STATE AND COUNTY TAXES OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY FOR 1873.

To the Hon. Board of Commissioners for New Hanover County: GENTLEMEN.—Permit us as the representatives of ourselves, and many others, in each Township of New Hanover to invoke your immediate and earnest attention to the assessment of taxes now being collected by our worthy Sheriff under your direction. Probably at no time since the war has there been anything like such a general and deep dissatisfaction, among our tax-payers in the county, black as well as white, as is now expressed on all sides. We make these statements in no captious or partisan spirit, and utter no complaints against you, but there is error, grievous, oppressive, patent error, somewhere in the assessment, as applicable to an unprecedentedly large number of cases in each Township, and one that calls for redress in special cases, and without delay. We admit that a large number grumble now as in the past, according to the traditionary, American custom, about high taxes. We are not of that class of chronic grumblers. But we do say that the tax books now in the hands of Sheriff Black show an extraordinary disproportion, and unjust discrimination, in the levying of the county and State taxes this year for our county, and if you will talk with that officer and leading, unprejudiced citizens of the different townships, you will be furnished with satisfactory evidence of the truth of these statements. While the murmurs in each township are loud and strong, as the Sheriff, who is about to finish his first round of collections, can assure you, the feeling in some is so strong that public meetings of protest and indignation, without distinction of party or color, are in contemplation, unless relief in special cases is afforded. Under such a condition of error, or wrong, or injustice, or unequal burden of taxation, as different persons call it, the people very naturally and reasonably turn to you, not alone as the legal guardians of the county and State, but as the friends of themselves, and the advocates of a just and impartial administration of law, so far as you are able.

We repeat, that we arraign no particular person or persons, in this general discomfiture, amounting to almost an excitement, now prevailing in New Hanover county, about high taxes, and especially the want of uniformity in assessment. It is not the increase of seven cents upon the hundred dollars worth of property which the law imposes of which complaint is made, but hundreds upon hundreds are the cases where the same property which was taxed last year, say five or ten dollars, is now taxed without any change in character or increase in value, from two to three and four and even five-fold in amount, and that in the same township where the assessors levied the tax last spring. Gentlemen, can you be surprised that a large number, in the face of these facts, refuse to pay their taxes, until they shall have made an ineffectual effort to obtain relief at your hands? We ask you to call a special meeting to consider this important matter and to invite the presence of the Sheriffs and others so deeply interested. You have the power to review the books to some extent at least, and while it may be too late for a re-assessment this year, you can, we trust, give relief in special cases. We call upon the able financier and energetic Chairman of your Board, Hon. Silas N. Martin, to heed this call and to listen to the grievances of our struggling tax-payers, who united last year with all parties and colors in giving him such a tremendous vote for County Commissioner.

MANY CITIZENS. JULY 26TH, 1873. —Abel C. Collins, live stock editor of the New York Tribune, is dead.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

—Rev. L. R. Sweat, of Savannah, is dead. —The Phillips-Waddell dueling affair was amicably adjusted on the ground without an interchange of shots. —The supposed murderer of Mr. Halliday, of Auburn, Ala., has been arrested in Talbot county. He is a negro. —In a dispute about a horse at Ogeechee, (Station No. 6, Ga. Central Railroad) between a Mr. McKinney and a negro, the latter was shot and instantly killed. Mr. McKinney at once gave himself up to the authorities.

—The most satisfactory duel that ever occurred took place between two citizens of Augusta—Messrs. James Moore and Louis Dart—on Thursday. The weapons were horse-pistols, and the seconds very considerably loaded them with pellets of paper. One shot was fired, and, as no blood was drawn, the principals shook hands across the bloody chasm and retired.

PALMETTO LEAVES.

Letters received in Columbia announce the completion of the survey of the Cheraw and Chester Railroad to Oro, in Chesterfield county. The corner-stone of the fair building of the Orangeburg Agricultural and Mechanical Association will be laid with Masonic ceremonies, on the 9th of August. An address will be delivered on the occasion by ex-Judge Thomas W. Glover.

Commissions were issued on Friday last by the Secretary of State to the following: Thomas L. Bennett, Esq., Florence, trial justice; James J. Gilmore, Anderson, trial justice; J. L. Bryan, Anderson, trial justice; James McLeskey, Anderson, trial justice; John W. Burbridge, Colleton, trial justice; and W. J. Whipper, of Barnwell, county treasurer.

Jones, charged with drunkenness, was found guilty and required to pay a fine of $10. Moses Turner, charged with being disorderly and fighting on Sunday in his own house, submitted. Sneed, and Phoebe McNeill, charged with being disorderly and fighting on Sunday, on Bladen, between Second and Third streets, were found guilty, and judgments rendered as follows: Polly Gause fined $20; Margaret Gause $20; C. Sneed $10; Phoebe McNeill $10. John Waddell and Geo. Southerland, charged with fighting and other disorderly conduct on the streets on Saturday night, were found guilty. Case continued over until Tuesday morning. Margaret Toney, charged with insulting Officer Statcher. Case continued until Tuesday at 9 o'clock. Margaret Toney, charged with failing to appear and forfeiting her bond. Continued over. In one case of selling liquor without license, judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Runaway and Smash-up—Man Injured—Ordinances Violated, &c.

Yesterday morning the steamer D. Murchison sounded her whistle preparatory to starting for Fayetteville, when two horses attached to drays, standing near the corner of Princess and Water streets, became frightened and darted down the latter street. One of the horses was stopped after running a short distance, but the other ran furiously, coming in contact with a goods box at the corner of Market and North Water streets, upon which two or three colored men were sitting, twirling it around like a top and severely injuring a foot and leg of one of the men, and finally bringing up against the cannon-post at the corner of Market and South Water streets, where the dray was smashed up and the horse tore himself loose from the vehicle. He ran a few yards further when, being somewhat exhausted, he was captured without difficulty. The drivers were not directly censurable for these runaways, but if we rightly remember there is an ordinance prohibiting horses and drays from being left standing on the streets without some one by to look after them, and another prohibiting such vehicles from congregating on Water street while waiting for employment, they being required to take up their stations on some one of the main streets. Runaways are dangerous at all times and every precaution should be taken to prevent them.

Local Notes.

—No improvement in the Cape Fear. —Shrimps are scarce and inferior in quality. —Fine shower Sunday and another yesterday morning. —Watermelons are becoming very plentiful and are getting reasonable in price. —Two white men were arrested yesterday for disorderly conduct on the streets. —The British Brig Delopea, Seebury, sailed from Aspinwall for this port July 9th. —We print to-day the prospectus of The Friend of Temperance, the official organ of the Order whose name it bears, and a most excellent family paper. —An old colored man known as "Uncle John," but whose name we could not ascertain, died here on Saturday at the advanced age of 101 years. —The dog carts were out yesterday and created the only excitement visible on the streets during the day. Several unbadged canines were captured. —We learn that lightning struck the Pee Dee Station, on the Carolina Central road, a few days since, and demolished one end of it. No other damage was done. —A grand excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds, under the auspices of the Machinists' and Blacksmiths' Society, is expected to come off on the steamer Waccamaw on the 21st of August. —A gentleman riding up from the Sound Sunday afternoon, gave a specimen of his skill at "grand and lofty tumbling," in which he was materially aided by the animal he was riding. He received some painful injuries, but nothing serious. —We invite attention to the communication to be found on this page, signed "Many Citizens." It makes grievous complaint of the assessments on real estate in this county, and this complaint is at least entitled to a hearing at the hands of the County Commissioners.

Hobby of Church Books.

Some time during last week a thief or thieves entered the Union School House on the corner of Sixth and Church streets, used as a house of worship by the "Independent Church," and stole the Church Record and twenty-five song books, used in the Sabbath School. Printed across the back of the books are the words, "The property of the Fifth Street M. E. Church Sunday School, Wilmington, N. C.," while the title page contains the following inscription: "The Amananth, or songs and Tunes for the Children of the Church. Nashville, Tenn.: Publishing House of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South." It is hoped that this publication may lead to the detection of the thief, who is probably the same monster of iniquity who robbed the First Baptist Church a few days ago.

Republican Meeting.

A meeting of Republicans will be held at the Court House this evening for the purpose of nominating candidates for Magistrates in Wards where the same may be necessary. A lively time is expected.

Cotton.

The first open cotton of the season is reported on Mr. J. S. Pierce's plantation on Waccamaw Lake, in Columbus county. He reports the earliest and best crop he has ever had.

Female Dogs.

We have already remarked upon the fact that very few bitches, comparatively speaking, have been issued for dogs of the female gender. We now learn that a large number of canines of the female persuasion have been banished by their owners to Eagle Island. This is done, we presume, on account of an indisposition on the part of their owners to pay the double price for a badge and also to prevent their falling victims to the dog-catchers.

Almost an Accident.

A difficulty occurred near the corner of Chestnut and North Water streets, yesterday morning, between John Scott and Nat. Fillip, both colored, during which the former attempted to cut the latter with an axe. A policeman opportunely appeared, however, and prevented the threatened tragedy. The parties were then taken to the Guard House, where Scott was locked up to await an examination before the Mayor's Court this morning.

An Attempt to Rob the Catholic Church.

Last night, about fifteen minutes after 11 o'clock, it was discovered that an attempt was being made to rob St. Thomas' Catholic church. Rev. Father White was in one of the rooms in the basement, and heard the thieves on the inside of the church moving cautiously about, immediately over his head. He called and inquired who was there, but receiving no answer, he procured a light and awoke up two women who stay on the premises and sent after the police. One of them soon arrived on the ground and proceeded to enter the church, when it was found that all the doors leading into the different apartments had been opened and the thieves had escaped through one leading into the alley way, the fastenings of which had been removed. Father White a short time before noticed two white men sitting down under a tree in the vicinity of the church and heard one of them remark as he passed, "Hush; there comes the Priest!" From this circumstance he is convinced that they were the individuals who attempted the robbery.

Escape and Re-Capture.

Obediah Fulford, a colored individual who was sent to the Work House a few days since, escaped from that institution on Saturday night; but, coming to this city, he ran into the arms of a policeman, who lodged him in the Guard House, until yesterday morning, when he was returned to his old quarters.

Attempted Robbery.

A burglarious attempt was made upon the store of Mr. H. H. Bloom, corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, on Saturday night last. One panel of the door being found partially broken out. A fierce dog on the inside probably had something to do with the ignominious failure of the thief.

Death of a Former Wilmingtonian.

By a private letter received by a gentleman of this city yesterday, we learn that Mr. P. Shemwell, formerly of this place, died at Gainesville, Fla., on the 21st instant. Mr. Shemwell, as is well known, was formerly connected with the old City Hotel.

Spirits Turpentine.

—David Dickson will deliver an address at our next State Fair. —Mr. Theodore Ramsay will address the people of England on temperance. —While she was asleep the child of Maria Conally, col., was drowned in a tub of water. —Robeson cotton is good. One-third more planted than last year. Corn a fair average. Labor gets scarce. —Dr. E. Burke Haywood, of Raleigh, has been elected a corresponding member of the Cynecological Society of Boston. —Great efforts are making in Charlotte for the Fair to take place November 28th. Gen. Hampton delivers the address. —James H. Harris, col., recently in a speech in the court house at Raleigh declared for one and all of the constitutional amendments. —James Philips Parker, of Halifax county, who was recently appointed by Hon. C. R. Thomas to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, has passed a very thorough examination and has been received at that institution. —Raleigh News: The death of the Rev. Burwell Temple, one of the oldest divines in the State, occurred at his residence in this county, on Thursday night last. He was a Primitive Baptist, and for thirty years the editor of the organ of that Church published in the county. —Milton Chronicle: A threshing machine belonging to Mr. Sidney Lea, of this county, exploded last Saturday evening while running at a rapid rate, at Mr. Tom Lea's residence, and knocked down eight men, wounding two colored men, it is thought mortally. The teeth of the machine are supposed to be still up in the air, having been sent through the roof of the house with a great violence. —Charlotte Observer: Mr. E. F. Morrison, Treasurer of the A. T. & R. R., under Col. Johnston's administration, has declined to turn over his books, papers, &c., to Col. S. A. Sharpe, who was elected Treasurer pro tem, by the new Board of Directors, with instructions to make a demand of Mr. Morrison for said books and papers. Mr. Morrison holds that the new Board is without authority to make such demand upon him. —Newbern Times: We are called upon to chronicle the sad deaths of the amiable wife and daughter of Dr. M. C. Hoyt, of Onslow County, late of this city. On the 5th inst. the ladies left this port on the steamship Terry, in company with the Doctor's son, Linton L., of this city, for a visit to their friends in Massachusetts. The daughter died in Winchester on the 15th and the wife, at the same place, on the 17th inst. They were both apparently well when leaving here, but were attacked with Typhoid Fever and now are no more. —Raleigh Sentinel: Kincheon Meadlin, 90 years old and a soldier in the war of 1812, died in Mark's Creek township, in this county, a few days ago. He was a member of Capt. Eihannott Nutt's company, the first detachment from the Wake county Regiment of Militia, which was stationed at Fort Macon and Beaufort. This company was 90 strong, and it is thought Mr. Meadlin was the last survivor. Freeman Broadwell, 4th corporal of the same company, died about two months ago. Thus one by one, the old landmarks pass away.
