A Remarkable Case-Probable Pata Consequences from Sticking Splinter in the Thumb.

About three weeks ago a colored man by the name of George McFarland, residing on the corner of Seventh and Bladen streets. accidentally stuck a small lightwood splinter in the ball of his thumb. Upon with drawing the splinter blood commenced flowing very freely and continued to do so for about a week before he came to the determination to call in a physician. On the seventh day after the accident a doctor was summoned, who came and for four days used every effort to staunch the flow of blood, but without avail. At the expiration f that time another doctor was called ina physician of large experience-and the two, after consultation, proceeded to make arrangements to perform an operation on the unfortunate man, whose life-blood was fast ebbing out. They first split open his thumb, but it was inflamed and swollen so badly that they could not get to the artery. They next proceeded to make an opening in each side of the wrist, the arteries in which were taken up and securely fastened. Previous to doing this, however, an effort was made to stop the flow of blood by tightly cording his thumb above the wound, but when this was done the veins and arteries in his hand commenced swelling to such an extent from the accumulation of blood that it was found necessary to remove the cord. After the arteries in the wrist were tied up, the flow of blood from the thumb was checked, but inflammation immediately set in and the whole arm became inflamed to the shoulder, which was soon followed by the flesh rotting and dropping off the arm below the elbow, the leaders in which are laid bare, presenting a terrible spectacle to the eye. In the meantime the unfortunate man is suffering intensely, and as amputation in the present condition of the arm is impossi-

The omnibus was not far from the depot at the time and on its arrival and the discovery that the trunk was missing, Col. Davis started immediately to hunt it up. Fortunately he and his aids had not far to look before the trunk was found lying against the side of a fence inside the depot enclosure, the thieves not having had time to secrete it before the party in search had arrived in the vicinity. After the occurrence it was recollected that a white man had been enquiring of some of the attaches of the hotel when the baggage would be sent to the depot, but as he was a stranger there is no probability that he will be identified.

The Lilesville "Crescent,"

The enterprising Lilesvillains, determined not to be behind their sister villages, have concluded that the "one thing needful" to the growth and prosperity of Lilesville is a newspaper. So, we are promised at an E. R. Liles and Mr. J. H. Barnes as editors. We do not know Mr. Barnes; but we can testify to the fact that Col. Liles is a sprightly and forcible writer; and we shall not be surprised if the Crescent prove to be a most popular and successful journal.

A Colored Man Hun Over by a Train His Leg Crushed to a Jelly.

VOL. XII.--NO. 26.

A colored man by the name of Elias Graham, bailing from Mars Bluff, Marion county, South Carolina, met with a frightful ac cident about 8 o'cleck on Sunday morsing. He and two other colored men were on their way to the Union Depot to catch the Southern train. They had been drinking heavily at a bar room in the vicinity of the Weldon Depot, Graham having indulged to a greater extent than his companions. They had gone to the old depot and were walking along the track, when, as they reached the vicinity of the water tank at the intersection of Front street with the railroad track the 14th of May. Graham became overpowered by the effect of his numerous potations and fell down. His companions, instead of assisting him to the depot or to a place of safety, hurried on and left him to his fate. That morning, after daylight, he was discovered by the side of the track with his left leg horribly mangled and crushed to a jelly from the knee downward and the other badly bruised and gashed. The authorities were notified and he was taken to the City Hospital, where, during the day, it was found necessary to amputate the wounded limb above the knee, the opera tion being performed by Dr. Winants, the

The accident was no doubt caused by the Northern train on its way from Union Depot to the old shed. Graham says he re members nothing that occurred from the time he fell on the track until he found himself at the Hospital Sunday morning. He is said to be about 25 years of age.

A Swindter in Search of a Summ Outfit-How He Didn't Get It.

A colored individual called at the stor of Mr. Wm. Goodman, on Market street yesterday, and purchased a shirt and pair of pants, and when they were done up he requested Mr. G. to lay them aside for a few minutes, stating that Mr. George Myers owed him a sum of money, and he would either get that or an order from Mr. returned with the following order:

Send in the at end of the Month. It will hardly be surprising to our city readers that Mr. Goodman should have entertained a little doubt as to the authenticity or perfect correctness of the above document. He certainly did have a faint suspicion of something wrong and in pursuance of the dictates of this suspicion, the strength of which must have been observable on his countenance, he took a step or two in the direction of the darkey, when he "broke ranks" and incontinently fled leaving the goods and order in the hands

ville Sound, not far from the liltle church located in that vicinity, is a spot of ground which is so studded with trees and undergrowth, interwoven with vines, &c., that it is almost as impenetrable as the strongest fortress, and the soil of which has perhaps not been trod by the feet of human in a great many years. A gentleman of this city, who is of an enquiring mind and loves to explore hidden recesses where others have not had the patience and energy to venture, forced himself into the midst of this labyrinth a day or two since, and his curiosity was rewarded by the discovery of a grave, with this inscription on the head-

"Known Only in Eternity."

On the foot-board was the inscription "J. J. H., 1833." Both these inscription were perfectly legible, being protected from Purcell House was taking passengers and the weather in a great measure by the densifreight to the Union depot to meet the 10:40 ty of the surrounding foliage. Fires in the Woods.

We learn that the fires which have been raging in the woods below this city for several days past have resulted in considerable damage. It communicated Sunday with the fence of Mr. W. Porter, about three miles from the city, but by prompt measures the flames were arrested with the loss of about fifty panels. Mr. Charles Bonum's fence was consumed, Col. Hedrick lost about 4,500 rails, and Capt. C. C. Morse and others suffered in like manner. In fact, we learn that the flames swept pretty much everything in their course from Greenville Sound to the very outskirts of the city, threatening the row of buildings belonging to Messrs. Northrop & Cumming, in the extreme Southeastern section.

The corner-stone of the new building being erected for the Bank of New Hanover was laid yesterday. There were no cere- sideration, taken in connection with the monies connected with the matter. Copies of the three daily papers of the city, a number of business cards of merchants, the charter and by-laws and card of the Bank. specimens of U. S. currency, Confederate money, &c., were placed in the box which was deposited in the corner-stone.

There is every evidence of a determination on the part of Judge and Solicitor to conclude the business of the term at the earliest possible moment.

The Lecture To-Night.

Our citizens should bear in mind that Rev. Dr. Whitefoord Smith is to lecture at the Front Street M. E. Church this evening. His subject will be "The Social Element in Man's Nature, its Development, Hindrance, and Final Perfection." As we have said, there are few more eloquent and interesting pulpit orators than Dr. Smith has the reputation of being, and this confact that he was formerly Pastor of the Front Street M. E. Church of this city, will no doubt insure him a large audience. Tickets (25 cents) can be had at the book stores and of Messrs. Wm. M. Poisson, C. W. Hawes, J. W. Collins and R. W. Hicks.
