The Forgery Case.
Massey, the forger, a full account of whose arrest has been given in these columns, was brought before Justice Gardner yesterday forenoon for examination. The prisoner gave his name as David Shepherd Massey, and we are satisfied that this is his real name.
He registered at the National Hotel on the 6th and 7th of August as "D. S. Massey, Fayetteville, N. C." The case was continued for a few days in order to secure the attendance of Mr. Asa A. Brown, the principal witness for the State, who is now on a visit to Bladen county; and in default of $1,000 bail, Massey was committed to jail.
During the short preliminary examination before Justice Gardner, Massey was positively identified as the man who passed the forged check Tuesday evening; but he stoutly denied ever having seen the check, or having any knowledge of the transaction.
Coming so closely on the heels of other crimes committed in our city, the case of Massey excites considerable interest in the community.

Capt. Paddison and His Steamer Northwest.
The ladies and gentlemen comprising the passengers of the steamer Northwest, on their return trip from the moonlight excursion on the 8th inst., held a meeting over which John D. Kerr, Esq., was called to preside, with Mr. Wm. W. Colvin as Secretary.
After remarks from the chairman a committee, consisting of Messrs. Owen R. Hollingsworth, Jas. W. Colvin, E. A. Hawes, Jr., and R. B. Frayser, was appointed to prepare resolutions. The resolutions reported alluded in glowing terms to the pleasure that had been experienced on the trip, the excellent accommodations afforded and the care and attention so abundantly displayed by Capt. Paddison in securing the comfort and promoting the pleasure and enjoyment of the passengers on that interesting occasion.

Mayor's Court.
The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:
Violet Hicks, Henderson Davis, and others, charged with not heeding a summons to attend as witnesses. Case continued until this morning.
Wm. Ryan, charged with drunkenness on the streets, was found guilty and sentenced to pay fine of $10 or to the Work House for fifteen days.
The case against the parties charged with assaulting J. H. Carraway was continued until this morning, and that against Beverly Scott until to-morrow morning.
One or two other cases were continued over.

The New Steamship Raleigh.
The Baltimore Sun of Tuesday says: "It is expected that the new steamship Raleigh, lately built by the Baltimore and Wilmington steamship company to accommodate the largely increased trade between Baltimore and Wilmington, N. C., will be put regularly on the line within a few weeks, as soon as the 'finishing touches' are put upon her.
The Raleigh has not yet made her trial trip, but will do so in the course of a week or two. In addition to the Raleigh the company have now running regularly between this port and Wilmington three other new and excellent steamers, viz: the D. J. Foley, Lucille and Rebecca Clyde."

The Carolina Central.
The West-Charlotte Record, of Rutherfordton, learns from a private letter from Silas N. Martin, Esq., who is now at New York, that a proposition is submitted by him to the Board of Directors of the Carolina Central Railway Company, to extend the road to that place, provided the county will issue the balance of the bonds subscribed by it to the W. C. & R. Railroad—being some $25,000 or $30,000.

Patrons of Husbandry.
Mr. J. S. Long will address the people at Rocky Point in the interests of the Patrons of Husbandry, and will organize a Grange at that point on the 30th inst. Representatives from other sections wanting Granges should be present, as it is impossible for Mr.
Long to visit every Township.

The Carter Murder Case.

FIFTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The interest in this case continues unabated, and yesterday no developments of interest were made to vary the monotony of the continued repetition of the testimony and the statements of the accused. The whole course of the evidence showed the affair as far as ever from a correct solution.
The Court room continued crowded during the entire time.

Messrs. Adam Empe and John L.
Holmes appear for the accused.
J. J. KEGAN. was sworn, and being examined by the Court, said: I saw Mr. Carter Monday at the Poor House. I heard of the death of Willie Carter Wednesday morning. Mr.
Carter was on the road on Wednesday. I saw him that evening. I did not hear him make any remarks about the murder. I was travelling with the corpse on Thursday.
I was in the city on Wednesday, and saw Mrs. Carter at her own house. I did not see her anywhere else. She seemed to be sorry about the murder.

BY CORONER'S JURY.
I did not learn anything from either party about themselves, except on Tuesday previous to the occurrence Mr. Carter said that the reason he had not attended the meeting of his order was because of a fuss they had at his house. Mr. Adams had called for him to go to the meeting and Mrs. Carter objected to his (Carter) going. That she raised a fuss, for she thought they were going somewhere else and then Mr. Carter slapped her. Mr. Carter said that Mrs. Carter was jealous of him. He did not say why.

GEORGE COFFEY affirmed: On Sunday I saw three colored boys and one white boy pass my house.
Two of the boys were black and one was a yellow boy. They passed at six o'clock.— I identify those boys in the box as the ones.
I can swear the yellow boy in the box was one of them. The colored boys were quarrelling with the white boy and treated him rudely. The big boy was chasing the yellow boy away. My son told me their names were Willie Carter and David Hicks and his brother. Elijah was not there. The boys were going towards Chadbourne's mill.

WILLIAM MEREDITH
sworn: I was in the city last Wednesday.
I saw Mr. Adams. I did not see Mrs. Carter. Mr. Adams said that Mrs. Carter was at his house.

BY DEFENCE.
I was here Tuesday and Wednesday.
The conversation took place within ten feet of the corpse at the shed. I asked Mr.
Adams why Mrs. Carter did not come to see the body and he said she was in a delicate situation and it would not do. I am certain he said she was at his house. It was on Wednesday.

BURRILL REDDICK
sworn: I was present when the conversation took place between Mr. Adams and Mr.
Meredith. Mr. Adams said Mrs. Carter was at his house. I am certain it was on Wednesday. I know Mrs. Carter. I have seen Willie.

JAMES MURPHY being sworn, said: I know nothing of the murder except what I have read in the papers.
WILLIAM MARSTELLAR sworn: I was on the wharf yesterday, and we were speaking of the murder and a man said, "I saw it." I said well you are the man I want, and I started pretending like I was going for an officer, and when I looked around I saw the man going away fast. But I am not able to identify Murphy as the one.

JOHN DEVAKE being sworn, said: I was sitting on the wharf talking to Marsteller when that man said, "I saw the murder." I am quite certain it was that man (Murphy), but I don't know him by name.

JAMES MURPHY RECALLED.
I was working on a flat for Messrs.
Holmes and Nash all day Monday week.

BY CORONER'S JURY.
I did not see either Devane or Marsteller yesterday. I was not there. I was on the flat. The flat don't go up Smith's Creek.

LOUISA WILLIAMS SWORN.
I knew Willie Carter. I do not know David and Elijah. A boy named Pearson says with me that Willie Carter used to play with him. He told Pearson that he liked to be with him for he could keep them other boys from beating him. I told Willie to tell his mother that the boys beat him, and he said that she did not care how much the boys beat him. It was on Friday. He said the boys had beaten him. He did not come on Monday. I have seen scratches on Willie's leg. He said his mother whipped him. I have never heard him mention the boys' names who beat him.

JOHN PEARSON,
being called and sworn, said: I knew Willie Carter. I have seen him at Louisa Williams' house. I have heard him say the boys had beaten him. I don't know the boys' names that had beaten him.
He said his mother did not care about him.

EDWARD NASH
being sworn, said: I know the man James Murphy. He was in my employ regularly.
I don't recollect that he has been absent at all. I have always found him correct in all his work.

ROBERT POLE,
being sworn, said: I know Willie Carter and his father. I have never heard of Willie being ill-treated. I have never heard Mr. Carter speak of it.

JOHN THORNTON
said: I know David Martin. He never did any work for me. He worked on my place week before last. He was working for Mr.

Crawford.

GEORGE STATCHER being made to understand the nature of an oath, and then sworn, said: I know Jimmie Anderson. I don't know where he was last Monday week. I think I played muster with him last Monday week. It was about 6 o'clock, I think. I did not see him until evening. He came to my house. I don't know where he was about dinner time that day.

JOHN STATCHER
sworn, said: I saw Jimmie Anderson last Monday week, between 2 and 3 o'clock. I stopped in front of the house where a lot of boys were playing muster at that time.
I am certain Jimmie Anderson was there between 2 and 3 o'clock.

T. J. THORNTON sworn: I did not have David Martin in my employ last Monday week. He has not worked at all for me. I did not see David on the premises that Monday morning. I heard he was there.

DAVID MARTIN was again called and made the following statement: Duke and Billy were with us at the creek. I have not told about Duke before. Jimmie threw the rocks over Willie's head and Duke jumped in upon Willie and held him down. Jim cut off the piece of flesh with cork-screw knife. Neither one of the knives shown here yesterday was the one. Duke cut round his arm with a knife and then took the hatchet to cut the arm off. Duke carried the hatchet there to cut some pine burs.

Here the witness was told by Justice Cassidy of the enormity of the crime he stood charged with, and was told the punishment for one found convicted of such a crime, when he continued: While we were going out there I saw Willie have some big bill in his pocket—it looked like a ten or twenty dollar bill. I saw the corner sticking out of his pocket; the corners were green and white; the figures I saw looked like a twenty. I don't know what became of the money; I don't know that the money was taken out of the pocket of Willie; I did not see anybody take it out. I, Billie, Jim and Duke and Willie were there. Elijah was there, too. I met Elijah on the sawdust road before we came to the place where the knife was sharpened. I left home at 1 o'clock. Duke caught up to me in the street. I have seen him before. He lives at his aunt's when he is in town. He works with Mr. Joe Ellis on the Charlotte road—I don't know where. Elijah came down to the creek about fifteen minutes after we got there. He waited on the track where we left him until then. We went in swimming before Elijah got there.
I went in after I saw Elijah coming.
Willie was killed before he got there. I slapped him because he put a chalk mark on my back when I had my clothes off. Willie was on shore struck when about four or five feet from bank. He and Billy had a fight about a biscuit. When Willie stepped down by the water Jimmie pushed him over and held him down with a stick.
Duke and Jimmie held Willie down in the water until Billy filled his pants with rocks.
Elijah had not got there then. Willie was laying on shore when Elijah got there, but his feet were in the water. Then Jimmie cut him, and after that I cut a little until the knife trembled and I quit. After that Jimmie picked up the knife and kept on cutting. He cut the place on Willie's head. Duke then chopped the arm off with a hatchet. I did not speak above the hatchet before this time because I did not have it on my mind. Elijah held the arm some until his hand trembled. Elijah did not cut any. Elijah said it would give him two dollars when he would give him I don't know what became of the twenty dollars I saw in Willie's pocket. I thought I could pay Elijah with the money Mrs.
Carter promised me. Willie was killed when Elijah came down to the creek. I had nothing to do with the killing. No one struck him with the hatchet before he was dead. We stayed at the creek about an hour. Elijah left first, then myself. I left Billy and Jimmie there.

(Here a cross-examination by the jury failed to bring any new facts to light.)

J. H. ADAMS being called, said: Mrs. Carter was not at my house on Wednesday. I was at her house twice on Wednesday, and she was there both times. She was in bed. I think I must have said to Mr. Meredith that Mrs.
Carter was at the house instead of at my house on Wednesday.

ELIJAH MARTIN was called and again stated: I know nothing of the death of Willie Carter. I saw him Monday morning sitting at the gate. It is not so that I was at the creek with the boys.

BY DEFENCE.
I was at the butcher pen at 1 o'clock. I saw Mr. Tilly coming behind me. Mr.
Wiggs told me to wait until Mr. Gilles came to get the hamlet. Mr. Wiggs stayed there about three-quarters of an hour. I was with him all the time. Then I talked to Mr. Sykes. I saw Mr. Gilles and Mr. Sykes and Mr. Tilly there. Any was there. The pen is about three-quarters of a mile from the place on the creek where Willie was found.

Death from Paralysis.
Rev. Isaac Hines, a resident of Cape Fear Township, in this county, was suddenly stricken with paralysis on Monday last, while out walking in his field. Dr. J. C.
Shepherd was summoned to him, but found the case hopeless. Mr. H. died on Monday night and was buried Tuesday last. He was a highly esteemed local preacher of the Methodist Church, and will be much missed in the community where he lived.

Local Dots.

—There were several heavy showers of rain in this latitude yesterday forenoon.
—A white man by the name of Wm.
Ryan, confined in the Guard House, had several spasms yesterday.

—A young alligator was the attraction in front of Mr. G. P. Lamb's, opposite the City Hall, yesterday afternoon.

—A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Carolina Central Railway was to have been held in New York city yesterday.

—The thermometer in the Star office ranged as high as 84 yesterday, but at noon, directly after the heavy rain, it only indicated 81 degrees.

—The Board of County Commissioners are having daily meetings this week for the purpose of hearing complaints in regard to tax assessments.

—The reported death of James Dial, the murderer of Floyd Oxendine, has not been confirmed. We could hear nothing in reference to the matter yesterday.

A Queer Decision.

Justice Wm. H. Moore, one of the newly-elected colored Magistrates, had his first case yesterday. It seems that on the recent colored Masonic excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds, a couple of colored men had a difficulty. "Squire Moore issued a warrant for their arrest, and the case was heard by him on yesterday. The affray, as he termed it, took place on the high seas, and was thus solely in the jurisdiction of the U. S. Courts. This fact was, however, ignored by the Justice, who sentenced one of the party, W. H. Howe, to pay a fine of $40, and also required him to enter into security in the sum of $300 for his appearance at Brunswick Superior court, $300 for his appearance at New Hanover Superior Court and $100 to keep the peace. sentences against the other party was not so severe, he being only required to pay $3 and costs, although the difficulty was decided to be an affray. We are informed, however, that the learned Justice reconsidered his judgment in the case shortly after rendering the decision alluded to, and we have not learned his subsequent action in the matter.

Arrest of Another Boy Said to be Im- plicated in the Murder of Willie Carter.

It will be remembered that in Monday's proceedings of the investigation in the Carter murder case it was testified that David Martin said that a boy named Duke was an active participant in the murder, he having cut Willie Carter's arm off while two of the other boys held it, and that he also helped to drown Willie. Upon this evidence steps were immediately taken by Sheriff Black for the arrest of the boy, whose real name is Duke Walker, and who was in the employ of Mr. Joe Ellis, one of the contractors on the Carolina Central Railroad. A dispatch was sent to Mr. Ellis by Sheriff Black, asking that the boy be detained, and yesterday he received a dispatch from Deputy Sheriff Hargrove, at Laurinburg, stating that Duke Walker had been arrested and was then in custody, whereupon the Sheriff telegraphed a request that he be sent to Lumberton and that he would have an officer there to meet him. The boy is expected to arrive here this afternoon, in charge of Special Deputy Sellars.

Prisoners from Brunswick.

Three colored men, answering to the names of Joseph Jones, D. W. Williams, and Jacob Smith, arrived here yesterday, in the charge of an officer, to be taken to Smithville for confinement in the county jail. A burglary was committed at Meigs, Bluff a few days ago and orders had been given to "search the cabin in which these men resided, who were under suspicion of committing the deed." Upon attempting to do so the officer charged with the duty was met with a determined resistance on their part, but they were finally arrested and carried before Justice A. J. Swinson, who committed them for assault and battery and resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty. They will be held for trial at the next term of the Superior Court of Brunswick county.

A Dangerous Excursion.

A dangerous sink in the street was discovered yesterday evening on Second, between Market and Princess streets. The cavity in one place is some four or five feet deep. The proper precautions were taken to prevent accident until the evil can be remedied by the street force.

Excursion To-Day.

There will be an excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish Grounds to-day, under the auspices of the Mechanists' and Blacksmiths' Union No. 2, of this city. The Waccamaw will leave the wharf foot of Market street at 7 A. M. A fine time is expected.

Wilmington Building Association.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Wilmington Building Association, held last evening, 44 shares of stock were redeemed as follows: Twenty-five at $149.75, fourteen shares at $180, and five shares at $149.50.

We publish this from the Hillsboro Recorder, explaining that we got our information from the Raleigh Sentinel (we think): The Wilmington Star asserts, on the authority of the Rev. C. H. Wiley, that Mr.
Benton was born at Oxford in this State. It is the well received tradition of this county, that he was born at Hartford, or Hart's Mills, on the Eno river, three miles west of Hillsboro on the old Continental road. His mother was a daughter of Thos. Hart, who first settled at that place. What is known now as the Benton old field and where Mr.
Benton spent a great part of his boyhood, adjoins the Hart tract of land on the south.
No vestige of the Benton house remains except the chimney.

CITY ITEMS.

PERMANENT PILLS have become a settled necessity with the American people. Indeed, cathartics always have been and always must be used, in some form, by all mankind. In this country the pillar form of administration has been growing in favor since pills were first made of aloes and rhubarb, rolled into a ball. Their high position in the public confidence has finally been secured by the national permanency by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, the most effective combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to cure. These pills are a device or art product. Those who need pills no longer hesitate what pills to take if they can get Ayer's Pills.
