OUTLINES.

Gen. Fremont sentenced in Paris for swindling. English-horse Footman broke his neck in a steeple chase near Liverpool. Another arrest in the Brooklyn murder case. The revenue men are raiding on whiskey stills and tobacco on the Virginia border.

NOTES.

By Last Night's Mail. The Petersburg Commercial (a weekly paper) appears in a few days. Aggi, charged with poisoning Seigfried in New York, was acquitted. The policy of the English Conservatives is to worry Gladstone into another crisis.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. F. W. POTTER--Quarantine Notice. O. G. PARSLEY & Co.--Coal Coal! EDWARD PESCHAU--Stolen. DUDLEY & ELLIS--Slippers. Wilmington Merchants. A lading to a recent visit of one of our merchants to Battleboro, the Advance of that place says: "If more of the Wilmington merchants will follow his example and visit this section, much of the trade that now goes to other States would reach our own seaport city, and every dollar spent there will benefit the whole State."

WILMINGTON, CHARLOTTE AND RUTHERFORD RAILWAY.

More Trouble Threatened--The Sale of the Road Enjoined by Order of Judge Logan, on Complaint of L. D. Childs--An Invitation to Visit Shelby. It is known to our readers that the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railway is now advertised to be sold on the 10th of April, under a decree entered at the last term of the Superior Court of this county.

MECKLENBURG SUPERIOR COURT.

L. D. Childs, and Others, vs. S. N. Martin, and Others. Upon the reading of the original, supplemental and amended complaint in the above entitled cause, with the affidavit of L. D. Childs thereto appended, and on motion of John F. Hoke, Esq., Attorney for Plaintiff, it is hereby ordered that the defendants show cause, if any they have, before me, Judge of said Court, at Chambers in the town of Shelby, on the 11th day of April, 1873, why an injunction shall not issue against the said Chas. Steadman, E. E. Burrows and John D. Taylor, to restrain them from selling the franchise and property of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company, as prayed for in the original, supplemental and amended complaint, and why the said Joseph Stewart and Pulo C. Calhoun shall not be enjoined from prosecuting their said suit as prayed for in said complaint of Plaintiff.

COLUMBUS SUPERIOR COURT.

The Superior Court of Columbus county was in session last week. His Honor Judge Russell presiding. We learn that a large amount of business was done. The Grand Jury, of which Mr. N. L. Williamson was Foreman, found 75 true bills and threw out 45. There were 45 cases tried, and of these only two were given to the jury, the remainder being submissions. The civil docket was called on Monday afternoon. This was composed of the accumulation of three terms, caused by the death of the former Solicitor and the sickness of his successor, Solicitor Cantwell, at the last term of the Court. Notwithstanding this fact, however, the docket, which was taken up at intervals during the week, was entirely disposed of by Thursday, when the Court adjourned.

MAYOR'S COURT.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning: William Vipship, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of $5. John Thomas, charged with drunkenness and resisting an officer in the performance of his duty, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10. A Colored Lecturer. Dr. Stevenson (colored), of Pennsylvania, designs delivering a lecture on a subject of a literary character in this city on Monday or Tuesday night of next week. Dr. Stevenson is a graduate of Lincoln University, Chester County, Pennsylvania, and is said to be a man of considerable ability. He is expected to lecture in City Hall.

A Colored Tale.

A colored boy was detected in the act of stealing cotton from a bale of the staple in the rear of Messrs. Aaron & Rheinsteins store, on Front street, yesterday morning, which he was putting in a bag he had procured for the purpose. Upon finding that he had been discovered he dropped the bag and retired in disorder to try his luck in another quarter. Chas. Mallett, colored, was arrested yesterday for committing an assault upon Marsh E. Walker, also colored, on Thursday night. He gave bond for his appearance.

Colored Sabbath School Union.

Geo. W. Price, Jr., Superintendent of the Colored Sabbath School Union of the State, has appointed Norman W. Harlee Secretary of the same. We learn that a District Convention of the Union will be called for this place at an early day, to be followed by a State Convention at some point not yet decided upon. All the schools in the district will be expected to attend the Convention in this place. The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the Weekly Star having largely increased the circulation of the latter, advertisers will find it an admirable medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.

Local Notes.

Mr. R. Y. McAden is in the city. Easterly winds with rain predicted for to-day. Cautionary signals have been ordered at this station for to-day. The schr. E. F. Farnham arrived at Boston from this port on the 25th. The Zumas, Capt. Bouse, sailed from Plymouth, England, for this port on the 15th. The British barque Gho, Capt. Bunting, arrived at London from this port on the 14th. The brig Isola, Capt. Lord, sailed from Castine for Rockport, Me., to load for this port on the 20th.

Spirits Turpentine.

Wilson's to have a wood-yard. There is to be a handle factory at Rowan Mill. Mr. Benjamin Hull of Washington is dead. Luneville is fast assuming the proportions of a town. Water works is the cry of the Raleigh News. We re-echo for Wilmington.

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire last night, about a quarter past 8 o'clock, was found to proceed from the store on South Water, between Market and Dock streets, occupied by Mr. C. W. Oldham. The three steam fire engines were soon on the spot and the building was deluged with water. The fire was difficult to find, but was finally discovered in the midst of a pile of bags in a room in the rear of the building, and was soon extinguished. Mr. Oldham's stock, as was that of Mr. W. I. Gore, who occupied the adjoining store, which consisted of from 12,000 to 14,000 bushels of peanuts, was badly damaged by water. Mr. Oldham's stock was insured for $3,000 and Mr. Gore's for $9,000, which fully covered the loss sustained by the parties.

The Primary Election in the First Ward Yesterday.

In pursuance to an order from the Republican City Committee, polls were opened in the First Ward yesterday morning for the purpose of nominating candidates for Aldermen from that Ward. By day-break the "sovereigns" commenced to congregate in the vicinity of the polls. The crowd continued to increase until the polls opened, when voting commenced in earnest. The excitement among the two factions was very great throughout the entire day, but no serious disturbance occurred. The following is the result of the balloting: Henry Brewington and Jacob Wise, for Aldermen, and John Brown and Duncan Holmes for City Committee, Wilson Kellogg and John Lewis, for Aldermen, and H. Reed and W. H. Merrick, for City Committee, Canada men, each received 328 votes. Majority for the Wilson candidates for the nomination 31.

Committed for Larceny.

A colored boy by the name of Alex. Lord, but better known in police circles, where he is an old acquaintance, as Alex. Causey, was arrested by Special Deputy R. L. Sellers, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of entering the residence of Mr. William Calder, on the 24th inst., and stealing therefrom one sugar dish, one silver spoon-holder, one gold tumbler and other articles. He was required to give security in the sum of $300 for his appearance before Justice Woodford to-day, in default of which he was committed to jail. Causey is an inveterate kleptomaniac, and has more than once indulged in the doubtful pleasure of making bricks for Superintendent VanArminge.

Colored Sabbath School Union.

Geo. W. Price, Jr., Superintendent of the Colored Sabbath School Union of the State, has appointed Norman W. Harlee Secretary of the same. We learn that a District Convention of the Union will be called for this place at an early day, to be followed by a State Convention at some point not yet decided upon. All the schools in the district will be expected to attend the Convention in this place. The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the Weekly Star having largely increased the circulation of the latter, advertisers will find it an admirable medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.

Beautiful Fleeces.

We have received from Mr. T. W. Harris, of Pittsboro, Chatham county, a beautiful sample of fleeces, sheared on Tuesday last from his imported Cotswold ewe, "Queen Vic," lately bought of Mr. T. S. Cooper, of Pennsylvania. The fleece, which is nearly six inches in length, has about two months to grow, the ewe having been sheared the last of May or first of June of last year.
