. on Tuesday. From the particulars furnished to Capt. J. F. Divine, Superintendent of the road, we glean the following: Capt. J. M. Howell telegraphs that the train ran off at Town Creek trestle, the first and second class cars being precipitated through the trestle, and that one end of the sleeping car was off. He had taken the passengers in the Express and Baggage cars to Weldon. No one was seriously hurt, but a good many badly bruised, himself among the number. A later dispatch to Superintendent Divine states that three persons who were on the train are under medical treatment. One of these, a train hand, had his throat cut and head badly bruised. Another colored man, named Tom, one of Capt. Barry's crank hands, had several ribs broken and leg hurt badly; and the third, named Cupid, who is also one of Capt. Barry's crank hands, had an arm dislocated. The accident, which happened about 4:40 A. M., was caused by a broken rail which was encountered about fifty yards from the trestle.

Since writing the above, we have received the following special telegram in relation to the accident: ROCKY MOUNT, March 26. The Mail train due at Rocky Mount at 4:30 A. M. encountered a broken rail on the trestle at the north prong of Town Creek, 3 miles north of Joyner's. The engine jumped the obstacle, but the first and second class cars were hurled off into the water below. The sleeping car, in which the most of the ladies were, escaped. The rail was broken by the 2 A. M. southern freight train. Conductor Howell and Prentiss, Express Messenger, were slightly wounded. Four colored men were more or less injured. Their names are, Cupid Hollowell, head crushed in; Tom Lewis, three ribs broken and internal contusion; Daniel Robinson, left side bruised and paralyzed, and Tom Blank, hand lacerated. These patients are now here unable to be moved. They give a terrifying description of the disaster and the wailings of the wounded in the darkness. The sleeping car stopped before it reached the trestle, otherwise its full list of female passengers would have been decimated, as it was the only crowded car in the train. Twenty-four hours will be required to repair the breach.

Lecture Postponed. Owing to the difficulty of procuring a suitable Hall in time to give the requisite notice, Col. J. J. Hickman, the great temperance orator, was under the necessity of postponing the lecture which he had proposed to deliver in this city last evening. He was to leave for Marion, S. C., on this morning's train, and will lecture there and possibly at other points, but will return here and lecture in a few days, the precise time and place to be announced through the city papers.

Colored Burlesque Entertainment. A colored amateur burlesque troupe gave an entertainment at City Hall last night for the benefit of the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company, to assist in defraying the expenses incident to the proposed visit of the Charleston and Columbia firemen to this city in May next.

So general has the public confidence become in Dr. Ayer's medicine, and so great the demand for it that unprincipled villains are attempting to deceive the unwary by imposing upon them worthless nostrums under a similarity of name. Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, Dr. Ayer's Peppermint Drops, Ayer's Peppermint Cure, Dr. Ayer's Indian Pills, &c., (some of which are of Dr. Ayer's manufacture or composition) are specimens of this villainy and deceit. They not only deprive the sick of their money but of their health, or the recovery of their health, which is far more important than money. From actual conviction the people are protected by law which the Doctor promptly enforces, but these evasions sometimes elude the law, and purchasers must protect themselves by refusing to be deceived by them.—Dover (N. — Andrew Hero, Jr., has been appointed Commissioner of Deeds for North Carolina, residents in the Orleans. — Messrs Thomas A. and Frank McNeill have formed a copartnership and established a law office at Shoe Heel. — Mr. T. B. Covington, J. P., of Rockingham township has not resigned as heretofore stated. Neither has Mr. Jno. B. Covington resigned his office. — Says the Spirit of the South: The examination before Justice Terry, which had been going on for several days, resulted Tuesday in the discharge of the men, Usery, Thompson and McDonald, who were lodged in jail by Mr. J. Corcoran on suspicion of having been concerned in the murder of the colored man Jim Wooten, there not being sufficient evidence, in the Justice's opinion, to warrant their further detention.

— The Hillsboro Recorder says: The tobacco factory and fixtures, belonging to Mr. J. Y. Whitted, were sold on the 18th, and were bought by him for the First National Bank of Raleigh. Other pieces of property belonging to the same gentleman were sold at the same time. The lot on which the old Howerton Hotel formerly stood was bought by Mr. J. G. Webb. The corner building opposite on the corner of Market lane was bought by Mr. J. R. Gattis, and the old tobacco factory was purchased by Mr. Dudley Laws.

— The Raleigh Sentinel says: Col. Reese, U. S. Paymaster, was in the city yesterday, discharging at camp. Forty-five hundred dollars, in the form of checks, were here by the United States, about every two months, exclusive of the disbursements at the Quartermaster's Department, which, according to the record, are $4 50 by contract for about seventy cords of wood per month; 1 1/2 cent a pound for each pound and a quarter of beef per day for each enlisted man; and ten per cent additional of beef, on the gross amount furnished the enlisted men, is bought for servants. Fourteen pounds of hay and twelve of grain, per day, for each animal in camp, are bought. There are also other purchases made.

The Fayetteville Eagle gives the following particulars of the fire, a brief account of which we published last Tuesday: On Saturday morning last between two and three o'clock a fire originated in the kitchen attached to the residence of Mr. J. G. Yates on Hillsboro street. It rapidly spread, and soon two stables on adjoining lot, the property of T. S. Lutterloh, and a dwelling occupied by a colored family, belonging to the estate of the late J. H. Cook, were in a light blaze, and in much difficulty that the dwelling of Mr. Yates was prevented from being burned. Owing to the fact that the alarm was not given in time the fire companies did not arrive at the scene of action until too late to do any service. The furniture of Rev. E. A. Yates, Presiding Elder of the Fayetteville district, was stored in his brother's kitchen and entirely consumed; loss about $475. Mr. Lutterloh's loss is estimated at $500 and the Cook estate at $175. No insurance.

We learn from the Weldon News that an unfortunate shooting affair occurred last Saturday a few miles below Halifax which resulted in the death of a negro man named Titus. It seems that the deceased was engaged in a friendly trial of skill in shooting at a mark with a white man named Wilkerson. They were by themselves, but were within hearing of a colored woman. After the firing at the mark had ceased for a short while the woman heard one more shot, and Wilkerson cried out "there, now, I've killed Titus." It seems a case for a coroner's inquest, W. T. J. Hays was appointed and proceeded to empanel a jury composed of ten colored men and two whites. This jury failed to agree upon a verdict, the white man regarding the homicide as accidental, while the blacks persisted in holding that it was murder. Another jury, composed entirely of blacks, was collected and a verdict of murder rendered. Hays, we learn, charging them "that they had to call it murder." Mr. Wilkerson was then required to give bail in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance at court, which he readily did, and here the case rests for the present.

The Hillsboro Recorder hears that Northern parties have recently made large purchases at Lockville, in Chatham county. One Company has invested $340,000. The Wilmington, Del., Car Works have established a branch of their business at that point, a steamboat has been placed on the river for the transportation of coal and iron, and everything gives promise of life and enterprise. Chatham abounds in metals and minerals of great variety, and in great abundance. Mines of coal, iron and copper are opened, and may be profitably worked. The coal mine at Egypt is at present closed, but its value is established, and no doubt will soon be reopened. Other mines of equal value are known to exist. The iron mines at Ore Hill some time since were bought by parties from Canada for $190,000, and preparations for extensive works begun. A vein of copper is worked near Lockville, and we believe profitably. Other minerals exist of great value; among them, argemontine, probably the finest in the county, used in the manufacture of fine toilet soaps, &c., Burstones, grindstones, talc, &c.
