

our opinion Doctor Reid was one of the most powerful thinkers and eloquent orators in his denomination in the Southern States.

character. He was a loveable, good, pure, strong man, burning with rightcous zeal, but most liberal and catholic in all his views. In the death of Dr. Reid society has lost a valuable citizen and the Church one of its

Gen. Davis had made all arrangements for the hanging of Captain Jack and certain of his warriors, prisoners in the hands of the soldiery, when orders came ordering him to postpone the execution. Naturally this order excited profound disgust in the camp. The men whose lives had been at the morey of the murderous Modocs felt that the Government ought not to interfere just as merited punishment was about to be meted out to them. These Indians are among the very worst to be found in that section. They have long been outlaws. Their chief slew with his own hands a Major General of the United States Army, during a peace conference. They were taken as prisoners, after all means of resistance had been exhausted. As ordinary prisoners they cannot be treated. As offenders against the civil law, the men engaged in the massacre certainly cannot be held for punishment. Punishment by court martial was their due and the government should not have prevented the execution of those who were present when Canby was shot.

The Prairie du Chien (Wis.) Union of the 30th ult. announces the death in that city, on the previous day, of Mr. John Hopkins

Houston, aged 38. Mr. Houston was a brother-in-law of Capt. J. W. Plummer, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Robeson county. During the past winter he came south for the benefit of his health, stopping for a brief season in this city, but it ourselves. We have had the kindly prom-ise that our Confederate lot will in future be kept in order by the Cemetery Company —our only expense will be the occasional painting of the iron inclosure as may be re-quired. The debt owed by the Association has been greatly reduced—you will see by the Treasurer's report that only about $175 remains to be paid, and which we trust will soon be met. We are pleased to mention how actively and efficiently we have been aided by the "Children's M. A." To them, their energetic young President, and the their energetic young President, and the ladies who have advised and assisted them,

The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the Weekly Star having largely increased the circulation of the latter, advertisers will find it an admirable medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.
