PALMETTO LEAVES.

.. Miss Ellen Condy, a Charleston lady, is postmaster at Aiken, S. C.

.. Mr. Osmond Witter, an old Charlestonian, is postmaster at Camden.

.. Mr. John McLerkin, a veteran of 1812, was found dead in his bed last week. He lived near Blackstock.

.. The dwelling house of Ephraim Thompson, in York County, was accidentally destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last.

.. The venerable Dr. Hooper, thirty years ago professor in the South Carolina College, preached in the Baptist Church in Chester on last Sunday morning.

.. Charles Cearson, a colored man, has been lodged in the Edgefield jail on a charge of murdering his own child, a little girl, aged two years. He beat her to death.

.. The postoffice at Buford's Bridge, in Barnwell county, which has been closed for the last five years, has been re-opened, and Martin H. Rodt appointed Postmaster.

.. Rev. L. Ker, a Presbyterian clergyman, who resided in the vicinity of Rock Hill, died on Saturday last, and was buried with Masonic honors by the Rock Hill Lodge on Sunday.

.. Lancaster Court House is said to be more sickly than it has been for twenty years past. The Ledger attributes the sickness to the fact that cotton is planted too extensively. In many instances the gardens in the town are planted in cotton.

.. Charleston News: A daughter of Mr. Beach, the dyer in King street north of Tradd, died on Wednesday from the effects of being burned on Tuesday. She went too near the fire, where dye was being prepared, when her clothing became ignited, burning her body.

.. The Chester Reporter learns that Philip A. Eichelberger, formerly county treasurer of Edgefield county, whose death and burial was published some time ago, is not in fact dead, but has fled to a healthier climate to escape the consequences of certain malfeasance in office for which he had been arrested by the State Treasurer.

[Richmond Dispatch.]

The Western Farmers—Vested Rights.

The farmers of the West are moving with apparent zeal and earnestness in their plan to bring railway and other corporations to terms and to improve the character of representative bodies. They are nominating independent State tickets, and resolve that they will not vote hereafter as partisans, but as citizens determined to secure the best and most able men to manage public matters.

In Minnesota they just have had their Convention and made their nominations and adopted their resolutions in the most independent and defiant manner. Among other things they declare in favor of a tariff for revenue and not for protection, and pledge themselves to oppose all persons for public office who "either deny or object to the exercise by the Legislature of the power to reverse or annul at any time any chartered privilege or so-called vested right which experience has shown may be exercised to the detriment of the public welfare."

Without entering into the discussion of this question we may say it is not surprising in this day of corruption that the people should raise the question of the right of Legislatures to repeal or amend charters. One evil begets another. Governments are instituted for the good of the people, and when they become the oppressors of those they were intended to protect, why we need not be surprised at anything the oppressed may do to shield themselves from the evils they suffer at the hands of those who prove faithless to the trust reposed in them.

Corporations (mainly railroads) have exercised their privileges in many instances with a heartless disregard of the welfare of those who breathed into them the breath of life—viz., The people.

Black Vomit.

Information has been received that the yellow fever has broken out in Tortugas. On the 24th ult., there were nine cases, four of them fatal, genuine black vomit.

— On Sunday, the 23d of August last, a heart-rending accident happened to a young lady, aged sixteen years, residing in Banks county, Ga. Two young ladies, Misses Patterson, cousins, were together in a room sporting with a musket, which, contrary to their belief, was loaded. The piece discharged from some cause and emptied twelve buck-shot into Miss Sarah A. Patterson, killing her instantly.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

— Anderson, S. C., Fair 29th to 31st October, inclusive.

— A young man in Macon while practising with dumb bells broke his right arm.

— A negro who killed Frank Galloway, in Chattahoochee county, about two years ago, was arrested last Saturday in Muscogee county, Ga.

— At Aiken, S. C., Saturday, the case of the State vs. Barney Lamar, who was indicted for the murder of N. J. Heyward, was tried. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

— The Atlanta Herald alludes to a mysterious affair of honor which has been held in abeyance for forty-six days. The time having expired, the principals left on Sunday night for the battle field.

— A subscription of $10,000 was received from a neighboring city a few days since to the capital of one of the contemplated new factories in Columbus, with the assurance that several times that amount can be obtained for the same purpose in a short time.

— The Macon cotton mills were built in 1851, at a cost of $164,000. The mills use 6,000 spindles and 130 looms, and turn out 5,500 yards of domestics daily. The company have recently put in new engines and boilers at a cost of $15,000. Since the mills have been in operation the company haue paid promptly a dividend of ten per cent. per annum.

— We find the following in the Atlanta Herald of yesterday, under the head of "Selling a Fortune."—We hear from several sources that immense amounts of land are being sold to foreign capitalists, in Bartow, Polk, Murray, Dade, and Gilmer counties, Ga., and at extremely low figures. It is said that their red fields that the farmer can hardly raise a crop of grass on, and scraggy hillocks or mountains that are completely inaccessible to the plow or the hoe, are most in demand.

Holmes, Esq., of Rowan, was elected on the part of the private stockholders a Director of the Road, vice John R. Shaver, deceased. D. G. McRae, of Wilmington, was elected a member of the Finance Committee, vice M. L. Holmes, promoted.

THE FAIR.

The Necessity for Vigorous Preparation to Insure its Success, &c.

As the time for the holding of the next fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association is rapidly approaching, we are prompted to again advert to the necessity of a vigorous and systematic preparation for the event, both on the part of the management and those who expect to be represented on that occasion by specimens of their skill, industry and enterprise. It is natural for the people of the State to look to our growing metropolis to excel in its exhibitions of this character; and certainly, with the prestige we have gained in former years, with a large community of fair-going people in our own midst to add to its success, taken together with our rich and populous surroundings, there should not be such great difficulty in making our coming Fair all that its most sanguine friends should expect or desire it to be. The resources of our section are almost unbounded, the soil rich and productive, the people industrious and enterprising, the facilities for transportation exceedingly ample. What more is needed, coupled with the proper energy on the part of the officers and members of the Association, to make the next exhibition in November the pride and boast of the State, and especially of the Cape Fear section. Let our friends of the Association be up and doing. Let more enthusiasm be infused into the enterprise. Let the people be stirred up and made to understand and appreciate more fully the importance of these annual exhibitions of the skill and industry of their hands and the products of their soil. And, above all, let the people see and feel that the Association is in earnest in its efforts, by the manifest determination of its officers and members to make it a grand and glorious success. Earnestness and spirit on their part will beget a livelier interest and a more substantial enthusiasm on the part of the public and then all will work together to produce the desired result. Let the work of active preparation begin at once and let our Fair in November, 1873, far outstrip any of its predecessors in all that tends to promote the agricultural, mechanical, and kindred interests in our section and foster and develope its vast resources.

Six Generations in the Provincial and State Legislature.

The Raleigh News directs attention to the rather remarkable fact that the Ashe family of North Carolina have been represented in the Provincial and State General Assembly for six successive generations, and we sincerely doubt whether the same can be said of any other family in this country. While they have held many other important offices, both State and National—as United States Senator, Governor, Judges, etc.—we only speak of the fact that six generations of this family have a record in our State Legislature. John Ashe was a member of the Assembly for the Southern portion of the Province of Carolina in 1700; his son, John Baptiste Ashe, of the Colonial Assembly in 1725, and Speaker of that body; his son, Samuel Ashe, of the Assembly of 1777, and Speaker of the Senate branch; his son, Samuel Ashe, of the General Assembly of 1802; his son, William S. Ashe, of the Legislature of 1846, and his son, S. A. Ashe, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Raleigh, of the General Assembly of 1870. A history of the important public acts and services of this family alone would fill a large volume. One remarkable incident in the history of this Ashe family is that John B. Ashe was elected Governor in 1795, and, dying before he was qualified, his father, Samuel Ashe, was elected in his stead.

Reorganizing.

The Adelphian Literary Society, of this city, which suspended its meetings at the beginning of the heated term, assembled last evening for the purpose of organizing for the Fall season. The following officers were elected.

President.—H. W. Finlayson.
Vice-President.—E. P. Bailey.
Secretary.—P. Pearsall.
Treasurer.—J. D. Burr.
Query Committee.—W. W. Shaw, J. W. Cobb, H. W. Shaw.
Financial Committee.—J. D. Burr, E. P. Bailey.
Supervising Committee.—H. W. Finlayson, E. G. Parmalee, W. W. Shaw.

There was a goodly number present at the meeting and much interest was manifested by all in promoting the growth and success of the society, which is certainly deserving of the sympathy and encouragement of our citizens.

The Cape Fear Academy.

It is announced that the sixth annual session of this popular institution will begin on Monday, the 6th of October. The Principal, Prof. F. H. Alfriend, will have the assistance of a thoroughly competent gentleman, a graduate of one of the first institutions of learning in Virginia, and who has had much experience in teaching the various branches. Connected with the classical and higher English departments, there will be a primary department, in which children will be prepared for entrance upon the more advanced studies, which will be under the immediate supervision of the Principal, who has, during his long connection with the Academy, achieved a reputation second to but few instructors of youth in this State or section.

— J. C. Hill, Register of Deeds, settled his schedule C tax with the Sheriff yesterday, which is considered an act of promptness on his part very creditable to him as an officer.

Local Dots.

— Scuppernong grapes are plentiful.

— The season for excursions is over.

— Thick clothing is coming into demand.

— The weather yesterday was decidedly Fallish.

— How about the pavement on Princess street?

— Cool, cloudy weather predicted for today, with rain areas on the coast.

— A white man by the name of Anderson died at the City Hospital on Sunday.

—The thermometer did not get beyond 80 yesterday, and last night at 9 o'clock it was down to 74.

— Emergent communication of St. John's Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M., this evening at 8 o'clock.

— There was a heavy rain beyond Fayetteville on Friday night, which caused a considerable rise in the river.

— We learn that Chief Engineer Robinson will have the fire department out this afternoon for inspection and drill.

— The native Africans from the British Barque Elizabeth Knowles, are said to have had a lively time on shore Saturday night.

— Alex. Martin, colored, was arrested yesterday on the charge of larceny. He will have a hearing before the Mayor this morning.

— All the new stores on Front, between Princess and Chesnut streets, are rapidly approaching completion, and will be an ornament to the city.

— Remember the tax-payers' meeting to come off at the Court House to-morrow evening. Several prominent speakers are expected to address the meeting.

— During the year commencing Sept. 1st, 1872, and ending Sept. 1st, 1873, 376 marriage licenses were issued at the office of J. C. Hill, Register of Deeds for this county.

— Mr. R. B. Wood, Sr., of this city, has recently been engaged in taking down or reconstructing a brick building on Front street which he erected upwards of thirty years ago.

— The duties of the Vice Consulate for Denmark, Sweden and Norway, during the temporary absence of Vice Consul Heide, will be performed by Mr. James Sprunt. Mr. Heide will return in about two weeks.

Resigned.

Sergeant Van Soelen, of the police force, sent in his resignation to City Marshal Price, yesterday, which was accepted. Mr. Van Soelen, we understand, has accepted the position of shipping clerk in the establishment of Messrs. Adrian & Vollers.

CITY ITEMS.

FAIRBANKS RECEIVED THE MEDAL OF PROGRESS AT THE VIENNA EXPOSITION—THE HIGHEST PRIZE GIVEN ANY MANUFACTURER OF WEIGHING MACHINES. This is a compliment—and one well merited—but better than all prizes is the award of the entire weighing world, which considers Fairbanks' Scales the STANDARD. In spite of largely increased facilities for manufacturing (factories covering over ten acres), the Messrs. Fairbanks find that 1,900 Scales weekly—60,000 yearly—do not meet the present demand.

Using the best materials—employing skilled and experienced help—giving personal attention to the manufacture of the Scales they invented—it is not surprising that they lead the world in the science of weighing.

PRINTING PAPER.—We now have in stock over 200 reams of news paper, size 34x36, weight 30 lbs per ream. It is good, rag paper, and will be sold, in lots to suit, for cash, or sent by express C. O. D.

PRINTING INK.—We have just received a stock of News Ink for summer use, put up in packages of 25 pounds each. Cash or C. O. D. orders promptly filled. Price 25 cents per pound.

The consolidation of the Carolina Farmer and the Weekly Star having largely increased the circulation of the latter, advertisers will find it an admirable medium of communication with the farmers and planters of the two Carolinas.

BOOK BINDERY.—THE MORNING STAR Book Bindery does all kinds of Binding and Ruling in a workmanlike manner, and at reasonable prices. Merchants and others needing Receipt Books, or other work, may rely on promptness in the execution of their orders.

JOB PRINTING.—We call the attention of merchants, clerks of courts, sheriffs, lawyers, railroad and steamship officers and agents, and all others having orders for printing, to the facilities offered at the MORNING STAR PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT for the prompt and faithful execution of all kinds of JOB PRINTING. We can furnish at short notice Cards, Bill-Heads, Letter-Heads, Programmes, Ball Tickets, Blanks, Pamphlets, Tags, Hand-Bills, Catalogues, Bills of Fare, Show-Bills, Checks, Drafts, &c., &c. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The thief who was arrested for robbing Parsons' store, in this town, was found to have a quantity of Ayer's Hair Vigor in his possession. When asked why he wished to steal that article he answered that he "wanted to restore his hair, for it was hard to be a thief and bald too." If that invention of the great chemist could restore a faded character as effectually as it does their natural beauty to bald and gray heads it would surely be, as they say it now is, truly invaluable.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

How Brigands are Extirpated in Italy.

Manzi, a celebrated brigand in Southern Italy, has been captured by the police, and his band, which consisted of only nine persons, hunted down and extirpated. The Prefect of Salerno has in this case solved the brigand problem. He did not set on foot a ponderous military expedition, but enlisted a band of mountain scouts, who fought the brigands according to their own tactics.

The Louisiana Rice Crop.

Our rice crop, which promised to be excellent, is now threatened by continued rains, which render harvesting almost impossible. Had the rice raisers been favored with a good harvest moon, their return would have been largely remunerative.—New Orleans Times.
