THE GRANGES IN MINNESOTA.

The Farmers' State Convention-Politicians Snubbed-Donnelly's Platform Overboard-The Men Nominated.

[New York Tribune.] OYATONNA, September 2.

The Farmers' Convention, which promised this morning to be a very slim affair, and to give forth rather an expression of the views and wishes of the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly than of the people, turned out to be composed of between 100 and 200 earnest and independent men.

Gastorf Palm, a Swedish sailor on board of the British bark Vinco, fell from the main-stays while the vessel was proceeding to sea from Charleston on Tuesday evening, and was badly injured.

It is now authoritatively denied that yellow fever has made its appearance in Pensacola.

At a meeting of the Georgia Historical Society Monday evening in Savannah a large number of numbers were present. Twelve new members were admitted.

The following is the ticket nominated: For Governor—Asa Burton, of Rice county.

Lieut. Governor—Ebenezer Ayers, of Washington county. State Treasurer—E. W. Dyke, of Rice county.

Secretary of State—John H. Stevens, of Minneapolis. Attorney General—W. H. Clough.

The third resolve of the platform expresses the spirit of the Farmers Movement in Minnesota: That we will not aid in elevating any man to any important public position whatever who will either deny or object to the exercise by the Legislature of the power to reverse or annul at any time any chartered privilege or so-called vested right or any privilege claimed to be involved in any charter to any corporation, Railroad, or otherwise, which experience has shown is or may be exercised by such corporation or by other similar corporations to the detriment of the public welfare; and that we will demand from every candidate for a high executive, legislative or judicial position to whom we accord our support that he shall pledge himself to recognize the maintenance of this right by the Government as a sacred duty essential for the preservation of the liberties of the people and the stability and prosperity of the Commonwealth.

The prizes were then distributed, the first prize, an elegant opera glass, being presented to the Regatta, and the second, two fine silver goblets, to the Little Sister.

In our next we shall endeavor to give a fuller report of this, the last regatta of the season.

The Approaching Fair. What preparations are being made for the approaching fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association? It is time that some stir should be made about it to show our friends in the country that the Association is in earnest, and that no efforts will be spared to make it the most successful and important fair that we have yet had.

In this connection we would express the hope that some change in the time of holding the fair be made in order to avoid any conflict with the State fair at Columbia, S. C., which occurs on the days set apart for our exposition. We think the suggestion that the time be made a week earlier is a good one. Let us hear from the Executive Committee.

Excitement from the Accidental Discharge of a Pistol. Quite an excitement was created on Front street last night, about 9 o'clock, by the accidental discharge of a pistol. Many who heard the report imagined that something serious had happened and there was a simultaneous rush in different directions, all eager to discover what was the matter. Finally it was ascertained that a man had dropped his pistol on the pavement in front of Messrs. G. R. French & Son's shoe store, when it was discharged. The owner of the weapon picked it up hurriedly and beat a hasty retreat down Princess in the direction of Water street.

EDITORS OF THE STAR.—In the announcement contained in your issue of to-day of the resignation of my position at the Wilmington and Weldon railroad your local makes a slight error which I beg you will allow me to correct.

I have endeavored faithfully to perform my duty, and while I cannot claim in all this time to have committed no errors, still I do insist, and those who know me will believe me, that they have been errors of the head and not the heart.

It is needless for me to say that I retire from my place and my associates with feelings of the most profound regret, finding consolation only in the fact that I yield to the obligations of duty. E. GLAVIN, September 4, 1873.
