THE DUEL IN MISSISSIPPI.

Particulars of the Affair-The Cause -The Seene of the Duel-The Awful Result.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1. The Evening Herald has the folseveral days past this community has | box swindle. been much excited by the apprehensions of a duel between Col. R. B. Rhett, Jr., the editor of the Picayune, and Judge Wm. H. Cooley, the leading counsel in the case of Hawkins vs. the Picayune. On Friday Colonel Rhett sent a peremptory challenge to Judge Cooley, which was accepted. The meeting, however, was agreed to be postponed until Thursday on account of Judge Cooley's engagements to argue the rule for a new trial bevesterday. During the course of ed that if the case went on till Wednesday he might not be alive to argue it. And so it sadly turned out. The parties left in the Mobile train at 8 o'clock this morning, arriving at Montgomery Station about 10 o'clock, where the party got off. Montgomery Station where the duel occurred is a wild sandy looking place, some four or five miles this side of Bay St. Louis, where the road passes through a wood of tall pines, behind which is an open field. Near by and on the line of the railroad is a small cottage occupied by a family, but, with this exception there are no residents nearer than three quarters of a mile. This difficulty is one of the sad results of the iniquitous Hawkins suit against the Picayune, of which Colonel Rhett is the editor. In his speech for the prosecution Judge Cooley made reflections upon that paper which called forth the editorial in the next issue of the Picayune pronouncing them false. Judge Cooley then addressed a communication to the editor calling for explanations, which not being accorded, he followed it up by publishing a card assailing Colonel Rhett. A challenge promptly followed, and the result is now before our readers. This is not the first duel in which Judge Cooley has been concerned. Some years before the war he met Dr. Kaufman, one of his parishioners, upon the field of honor, and after an exchange of shots an amicable adjustment of the difficulty was made, and thereafter the parties became warm friends. The body was brought to the city this evening, and was left at the Luzeberg Hospital. The funeral will take place to-morrow."

Meteorological. &From Sergeant Otto Schutze, in charge of the Signal Office at this port, we have the following report for the month of June: Monthly mean of barometer, 30.034 degrees; monthly mean of thermometer, 78 degrees; total rainfall 3.60 inches; prevailing wind, S. S. W.; total number of miles travelled,

3.745. The monthly mean of temperature of last month was a little below that of June, 1872. The entire range of the temperature has been greater, however, being between 57 and 95 degrees during last month and between 64 and 94 degrees during the month of June, 1872. Belligerent Females.

Two colored women, answering to the names of Jane Bryant and Annie Jones, were arrested yesterday afternoon, on a warrant issued by His Honor, Mayor Canaday, charged with committing an assault upon Ellen James, also of the dusky hue. They were lodged in the Guard House to await a hearing this morning.

The commanders have decided upon the following private signal of the club: White bed, with fork, and red star in the centre, to be carried at the peak during the race. In the absence of the purser, who, in company with others, have been ordered down to stake the buoys and make other arrangements for the race, Mr. P. W. Gause has been left as Acting Purser, who requests that gentlemen will pay their initiation fee of $5 as members of the Club to-day, before entering their boats, and also to report to him the dimensions of each boat to be entered. Ample accommodations will be provided for conveying persons to the race ground. The distance of race will be about seven miles and a half around buoy station at the Inlet and one at mouth of London Channel, opposite the Banks' House. Each buoy to be mounted with the colors of the Club.

The Excursion to Smithville, &c. There is every indication that the excursion to Smithville and the seashore to-morrow, on the steamer Waccamare, will be very pleasant affair. The excursion will be under the management of a gentleman well versed in such matters, who will see that the strictest order is maintained. The Crops. through Stanly and Davidson counties in-

Superior Court—Release of Allen Wilson-Haywood Branch and Joseph Minzty Sentenced to Hard Labor for 20 Years.

In the case of Allen Wilson, Haywood Branch and Joseph Mintzy, of Duplin county, convicted of burglary, arson, &c., at the last term of New Hanover Superior Court, their trial having been removed to this county, an order was issued by his Honor, Judge Russell, yesterday, requiring the unconditional release of Allen Wilson, in whose case a not. pros. had been entered, and modifying the sentence of Haywood Branch and Joseph Mintzy to twenty years' imprisonment at hard labor.

Upon hearing that the above order had been issued we had an interview with the Solicitor with a view to learn upon what ground he had entered a not pros. in the case of Allen Wilson, and was informed by him that grave doubts had arisen in his mind whether Allen Wilson was present on the night in question at all. The fact was that the only person who identified him as one of the parties present was the boy Geo. Bason, who was not at all confident of the fact, relying principally upon his voice; and Mrs. Bason herself, who based her opinion upon the language of Wilson prior to the occurrence, which language was not uttered in the nature of threats, and the fact the gun used was identified as that of Wilson. It will be recollected that Benjamin Bradley proved that Allen Wilson upon the night in question was at his house, several miles away, and slept there all night. Sally Bradly testified the same thing. After the trial was over and the Governor had refused to interfere, the Solicitor, accompanied by the sheriff and other officers, visited the ac cused in prison and examined them separately, in the presence of the officers named, and arrived at the conclusion from the statements of the other prisoners that Wilson was not in fact in the county of Duplin at the time of the occurrence. One result of the interview was that the Sheriff and the Clerk of the Court, together with His the argument Judge Cooley, opposing the rain and sun, creating a vary offensive the Governor to grant Allen Wilson an un conditional discharge and pardon. We are also informed that a petition to the same effect went up to Raleigh, bearing the signatures of some of the most respectable citizens of Duplin county, who stated that Wilson had been the victim of persecution. The gun above spoken of as the property of Wilson, would have been shown on the new trial granted by His Honor to have come out of Wilson's possession innocently, and he could not therefore have been convicted on the second

George Washington, charged with stealing a lot of chickens, the property of Col. J. R. Davis, of the Purcell House, on Tuesday night, was required to give security in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Robert Hill, charged with burglary. It appears that at 4 o'clock yesterday morning the store of Mr. O'Brien on the corner of Nutt and Red Cross streets was forced open, holes having been bored through the shut ter in order to effect an entrance. Officer Whiting made the discovery and in looking around found Hill on the verandah apparently asleep. Mr. O'Brien was aroused and Hill was arrested on suspicion of being the party who entered the store. O'Brien did not make his appearance on the trial and as there was no evidence to convict Hill of being the burglar the case was dismissed. James Grant, charged with abusing a female and acting in a very disorderly and insulting manner, was found guilty and required to pay a fine of $10 and the costs. George Washington, charged with assault and battery on the person of Josh. Green, striking him with a brick, was

He accumulated a large estate, and in all his varied and long life he was distinguished for energy and devotion to duty.

- Condensed from the Fayetteville Eagle: In Richmond county 4,000 bales of cotton worth a quarter of a million were made last crop, which is about two-thirds or half the best crop before the war. There are run now some 25 turpentine stills of at least $20,000 product apiece, or half a million in all. Of flour 2,500 barrels or more are sent to market which at $10 amounts to $25,000. Of wines, fruits, liquors, cattle, &c., some $25,000, and of lumber, timber, corn, and all other products, some $50,000, making a total of $850,000 for the county a year. It has two papers, thee towns, a large cotton factory for spinning and weaving, which cost $100,000 years 1200 below 000, uses 1,200 bales a year or more, and employs 100 hands. Another factory of same kind employs 25 hands and uses 550 bales. Four more cotton factories are being erected.
