OUTLINES.

Mexico and Peru are to help Cuba. Garretson, of Ohio, succeeds Schultz as Chief Commissioner at Vienna.

CUBA LIBER.

Gen. Quesada says that assistance has been promised Cuba by the Mexicans and Peruvians. A conference of representatives from the South American republics will probably be held in Washington before long.

Terrible as was the mortality at Nashville during the prevalence of cholera, the smaller town of Mt. Vernon, Indiana, seems to have suffered even more, relatively.

We are afraid to "write down" Salmeron as the new President of Spain, for fear that we will have to substitute some other name before THE MORNING STAR rises to-day.

Some wag playfully exploded a bomb in the midst of the Spanish Congress yesterday while it was fiercely amusing itself in choosing a President and Ministry.

"It is by no means uncommon for Crawford county negroes to brain each other with planks and things."

Summer or somebody should cry "stick" to the Chief American Commissioner at Vienna. The third man has resigned. We once had the idea that this was a sticky thing—this business of boss restaurants at a world's show.

President McMahon follows the example of the ex-Empress Eugenie, and unobscures his views of State policy to a newspaper reporter. His policy has two cardinal points—Italy and the army. France must not allow the Pope to be expelled from his dominions; everything that can be done to prevent that shall be done.

The News says the Stockholders meeting Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line held in Raleigh Friday elected the following Directors: Dr. W. J. Hawkins, P. C. Cameron, W. W. Chamberlain, Col. Walker Clarke, Geo. W. Grice, J. B. Batchelor and Col. Geo. Little.

Last night, about 9 o'clock, fire was discovered in the room of Maj. Hill, near the corner of Third and Chestnut Streets.
