Partial Examination of the Seconds in the Late Duel.

[Special Telegram to the Norfolk Virginian.]

RICHMOND, VA., June 10.

The seconds in the late Mordecai McCarty duel were assigned this morning before Police Justice White, McCarty being still confined to bed.
Dr. Cullen, his attending physician, having stated that he would not be able to put in an appearance before a month, the case by consent of counsel was continued until July 5th.

As the Justice was about to commit the accused, the counsel for the prisoners made a motion for bail, which was opposed by Capt. George D. Wise, Commonwealth's Attorney, in an able speech.

The motion for bail was overruled by the Justice, who stated that he could not bail the accused before the examination of the case. It was then agreed to go into partial examination of witnesses at 7 o'clock this evening.

Produce Exchange.

This useful institution, which was established here by our merchants a few weeks ago, is, we are glad to say, in a very flourishing condition, and has already proven itself of great benefit to them in the daily transaction of their business. The rooms lately occupied by Messrs. J. J.
Scott & Co., as an office are being entirely renovated and refitted, and will be used to hold the daily meetings of this institution. Black boards will be placed upon the wall, on which the Secretary will be required to put all sales of naval stores reported to him by the members of the Exchange, also the daily receipts of naval stores and the arrivals and clearances of vessels, steamers, &c., together with their cargoes. The want of an institution of this kind has long been felt among our merchants.

City Taxes.

The 15th of June is the day fixed by law for commencing the collection of city taxes, but it will probably be July 1st before the tax-books are ready. When the work does begin, however, tax-payers will be expected to "walk up to the captain's office" with unusual promptness and deposit their human cash with the Clerk and Treasurer.
As the collection of the taxes must unavoidably begin later than usual this year, the indulgence must be correspondingly lessened; so, we notify all tax-payers in time, in order that they may prepare for "the wrath to come."

Painful Accident.

Mr. Frank Brewer, employed in the shops of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, accidentally stuck a chisel through his wrist yesterday, inflicting a very ugly and painful wound. A physician was called and rendered the necessary medical assistance.

Local Notes.

—First green corn of the season in market yesterday morning.
—Special meeting of Concord Chapter No. 1 this evening, at 8 o'clock, for work in the Mark Master's degree.
—Yesterday being St. Barnabas' Day services were held in the different Episcopal churches of this city.
—The fish market was bountifully supplied with blue perch and other specimens of the fine tribe yesterday afternoon.
—There is an unmailable letter in the Postoffice in this city for Nathaniel Gray, care of James Rankin. No postoffice.
—A friend of ours plucked yesterday, from a tree in his yard, a few ripe figs, which we think are the first of the season in this latitude.
—John Dennis, charged with assault and battery, was arraigned before Justice Cassidy, who dismissed the case on the payment of costs.
—The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this (Thursday) morning, at 11 o'clock, at the Commercial Exchange.
—The city hands were engaged yesterday afternoon in cleaning out the gutters under the crossings at the intersection of Front and Market streets.
—Three dusky damsels, denizens of the Nutt-street dance houses, were arrested and taken to the Guard House yesterday to answer to the charge of drunkenness before the Mayor's Court this morning.

The Excursion Yesterday.

The much talked of excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds, under the auspices of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, took place on the steamer Waccamaw yesterday. The boat left her wharf at about 7 o'clock A. M., filled with gay excursionists to the number of three hundred or more, a large number of whom were ladies, with a fair sprinkling of children of both sexes. A good band of music had been provided for the occasion, and soon after starting ye gallant knights and fair ladies, including among the gentlemen other devotees of Terpsichore, commenced forming their "sets" and dancing, which was kept up without intermission until the boat reached Smithville. Here a division of the party took place, some preferring to remain in Smithville, while the others visited the Blackfish Grounds. The former, according to previous arrangement, took possession of the music and repaired to the Academy building, where dancing was kept up until the boat returned.

The trip outside was a delightful one, and the success of the fishermen very gratifying, about five hundred (according to the estimate of judges) of the delicious black fish, being captured altogether by those engaged in the sport. This part of the programme seemed to be intensely enjoyed by the males of the party, also by some of the fair sex, and the scene was one of the most animated and interesting description. The fish caught were, for the most part, very fine ones, and a few individuals succeeded in getting as many as thirty on their bunch. While the enjoyment was at its height the whistle blew for returning and the lines were reluctantly drawn in.

The only drawback to the pleasure of the trip outside was the inevitable seasickness, which, though the sea was pronounced to be comparatively smooth, seemed to attack with more or less virulence the majority of those on board, especially among the ladies.
Many of these had never rode on the bosom of the ocean before, and the undulating motion of the vessel, which at first caused a pleasant sensation, soon had a contrary effect, and the number that "went to Europe" during the short time the boat remained outside the Bar was truly astonishing.

Returning to Smithville, the boat remained at the wharf about twenty minutes, affording time for those who had been confined so long on board to take a brief respite, when all the excursionists, at about ten minutes after 5 o'clock, embarked for the homeward trip, the Waccamaw arriving opposite her wharf about 7 o'clock.

Altogether the excursion was a very delightful one. Every necessary refreshment had been provided for the occasion, this department being under the able supervision of Mr. Geo. P. Lamb, while Capt. Potter, and Mr. T. D. Meares, Agent of the Waccamaw Company, were attentive and obliging. Much credit is also due to the Committee in charge of the excursion for the success and pleasure which attended it.

Postal Card Decision.

Persons should not mail two postal cards joined together, one containing an inquiry and the other blank, upon which to make a reply. Both will be cancelled at the office of mailing, and the blank one rendered useless. The following rulings of the Postoffice Department have just been made respecting postal cards: "These cards are not to be advertised, are not to be returned to the writers, nor sent to the dead-letter office.
If undelivered sixty days after their receipt they should be burned. No postal card which contains a scurrilous or obscene communication, or which is folded and the edges fastened together, or to which a slip of paper is attached to conceal the communication, or to which any printed matter, photograph, or picture is affixed, will be allowed transmission through the mails, nor can two cards be pasted together and transmitted without prepayment of postage (in addition to the stamps printed thereon) at full letter rates. All such cards will be destroyed at the mailing office."

THE WILD GARDEN does not regard Dr. Ayer's wisdom in migrating north—nor does it regard the wisdom of those who are flying over us now, while his almanac says:

snow." "Cedar Bluffs (N. Y.) Times, March 3. plaint between Dr. Ayer and the wild geese." "The years have we had such a snow storm as that of last Sunday. The snow lies three feet deep on a level in Wisconsin, and two feet in Wisconsin.

Rocky Mountains. Snow fell in various depths as follows: At Denver, Fort Union and Santa Fe.
Learned as we believed Dr. Ayer in the arena of nature, and wonderful as we know his medicine to be, we were not prepared for so great an instance of his superiority, not only over the wild man, but over the wisest of animals whose tactics is considered infallible. We drive up the pig more freely than ever, over our heads for Ayer's Anodyne. (June 12-400-1000)

Supreme Court.

From the Raleigh News of the 11th we learn that the following cases were argued before the Court on Tuesday, all the Justices being present:
Henry Nutt vs. Joseph Thompson, from Robeson, N. A. McLean for plaintiff and M. L. McKoy and Robt. Strange for defendant.
David Israel, executor, vs. Nancy King, Robeson, N. A. McLean for plaintiff and
M. L. McKoy for defendant.
D. G. McRae, assignee, vs. Malcolm Mc-Nair, Robeson, N. A. McLean and Giles Leitch for plaintiff and N. A. McLean and
M. L. McKoy for defendant.
State vs. A. C. Mead et al., Robeson—Attorney General for the State and Nat.
McLean, M. L. McKoy and N. A. Mc-Lean for defendants.
The case of Willis P. Barnes et al., vs.
W. J. Brown and wife et al., from Robeson, was to have been taken up yesterday morning.

A Small Fire.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 1/2 o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded in the Fourth District, and in a few minutes the fire department and the usual number of anxious inquirers were "on the wing." On reaching the scene, it was found that the fire proceeded from the kitchen of Mr. W. P.
Oldham, on Second between Orange and Ann streets, and was caused by a stove pipe which passes through the side of the building into the chimney. The flames were extinguished by the application of a few buckets of water before any material damage was done.

That Quo Warranto.

Judge Cantwell is still in Raleigh sitting on his quo warranto case; but it is evident that the process of incubation will be very slow and uncertain; and we fear the Judge will grow as thin as a sitting hen if he waits for that egg to hatch. If he is working for a contingent fee he will never make his expenses to Raleigh on this case; but if he charges for his services by the day, month or year, he will accumulate a handsome competency by the time the writ of quo warranto is granted.

Charged with Stealing Money.

Geo. Poisson and Hannah Poisson, both colored, were arrested yesterday, the former being charged with stealing the sum of $10 from Mr. Mathies, in charge of Messrs.
Kidd & Son's brick yard, and the latter with receiving the stolen money. They were required to enter into security in the sum of $100 each for their appearance before Justice Cassidy this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

"Chain Up the Dog."

This is the title of a humorous lecture which will be delivered by Rev. C. W. Warren at the Opera House on Friday evening.
Those of our citizens who wish to hear something "rich, rare and racy" should make it convenient to be present, as they will undoubtedly be gratified.

CITY ITEMS.

New maps of the city, with the extended limits surveyed on a large scale, can be procured at the

The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.

Spirits Turpentine.

—Kensville has a female photographer in the person of Mrs. B. G. Covington.
—The Scotchman chronicles a Richmond Co. cabbage 2 feet 2 inches in diameter.
—Shoe Heel has seven dry goods stores, besides many dealers in general merchandise.

The Newbern Times announces with thankfulness that the temperance cause is gaining ground in that city.
—Professor M. Fetter, of Scotland Neck, who had his leg broken sometime last February by a fall from a buggy, has sufficiently recovered to be out.

—The Robesonian regrets to see farmers throughout Robeson county so dependent on their crops. Too much grass and no laborers to be had.

—The members of the Bar in attendance on the United States Circuit Court at Raleigh adopted suitable resolutions on the death of Chief Justice Chase.

—Charlotte Democrat: There were about twenty wagons in the city one day last week loaded with cotton from Anson and the lower part of Union counties.
The owners of the cotton sold at satisfactory prices and we are told they expressed themselves pleased with the mode of selling and buying.

—This is about Gov. Vance, at Greenville, S. C. "At the close of the regular terms, Gov. Vance was loudly called for, and he spoke for some minutes in a most diverting style, which produced so much enthusiasm that the South Carolinians surrounded him and so overwhelmed him that he came down from his station."
—Magnolia Monitor: There seems to be a "mix" in our municipal affairs.

The old Board of Commissioners failed to settle the accounts which they had contracted during their term of office, and the new Board do not feel like assuming the responsibility of paying the debts contracted while they were not in office. We trust the matter may be amicably adjusted.

—Weldon News: For a number of years strong efforts have been made to raise funds sufficient to build an Episcopal church in this place. We are glad to say that enough has been paid in to build quite a respectable church, and the building committee, Messrs. G. D. White, T. A. Clark and H. E. T. Manning, only wait to have the money turned over to them to begin work on it at once.

—Charlotte Observer: Yesterday afternoon "Prof. Blair, the horse-trainer, was arrested and brought before Mayor Davidson on the charge of having stolen articles of food from a small grocery establishment in this place. Complaint was also lodged with the Mayor by two or three gentlemen, that the Professor had obtained money from them under false pretenses.
In default of a surety, he was committed to jail. The Mayor had lodged in the county jail.

—Weldon News: On Monday morning last a two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Larkin, of this place, swallowed a quantity of concentrated lye, which a servant had carelessly left within reach. The effect of such a quantity of lye on the mouth and lining membranes of the throat and stomach of a tender infant, can well be imagined. Her cries soon brought the father and mother to her side and a messenger was sent for Drs. Geo. and Manning. Every means was quickly applied and though the unfortunate little girl is suffering intensely, hopes are entertained of her ultimate and entire recovery.

—Raleigh Sentinel: We learn that there was a cutting scrape at Greensboro on last Saturday. A one-armed man by the name of Cuzzy struck a man by the name of Osborn on the head with a piece of iron, cutting off a piece of his lip. Some minutes afterwards Osborn attacked Cuzzy with a knife, inflicting severe cuts and stabs. Osborn is now in jail. On the same day a man by the name of Jolly, going about his usual work, was quickly ap-
girl is suffering intensely, hopes are entertained of her ultimate and entire recovery.

—Charlotte Democrat in reference to Mr. Kingsbury's enterprise: Two or three years ago we suggested that the records of those "trying times" should be collected and preserved, and we called attention particularly to the importance of giving a short history of the First N. C. Regiment (the first regiment that went into service from this State and the first Regiment to fight a regular battle with the Federal troops). The regiment left Raleigh on the 21st of May, 1861, (the day after the firing on Fort Sumter), and was quartered at Yorktown, where it served a six months term and was discharged. It was composed of two Companies of Volunteers from Mecklenburg, two from Cumberland, one from Edgecombe, one from the militia, one from Orange, one from Buncombe, one from Burke, and one from Lincoln. Two Companies afterwards joined the regiment at Yorktown, one from Tyrrell and one from Chowan, making twelve Companies in all.

—The News reports the following case before the United States District Court:
O. P. Merrimon & Co., vs. William C. Stronach & Wm. A. Alcott. The point of controversy in this case were these: Mr.
Bledsoe purchased of W. C. Stronach & Co., agents for the sale of Merrimon's Bone Phosphate, a quantity of this guano, which, upon application, was found to be worthless. Upon an analysis of the Bone Phosphate by Professor Kerr, at the instance of Mr. Bledsoe, it was shown to be useless as a fertilizer, and contained none of the ingredients which are calculated to enrich land. A similar analysis by Professor Lisbig, of Baltimore, also established the worthlessness of this guano, demonstrating that as a fertilizer, it was not superior to common sand. Mr. Bledsoe refused to pay for the guano. O. P. Merrimon & Co., then instituted a suit against their agents, Stronach & Alcott, for the recovery of the value of the guano. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs, allowing full amount of debt and damages.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A Proclamation

BY THE GOVERNOR

OF NORTH CAROLINA.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Raleigh, June 10, 1873.

Be it known to all whom it may concern: That in conformity with section 3, chapter 133 of the acts of the General Assembly passed at the session of 1872-73, in relation to amendments of the Constitution of the State:

I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify to the public that said act as set forth the alterations proposed and approved, and the second section of said act to be published for thirty days preceding the first Thursday of August, 1873, in the Raleigh "Daily Star," the "Daily News," and the "Daily News," published in Raleigh, and also for the same length of time in the following Weekly papers, published in the various Congressional Districts of the State, to-wit:

First District—"North Carolina," Elizabeth City; "Express," Washington.
Second District—"News," Goldsboro; "Mail," Rocky Mount.
Third District—"Star," Wilmington; "Statesman," Fayetteville.
Fourth District—"New North State," Greensboro;
"Chronicle," Milton.
Fifth District—"Democrat," Charlotte; "Spirit of the South," Rockingham.
Sixth District—"American," Statesville;
"Watchman," Salisbury.
Seventh District—"Pioneer," and "Expressor," Asheville.

That portion of the preamble ordered to be published in the following words, to-wit:

WHEREAS, The last General Assembly, (three-fourths of the whole number of members of each House concurring), the bill containing the same having been read three times in each House, proposed the following alterations of the Constitution of the State, to-wit: Alteration in relation to the public debt; alteration in relation to the office of Superintendent of Public Works; alteration in relation to the State courts; alteration in relation to exemptions from taxation; alteration in relation to the University; alteration in relation to the seasons of the General Assembly; alteration in relation to the Code Commissioners; alteration in relation to Federal and other officers holding office.

The second section of the said act ordered to be published in the following words, to-wit:

"It shall be the duty of the Sheriffs in each county in the State to open polls at the annual election precincts in his county on the said first Thursday in August next, and the same shall be kept open for one day, from the hour of eight o'clock in the morning to the hour of seven in the evening, when all persons qualified to vote according to the Constitution, may vote for or against the ratification of each of the said amendments, which shall be done by depositing in the box or writing or printed ticket 'For Amendments,' those of a contrary opinion to vote with a written or printed ticket, 'Against Amendments.'"

Done at our City of Raleigh, the ninth day of June, A. D. 1873, and in the ninety-seventh year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL.
