THE ELECTIONS GOOD NEW CONNECTICUT AND OHIO.

The news from Connecticut is truly cheering. Ingersoll, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by 3.609 majority over both Haven, Republilan, and Smith, Temperance candidate. The Congressional delega tion remains unchanged, three Republicans and one Democrat, Barnum being re-elected. We regret that the gallant English was defeated in the second district.

It seems that the Legislature has Before, the Republicans had nine majority in the Senate and seventeen majority in the House, making a majority of twentysix on joint ballot. Last night's dispatches indicate that the body will be Democratic by a small majority on joint ballot, the Senate remaining Re-

Ingersoll's election in the face of Jewell's majority of last year is almost amazing, and is highly gratifying as a party success. Well done, Connecticut! We shall have to stop calling thee "Wooden Nutmeg State."

The returns from the local elections in Ohio are encouraging.

FIRE AT ENFIELD.

The Railroad Depot, Telegraph and Ticket Offices and a Gin House Burned-Town in Danger.

We learn that between 10 and 11 o'clock Sunday morning, fire was dis covered issuing from under the saw in Alsop's mill, situated opposite the railroad depot in the town of Enfield. Before the flames could be subdued they communicated to the railroad warehouse, telegraph office and ticket office, and Alsop's gin, railroad wood shed, tank, &c., which were totally destroyed. The telegraph poles were burnt, and communication broken

The citizens worked manfully on Branch & Cook's, and Alsop's stores which were saved. Had either of these buildings caught, the whole town would have been destroyed, but with the aid of wet blankets and plenty of water the fire was kept Branch & Cook lose nearly $1,000 by water and breakage.

J. T. Alsop loses at least $7,000insured for about $4,000. The railroad company lose little besides the buildings, as most of the freight was About 4 P. M., the barn and contents of Samuel Parker, two miles from Enfield, were burnt; loss small. Both fires were undoubtedly of incendiary origin.

in Norfolk. Maryland politicians are already beginning to discuss the next Sena-

A Tribune correspondent writes from Halifax of Capt. Williams: There is a current of sympathy for him here, but the flood of censure is overwhelming. I have seen men here almost frenzied by the sight of the bruised and mangled forms of those they loved, who said they did not dare to meet that captain face to face. In a less sober and justice-loving town than Halifax, the man's life would scarcely be more safe now than it was when his vessel struck on Meagher's Financian affairs at the National Capital appear to be going from bad to worse. The greater portion of the population are obliged to live on credit; and a very airy and unsubstantial sort of diet they must find it. The policemen, school teachers, laborers, and employes of the District Government are paid in promises or drafts on the bank of the future. This may be amusing business to the officials. but it is hard on the unfortune creditors, as well as on the taxpayers. The odd thing about this whole affair is that the Washington newspapers don't seem to know anything about it.

This on the Great Catastrophe from the calm and judicial Tribune:

The ship approaching an unknown and danger-lined coast; officers ignorant of the navigation before them are on duty; the ship is making at least twelve miles an nour; conspicuously vivid beacon lights must be in sight: the coast-line is white with snow, and the breakers show their glistening teeth in the broken starlight; the reefy beach is dead ahead. Yet the captain of the vessel calmly goes to'sleer and his subordinates stolidly keep the vessel crashing on to certan destruction. This is not only the great calamity-it is the great crime of the century.

The Listing of Taxes.

For the information and benefit of the public generally we republish the following abstract from the act to rise revenue, passed by the last General Assembly:

"All persons who are liable for a poll tax and shall wilfully fail to give themselves in, and all persons who own property and wilfully fail to list it within the time allowed, before the list-taker and the county commissioners, shall be deemed guilty of a mis-demeanor, and on conviction therefor shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or im-prisoned not more than thirty days."

The listing is done at the City Hall, in the room formerly occupied by the Wilmington Library Association, and the hours for listing are from 9 A. M. till 3 P. M. except Fridays, when the hours are as usual in the day time and from 6 until 9 o'clock in the evening. Very little time is necess ry, as the listing of State, county and city taxes altogether only takes about 5 minutes. The Board of Assessors meet daily in the City Court Room and are in session from 2 P.M. until 5 P. M., the morning being devoted to examining records, &c. The time for listing will expire April 80th. The law in regard to this matter is in perative and no one can shirk its provisions and responsibilities without trouble to themselves.

Robbery of an Alderman. The premises of Wm. H. Thurber, on of our colored Aldermen, who resides on Eighth, between Church and Castle streets. were visited by a thief on Monday night last. probably while he was in attendance upon the session of the Board at the City Hall. An entrance was effected by prizing open a rear window of the kitchen, and here the thief helped himself to a lot of clothing undergarments, sheets, towels, table-cloths etc., taking them from the tubs and wringing the water from them. The children's clothes were not carried off, but placed in a separate tub after the water had been wrung from them. In the same room was a basket of provisions which had been purchased during the afternoon, with a memorandum book lying on top of the articles. The book was found on the floor, but the basket and provisions had disappeared. The unlucky Alderman is at a loss to conjecture who could have thus invaded the sanctity of his Aldermanic domains and clothed and provisioned themselves at his expense. He did not discover his loss until yesterday

Medical Reports. From the regular monthly report to the Board of Aldermen we learn that 99 patients were treated and furnished with medicine at the City Dispensary during the month ending March 31st. Of these 59 were females and 40 males, 50 whites and 49 colored. Merchantable value of medicines $85 15. Several surgical operations were performed, hence the increase of merchantable value caused by the amount of dressing given by Capt. S. W. Vick, of this city, material used in the cases. From the report of Dr. A. E. Wright, Visiting Physician to the City Hospital, we have the following: Number of patients on hand March 1st, 22; number admitted, 12; number discharged, 7; number of deaths, 1. Number of patients on hand April 1st, 1873, 26. This report was accompanied by the following suggestion: "In connection with this report, I would suggest the propriety of the city making some provision for contagious diseases which may arise in our midst. At present we have no place, and I would respectfully ask your atttention to the matter at once."

Soon after the arrival of Mr. R. Y. Mc-Aden, last evening, it was rumored that he had come prepared to bid on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railway, at the sale to take place to-morrow, and to make his bid good, if he became the purchaser, by "planking down" forty thousand dollars in cash, and arranging the balance in accordance with the terms of sale. Mr. McAden is said to be "backed" by the Southern Security Company, a corporation to which frequent and affectionate allusion has been made in the editorial columns of THE MORNING STAR.

We do not vouch for the correctness of these rumors, but they seem to be well authe current gossip last evening.

To-morrow, we imagine, the vexed question will be settled, as we have every reason to believe that the road will be sold unless a change is made in the programme as now arranged. And we haven't consulted either of the Commissioners, either.

The beautiful cantata of "The Christian Graces" will be performed by the pupils of Tillston Normal School this evening. A great deal of interest has been manifested in the preparation for this exhibition by the pupils of Miss Bradley's school and we are confident it will be a very pleasant and en joyable affair.

Strange Capers of a Horse-Narrow A rather remarkable accident occurred a Clinton, Sampson county, on Sunday afternoon last, which came near proving fatal to at least one of the parties connected with it. Mr. D. H. Bell, of that place, had been riding out in the country and was returning home through the streets of the town. Just behind his buggy, riding a very spirited nag, was a man by the name of Jones, son of a livery stable keeper of the name, whose horse, becoming unmanagable, dashed up to the rear of the buggy occupied by Mr. Bell, his wife and child, and, dispite the efforts of his rider, was rearing up as if with the intention of coming down with his forefeet on the persons of the occupants of the vehicle. Just at this critical moment, however, Mr. Bell, who had been watching the capers of the animal, made a movement as effect to swerve him from his course, when he came down upon the left hind wheel of the buggy. By the force of the fall Mr. Jones was thrown from his horse and fell between the animal and the buggy, where he was almost crushed to death before he could be extricated. In the meantime Mrs. Bell, who was of course badly frightened, sprang from the buggy with her child in her arms and fortunately landed safe on the off side of the fallen horse. The noise and stir incident to the accident frightened the animal attached to the buggy and he started to run, but through the efforts of Mr. Bell, who held firmly to the reins, and of a number of gentlemen who had approached the scene, he was finally secured. Mr. Jones, who lay stunned for some minutes, was found to be severely, though not seriously injured. It was a narrow escape all around, and created no little excitement in the streets of the usually quiet Clinton.

Wreck of the Steamship Atlantic-Capt. Vick's Statement. The attention of our readers is directed to the very graphic and interesting details of the late terrible disaster to the steam ship Atlantic near Halifax, Nova Scotia, as which will be found in our news columns this morning. It seems that Capt. Vick escaped the fate which befel so many of his fellow passengers by the merest accident. In his narrative of the occurrences of that terrible morning, which by the way is pronounced by the New York Iribune as the most comprehensive that has been given in reference to the sad catastrophe, he says: "By my side at the time were Mrs. Davidson and her daughter, both of them in the greatest distress, and while we were holding a hurried conversation the wave came on, and in an instant both ladies were hurled over the vessel's side and instantly disappeared. I came very near going with them, but was grasped by a man above me who was hanging to the rigging, and who kept a firm hold of me until the effects of the wave passed away." From this it will be seen that the imminence of his peril was even greater than has heretofore been supposed.

The New York Sun says that Capt. Vick was expected to remain at the St. Nicholas Hotel until Wednesday morning.

Stephen Lowrey Turns Up Again. We learn that Stephen Lowrey, the notorious outlaw of Robeson county, who has been "keeping shady" for some time past, was seen at Hayes' Store, on the W., C. & R. R., on Saturday last, where he had quite thenticated, and we publish them as part of a lengthy "confab" with Mr. Wilson, the slaver of Andrew Strong. It is also stated that Wilson's pistols were demanded by Lowrey, but he refused to surrender them. Mr. Haves and a Mr. McCormick witnessed the interview between Mr. Wilson and the outlaw, but took no part in it.

A force-pump was put in position on Front street, opposite Mr. J. F. Wenzell's store, yesterday, connecting with an old well, or pump, sunk below the street in that vicinity, of the existence of which very few seem to have been aware, to which a hose will be attached for the purpose of sprinkling the streets in that neighborhood.

Cal Wagner. Cal Wagner, with his "happy family" of minstrels, will open at the Opera House this evening. No one can withstand, it is said, the drolleries and comicalities of this funprovoking troupe, and we advise all who desire to "laugh and grow fat," and be Capt. Charles S. Ellis was elected in his amused thereat, to go and see "Cal" and his troupe to-night.

A Dead Body Found in the River. The body of an unknown colored man, but supposed to be that of Dick Corbett, or "one-eyed Dick," as he was commonly called, who was drowned off a flat at the wharf some three or four months ago, was found near Messrs. Northrop & Cumming's mill vesterday morning. An inquest was held over the remains and a verdict returned in accorddance with the facts, so far as they could be ascertained.

Superstition. As an indication of the extent of the superstition existing among the colored people in the vicinity of Moss Neck, Robeson county, it is stated as an actual fact that they sweep off the track every time the train passes, alleging as their reason therefor, upon being questioned, that it is for the purpose of "sweeping off the sins of the passengers."
