OUTLINES. Changes made in the English Cabinet. — English Liberals again defeated. — Ship La Cress, San Domingo, lost. — $4,000 boat race on 24th at Halifax. — Cotton 21@21 1/2 cents in New York. — Forsyth county gives 500 majority for Amendments.

OHIO. The Democrats of Ohio would go straightway and commit the stupidest of blunders, nominate a square Democratic State ticket. They had a first rate opportunity to win, but deliberately threw it away. It would have been so much more sensible to unite with the Allen county department and the Liberals. Taking the advice of Senator Thurman may lose the election and cause him to lose his place in the Senate. Groesbeck, however, a better man, may be chosen by an anti-Administration coalition to fill it. If so, we shall not be sorry.

NEW PAPERS. The first number of the North Carolina Gazette, published at Fayetteville, N. C., by Messrs. J. H. and G. G. Myover, shows that these gentlemen have enterprise, talent and taste in supplying a good local paper. It is a large weekly, handsomely printed. The publication day is Thursday; price $3 per annum.

We have also to notice the Baptist Review, just started at La Grange, Lenoir county, by Rev. B. W. Nash. It is a paper of liberal and high tone, and promises well.

VIRGINIA. With such a ticket in the field as Kemper, Withers and Daniel, the Conservatives of Virginia are bound to succeed if they are what they have proved themselves heretofore. It is a splendid ticket, carrying as much talent and popularity as any ticket ever gotten up at the South.

A special dispatch from Raleigh gives the only information received there at the latest hour. We think the Amendments have been ratified, though the negro counties appear to have voted against them.

THE VIRGINIA PLATFORM. In the Virginia Conservative State Convention Thursday night, the Chair called for the report from the Committee on Business, and Mr. Barbour, of Culpeper, Chairman of that Committee, came to the stand and read the following as the report, which was unanimously adopted:

We, the representatives of the Conservatives assembled, do declare: 1. That a contrast of the condition of Virginia under Conservative government with the condition of those Southern States which have been under Radical rule illustrates the wisdom of the people of Virginia in the adoption of this plan of State policy, and demonstrates the necessity of continuing the powers of the State government in the control of the Conservative people of this Commonwealth.

2. That the chief purpose of the Conservative party of Virginia is to secure to every citizen of the Commonwealth, whether native or adopted, of the white or of the colored race, exact and impartial justice, and to promote by wise and beneficent legislation the prosperity of our whole people.

3. That the Conservative party of Virginia, disclaiming all purposes of capricious hostility to General Grant, will judge him impartially by his official action, and will cordially co-operate in every measure of his administration which may be beneficial in its design and calculated to promote the welfare of the people and to cultivate sentiments of good will between the different sections of the Union.

4. We recognize as a fundamental political truth that upon the intelligence and virtue of its people must rest the prosperity, power and permanence of a State. We point with pride to the successful establishment and progress of the free school system of Virginia, inaugurated and conducted under circumstances of peculiar difficulty, for which we are indebted to the wisdom and zeal of a Conservative State Government. Liberal provision ought to be continued for the support and extension of the free schools for the white and colored races respectively.

5. That the interests of a large section of this Union no less than those of Virginia demand the speedy enlargement and completion of the great James River and Kanawha water-line that should connect the waters of the Ohio with those of the Chesapeake, affording to the teeming population of the West, cheap transportation of their products to the points of shipment and marts of trade in the East. The completion by the Government of this great design of George Washington would be an additional bond of union between the communities whose products and commodities would pass over the line of this great national work. On motion of Mr. Riley, the Convention proceeded to consider the resolutions seriatim. General Early said he could not give his sanction to the last resolution. He did not believe the United States Government had any power in the matter. The resolutions were then agreed to with but one dissenting vote.

COL. ROBERT E. WITHERS. Sketch of the Virginia Lieutenant Governor To-Be, Abridged from the Richmond Dispatch.

Colonel Robert E. Withers, who has received the nomination on the Conservative ticket for Lieutenant Governor, was born in Campbell county, Va., in 1821. He graduated at the University of Virginia, and became a practitioner of medicine, to which he devoted himself exclusively for nineteen years. He resided first in Campbell and then in Danville, going to the latter place in 1858, and there remaining until the late civil war.

Going to Richmond in charge of a battalion he was assigned by Governor Letcher to the command of the Eighteenth Virginia regiment. He participated in the battles of First Manassas, Seven Pines, and Gaines's Mill. In the last named he fell dreadfully wounded while leading his regiment to the final charge. His recovery was considered almost hopeless. He, however, so far recovered as to feel that he could return to the field. Several times he attempted to resume his command in the active service, but was so much disabled that each trial was forced to be in vain. Colonel Withers, indeed, has not yet been entirely restored from the effects of his fearful wounds. He was before the close of the war assigned to the prison post at Danville, and held it until he surrendered to General Wright on the 22d of April, 1865.

The war ended, he was too much of a cripple for the country practice of medicine, and seeking some pursuit better adapted to his physical condition, he became editor, first of the Lynchburg News, and afterwards of the Richmond Enquirer. The Colonel showed readiness and facility as a writer, and wrote with vigor and force, and we can say that for his honorable, fair, and manly conduct as an editor he was an ornament of the profession. In the spring of 1868 he was nominated for the office of Governor, and canvassed the State against the Radical party, and the then pending Underwood Constitution. He so aroused public opinion against the Constitution that the military authority (General Canby), fearing its rejection, postponed the vote upon it.

In the Liberal campaign that followed Withers being considered ultra-radical, and G. C. Walker was nominated on a Liberal Republican Platform. For Col. Withers' magnanimity at that time it has been generally thought that he should have been honored with some prominent position, and his friends thought the present a good opportunity to discharge this public obligation to this deserving gentleman. General Kemper was nominated over him by the Conservative Convention, and all parties combined to bestow on him the second place, which he accepted under a sense of duty, in spite of his just pride and self-respect.

In every relation in life Colonel Withers has proved his loyalty, valor, truth, and virtue; and as Lieutenant Governor will honor the office he will be placed in.

The Leaven Working. The Baltimore Gazette, a leading journal of the country, says:

Not only here in Maryland, but all over the country, there is a growing distrust of men who make a business of politics, and a growing determination to put them down—and to keep them down. The protests against rigid rule, and the manifold corrupt practices that degrade American politics, by subordinating party principles to the selfish ends of mere politicians, who trade on the credulity or cupidity of the great mass of voters, are everywhere becoming stronger, sterner, and more vehement. And those protests must be satisfied. The old attachment to party organizations is gradually loosening. The old appeals to party allegiance are meeting with a tardier and more reluctant response. The old spirit of personal independence is asserting itself. Even with us, where the bulk of the people have been so long and so honorably distinguished for their sturdy adherence to Democratic principles, and their unwavering loyalty to party, while they are as steadfast as ever to their principles, they will not follow unworthy leaders, and plunge, like the sheep of Paourge, into the trough of the sea. Nor will they ally themselves with the Radical party, whose "Christian statesmen" buy their way into both Houses of Congress, and fatten on the bribes of the lobby, and grow rich on all sorts of corruption. They will stay at home.

The Raleigh Sentinel mentions an assault on a chamber maid of Hirschmuller's restaurant with criminal intent, made by a man whose name it could not learn. The girl after a desperate struggle released herself and had the villain taken care of by a policeman. Balled.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. W. E. DAVIS.—3d Market. See Notice "Street Railway." GREEN & FLANNER.—Medicines, &c.

Disturbance on the Cor. Barque Leopoldine Fraude. Two sailors belonging to the German Barque Leopoldine Fraude, lying near the foot of Dock street, conducted themselves very improperly on board of that vessel yesterday, having an altercation with the mate. The Captain interfered and finally succeeded in putting them ashore, when they commenced a spirited bombardment of the vessel with rocks, all hands being compelled to leave the deck and take refuge in the cabin and other places of security. The assistance of policemen Lewis Gordon and Lawrence Allen was finally secured, when the parties were arrested and carried to the Guard House, there to await a hearing before His Honor the Mayor, this morning.

Capt. Voigt and Mr. E. Peschau, German Vice Consul, subsequently appeared before Mayor Casaday and lodged a formal complaint against the parties, who are represented to be desperate characters. We learn that they were shipped at Norfolk.

City and County Taxation. We are indebted to a friend for the following table in explanation of the remarks of Judge Cantwell at the City Hall on Wednesday night. It has been carefully compiled from the census of 1870, and certainly exhibits a startling inequality, and will attract the attention of every reader interested in the subject. It will be observed that the county of New Hanover, with a taxable property of less than $10,000,000, pays more taxes than the six counties named, with a taxable property of nearly thirty-four and a half millions of dollars:

Table with 3 columns: County, Total Valuation, Real and Personal, All Estates, Total State, City and County Taxes. Includes entries for Cumberland, Wake, Edgecombe, Craven, Lenoir, Duplin, and New Hanover.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:

- Flora Hall, charged with disorderly conduct. Case dismissed on the payment of costs. Thos. Ruby, charged with being drunk on the streets and making an unprovoked attack upon a glass door, was required to pay a fine of $10 and the costs. Ed. Nichols, charged with fighting with Peter Bryant on the public streets, was sentenced to pay a fine of $30. Henry Parker, charged with committing an assault upon Alfred Conner, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and the costs, which was subsequently reduced to $5 and costs on the application of the prosecutor in the case.

Local Notes. —The Steer John, Williams, arrived at New York from this port on the 5th. —The Board of County Commissioners meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of revising the returns of the election for Township officers.

—There was six feet of water on the shoals at Fayetteville when the A. P. Hurt left there Thursday, but it is feared that the river will soon commence falling again. —J. Loeb, Esq., French Vice Consul at this port, notifies all male citizens from the age of 20 years up to 30, residing in this State, to call at his office and have their names properly registered.

Incendiary Fire. We learn that the new store of Messrs. Moore & Liles, situated in Brunswick county, about three-quarters of a mile from the ferry, was set on fire on the night of the 6th inst., and burned to the ground. It was the purpose of the owners to supply the building with goods the following day. Their suspicions rest upon certain parties and it is to be hoped they will be successful in ferreting the thing out. The loss of Messrs. Moore & Liles is estimated at about $500.

Rapidly Filling Up. We learn that twenty-five names have been enrolled on the list of the new military company now in process of formation in this city. There is no doubt that the requisite number will be secured without difficulty, and we may therefore consider the organization of the company at an early day as a fixed fact.

Township Trustees. The Board of Township Trustees had a meeting yesterday. S. T. Potts, Township Clerk, presented his report for the term of two years, which was received and a copy ordered to be sent to the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners. The Board then adjourned, subject to the call of the Chairman.

The Vote in this County. So far as heard from the majority against the amendments in this county is in the neighborhood of 440, with Grant, Harnett, Columbia and Federal Point to hear from. The townships heard from gave Caldwell a majority of 1,313 in August last.

Suicide. Blount King, a well known resident of Goldsboro, committed suicide in that town on Thursday evening, as we learn from private advices, by shooting himself with a pistol. He leaves a wife and five children.

Election Returns.

The following additional returns from the election held on Thursday have come to hand since our last issue:

FIRST WARD. [Lower Division.] CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

- Public Debt—For the amendment, 53; against, 257. Public Works—For the amendment, 53; against, 254. State Census—For the amendment, 51; against, 252. Exemptions—For the amendment, 54; against, 253. MASONBORO TOWNSHIP.

The vote in this Township averaged 34 for and 4 against the Amendments.

TOWNSHIP OFFICERS. Magistrates—Elijah Hewlett, 50; J. G. Wagner, 49.

Spirits Turpentine.

Rocky Mount has chicken cholera. — Nashville and Castalia have granges. — Nash Superior Court, convenes next Monday. — Good reports come from the crops in Alexander county. — "Major" Williams, a little negro, escaped from Wake jail by climbing the wall. — There will be a reunion of the Confederate soldiers of Warren county at Warrenton to-day. — Messrs. Weber and Davis are shipping weekly from 15,000 to 20,000 staves from Battelboro. — The Battelboro Advance advances with a negro infant having eight fingers on each hand. — Mr. O. A. Keehn of Salem hurt his hand in a saw mill and had to have two fingers amputated. — Two young ladies gave a successful concert at Oxford, for the benefit of the Orphans Home, Monday evening. — Mr. John W. Powell, aged 80, a former influential and esteemed citizen of Fayetteville, died at his residence in Robeson on Monday, says the Gazette. — A colored girl about ten years of age was bitten by a highland moccasin a few days ago, in House's Creek township, Wake. She is now recovering from the effects. — In consequence of an affection of the throat Rev. H. A. Brown, pastor of the Baptist Church at Red Bank, will be compelled to retire from his ministerial duties, for a time. — Rev. James Jones, of the Christian Church, is conducting a successful revival at Flatfawn, near Salem. Twenty-two converts immersed up to Tuesday night last. — Salisbury Watchman: Dr. L. W. Jones of Rowan county, was called in to see three patients (colored) on one house aged 93, 97 and 104. The youngest died, the other two recovered. — Day before yesterday Mr. Beaumont King, an old and well known citizen of Goldsboro, committed suicide by shooting himself. The cause of the tragedy is supposed to have originated from domestic infelicity. — Solomon Pool's second letter, published in the last Era, is a "most lame and impotent" apology—if apology it can be called, for his shameful attack on the character of one of the first ladies of the State. — Clinton Enquirer: Lewis Moore, the town constable and tax collector, who "folded his tent" the other day, and ultimately stole away, carried off with him, it is said about seventy-five dollars of the town funds. — The Rocky Mount Mail says: Gus Rogers (Col.) was arraigned before Justice Fountain last Tuesday, charged with assault with intent to commit a rape on Olive Lewis, (Col.) his step-daughter, aged 13 years. Bound over, instead of being bound up to a tree like any other dog. — Goldsboro Messenger: We are glad to learn that the growing cotton in this section has greatly improved under the auspicious influence of the past few weeks. The corn crop, that is early corn, has seriously suffered from rain and froreth during the planting season, and the prolonged drought of the past month. Press indications point to a short crop, unless the late rains should have the effect to resuscitate the late corn, sufficient to make up an average crop. — The Goldsboro Messenger cautions the public against the devices of one Eugene Van Dorn, who represents himself as being the son of the General by that name, killed by Dr. Peters during the war, and is really a gay swindler of landlords. From his right hand the middle finger has been amputated, and he is conspicuously innocent of anything like tooth. His powers of loquacity are largely developed, and he has a winning manner of indulging in epithets. He is about twenty-five years of age and weighs perhaps one hundred and thirty-five pounds. — Meetings of Republicans in Carteret and Edgecombe endorsed Hon. Thomas Settle. What's up? The Carteret meeting at Beaufort endorsed claims of colored men to have more of the pub. pap. Lon Moore said he would remind the colored people and his white Republican friends who were present, that in his District there was public patronage to the amount of thirty thousand dollars, and the colored people only received twenty-nine hundred of that large amount, when the fact is known that they cast nine-tenths of the vote, and without them the party could not be sustained.

HOLDEN TOWNSHIP.

The vote in this Township was 56 for the Amendments and none against. The following Township officers were elected: Magistrates—W. J. Bannerman, Geo. T. Jordan, J. H. Moore, all white. Constable—Levi Nixon, colored. School Committee—S. P. Hand, white; R. Wells, colored; Thos. Lillington, colored.

RETURNS FROM ABROAD.

[Special to the Morning Star.] RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 8.—10:30 P. M. The returns are meagre from the West. Forsythe, a Republican county, goes 500 majority for the Amendments; Wake about 500 against; Franklin, a small majority for; Granville, against by a reduced majority; Warren and Halifax, an increased majority against. It is believed here that the Western vote will counteract the majorities of the negro counties and the Amendments be adopted by a handsome majority.

COLUMBUS COUNTY.

It is estimated that this county has gone for the Amendments by from 700 to 800 majority.

WAKE.

It is conceded that Gilbert, the Republican candidate for the Legislature, is elected by from 450 to 500 majority, and that the amendments are voted down by about the same majority. The vote was light.

RICHLAND AND ANSON.

At Laurinburg the vote for the Amendments is said to have been unanimous—These two counties voted pretty generally for the Amendments.

BLADEN AND ROBESON.

A letter from Bladenboro says the white ticket was elected in that township, but says nothing definite about the Amendments. Robeson is reported to have gone against the amendments, the colored people generally voting against them.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Synopsis of Proceedings. The Board met in adjourned session last night. An election was gone into for members of the police force. J. N. VanSoelen was elected 4th Sergeant. Alderman Fishblate moved that the names of twenty candidates for privates be placed on each ballot and thus vote for the whole number. The following were thereupon elected: R. J. Jones, Robert McKensie, Wm. Wise, J. J. Cutlar, Lewis Gordon, Richard Sherwood, W. H. Howe, John Statcher, John W. Nash, E. F. Martin, J. S. W. Eagles, Geo. E. Berden, Wm. Johnson, Jeffrey Wise, Thomas Mulford, Moses Whiting, E. S. Harris, Lawrence Allen, Dan Haines. There being one more policeman necessary to fill up the number a second ballot was had and Smith Thomas and William Henderson were placed in nomination. Henderson was elected on the third ballot. Wm. Cutlar and Edward Howard were elected Janitors. Robert Swett and A. J. Denton were elected Health Officers. John Brown was elected lamplighter for the First Division and John Watson for the Second Division. The Committee on Finance reported, recommending that the property of L. Mcginney be not exempt from taxation. A motion that all school property be exempt from taxation enlisted considerable debate, when finally the whole matter was postponed indefinitely. The committee on the matter of salaries reported as follows: The Mayor, $3,000; City Clerk and Treasurer, $1,800; City Marshal, $1,800; Assistant Collector, $740; Captain of Day Police, $780; Captain of Night Police, $720; Sergeants, $590 per month; Policemen, $45 per month; Janitors, $45 per month; Health Officers, $45 per month; Clerk of Board of Assessors, $500; Clerk of Market, $800; Capt. of Street force $720; Lamplighter of First Division, $780; Lamplighter of Second Division, $640; Chief Engineer of Fire Department, $400; Assistant Engineer Fire Department, $300. Report concurred in. Board adjourned to the next regular meeting.

THE EXCURSION LAST NIGHT.

We learn that sixty-five persons came down from Point Caswell yesterday, on the steamer Northeast, for the purpose of going on the moonlight excursion last night on the steamer Waccamaw. Quite a crowd from this city joined the excursionists, and as the night was a delightful one for the purpose we may reasonably expect that the affair was a very pleasant one. — Joe Parvize. — We call the attention of merchants, clerks of courts, sheriffs, railroad and steamship officers and agents, and all others having orders for printing, to the facilities offered at the Monroe State Printing Establishment, for the prompt and faithful execution of all kinds of Job Printing.
