MCMAHON'S MESSAGE.

Order — Always Harping on My daughter.

President McMahon sent a message to the Assembly Monday. It was read by the Duke de Broglie. The President says:

"I am animated by respect for your wishes, and will always scrupulously execute them. The National Assembly had two great tasks—the liberation of territory and the restoration of order. The first was ably conducted by my predecessor with heroic patience. The country and I rely on you to accomplish the other. I shall follow the foreign policy of my predecessor. I wish for peace and the reorganization of the army, desiring only to restore our strength and regain for France her rank among nations. The home policy will be resolutely conservative. The Administration must be imbued with a conservative spirit. I will appoint to office respecters of the law, defend society against factions, and stand as a sentinel to see that your sovereign will is obeyed in its integrity."

The Seamen's Home.

The following list of additional subscriptions to the building fund of the new Seamen's Home now in course of erection has been furnished us by Maj. R. P. Barry, Secretary and Treasurer: Sol. Bear & Bros., (on account,) $50; S. Hanstein & Co., $10; A. D. Brown, $50; J. M. Hardwick, $25; B. F. Mitchell & Son, (in full,) $50; D. Rumley, $25; Southern Mail S. S. Co., $77 72; J. E. Sad Sequel to the Late Accidental Killing.

We learn that Annie Jane Alexander, the colored woman who accidentally shot and killed the colored boy, Henry Wilson, on Sunday afternoon last, died yesterday, about 12 o'clock, from the effects of the nervous shock caused by the terrible disaster. She was completely overwhelmed with grief and remorse and it was feared at the time that she would not survive the shock. We hope the result of this sad affair may prove a warning to all to abstain from the careless use of deadly weapons.

A Dangerous Practice.

The Board of Aldermen should make any driver of a vehicle subject to a severe penalty who allows his horse or horses to go beyond a walk when turning a corner of any of our public thoroughfares. Three or four little children made a very narrow escape from being run over at the corner of Front and Market streets yesterday afternoon, and it was only through the shouts of persons in the vicinity, calling their attention to their danger, that enabled them to save themselves. The feet of the horses almost touched one of the little fellows as the animals dashed round the corner.

Inquest.

The body of John Robinson, the young colored man who was drowned in the vicinity of Wilder & Morton's mill on Monday evening last, having been recovered, Coroner Hewlett summoned a jury and held an inquest over the remains of the unfortunate youth yesterday at 24 P. M. No friends of the deceased were present, and it is not known where he belonged. The jury returned a verdict that he came to his death by accidental drowning. Deceased was about 19 or 20 years old.

To Waccamaw Lake.

The excursion and pic-nic to Waccamaw Lake by the children of the Front Street M. E. Church, comes off to-day. It should be remembered that the train is to leave Union Depot at 8 o'clock. In consequence of the new track to the Depot not being completed in time the luxury of a ride on the street cars will have to be dispensed with and the excursionists will have to "foot it" out to the place of starting. The excursion will doubtless be a very pleasant affair.

Teachers' Drill.

We are requested by A. R. Black, Esq., President of the Cape Fear Teachers' Association, to state that there will be another drill for a review of the week's work at Hemingway School House, near Boney Bridge, on Saturday next, commencing at 10 o'clock.

Local Dots.

— Cotton thieves are on the rampage.

— Clouds and rain predicted for to-day.

— The Board of Aldermen will have another meeting this evening.

— The thermometer in this office yesterday at 3 P. M. indicated 78 degrees.

— The Steamship Benefactor arrived at New York from this port yesterday.

— Regular monthly communication of St. John's Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M., this evening, at 7½ o'clock.

— Geo. L. Mabson having been taken suddenly ill, a new orator had to be selected for Federal Memorial Day.

— Initiation at Orion Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., to-morrow evening. We are glad to learn that this new Lodge is flourishing.

— Rev. A. F. Dickson is in the city, and will lecture in the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church this evening, at 8½ o'clock.

— Mr. James Heaton of this city is reported to be lying dangerously ill at Newbern. Mr. Heaton is a member of the Legislature from this county.

— A colored woman by the name of Rebecca Simmons was lodged in jail yesterday, on a commitment from Justice T. M. Gardner, for non-payment of fine and costs.

— A dead pig on the sidewalk near the corner of McRae and Chesnut streets, and close alongside the cistern at that point, emitted an odor yesterday which was not very healthy nor conducive to comfort. The carcass should be removed.

— The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of Mary Gause, colored, charged with abusing Sam. Norton in a very loud and disorderly manner and striking him with a stick, for which little indiscretions she was required to pay a fine of $10 and the costs.

Correspondence.

It will be remembered that a competitive examination was held in this city during last week, at the instance of Hon. A. M. Waddell, of candidates for the vacant Cadetship in the Naval Academy from this District, and that Master Maurice O. Bunn, of this city, was unanimously chosen for the position by the Examining Board. The following correspondence in relation to the matter explains itself:

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 24th, '73.

Col. A. M. Waddell:

DEAR SIR:—Your Committee, appointed as the Board of Examiners in the competitive examination for the vacant cadetship in the Navy from your District, have performed the duty assigned us. After a rigid examination of the following named applicants, to wit: James G. Bradley, Samuel M. Buckman, Maurice O. Bunn, Charles W. Chesnutt, Frank J. Faison, Richard A. Meares, George A. Penton, and Andrew J. Smith, we unanimously agree that Maurice O. Bunn is entitled to the appointment. In this connection, we desire to state that all the applicants acquitted themselves handsomely in most of the studies, and that several reached a high standard of excellence in all.

Respectfully,
GEO. W. JEWETT,
J. N. HINTON,
A. R. BLACK.

WILMINGTON, May 26th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN: Accept my thanks for the very satisfactory manner in which you have discharged the duty of examining the applicants for the cadetship.

It is fortunate that your judgment in the matter—the justice of which no one will doubt—should have been unanimously in favor of one who, as I am informed, might otherwise have been deprived of the proper means of developing the superior talents and character of which he is possessed.

It is gratifying to me to know that this first experiment of a competitive examination has resulted in a manner so well calculated to give general satisfaction, and that you have such just cause to share in it.

Again thanking you, gentlemen, I remain, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A. M. WADDELL.

Messrs. G. W. Jewett, A. R. Black, J. N. Hinton.

International Typographical Union.

The International Typographical Union meets in annual session at Montreal, Canada, on Monday next, the 2nd of June. Mr. John J. LeGwin, the delegate from Wilmington Typographical Union No. 82, leaves for Montreal this morning, accompanied by Mr. Thos. E. Skipper, another member of the craft. We wish them a pleasant journey and the institution in which the former will be an accredited representative a harmonious and useful session.

The Late Collision.

The Board of Appraisers to assess the damages sustained by the Frying Pan Shoals Light Ship by being run into by the Norwegian Barque Mimi some weeks since, consisting of Messrs. B. W. Beery, R. G. Ross and F. A. L. Cassidey, report the same at $1,750. Adding the incidental expenses, such as the pay of the Appraisers, boat hire, &c., the amount aggregates nearly $2,000, which has been paid.

Assault and Battery.

Catherine Powers, colored, was lodged in jail yesterday, there to remain for 30 days, on a commitment from Justice H. E. Scott, of Cape Fear Township, for non-payment of fine and costs in a case of assault and battery. Female "shoulder-hitters" of the colored persuasion are becoming rather numerous.

So general has the public confidence become in Dr. Ayer's medicines, and so great the demand for them that unprincipled villains are attempting to deceive the unwary by imposing upon them their worthless nostrums under a similarity of name. Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, Dr. Ayer's Troches, Ayer's Pastilles for Coughs, Cherry Pectoral Cough Drops, Ayer's Fever and Ague Cure, Dept. Ayer's Indian Pills, &c., &c., (none of which are of Dr. Ayer's manufacture or composition) are specimens of this villainy and deceit. They not only defraud the sick of their money but of their health, or the recovery of their health, which is far more important than money. From actual counterfeits the people are protected by law which the Doctor promptly enforces, but these evasions sometimes elude the law, and purchasers must protect themselves by refusing to be deceived by them.—Dover (N. H.) Dec.

— It is said Senator Ransom will deliver the St. John's address at Oxford.

— The Monitor says Judge Clarke talked to the Methodist Sunday school in Magnolia last Sunday.

— The Hillsboro Recorder has an admirable article on the necessity for a general State effort for immigration.

— A small building for the accommodation of passengers, with a room for ticket and telegraph offices, is being built at Hillsboro.

— Col. Robt. W. Logan has been appointed Deputy U. S. Marshal, and will operate in Rutherford and Polk counties, says the Record.

— The Charlotte Observer gives an account of the preliminary trial and commitment to jail of Charles Moore, colored, for the murder of Bob Smith, colored.

— The Robesonian regrets to hear of the death of Col. Archibald McEachin who died at his residence in this county on Friday, the 16th inst., at the age of 80 odd years.

— The post office at Carpenter's Store, Rutherford county, has been removed to the Island Ford, and the name changed to Hicksville, Romeo Hicks, P. M., vice J. H. Carpenter, resigned.

— That "bleeding soldier" fraud turned up last Monday under the name of Williams in Danbury, where the good people administered to his wants. He had a violent hemorrhage and showed his wounds as usual.

— John Barrett, colored, on Saturday last, severely wounded one Washington Bertier, also colored, by shooting him with a shot gun at Lexington. Barrett is a hard case, and bids fair to come to the gallows, says the Raleigh Sentinel.

— Dr. Northrop, Secretary of the Connecticut Board of Education, will lecture in Raleigh on the 18th or 14th of June on "The Schools of Europe" and "The Influence of Education in promoting Thrift and Wealth." He is going to assist Miss Bacon in her efforts to establish a free high school in Raleigh.

— From the Fayetteville Eagle of the 27th: In Superior Court yesterday only civil cases were tried which would be of but little interest to our readers. Saturday the case of the State vs. Washington McArthur for assault and battery in three counts was acquitted on first count and convicted of other two. He was sent to jail to await sentence.

— Speaking of the extensive lumber operations of Messrs. Armstrong, the Portsmouth Enterprise says: Recently this firm purchased 800 acres of timber land grown in pine and oak, from Mr. Thomas J. Holly, located on the Chowan river, opposite Coleraine and between that point and Portsmouth is constantly a schooner plying, carrying merchantable lumber to this market.

— The Hildsboro post office has been found deficient in its accounts. The deficiency has been made good, and the Recorder says: Mr. Hunter, though a Republican, has been universally acceptable to men of all parties, efficient, prompt, and obliging, and none are willing to attach the stigma of dishonesty to his name, preferring to believe that his deficiencies grew out of carelessness or other causes rather than wilful perversion of his trust. The management of the office will of course pass into other hands.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW NOVEL. PUBLISH THIS DAY:

The New Magdalen!

A Novel. By Wilkie Collins, author of "The Woman in White," "No Name," "Armadale," "Moonstone," "Poor Miss Finch," &c. 8vo, Paper 50 cts.

A story that is likely to rival any other that the author has written in intensity of interest. Mr. Collins never constructed a novel which was more in his own line than "The New Magdalen."—Morning Advertiser, London.

"The New Magdalen" is equal to Mr. Collins's reputation. It is as remarkable in plot as any of the great novels which preceded it, and there is the same old skill in the delineation of character as before. It will not make a "goody" book, but it will be a great book. Grace Roseberry is a more remarkable heroine even than the "Woman in White."

Health Ordinance.

ALL CELLARS, EXCAVATIONS, OR OPEN spaces, under any building in which water at any time stagnates or rises, or which are damp, and in which foul and unwholesome air is generated or found, shall, upon the notification and requirement of the Mayor (which it shall be his duty to give), be filled up by the owners thereof to the level of the street or alley adjoining thereto, with sand or gravel, or some other impermeable substance. And all lots on which water remains and stagnates, or which are genuinely wet and damp, and all lots sunk below the level of the next adjacent street or alley, and from which there is no suitable drain or gutter, or a permanent character, sufficient readily to vent water from the same, shall, upon like notification and requirement (which it shall be the duty of the Mayor to give), be filled up by the owners in the manner aforesaid, or so drained by gutters, culverts or drains as to be kept free from water or dampness.

Every person failing to comply with the foregoing provisions of this section, after notification and requirement from the Mayor, shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars for each and every day of such failure; and, moreover, shall pay all the costs and expenses of filling up or draining as aforesaid, which, upon such failure, the Mayor shall cause to be done at the expense of the city.

All occupants of houses with cellars, and if there be no occupants, then the owners, shall cause all dirt, filth and rubbish to be removed from such cellars, and the same to be cleansed and whitewashed, whenever and as often as they shall be notified and required by the Mayor so to do.

All occupants, and if there be no occupants, then the owners, of all stores, shops and warehouses, shall remove therefrom all fish, beef, pork, hides or other matter or articles whatsoever, which may be putrid, or offensive to the smell, or may tend to corrupt the atmosphere, and shall ventilate and cleanse their building whenever notified and required by the Mayor.

All persons keeping one or more cows, horses or hogs within the limits of the city shall keep their stables, yards, pens or enclosures in which such animals shall usually stand or be, dry and thoroughly cleansed, and, once in every fortnight, they shall remove the filth and offal from the same, beyond the limits of the city.

No person shall permit any putrid, noisome or offensive matter or substance of any kind, to remain or be upon the lot or premises occupied by him, but shall immediately remove the same beyond the limits of the city.

All privies, or necessary houses, or places used as such, shall be emptied or cleaned out, or thoroughly disinfected once in every fortnight, by the occupant, or, in his absence, by the owner of the lot on which such privy may be.

No owner of any lot shall suffer any Jamestown or other weeds to grow thereon; but all lots shall be kept free and clear therefrom by the owners.

No person shall place, deposit, throw, pour or convey by any drain or gutter, into or upon any street, alley, wharf or other public place within the city, any dead animal, offal, garbage, filth, manure, feculent matter, foul or putrid water or other fluid, or any matter offensive to the smell or injurious to health; nor shall any person keep, or suffer to remain, any of the articles or things above mentioned in or upon his yard or lot more than twenty-four hours.

Every person violating any of the provisions of the seven last preceding paragraphs of this section shall forfeit and pay twenty dollars.

CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C.,
May 26th, 1873.

THE ABOVE HEALTH ORDINANCE IS PUBlished for the information of the citizens, and their co-operation is expected in having it strictly enforced. The Marshal will immediately have any lot, cellar or vacant house in the city inspected, and the owners or occupants will obey his instructions. He will keep four (4) carts on the streets cleaning up for the next two weeks. Persons having large lots of garbage will have it placed convenient for the carts and on information left at the Marshal's office he will have it removed at once.

The furniture is all new and of the best kind. The table and all the appointments of the Hotel will be strictly first class, and no pains or expense will be spared to make the place a pleasant home during the hot summer months.

Of the efficacy of the waters it is not considered necessary to speak here, as they are too celebrated to need particular mention.

Circulars are in course of preparation and will be generally distributed. Arrangements are being made for excursion tickets from this city at reduced rates.
