STATE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.
Permanent Organization—Interesting Addresses and Discussions.
[Condensed from the Raleigh Sentinel, 11th.]
The State Educational Convention men yesterday at 10 o'clock, A. M., in the Hall of the House of Representatives.
Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mason, of Christ (Episcopal) Church.
The Convention was permanently organized by the election of the following officers:
President—Hon. Wil. H. Battle.
Vice President—Dr. Craven, of Trinity College, Prof. Stephens, of Peace Institute, Hon. D. A. Barnes, of Jackson county and Dr. S. S.
Satchwell, of New Hanover.
Secretaries—Prof. O. W. Carr and John E. Dugger, Esq.
On motion, of Dr. Craven it was ordered that the Secretary enroll the names of all delegates to the Convention, and give to each a certificate certifying that he is a delegate, which shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretaries of the Convention. This was necessary that the Railroads might be able to distinguish between delegates and those not delegates.
Names of delegates were then enrolled.
Rev. Dr. Craven offered the following resolutions which was adopted: Resolved, That the President shall appoint committees of three who shall examine and report upon the following subjects, to-morrow morning at the meeting of the Convention:
1. The present school law of North Carolina; 2. The University of North Carolina; 3. Normal Institutions in North Carolina; 4. Permanent Organization of a State Educational Association.
Dr. Craven spoke about thirty minutes, handling his subject—"The Teacher"—in a very masterly manner.
Prof. Doub, of Trinity College, followed Dr. Craven on the same subject.
Maj. Robert Bingham, of the celebrated Bingham School, was the next speaker. His subject was "Our University." He urged the importance and necessity of re-establishing the University of North Carolina in a speech of some length.
Dr. Wingate was called upon by Prof. Meville to make some remarks on the subject of the University, and was proceeding to do so, when Dr.
Pritchard suggested that the speaker could not do himself justice in talking to an audience who were weary, and the hour for adjournment having arrived, he thought it better to defer further speaking to the afternoon session.
Dr. Wingate took his seat, when Dr. Pritchard offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider the propriety of procuring the services of one or more efficient lecturers, whose duty it shall be to canvass the State and awaken interest in the cause of general education among the people.
On motion, the Convention adjourned to 3 o'clock P. M.

College with a Long, Proud Record.
President Ewell of William and Mary College at the late commencement made a neat and eloquent speech in which he reviewed the past of that venerable institution and spoke hopefully of the future.
In allusion to the Alumni of William and Mary, President Ewell said: What public council from the session of the House of Burgesses of 1785 to the present time has not been illuminated by their wisdom and eloquence?
What battle-field from Yorktown to Landy's Lane, and from Landy's Lane to Fort Fisher, has not been immortalized by their valor? She has given to the country three Presidents of the United States; two eminent attorneys general of the United States; nearly twenty members of the United States House of Representatives; to the United States Senate fifteen senators; to Virginia and other States seventeen generals, one historian, and numberless eminent writers; to the State and the United States thirty-seven judges; to the army of the United States a lieutenant-general and a score of principal and subordinate officers; to the United States navy a list of paladins of the seas. In all, she has given more than 200 sages and heroes, pre-eminently distinguished in public service and place. She has furnished to the State and country, to mankind and the world, more than one jewel of the first water per annum, of inestimable value."

The grand convalesce of the Knights Templar of the United States is to meet in New Orleans in December of next year. It is anticipated that the occasion will attract to that city fully 10,000 of the Order from all parts of the country, and the Grand Commandery of Louisiana is already beginning to perfect itself in its drills and reviews, so as to present a commendable appearance against the coming of the grand convalesce.

From the Charleston News and Courier: Mrs. Charles H. West, Jr.,

Out With an Axe.
Two colored boys were engaged yester-premises of Mrs. West, on Third, between Princess and Chestnut streets, when one of them, who was using an axe, by some accident let it fall on the head of the other whose name is Charles McKoy, inflicting a severe wound about two inches in length and nearly a half inch deep. The wounded boy was taken to the drug store of Messrs. Green & King, where the proper medical assistance was rendered. The wound is not considered dangerous, but the accident is of a character to prove a warning, if the consideration of what might have been the result could have its proper weight.

Marine Disaster.
The German Brig Alma, in going down the river a few days ago, struck her bottom against some logs at what is known as the Wreck Shoals, about 5 miles below this city, and sprung a leak. A surveying party went down to the vessel on Wednesday, but as she was loaded with spirits of turpentine it was found impossible to ascertain the extent of her damages. The Underwriters therefore ordered her cargo to be removed, so that she can be placed on the ways. At the time the surveying party was on the vessel she was leaking at the rate of about twelve inches an hour.

Warrior's Court.
The only cases before this tribunal yesterday were those of Washington Currie and Thomas Brownell, charged with cursing and the costs, and against Brownell for $10 and costs.

Thos. Currie, charged with trying to strike Thomas Brownell with a weight, tory.

gentlemen had a pleasant moonlight excursion last night. They expected to go far as the "Dram Tree" and return.
A flat race across the Cape Fear about 12 o'clock yesterday created considerable amusement on the wharf. Only two were entered and Messrs. Lemmerman & Coney's got the inside track.

We are indebted to the "Irving L. and D. Association" for a complimentary ticket

Pine Halls.
That section of the city known as "Brooklyn," located North of the W. & W. Railroad, can now boast of two very fine Halls. They are located just beyond Boney Bridge, are the property of Mr. F.
W. Foster, and are to be known as Walnut Hall and Brooklyn Hall. They are connected with each other by a covered passage way, and comprise a dance Hall, comparing favorably with any in the city, if not superior, and a refreshment and ladies' and gentlemen's dressing room. The halls were constructed under the superintendence of Mr. W. H. Gregory and are models of taste and convenience.

Magistrates' Court.

with deserting from the Sch. Ana and Susan, had a hearing before Justice E. S.
Woodford yesterday. They were remanded to jail for safe-keeping until called for by their Captain.

weight, was arraigned before Justice Gar-

Serious, if not Fatal Accident.
Mr. Peter Rochford, of this city, who was engaged in painting the exterior of the iron-front of the new Bank of New Hanover, corner of Front and Princess streets, met with a very serious accident yesterday afternoon, about 5 o'clock. He was sitting on a platform at the time, which was in the act of being lowered, when he gave a sudden lurch and tumbled off, falling between the platform and the building and striking on the pavement beneath, the distance which he was precipitated being about fifteen feet. The unfortunate man fell on his face, and upon being taken up and carried to the drug store of Messrs.
Green & King, and Dr. J. F. King being called to his assistance, it was found that both arms were fractured at the wrist, besides which he had sustained a bad scalp wound, was badly wounded on the nose, mouth and upper jaw, and his collar bone severely injured. After his wounds were properly dressed by Dr. King he was taken to his home on Front street, where at last accounts (9 o'clock last night) he was suffering severely, though it is hoped that his wounds will not prove fatal. Mr. Roch-ford has been a resident of this city since the war and is well known here. The cause of his falling is supposed to have been a sudden fainting or attack of vertigo. The platform was about on a level with the windows of the second story when he fell, and the scalp wound was caused by striking his head against a rock.

taste and convenience.

Magistrates' Court.
James Carney and Wm. Kames, charged
Susan, had a hearing before Justice E. S.
Woodford yesterday. They were remanded
to jail for safe-keeping until called for
by their Captain.

Washington Cully, charged with assaulting Thos. Brownell with a half pound
weight, was arraigned before Justice Gardner yesterday afternoon, who required the defendant to pay a fine of $10 and the costs.

Serious, if not Fatal Accident.
Mr. Peter Rochford, of this city, who
iron-front of the new Bank of New Han-
over, corner of Front and Princess streets,
sudden lurch and tumbled off, falling between the platform and the building and
and carried to the drug store of Messrs.
bone severely injured. After his wounds
last accounts (9 o'clock last night) he was
his wounds will not prove fatal. Mr. Roch-
windows of the second story when he fell,
his head against a rock.

orders: 1st Lieutenant, S. W. Sparrolle; 2d Lieutenant, Eugene Biondi; 3d Lieuten-

The following is an abstract of the duty performed by the Seward during the fiscal year ending the June 30th, 1873: Miles steamed on this station, between Beaufort, N. C., and Georgetown, S. C., including rivers, inlets, &c., 8,184; vessels boarded, 383; vessels found in distress and assisted, 11; vessels reported for dereliction of the valuable assistance to the Coast Survey
