OUTLINES.

In the Freedmen's Bureau accounts $730,000 was found unpaid, though credited as paid. —— Atlantic and Pacific Railroad applies to Federal Court to restrain the State Government of Missouri from selling the road to satisfy a State lien. —— A Southern Collector of Customs cannot read or write and is guilty of an infamous crime. —— Fisher, a consul of Greece, is dead. —— Rochefort will be transported. —— Gen. Ross says his volunteers did not murder the Modoc prisoners. —— Cincinnati has had a $40,000 burning fire. —— Grant, Belknap and Sherman participated yesterday in the distribution of diplomas at West Point. —— The destroyer of the Vendome column, Courbet, is to be prosecuted. —— Two fatalities in an attack on the house of a chief of a gang of robbers in Wetzel county, West Va., Jennings the Chief and his wife. —— New York municipal offices closed yesterday evening in respect to Orr. —— A bank at Hudson, N. Y. suspended. —— Excitement in New York cotton exchange continues, but it is believed that the worst is over. —— Remains of Gov. Orr will reach Charlotte Tuesday.

MODOC JUSTICE AND INJUSTICE.

The Milton Chronicle complains:

"The Wilmington STAR seems to be as blood-thirsty as Gen. Davis—it clamors for the blood of the Modoc savages, because a Major General of the U. S. Army got killed. Capt. Jack no doubt thinks he only got even with the pale faces for killing his father while holding a peace conference."

The Chronicle makes several mistakes in defining our position. We do not clamor for the blood of any of the Modoc savages. We only insisted that the murderers of Canby—those who were present and participated in the assassination of that officer and Dr. Thomas—should be tried for the crime. The Oregon volunteers, or whoever killed the defenceless Modocs near Boyle's Camp, we say they ought to be tried, convicted and punished. Justice is justice, be it to red or white Modocs.

Healthy Reading.

The following article, from the Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel, is based on sound journalistic principles, and, sooner or later, these views must prevail:

From and after this date, every paper and every advertisement in it will be charged for. Persons not connected with a newspaper have no idea of the onerous contributions levied upon us in the way of gratuitious papers and advertisements. The dead-head exactions amount to a large sum yearly—much more than other institutions with twenty times the capital are called upon to pay. Heretofore we have advertised gratuitously for religious, charitable, patriotic and other associations, but we find that the drain upon our office from these sources is more than either charity or justice demands, and certainly much more than business prudence will longer permit. We purpose to discontinue this losing business. We shall charge for everything, and pay as we go, and contribute to deserving objects as other people do—in proportion to our means. We are down on dead-headism in every thing and in every place and vocation of life.

There is no calling that imperatively demands closer attention and the application of stricter business principles than the conduct of a daily paper. We mean business, and we intend to give our subscribers a good, live paper, but we expect and intend that they shall pay for it. One of the first steps in this direction is to suspend all free advertising and nauseous puffing. Notice is therefore given that free advertising, no matter for what purpose, and the free distribution of papers to any and all persons is suspended. The propriety of this action will, we feel satisfied, be appreciated by all right-thinking and sensible people who subscribe to and pay for their papers and advertisements.

Arrested for Larceny.

A colored man, by the name of Paton Belcher, was arrested here yesterday on the charge of having stolen a silver watch belonging to James Bryan and two valises containing clothing, the property of London Pearson and Brooks McKoy, all of Brunswick county. The robbery took place on Sunday last, and the accused escaped with his booty to this city. He was brought up for examination before Justice Cassidey, yesterday morning, who committed him to await an order for his removal to Brunswick county for trial. He is now confined in the county jail.

Cape Fear Navigation Company.

At a late meeting of the stockholders of the Cape Fear Navigation Company, held at Fayetteville, as we learn from the Eagle, B. G. Worth, Esq., of this city, was elected President and John D. Williams, Esq., of Fayetteville, Secretary and Treasurer. The Company is to continue work on the river to improve the navigation of the same. The Eagle adds: "We suppose law suits heretofore begun are or will be discontinued between the steamboat lines, as they have all consolidated and are now partners in the Navigation Company."

Mayor's Court.

The only case which came before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of Lewis Freeman, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and beating his wife, who was required to pay a fine of $10 and the costs.

Wilmington as a Cotton Market—The Duty of Her Business Men, &c.

The Battleboro' Advance, in calling attention to a number of new advertisements of Wilmington business houses which appear in its last issue, says: "We have already, in the columns of the Advance, expressed surprise that so little business was transacted in the city of Wilmington by the merchants and farmers of this section of the State. Advertising is the first step in the right direction. But it is not sufficient that the names and characters of the firms should be known. There must be a personal acquaintance, and if the farmers and merchants will not go to Wilmington to form that acquaintance, the merchants there must do as other merchants, seeking our trade, have been doing, i. e., come in persons occasionally, or send their agents to present the inducements and advantages of their market. Cotton is now bringing as good a price in Wilmington as in any market in the country and the freight is less than to the markets out of the State. And we cannot see why the wholesale merchants cannot offer equal advantages." The Advance adds further: "The merchants of Wilmington owe it to themselves, to their city and to the State to secure more of the trade of this section, and this section should not forget their obligations to build up our own seaport—for the prosperity of Wilmington is the prosperity of North Carolina."

In this connection we would state, what has recently come to our knowledge, that a number of the planters of Edgecombe, Nash and other counties in that section have recently made shipments of cotton to this place, who had formerly shipped it to Norfolk and other points North of us, on account of the superior inducements offered in this market in the way of prices. Only a proper effort on the part of our merchants is required to secure nearly the entire trade of that section, and we hope that they will so far consult their own interest and that of this city as to make that effort.

We are also informed that one of the planters of Granville, after becoming aware of the prices ruling here, ordered his samples sent from Norfolk to Wilmington. All these are encouraging indications and should inspire our merchants and dealers to renewed exertions in behalf of the commercial prosperity of the city.

Colonel S. D. Pool and Our War History.

Last evening we received a visit from Colonel S. D. Pool, Editor of the Newbern Journal of Commerce. Col. Pool is in our section to procure material for his serial work on the war history of North Carolina, to be entitled "Our Living and our Dead; or, Testimony from the Battle-Fields." He unfolded his general plan, which is to collect and present in attractive shape on official and private memorabilia of the late civil struggle between the States, so far as the part North Carolina played in it is concerned. This plan will embrace the history of the battles on the soil of the State, the narrative of the deeds of Carolinians in other States, and the account of our political or civil administration during the four years. He desires all facts bearing on these, to be communicated either orally or in writing. His work will be issued in newspaper form at $2.00. From this city Col. Pool goes to Fayetteville.

We hope he may succeed in procuring all attainable incidents of the great contest in which our State played a conspicuous and gallant part. It is a noble work he has undertaken, a work all our people should take an interest in and sustain.

Supreme Court.

The following cases, as we learn from the Raleigh papers, were argued Thursday, all the Justices being present:

Geo. D. Flack, Administrator, vs. John Dawson et al., New Hanover. Moore & D. J. Devane for the plaintiff. Robt. Strange for defendants.

Sinclair, Owen & Brown vs. State of North Carolina, Cumberland. J. W. Hinsdale for plaintiffs, and Attorney General Hargrove for the State.

B. A. Greene et al. vs. G. F. Greene, Union. J. H. Wilson for plaintiffs, no counsel for defendant.

Thomas J. Jones vs. Commissioners of Bladen county. B. & T. C. Fuller for plaintiff and T. H. Sutton, N. McKay and Robt. Strange for defendants.

Death's Doings.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Joseph Green will regret to learn that he died at his residence at North West, in Brunswick county, yesterday, about 12 o'clock, from disease of the heart. Mr. Green was well known to the people throughout this section, and particularly to the citizens of Wilmington, among whom he had many warm friends. He was about 55 or 56 years of age.

The Cape Fear.

At last accounts the river was getting very low between here and Fayetteville. The Cumberland touched bottom several times three days ago, and the Hurt, which arrived here yesterday morning, reported the water still falling. The heavy rains of Thursday and Thursday night, provided they extended far enough up the country above Fayetteville, will probably cause a considerable rise.

Chief of the Fire Department.

His Honor Mayor Canaday yesterday appointed Capt. John H. Robinson Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, pro tempore, to fill a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. N. Gerken. Capt. Robinson is well qualified for the position and we have no doubt that his appointment to this responsible position will meet with very general approval.

Local Dots.

— The weather yesterday was decidedly cool for the season.

— The crops along the Carolina Central road are said to be "looking up."

— We congratulate the Fire Department on the appointment of "Captain Jack" as their Chief.

— The beautiful little steamer Wm. Nyce made a nice little excursion to Meare's Bluff yesterday.

— Attention is called to the change of schedule on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, as it appears in this issue.

— The colored people of this city are to have an excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds on Tuesday, the 24th instant.

— Messrs. Cronly & Morris will sell at auction, at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day, 144 shares of the capital stock of the Bank of New Hanover.

— Spirits turpentine sold in Charleston at 38 cents Wednesday. In Wilmington, it sold at 40@40½ cents the same day. Only about $1.90 per barrel difference in favor of Wilmington.

— We learn upon reliable authority that a gentleman arrived in this city yesterday who was born and raised in New Hanover county, being now between 50 and 60 years of age, who was never in Wilmington before.

— Rev. Mr. Warren lectured to a large audience at the Baptist Church in Smithville Thursday night, his subject being "Snobs and Snobbery." He will lecture in Goldsboro' Tuesday night, on the same subject.

The Lecture Last Night—An Interesting Incident.

The lecture of Rev. C. W. Warren at the Opera House last night, in behalf of the cause of temperance, was attended by a very large and appreciative audience, who appeared to be highly gratified with his remarks and the manner of their delivery. The lecture was replete with sound reasoning, seasoned with a fair proportion of wit and humor, which called forth frequent evidences of approval from the large number present.

Just as the lecture was about to commence a very intertesting incident occurred. As the speaker came upon the stage on one side, Marsden Bellamy, Esq., entered on the other side, and the two approached the stand at the same moment. The latter held in his hand a cane, with which he proceeded to ——. But we are getting things slightly mixed. As we were about to say, Mr. Bellamy held in his hand a splendid gold-headed cane, bearing the inscription, "Rev. C. W. Warren, from the Young Men of Wilmington," which he presented to that gentleman in a neat and appropriate address, which was responded to in touching and befitting terms by Mr. Warren, to whom the handsome present came very unexpected.

A Fishy Affair.

A quarrel ensued at the foot of the market, yesterday afternoon, between two American citizens of African descent, over a bunch of fish. It was the last in the cart and both made a grab for the slippery prize. One seized the heads and the other the tails and the struggle commenced. It was of short duration, however, as the odds were decidedly in favor of the "head" man, who got the fish and paid for them. His competitor was far from being satisfied with the result and made some very threatening demonstrations, but finally "the affair was amicably settled," and the parties adjourned to the nearest grocery and took a "smile."

The Yacht Club.

That we are to have a regularly organized Yacht Club, of the first class, is now, we learn, a fixed fact. A charter is being drawn up and an act of incorporation for the club is expected to be secured. The necessary buildings for the club are also being erected at Wrightsville Sound. Some of our most prominent citizens are taking the lead in the matter and we may expect to have a Yacht Club, with all the necessary paraphernalia, which will be a credit to our city and a source of pleasure to all who delight in such sports.

Abusing Cattle.

A lot of cattle which were being driven into the ferry-boat on the west side of the river yesterday afternoon were shamefully treated, being belabored with heavy sticks by their drivers and some of their horns broken off. We have no Bergh in our midst, but we have two of his representatives, who should take cognizance of such cases of brutality.

CITY ITEMS.

PRINTING PAPER.—We have now in stock over 200 reams of news paper, size 24x36, weight 30 lbs per ream. It is good, rag paper, and will be sold, in lots to suit, for cash, or sent by express C. O. D.

PRINTING INK.—We have just received a stock of News Ink for summer use, put up in packages of 25 pounds each. Cash or C. O. D. orders promptly filled. Price 25 cents per pound.

The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the Weekly Star having largely increased the circulation of the latter, advertisers will find it an admirable medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.

JOB PRINTING.—We call the attention of merchants, clerks of courts, sheriffs, lawyers, railroad and steamship officers and agents, and all others having orders for printing, to the facilities offered at the MORNING STAR PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT for the prompt and skilful execution of all kinds of JOB PRINTING. We can furnish at short notice Cards, Bill-Heads, Letter-Heads, Programmes, Ball Tickets, Blanks, Pamphlets, Tags, Hand-Bills, Catalogues, Bills of Fare, Show-Bills, Checks, Drafts, &c., &c. Satisfaction guaranteed.

THE WILD GEESE do not regard Dr. Ayer's wisdom in migrating north—such immense numbers of them as are flying over us now, while his almanac says: "Bleak and blustering about this time, with heavy snow."—Cedar Rapids (Ia.) Times, March 5.

We were too fast last week in our item on the conflict between Dr. Ayer and the wild geese. The Doctor's science beat their instinct this time. Not for years have we had such a snow storm as that of last Sunday. The snow lies three feet deep on a level in Minnesota, and two feet in Wisconsin, while the storm has swept from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains. Sleds fell to various depths as far south as Denver, Fort Union and Santa Fe. Learned as we believed Dr. Ayer in the arena of nature, and wonderful as we knew his medicines to be, we were not prepared for so signal an instance of his superiority, not only over the wise men, but the wisest of animals whose instinct is considered unfailing. We drive up the peg more firmly than ever over our hearth for Ayer's American Almanac.—Cedar Rapids Times, March 10. June 13-eod-1w

— Raleigh Era is two years old.

— Chicken thieving is the Raleigh rage.

— Messrs. Fries, of Salem, are to enlarge their factory.

— Good crop reports reach the Salem Press from the neighboring region.

— Joyners Good Templars will dine the brothers from Wilson on the 19th.

— A fire was extinguished in time to save Mr. Wilson's tin shop in Fayetteville Tuesday.

— Charlotte delights in double eggs and combats between blind and lame negroes.

— Jumping from a buggy, Mr. Alex. Hilliard, of Nash, broke his leg, last Saturday.

— There has been general improvement in the railroad beds of the Eastern Carolina railways.

— Robert Miller, a prominent citizen of Caldwell county, has been taken to the Insane Asylum.

— Dr. Stamps, of Milton, says the Chronicle is on the track of the burglars who robbed his house lately.

— A Caswell old woman declares she saw a snake washed by the freshet "big enough to swallow an ox."

— Wilson's efficient officers, quoth the Plaindealer, have drained and cleaned the town into a state of good health.

— T. H. Hill, Esq., local editor of the Raleigh Sentinel, has been confined to his bed by sickness for several days.

— The Raleigh and Gaston railroad is being put in excellent repair. It is the intention to relay the entire track with new iron.

— The engine run off trestle work, four miles from Salem Tuesday. The trestle was forty feet high, says the Winston Sentinel.

— Governor Caldwell has appointed R. V. McCracken, of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, Commissioner of Deeds for North Carolina in that State.

— Harrell, the amiable and handsome editor of the Henderson Tribune, was tilly-goated down his office steps the other night. No bones broken.

— Charlotte Observer says Col. D. Wyatt Aiken, of South Carolina, spoke in that city Wednesday night and organized six Granges of the Patrons of Husbandry.

— Rutherford College has bestowed the degree of L. L. D. upon Dr. E. S. Gaillard, Editor of the Louisville Medical Journal and Prof. in the Louisville Medical College.

— A Bible society was organized at Providence Church, Currituck county last Sunday. Ditto at Sawyers Creek Baptist Church the same evening, by Rev. P. A. Strobel.

— The Charlotte Observer learns that a Yadkin county man named John Holcomb, lately married, on last Friday shot and killed his wife for marital infidelity, and immediately killed himself.

— Some of the planters of Nash and Edgecombe, so we learned in a recent visit, are entirely without hands to work their crops. A physician near Battleboro, with a fine practice, has left it and gone into his plantation to save his cotton.

— The Observer states that as the result of a meeting of the Fair of the Carolinas at Charlotte it was resolved to hold the next exhibition should be held on Tuesday in next November, and that Gen. Wade Hampton should be invited to deliver the address.

— On the 3rd inst., while descending into a well by a bucket Mr. Robert Fletcher, of Yadkin county, fainted from the effects of foul gas in the well and fell back some twenty-five feet, breaking one of his thighs and receiving other severe injuries. There are little hopes of his recovery, thinks the Salem Press.

— We learn from a Halifax county correspondent that at a little past midnight Friday last a barn with its contents, valued at $2,000, belonging to Thos. W. Nicholson, Esq., was destroyed by an incendiary. There were 400 barrels of corn in the barn. An attempt was also made at the same time by the fiends to burn a bridge over a creek. This is the third barn burned by incendiaries for Mr. N. within a month.

— We learn from the Wilson Plaindealer and Rocky Mount Mail that a very destructive fire occurred at Mrs. Draughn's, widow of the late Miles Draughn, near Joyners, on Monday night. Everything was totally destroyed. It was with great difficulty that her little children were saved. Her loss is estimated at $2,000. The citizens of Wilson, always kind and generous, have extended to her pecuniary assistance in this the dark hour of her misfortune.

— The Bingham school opens on the 25th prox., with a prospect for a large attendance. The Raleigh News says: "Notwithstanding the difficulties under which the present session opened, on account of the sickness and subsequent demise of the late Superintendent, Col. Wm. Bingham, it has been one of the most successful sessions in the history of the school. This school in point of reputation is behind none in the South, and its present corps of instructors, Maj. Robert Bingham, Superintendent, Major W. B. Lynch and Capt. T. L. Norwood, is a most efficient one, and the gentlemen composing it are finished scholars and teachers of large experience." The advertisement of the Bingham School appears in this morning's STAR.

— A Convention of the friends of education will be held in the city of Raleigh, on the 9th and 10th days of July, 1873. The following subjects will be presented: "The Teacher."—By Rev. R. Craven, D. D., President of Trinity College. "Higher Education in North Carolina."—By Major Robert Bingham, Principal of the Bingham School. "The Relations of the Churches to Public Education."—By W. G. Simmons, Professor of Mathematics in Wake Forest College. "The Necessity for Universal Public Education."—By Hon. A. S. Merrimon. "Compulsory Education."—By Jas. H. Horner, Principal of the Oxford High School. "How Shall the Girls be Educated."—By A. F. Redd, Co-Principal of the Raleigh Female Seminary. "Industrial Education."—By Jno. W. Norwood, Esq., Delegates will please forward their names to some one of the undersigned Committee of Arrangements on or before the fifth day of July: T. H. Selby, W. E. Anderson, A. M. McPheeters and J. H. Mills, Raleigh, N. C. News.

— In the Supreme Court, Thursday, says the Raleigh News, the entire morning session was consumed in the argument of the case of L. Davis & Co. vs. Jas. W. Schenck, Geo. W. Williams, Eli Murray and Benj. F. Grady, on the civil docket. Messrs. Smith & Strong and Devane for the plaintiffs and Col. Robt. Strange and Mauger London for the defendants. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiffs for $3,385 88, full amount of debt and damages. The main points in this case was a suit on the indemnifying bond of the sheriff of New Hanover county, Jas. W. Schenck, who had executed a levy on one Fishblate, who was the agent of Louis, Davis & Co., in favor of another mercantile firm. Messrs. Louis, Davis & Co., as the owners of Fishblate's stock seeure not only the amount levied upon by the sheriff, but also the damages claimed at $500. Messrs. Venable & McKay, the counsel for Abner Kelly, convicted a few days ago for Ku Kluxing, made a motion in arrest of judgment on account of gross irregularities in the bill of indictment. Mr. Badger, District Attorney, said: "May it please your honor, this indictment is not of my own drawing; it came down to me from a former generation." Judge Bond replied: "I hope, sir, your future legacies will be of a better character. The judgment is arrested."

DIED,

REPITON.—In Norfolk, Va., at the residence of her husband, Rev. A. Paul Repiton, D. D., at 5 o'clock, on Thursday evening last, Sarah Eliza Repiton, daughter of the late Thomas Cowan, of this city, in the 65th year of her age.

Gone to that "rest which remaineth for the people of God."

The friends of the family are invited to meet without further notice at the residence of Col. Thomas C. Millhenny, at a quarter past 6 o'clock this evening, to accompany the remains to Oakdale Cemetery.
