THE CHEAT TOWNADO.

OSAGE MISSION, Kan., May 27.

The most violent and destructive tornado ever experienced in this section occurred about eight miles south of this city last Thursday afternoon, apeake and Ohio and Richmond and York A whirlwind tempest desolated a River Reduced, and is now on a Southern tract of country half a mile in width and six miles in length. Twenty houses were lifted in the air and were killed. Fourteen families were left entirely destitute.

Persons who noticed the approach of the storm say that it resembled a huge hay-stack, funnel, or balloon in shape, with the small end toward the ground. In a dispatch to the Chicago Tribune the following is related as having occurred in Kentucky county: "Near Skunk River woods a flock when it came it elevated them until. as an eve-witness expressed it, 'they looked like a flock of birds.' They circled round and round, the velocity of the inner current overcoming the attraction of gravitation, until the centrifugal motion moved them to the the earth. Of the 1,500, only 40 were found alive up to this afternoon, and it is believed that the remainder were killed. They were absolutely divellicated. Their remains are found hanging on the trees and bushes, and strewing the ground."

C., from 1st Corinthians, 6th chapter and 19th verse: "Ye are not your own." The Holy Communion was then celebrated, after which the Convention re-assembled, and proceeded to the election of a President and Secretary. Rev. E. M. Forbes was elected President and Mr. W. N. Tilling hast, Secretary-both unanimously. Rev. J. C. Huske announced that Christ Church, at Rock Fish, would be consecrated by Bishop Atkinson, en Monday June 2nd, services commencing at 11 o'clock a. m.

The Convention then adjourned to Thursday morning at 91 o'cleck The number of Clergymen and Lay Del-egates is fully as large as usual on the first day, and considerable accessions will be made by railway to-night and steamer to morrow. Fayetteville is almost surpassing herself in her hospitality to the members, many of them being entertained by families of denominations than Episcopal.

The only question of universal interest that will come before the Convention is the election of an Assistant Bishop; and abou this there is great diversity of opinion, both as to the propriety of electing, at this time, and as to the proper person to fill the posi-tion. It is impossible just now to forecast the situation. vilad god
