

OUTLINES.

Kellogg telegraphed the President that he is unable to maintain himself, and calls on Grant to help him. — Topete arrested in Spain. — Carlisle defeated. — John Stuart Mill is dead. — Oakes Ames dead. — Steamer Dean Richmond from Albany was run into by Jersey City ferry boat yesterday and three or four persons were injured. — Garcia, Consul General of Uruguay, arrested on a civil suit. — The Methodist University will be located at Knoxville.

DEATH OF JNO. STUART MILL.

Great men are rapidly dropping off. To the necrology of the first week in May we must add the name of the English philosopher, John Stuart Mill, who has just died in London. In a second degree only to Gladstone and Bright, and reigning in a kingdom where they were unknown, Mr. Mill has impressed himself upon the England of this generation. But it was as a man of thought, and not as a man of action—a philosopher and philosophical politician—that Stuart Mill was known. As a reformer he was intensely radical, his position on the woman question probably being that by which he is best known in this country.

Oakes Ames is dead. He was the father of the Credit Mobilier. There were as bad men as Oakes Ames in Congress; some were much worse. While living we commented in justly severe terms upon his acts; now that he is dead, let him rest in peace.

Lecture Postponed.

Maj. Graham Daves, Chairman of the Committee on Lectures of the Wilmington Library Association, received a dispatch from Gen. Wade Hampton, yesterday morning, dated at Weldon, in which he stated that he missed connection at that place and would therefore not be able to reach here in time to deliver his promised lecture that evening. He will be here, however, in time to participate in the Memorial celebration to-day and will deliver his lecture at the Opera House to-night, commencing at 8 1/2 o'clock.

Thus will our celebration of the day set apart for paying tribute to the ashes of the dead heroes of the South, who fell in the late sanguinary struggle, have its fit and appropriate finale in a panegyric from one of the greatest living representatives of the "Lost Cause" on the virtues and undying fame of the greatest hero of them all, who, though he be dead, yet liveth enshrined in the hearts of his mourning countrymen.

Fatal Accident.

A colored boy, about sixteen years of age, by the name of Jim Parker, met with a fatal accident on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Thursday evening. He was on the half-way freight train, which was just leaving Laurel Hill, and was attempting to pass from one car to another when his foot accidentally slipped and he fell between the two cars, the balance of the train passing over him. When assistance arrived it was found that his left leg had almost been severed from his body, above the knee, while below the knee the bones were crushed in a horrible manner. The right leg was also badly crushed. He was carried to his home in Laurinburg and a physician called, but he was past the reach of medical skill and died about half-past 9 o'clock that night.

Re-arrested.

Taylor Evans, colored, who was implicated in the recent perjury case and probable mail robbery, in connection with a check for $100 which the latter attempted to pass off on Gen. S. H. Manning, was arrested by U. S. Deputy Marshal J. H. Neff, yesterday, and required to give bond in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance at Court. He was arrested at the same time with Woodberry, but released on giving the bond then required of him, which has since been deemed too small. Hence his re-arrest; and not being able to procure the necessary security he was lodged in jail.

Acquitted.

The colored man Simmons, charged with setting fire to Wadesboro' some months since, by which several buildings were consumed, and who had his case removed from Anson to Richmond county, had his trial at Rockingham on Wednesday and Thursday last, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty.

Burglary and Horse Stealing.

We learn that the store of Mr. J. J. Muldrow, of Cade's Tourment, on the North-eastern Railroad, in South Carolina, was broken into on Thursday night and robbed of a large amount of clothing. The same night his stables were entered and a fine sorrel horse stolen. The thief escaped with his booty and up to last accounts there was no information as to his whereabouts.

Meeting of the Southern Lumber Manufacturers' and Shippers' Association.

According to the adjournment of their meeting in Savannah in March, the members of the Southern Manufacturers' and Shippers' Association convened in Mozart Hall in that city on Tuesday morning last. We give a synopsis from the Express. Mr. O. G. Parsley, Temporary President, called the Association to order. The following gentlemen representing the lumber interests of this city were present: O. G. Parsley, representing O. G. Parsley, J. H. Chadbourne & Co., and Northrup & Cumming; and E. Kidder, representing E. Kidder & Sons. In addition to the delegates from Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina, there were three present from Pensacola, Fla., Lumber and Timber Exchange, representing twenty-two saw mills, whose aggregate business amounts to about four million feet of lumber per annum. From August 1872 to April 1873, four hundred vessels loaded with lumber and timber at her wharves and cleared the port of Pensacola.

Messrs. Langdon, Miller and Kidder were appointed a Committee to take the requisite steps for the procurement of a charter and the drafting of suitable by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the Association.

The Committee on Insurance asked and were granted further time to perfect their report.

A committee of thirteen, including Mr. Kidder, was appointed to confer with the Pensacola delegation any reconcile any differences that may exist relative to the inspection and classification of lumber, and to all other matters; said committee combined to nominate permanent officers for the Association, and to prepare business for the adjourned meeting of Wednesday.

In the discussion which followed, Mr. McLeod suggested that the Pensacola, Pascagoula and other lumber exchanges that have been and may be formed should merge themselves into this Southern Association, and that there should be but this one association for the South.

Mr. Colquitt occupied a different position from the broad ground assumed by Mr. McLeod, and submitted that local organizations should be organized, maintained and encouraged, looking especially to local interests and distinct from this general association in which they should all be united, and to which should be referred those matters of general interest and general bearing upon the lumber and timber manufacturers and commerce of the section which alike affected all our manufacturers and shippers.

Local exchanges and organizations were necessary to regulate and govern certain entirely local questions, while the Southern Manufacturers' and Shippers' Association was alike demanded by the lumber interests of the whole South to promote, protect and harmonize questions such as classifications, inspections and insurance, that related to the general concerns of all capitalists and others engaged in the Southern lumber and timber trade. These suggestions of Mr. Colquitt seemed to receive the approbation of the Association at large, and to embody the general opinion upon the subject.

Memorial Day.

It is to be hoped, weather permitting, that there will be a large turnout on the part of our citizens to participate in the beautiful and appropriate services incident to Memorial Day. It is but once a year we are called upon to pay this tribute of respect to our fallen heroes, and surely we can give that much time to those who gave their lives for what they considered our national safety and honor. We should not only cherish their memories in our heart of hearts, but instill into the minds of the rising generation a deathless regard for the sacred dust of those who perished in the great struggle for our independence.

Gen. Wade Hampton was to arrive this morning and is expected to participate in the celebration.

Sudden Death.

A colored woman, the wife of Shady Houston, residing about 7 miles from Rocky Point, in this county, died suddenly a day or two since. She was sitting in her chair apparently in her usual health when the grim messenger came and served his awful summons. Coroner Hewlett will go up this morning for the purpose of holding an inquest over the body of deceased.

Closing Up.

At the usual meeting of the Produce Exchange, yesterday morning, it was moved and carried that an adjournment should be had to-day at 12:30 o'clock until Monday, in order to allow the members an opportunity to participate in the Memorial services.

We presume there will be a pretty general closing up on the wharf this afternoon, and we hope the same will be the case elsewhere.

The Verdict.

Coroner Hewlett returned to this city yesterday morning and reports that he held an inquest on Thursday at 1 o'clock over the body of Fennel Mayes, colored, an account of whose death by accidental drowning at Long Creek, in this county, was mentioned in Thursday's STAR. The jury brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts as stated by us.

A deserter from the garrison at Fort Monroe was arrested in this city and taken to Fort Johnson, at Smithville, on Thursday evening.

MEMORIAL DAY, MAY 10TH, 1873.

Order of Procession.

Chief Marshal and Assistants. Music. Cape Fear Cadets. Orator and Chaplain. Ladies' Memorial Association, accompanied by the Choir. Children's Memorial Association. Schools in charge of their Teachers. Association of Officers Third North Carolina Infantry. Organizations from all other Ex-Confederate Regiments. Ex-Confederate Officers, Soldiers and Sailors. Disabled Ex-Confederate Officers, Soldiers and Sailors in Carriages. Young Men's Christian Association. Other Organized Bodies. Citizens on Foot. Carriages.

The following arrangements and details will be strictly observed, and as the time devoted to the exercises is necessarily short, punctuality on the part of all is earnestly desired.

The procession will be formed on Market street, right resting on Fourth street, at 8 o'clock P. M.

The Cape Fear Cadets, Col. George D. Parsley commanding, will report to one of the Assistant Marshals at Germania Hall, at 2:45 P. M. punctually, and will form an escort to the "Ladies' Memorial Association," from thence to their position in line.

The several schools will assemble on the West side of Third street, between Market and Dock street, and be formed under direction of one of the Assistant Marshals. The Association of Officers of Third N. C. Infantry, and other such organized bodies from other Ex-Confederate Regiments, will form on Third street, between Market and Princess streets, under direction of their commanders.

Ex-Confederate Officers, Soldiers and Sailors will be formed on Market street, (North side) below Fourth street, under the direction of Col. O. P. Meares.

Other organized bodies will be formed on East side of Third street, between Market and Dock streets.

Citizens will assemble on Market street, below Third street, North side, and be under control of one of the Assistant Marshals.

The several bodies after being formed will be directed to their position in line by the Assistant Marshals.

The procession will move to 4th street, up 4th to Red Cross street, and out Red Cross street to the Cemetery—where the annual services will be celebrated.

Arriving at the Confederate Lot in the Cemetery the company of cadets will open ranks, allowing the Chaplain, Orator, Ladies' Memorial Association, ladies accompanying the procession, and schools to enter. None others can be admitted as the enclosure will not permit.

A sufficient space will, however, be reserved immediately around the lot to insure a choice of position to all who will gratify the ladies by swelling the ranks of the procession.

The exercises at the Cemetery will take place in the Confederate Lot and will be as follows:

Prayer by Rev. Mark S. Gross. Music by the Choir: Original Ode. ADDRESS BY COLONEL A. M. WADDELL. Music by the Choir: Memorial Hymn. Floral Offerings.

BENEDICTION.

After the close of the services the graves of all those soldiers who have been interred at Oakdale, outside of the Confederate Lot, will be appropriately decorated.

The ladies of the Memorial Association especially invite all ladies interested, to join them at Germania Hall at 2:30 o'clock P. M. and attend the services in a body with them. They will be assigned a position in the procession with the Association, and will be admitted with them into the enclosure.

JNO. L. BOATWRIGHT, Marshal.

The Ladies' Memorial Association earnestly request all persons interested, who can do so, to send flowers and evergreens to Germania Hall, before 9 o'clock A. M. to-morrow, the 10th of May, and those ladies desiring to assist in arranging them, will be gladly welcomed.

They also request that all merchants and other citizens sympathizing in the sad and noble object which will call us together on that day will close their places of business at 2 o'clock P. M. in order that their employees may attend the regular Memorial Services.

These sad rites are but of annual recurrence and all are desired to participate in them, and by a due observance of "Memorial Day" to perpetuate in the hearts of our children a sacred regard for the memory of our fallen heroes.

JNO. L. BOATWRIGHT, Marshal. A. L. DUBOSSER, J. H. ROBINSON, J. E. LEGGETT, O. A. WIGGINS, W. J. H. BELLAMY, W. J. CALABR, E. H. MILNES, Assistants.

—The Cape Fear Cadets are requested to assemble at the Hook and Ladder House at 2 P. M., to-day, punctually, in uniform, for the purpose of participating in the Memorial services. After organizing they will report at Germania Hall.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Extracts From the Proceedings. The report of the jury in reference to widening Nutt street to the width of 47 feet, including the assessments of damages and benefits to arise therefrom, was accepted and approved.

The following resolutions were then adopted: Resolved, That the Mayor be instructed to open Nutt street forthwith to the width heretofore established by this Board.

Resolved, That the Mayor be authorized to compromise with Wilder & Morton, and arrange to permit their buildings to remain unoccupied for three years, according to a former resolution of this Board, providing they agree to reduce the rate of damages to be paid them to an amount to be agreed on by the Committee on Streets and Wharves.

The Mayor reported that he had conferred with Mr. Bridgers in reference to the Railroad Company building abutments for a new iron bridge over the railroad on Fourth street, and that he had positively declined to pay more than the $4,000 which he had previously offered.

It was therefore unanimously resolved that the Mayor be instructed to contract with Mr. Lanehan for a stone bridge on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad on Fourth street, to be of the width of fifty feet and not to exceed in cost $12,000.

A communication asking that so much of the late resolution of the Board in regard to the Fire Department of the city as may refer to running the hose carriages on the sidewalks of the streets of the city be revoked, was not granted.

The tax bill for the present year was passed with the following amendments: In section 4, the tax on real estate and personal property was made payable on and after June 15th. In section 5, the Tax Collector is authorized to commence collecting taxes, by distress, on and after August 3d, instead of September 2nd, as heretofore provided.

In the license tax, Banks are exempt. The tax on Express Companies remains as before, but private parties acting as Express Companies will be required to pay ten dollars per month. All persons whose business it is to sell prize candies, photographs, pictures, jewelry, or any other article with which a prize is offered as an inducement to purchasers to buy any such article, shall pay a tax of twenty dollars per month. Ice dealers shall pay the monthly tax, the same as retail dealers.

The Board then adjourned.

Snobs and Snobbery.

We are requested to state that Rev. C. W. Warren, pastor of the Fifth street M. E. Church, will deliver a lecture at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, the 13th inst., on the subject of "Snobs and Snobbery." The lecture will be for the benefit of the Sabbath School of his church, and all who make up their minds to attend may rest assured that they will have no cause to regret it.

The tickets will be sold at fifty cents, or two tickets for seventy-five cents.

Frochet in the Pee Dee.

Under the influence of the late heavy rains the Pee Dee River has risen to an unusual height, the water in some places being over the piers of the bridge. All the low lands are flooded and the crops will probably be washed up. Such a freshet has not been known for a long time.

CITY ITEMS.

Portrait of Gen. JOHN E. JOHNSON.—This beautifully executed engraving has been but recently put before the public and is a companion piece of the Lee and Jackson engravings, thus completing the series representing the most prominent and distinguished Generals of the late war. The subjoined testimonial will be sufficient to convince our citizens that it comes to us well endorsed. We think they will agree with us that it is the most military looking of the three. Mr. W. H. Rives, of Charleston, is agent for the above, as also for the Lee and Jackson. By his courtesies and gentlemanly bearing he gave universal satisfaction to our citizens last July when he canvassed this city for the Lee and Jackson. We therefore bespeak a favorable reception for him. Orders left at F. A. Schmitz's furniture will be promptly attended to. From Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, Savannah, Ga: GENTLEMEN—I have just received from you the very handsome engraved likeness of myself you have been so kind as to send me. The picture, both as a likeness and an engraving, is in my opinion the best that has ever been published upon the photograph he used. Most respectfully, your obt. servt., J. E. JOHNSON.

PRINTING LIST.—We have just received a stock of News Ink for summer use, put up in packages of 50 pounds each. Cash or C. O. D. orders promptly filled. Price 25 cents per pound.

BOOK BOUNDING.—The Morning Star Book Bindery does all kinds of Binding and Binding in a workmanlike manner, and at reasonable prices. Manuscripts and other meeting Receipts Books, or other work, may rely on promptness in the execution of their orders.

Shuford, Esq., of Catawba, to co-operate with the commissioners appointed by the General Assembly, to relieve the road from its present embarrassed position, with full discretionary powers to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the company's property and franchises as in their judgment may seem best for the State and the individual stockholders.

—Says the Salisbury Watchman: The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina held, last week, its seventieth session in St. Paul's church near Salisbury. Some forty members were in attendance. Among the principal items of business transacted was a resolution, deferring all action of a union with the Tennessee Synod, or any other ecclesiastical body, until the year 1876. An endowment fund for the purpose of establishing a Theological Seminary somewhere within the bounds of the Synod was created, and $12,000 raised. The next session of this body is to be held in St. Paul's church, Wilmington, N. C., opening on Wednesday before the first Sunday in May, 1874.
