

A PARTISAN CHIEF JUSTICE.

It is now generally understood that the President will appoint Senator Conkling of New York Chief Justice.

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN.

Advices from Ohio say that candid Democrats admit that the attempt to run William Allen for Governor on old-fashioned Democratic principles is a complete failure.

YELLOW FEVER IN MEMPHIS.

Forty-one interments in Memphis Thursday! The great scourge increases daily, and the cry from the stricken city is "Money, money to pay nurses, provide necessaries for the sick and bury the dead."

Why cannot the State Agricultural Society offer a premium at the State Fair for the best dinner cooked by a young lady?

Because it would be an unfair proceeding. No other department would receive any attention during that hour, and the seeds of heart-disease would be then and there fearfully sown.

If the Mississippians don't have an election this year, it will be because they are afraid of the Powers that be.

The prettiest girl in Fort Scott, Kansas, is a clerk in a butcher's shop.

What does Grant think of this from Harper's Weekly?

Surely this is not the way that super-loyal sheet was wont, long ago, to back its friends: "I am glad to note that last year for General Grant under protest, and the object of that vote has been achieved. The intelligent and conscientious opinion, which has always been and is now the Republican strength, is very independent, and wears lightly the party cockade."

The Question Whether or not the Extension of Russia's territorial acquisitions in Asia has already reached the limit of its advance.

The question whether or not the extension of Russia's territorial acquisitions in Asia has already reached the limit of its advance is a question which has been discussed in a recent number of the official St. Petersburg Gazette.

Should be Under Police-line.

A youthful letter-carrier of Ashton-under-Lyne, England, who furnishes us an example of laziness that it would do the soul of Sancho Panza good to know, lives yet in the sunlight.

The Comatose Party.

The New York Graphic, an independent paper, gets off the following, which is nearly every word true and deservedly bestowed.

It is a question whether any party ever had such a splendid opportunity of meeting the wants and organizing the best instincts and interests of the country as is presented the Democratic party in America to-day.

Philosophical Definition of Mystery.

From Prof. Alexander Bain's new work, "The Mind and Body": The meaning of the correlative couple—Mystery, Explanation—has been rendered precise by the march of physical science since the age of Newton.

Interference with the French Press.

The reactionary French government rapidly advanced its intolerance. Hitherto only the military had been forbidden to write for the journals, but now M. Batbie, McMahon's Minister of the Interior, proposes to extend this interdiction to the professors of the universities.

The Department of Education.

The Department of Education, which M. Batbie means thoroughly to investigate. A number of professors at the universities have been asked by M. Jules Simon (M. Batbie's predecessor in office) who wish to use his subordinate in a twofold capacity, to take editorial charge of Republican papers in the provinces.

The St. Louis Globe thinks the indications are that Senator Casserly will be re-elected to his seat in the United States Senate from California, notwithstanding the great popularity which Governor Booth is supposed to have.

Clews' Claim Upon Southern Sympathy.

Clews has a record of singular slinkiness. He speculated at first in Confederate securities, and having miscalculated at that venture, he became the loudest-mouthed and foulest-mouthed Radical of them all, and crawled into profitable favor at Administration headquarters by toadying and probably by judicious greasing.

The Northern Pacific—Grave Charges Against the Directors.

Millions of dollars which belonged of right to the railroad, and in common honesty should have been devoted to the prosecution of the work, have been seized upon and applied to the private use of the directors.

Political Cases Before the Supreme Court.

The only political cases of importance which were left undisposed of by the court at the expiration of its last term are the Louisiana case involving the validity of the Kellogg government, and the case of Elijah Ross Sapaugh, of South Carolina, involving the constitutionality of the Ku Klux act.

Prize Essay.

The Department of State has been informed by General Schenck that the National Association of Scientists of London, which is connected with the Society for Promoting the Amendment of the Law, has offered a prize of three hundred pounds sterling to the person who shall write the most able essay on the following subject: "In what way ought an international assembly to be constituted for the formation of a code of public international law, and what ought to be the principle on which such a code should be framed."

The four little "Ingin" orphans at the Oxford Orphan Asylum are making unusually rapid progress in their studies. Hon. Thomas Hughes lectured at Marlboro College, England, on America. He advised all who intended to emigrate to go to Canada or the United States.

Christian Unity in Diversity.

The headship of one Lord, the inculcation of one faith and the submission to one baptism are the elements of a strong uniting power, which can stand the departing pressure of much divergency of forms and practices. We are coming to a conviction, however, that a closer co-operation is possible and needed among all who profess to call themselves Christians.

The Rev. Robert Collyer writes a letter to deny that, in recommending the abolition of half fare and other mistaken courtesies to ministers, he was unkind to poor clergymen.

He says that since the Chicago fire he is not a rich man, and the half fare privilege would be a relief to him, but he adds: "I felt impelled to say what I did, therefore, in the teeth of my own interest, because, while I had felt uneasy and a little ashamed about the half fare for a good while, the question was forced home upon me, as it is upon us all by the recent discussions of the railroad question, and I saw painfully for the first time, when the whole truth came out, that we were in a false position, and one likely to damage us in the public mind outside our meeting houses, in every way, but especially in begetting a quick and keen contempt of our pious mendacity done in the name of the Lord."
