THE STATE GRANGE.

The formation of a State Grange, composed of twenty-five subordinate Granges of the Patrons of Husbandry, shows rather what the new farmers' movement can accomplish in North Carolina than what it has done.

The Carlists seem to be gaining in Spain. In addition to the defeat of Cabrinet, we have news that a small band have entered Old Castile.

It is gravely telegraphed over the country that the committee of the North Carolina Special Tax Bondholders have raised the money necessary to commence their suits.

NORTH CAROLINA EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the Third and Last Day. (Condensed from the Raleigh News Reporter.)

Reports of Committees being in order, the Rev. Dr. Craven, Chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported favorably to a permanent Educational Association.

On motion of Hon. A. S. Merrimon, the following amendment was made to the Constitution: Auxiliary county Associations may be formed in any county of the State in harmony with the Constitution of this Association.

Dr. Craven from the Committee on Nominations reported the following which being adopted become the permanent officers of the association: Vice Presidents.—Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Rev. B. Craven, D.D., Rev. N. McCoy, D.D., J. W. Norwood, and O. F. Alston.

Executive Committee.—Gen. W. R. Cox, John Riley, F. P. Hobgood, W. J. Young, and Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D.D.

Several matters were referred to the Executive Committee, among these one by Capt. Peebles, that the public lands of the United States should be devoted exclusively to the cause of education.

Craven's resolution to refer subject of publishing Educational Journal to the Executive Committee, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction was adopted. Also Gov. Caldwell's that Hon. W. H. Battle, Prof. Alex. McIver, Joseph W. Holden, Gen. W. R. Cox, James H. Harris, Esq., W. W. Peppers, Esq., and T. R. Arge, Esq., be prepared a committee to prepare a code of bylaws for the government of the State Educational Association.

Constitution for the government of the Association:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, six Vice Presidents, a Secretary, Financial Secretary, and an Executive Committee consisting of five members. All of whom shall be elected at the regular annual meetings.

ART. 2. It shall be the duty of the President to preside and preserve order at the meetings of the Association; in the absence of the President, one of the Vice Presidents shall perform his duties.

ART. 3. The Secretary shall keep a true record of the Constitution, By-Laws, and proceedings of this Association, and conduct the correspondence of the Association; he shall preserve such papers as may be committed to his care, and he shall superintend the publication of such matters as the Association may designate.

ART. 4. The Financial Secretary shall manage the finances of the Association, and keep such books and accounts as may be necessary; he shall act as treasurer, and shall pay out no money except by order of the Executive Committee, signed by the President of the Association.

ART. 5. The Executive Committee shall perform all such duties as the Association may designate.

ART. 6. The Association shall meet annually at such time and place as the Executive Committee may designate; but the President upon the requisition of the Executive Committee, shall call special meetings at times and places as the Committee may determine, and no business shall be transacted at such meetings, but that for which they are specially called.

ART. 7. Twenty members from five different counties, shall constitute a quorum to transact business at any meeting of the Association.

ART. 8. Any resident of North Carolina may be elected a member of the Association by a majority of the members present at any meeting, but the name of no person shall be enrolled as a member until one dollar shall have been paid by such person into the treasury of the Association.

ART. 9. Each member shall annually pay one dollar into the treasury of the Association.

ART. 10. At the commencement of each annual meeting the President shall deliver an address on such subject or subjects as he may think important for the Association to consider.

ART. 11. No article of this Constitution shall be altered, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any annual meeting.

Gov. Caldwell nominated the Hon. W. H. Battle of Wake, for President of the Association. The motion which was put to the Association by Gov. Caldwell, was unanimously adopted.

Rev. Dr. Craven, Gov. Caldwell and Gen. W. R. Cox were appointed a committee to make nominations for the remaining officers.

During the retirement of the committee Dr. Pritchard referred to the matter spoken of by him yesterday in regard to the State canvassers, and on motion of Rev. A. W. Mangum the power of appointing a canvasser, was referred to the Executive Committee.

On motion of Hon. A. S. Merrimon, the following amendment was made to the Constitution: Auxiliary county Associations may be formed in any county of the State in harmony with the Constitution of this Association.

Dr. Craven from the Committee on Nominations reported the following which being adopted become the permanent officers of the association: Vice Presidents.—Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Rev. B. Craven, D.D., Rev. N. McCoy, D.D., J. W. Norwood, and O. F. Alston.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning: Henry Williams, charged with cursing and abusing John H. Harvey, was found guilty and required to pay a fine of $5 and the costs. Lizzie Eddy, charged with a violation of the 7th section of the Health Ordinance of the city. Judgment suspended on payment of costs. The cases of Wm. Little and Phillis Green, charged with fighting, were continued over until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Accidental Shooting at Wadesboro. We could glean but few additional particulars yesterday in reference to the accidental killing of young James at Wadesboro on Friday. It appears that the gun used on the occasion had been unloaded for a long time, but some one had put a charge in it a few days before without the knowledge of the youth at whose hands the terrible disaster was effected. In a playful mood he seized the gun, believing it to be still empty, pointed it at young James, and, remarking "I will shoot you," pulled the trigger and the piece was discharged, the lead entering the body of the unfortunate boy, inflicting wounds from which he shortly after died.

Unsubstantiated Letters. The following is a list of unsubstantiated letters remaining in the postoffice in this city July 12th: Mrs. Eveline Childers, care of Mrs. A. Miles, Frank Swain, care of James Swain; Mrs. M. A. Glynn, Matanzas, Cuba.

Local Notes.

Let the good work of cleansing the city go on. Don't forget the moonlight excursion on Tuesday night next. The Board of Aldermen meet in regular session on Tuesday evening. The Lone Star, Kenely, arrived at London from this port on the 27th ult. Marriage licenses were issued for two white and four colored couples during the past week. There is to be a colored excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds on the 4th of August. Those who neglect to badge or chain up their dogs until Tuesday next will get themselves and "pups" in trouble. The little steamer Fire Fly went down yesterday afternoon with a party to Smithville. She will return early Monday morning. There were 11 interments in Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery during the past week, of which 8 were children and 3 adults. Only two interments in Oakdale Cemetery during the past week, of which one was an adult and one a child, aged 8 years, who was drowned. A grand excursion will be given to Fort Caswell, Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds on Wednesday, July 23rd, under the auspices of Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P. The sale of city property for delinquent taxes takes place at the City Hall on Tuesday at noon. Delinquents had better "walk up to the captain's office and settle" to-morrow. The extension of the building in course of erection next North of the New Hanover bank building, and which is to be transformed into two fine stores, has been commenced. A Horrible Outrage—A Little Girl the Victim. We have had the particulars for some days past of an outrage committed in this city, but have refrained from giving them publicity from prudential motives. On Sunday night last a colored family by the name of Shepherd went to church, leaving a small colored girl by the name of Laura Hankins, who was in their employ, to take care of the house during their absence. Thinking she would probably wish to retire before their return they made her a pallet on the floor near the front door in order that she could be easily awakened when they came back from church. It seems from the statement of the little girl, who was examined before Justice Gardner a day or two since, that not long after the family had left, William Shepherd, a son of the family she was living with, came to the door and knocked, and upon being admitted he proceeded to commit an outrage upon her person. Upon the facts being made known the next morning, efforts were made to effect the arrest of William Shepherd, but up to the present time they have proved unsuccessful. The little girl, who is badly injured, is only about 9 or 10 years of age and is a very delicate creature.

A Colored Woman Commits Suicide by Taking Laudanum. A young colored woman, by the name of Martha Sutton, died on Second, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, between 13 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning, from an over-dose of laudanum which she had evidently taken with the view of putting an end to her existence. She had been drinking very heavily during the forenoon, and about 3 o'clock in the afternoon she procured a small bottle about half full of the poisonous drug from some one residing in the same house with her, under some plausible pretext which was calculated to avert any suspicion that she had any intention of using it to her own injury. It seems, however, that she immediately drank the contents, remarking to a friend before doing so that she would be in "h—l" before midnight. After taking the laudanum she lay down and went to sleep. No particular notice was taken of her until late in the evening, the impression of those on the premises being that she was sleeping off the effects of her recent debauch. Finally, however, an attempt was made to arouse her, and in doing so the empty laudanum bottle was found on the bed beside her. A physician was immediately sent for, but when he arrived the insidious drug had permeated her system to such an extent that no skill on his part could avert the doom which the unfortunate woman had wilfully brought upon herself. She lingered until shortly after 12 o'clock, when she peacefully passed away.

Coroner Hewlett was notified of the circumstance yesterday morning, when he summoned a jury and held an inquest over the body, the jury returning a verdict in accordance with the facts above narrated. Deceased will be remembered as the woman who was arrested on Monday last for making two separate assaults upon persons of her own color, and who, when in the act of being taken to the county jail, made such a furious assault upon the officer who had her in custody. She came here from Newbern some eight or nine months ago, was about 28 or 34 years of age, and has frequently been before the courts for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Attempt at Robbery. An attempt was made on Friday night to break into a small grocery store on Sixth, between Brunswick and Bladen streets, kept by a colored man by the name of Robert Pinnney. The first discovery of the attempt was made yesterday morning, when a broken key was found in the lock of the front door. The robber was either unable to effect an entrance or was frightened off.

A Case of Arson—The Guilty Party at Large.

An affidavit was sworn and subscribed to before Justice T. M. Gardner, by a colored woman by the name of Jane Foy, to the effect that one Andrew Ellis, also colored, did on the night of the 10th of July set fire to her dwelling, situated on Ninth, in the neighborhood of Rankin street. The circumstances of the case, as we understand them, are as follows: It seems that Ellis and his wife did not agree very well together; in fact, he is charged with having frequently used violence towards her, and his conduct finally became so outrageous that his wife's daughter by another marriage, the said Jane Foy, a short time since rented another house and prevailed upon her mother to go and live with her. On the night in question Ellis went to the house where his wife and her daughter were residing, an intoxicated condition, and upon being urged to leave declared that he would remain on the premises as long as he pleased. He continued to hang about the lot, being denied admission into the house, until a late hour at night, when the two women suddenly discovered that the house was on fire. They rushed out and alarmed the neighbors, by whose assistance the flames were extinguished. It was found that a lot of lightwood and other combustible material had been placed under one corner of the house and the flames when discovered had burned a hole of considerable size in one plank of the weather-boarding, had gained good headway on the sill and was rapidly communicating to other portions of the building. In the meantime Andrew Ellis escaped and was seen running rapidly in the direction of the nearest woods. Upon the facts becoming known competent officers were placed on his track, but up to late yesterday afternoon no clue had been obtained as to his whereabouts.
