STATE FAIR.

FIRST DAY.

[Raleigh Sentinel of Yesterday.]
The Fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society opened yesterday under the most favorable auspices.
The weather was delightful, the attendance unusually large for the first day, and the exhibition was by far the best ever made at so early a day of our annual occasions. We went through the several departments and saw what was to be seen, but it is too soon to particularize. To-morrow we will begin our report.

The entries, up to 5 p. m., were about 1,000 covering some 7,000 articles; and the Secretary of the Society was in receipt of telegrams announcing the shipment from several points of twenty-two car-loads of produce for exhibition.

At the time of opening, Gov. Caldwell on the Grand Stand, in company with Gov. Holden, J. W. Holden, Auditor Riley, Treasurer Jenkins and Dr. Howerton, Secretary of State, made the opening and said he had not been notified till recently that he was to speak, and was wholly unprepared.
But recently the site of the beautiful buildings presented nothing but bushes and thorns. Under the management of the President and Executive Committee, (extending his arms), this had been wrought. He expressed the desire that no politics should be introduced on the Fair Grounds, and extending his hand to President Holt, he said, "I greet you as a member of the Democratic party. Let us go together as friends and brothers. Let not one assume superiority over the other." And he added, most blandly, "Let our Democratic friends understand that we are in good company when they associate with Republicans." The Governor resumed his seat among the cheers and congratulations of his friends, Governor Holden and others shaking him cordially by the hand.

THE RACE.

At 3 P. M. the trials of speed were began. The first race was for a purse of $100—$50 for the first horse, $25 for the second, and $10 for the third.
Trotting match, harness, mile heats, best three in five.

Paxon entered bay mare "Belle."
Lassiter, gray horse "Nellie Gray." Merriam, sorrel horse "Silk Stockings."

Worthington, chestnut sorrel "Ronoke." Williamson, sorrel mare "Fly-away."

"Belle" won the pole.

First Heat.

"Silk Stockings," 1; "Ronoke," 2;
"Nellie Gray," 3; "Flyaway," 4.
"Belle" withdrew.
"Nellie Gray" broke near home and ran over the score.

Time, 3:18 1/2.

Second Heat.

Ronoke, 1; Nellie Gray, 2; Silk Stockings, 3; Flyaway, 4. Time, 3:13.

At this point a protest was entered against Silk Stockings on the ground that he had before been on the track, the race being for horses that had never before trotted in public. This was settled by Mr. Merriam's affidavit.

Third Heat.

Ronoke, 1; Silk Stockings, 2;
Nellie Gray, 3; Flyaway, 4.
Won by a good length. Time, 3:09.

RUNNING RACE.

The second race was a running match, one mile dash, for $50.
The N. C. Agricultural Society entered the prize stallion "Sigamore." G. W. Lynn entered black horse
"Morgan."

Staten entered sorrel mare "Flora." Thomas Emery entered sorrel mare "Brook" and sorrel horse "Piney Woods."

The race was well contested, and resulted in "Piney Woods" winning easily in two minutes.

— Consult the Monroe Enquirer for curiosities in cotton. It comes to the front with a stalk nine and half feet high, and with seventy-five grown bolls, and knows of half an acre more of which is as high. Then, it makes a lunge and brings out this: The stalk is about a foot and half high—it has been topped—but the limbs extend higher, it is six feet from the ends of the two longest limbs, and there are one hundred and twelve matured bolls, besides a large number not grown.

Magistrates' Court.

A young colored man by the name of Lewis Everett was up before Justice Cassidy yesterday on the charges of assault and forcible trespass. A white youth by the name of John Odum was the complainant, who stated that he was employed on a small vessel by the name of the Luck, which was being towed up to the city on Monday, in company with two or three flats. The defendant was employed on one of these flats and as Odum was a new hand on the vessel Everett proposed to "initiate" him in the same manner that he had just done a colored boy, who was also a green hand on one of the flats, that is, by paddling him with a piece of scantling. Odum didn't relish the fun and presented a determined resistance.
Everett finally saying that he would defer the matter until they reached the wharf.
When they did so (the defendant) went on board of the vessel, which was in charge of Odum, and swore he was going to "initiate" him, using threatening language and refusing to leave the vessel when ordered to do so. Finally Odum picked up a sort of club and informed Everett that if he did not leave the vessel he would strike him with it; whereupon Everett went ashore, which, as Odum did not desire any difficulty, he declined to do. On this testimony Justice Cassidy required the defendant, Everett, to pay a fine of $10 and costs in each case, in default of which he was lodged in jail.

Shakespeare Fleming was arraigned before Justice Gardner on a peace warrant and also on a warrant charging him with perjury, on the complaint of Wm. Myers.
Both cases dismissed at complainant's costs.

The Fatal Accident on the Central Road.

We mentioned in our last that a colored individual was accidentally run over and killed near Abbotstown on Monday. We since learn that the unfortunate was a boy about 15 years old and that he belonged to Brown Marsh. He was not employed on the road. It seems that he was lying across the track at the time of the accident, with his legs over one of the rails, and was not discovered by the engineer until it was too late to stop the engine. Both his legs were nearly severed from the body. He was taken up and carried to Brown Marsh, where a physician was called to his aid, but he lived but a short time.

Knights to the Rescue.

Mr. W. H. Gerken, D. D. G. C., notifies the members of the Order of Knights of Pythias, of the District of Wilmington, that they are most respectfully and fraternally requested to assemble at Castle Hall tomorrow (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock, to devise ways and means for the relief of the suffering brethren of the fever-stricken city of Memphis, Tenn. He adds: "They need your assistance, brethren; let us now show to all that the great principles of our Order are not to us as dead letters."

Engine Practice.

To-morrow Chief Engineer Robinson, of the Fire Department, will have the regular monthly parade and practice of engines.
The firemen will meet at their respective engine houses at 2 1/2 P. M., and at 3 o'clock they will be called into line by the ringing of the market bell. It is important that our citizens should notice and remember this fact, in order to prevent any alarm from the ringing of the bell, which might otherwise be taken as an indication of fire.

Knights of Pythias Parade.

We learn that the Uniform Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at a meeting held last evening, resolved to have a public parade on Wednesday afternoon next, at 4 1/2 o'clock, to be inspected by the Grand Chancellor of the State. They will also give a grand ball at night in his honor, in which the Knights will appear in full uniform.

Bad Streets.

The streets near the corner of Front and Queen are represented to us to be in a horrible condition, having been washed by the rains until they are almost impassable. As there is plenty of material near at hand to make the necessary repairs, we hope the city authorities will no longer neglect the tax-payers of that growing portion of our city.

Improvement in Spirits.
There was quite an improvement in the market for spirits of turpentine yesterday, there being an advance from 38 to 40 cents since the previous day's reports. As the article is bringing such a good price in our market now, we hope it will induce a more liberal supply.

Local Dots.

— The fish market was abundantly supplied yesterday.
— The steamer Oldham sold for $1,050, instead of $1,400.
— The Elite, Avery, sailed from Green-oak for this port on the 1st inst.
— The Analia Hedwig, Gehm, sailed from Antwerp for this port on the 30th ult.
— Several persons passed through this city yesterday en route for the State Fair.
— The Baptist Association at Southwest Church, Onslow county, was to have commenced yesterday.
— A colored man was arrested yesterday for drunkenness on the streets, but was subsequently released.
— Mr. Jas. M. Brown will form his dancing class for the season on Thursday, at the Hall in Lippitt's Block.
— The sch. Gen. Burton, Phinney, sailed from New Bedford for New Haven, on the 10th inst., to load for this port.
— A twin sweet potato astonished the denizens of "Mud Market" yesterday.
We thought it a very poor tuber.
— We learn that the afternoon receipts of the Great Eastern Circus at Magnolia yesterday amounted to $4,300.
— Messrs. D. McNeill and D. T. Hargrove, of the Lumburg Scotchman and Observer, were in the city yesterday.
— The Schillinger pavement in front of Messrs. Taylor & Giles' office, on Princess street, seems to give very general satisfaction.
— The 52nd regular monthly meeting of the Wilmington Building Association will take place at the rooms of the Wilmington Library Association this evening at 8 o'clock.
— There seems to be a general desire, on the part of the colored people, that the appointment of Sergeant Lewis Nixon to the old position as Captain of the night police force may be endorsed by the Board of Aldermen.
— City subscribers are earnestly requested to pay for their papers promptly when called on. Our City Agents, Messrs. Green and Thornton, are required to pay cash for their papers every day; and in order to meet their obligations it is essential that subscribers should meet theirs.

About Grapes.

That clever newspaper, The South, in a recent article on North Carolina, in which allusion is made to the three grapes which are indigenous to this State, the Scuppernon, the Catawba and the Isabella, thus speaks of the latter variety: "The Isabella grape is more universally cultivated for use of the table than any other, and as there seems to be a doubt as to its origin, and North Carolina is at times shorn of her honors, we desire to give the following bit of history: From the garden of Governor Benjamin Smith, on the Cape Fear River, near Smithville, Mrs. Isabella Gibbs, the wife of George Gibbs, Esq., of North Carolina, carried a vine to New York and planted it on Long Island, where the grapes attracted particular notice, and where, in honor of Mrs. Gibbs, it was named Isabella. This much is certain: the Isabella grape, found in the gardens of Col. Gibbs, on Long Island, came from the plantation of Governor Smith, in North Carolina."

Miss Lillie Eldridge.

The Brooklyn Enquirer, alluding to a late appearance of Miss Lillie Eldridge at the Park Theatre in that city, says of her:
"The new actress, Miss Lillie Eldridge, made a decidedly favorable impression; she is youthful and good looking, and her pleasant presence is a favorable introduction; and an energy of execution, and an earnestness of purpose, which secure the sympathy of the audience, and give a vital interest to the performance. She has a voice of considerable power, and sang "The Linnet" so effectively as to irresistibly command an encore. She readily apprehended the strongest situations of the play, and by her intensity and vigorous declamation, made the most of them. Miss Eldridge was well received, applauded loudly during the evening, and called for the curtain."

Got Left.

The two sailors, Wm. Myers and C.
Lovet, who were sent to the Work House on Monday, were brought in yesterday, at the request of their Captain, to be shipped on their vessel, which had gone down the river. Upon arriving at the wharf, however, it was found that the steamer which was to have taken them to the vessel had left, whereupon they were carried to the Guard House and will be returned to the Work House this morning.

In Distress.

By telegraph we learn that the Brig Nellie Mitchell, Capt. Cady, which was cleared from this port by J. H. Chadbourne & Co., on the 5th inst., for Port au Prince, loaded with lumber, was reported below Boston yesterday in distress.
A dispatch from Charleston also reports that the German Barque Dorothea, from this port for Glasgow, had been spoken in distress, a fact which has heretofore been alluded to by us.

Mayor's Court.

The only cases before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning were those of S. Price, charged with larceny, and Geo. Brown, charged with disorderly conduct, both of which were continued over.

A Narrow Escape.

The balloon of the Great Eastern Circus burst at Kingston on Monday, nearly the entire top of it blowing off. The aeronaut escaped with slight bruises, although he had to jump a distance of about fifty feet.

The Great Eastern Circus.

The Great Eastern Circus was to arrive in this city last night at 12 o'clock, and pitch its tents at Camp Lamb. The press of the State generally has spoken very highly of the Great Eastern and we hope to see a performance worthy of the name. The street procession will take place at 9 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock, if the necessary repairs can be made in time, there will be a balloon ascension.
Attached to the Great Eastern is a Museum, in which will be found a curiosity in the shape of a girl child with four legs—She is about five years old and was born in Tennessee. Members of the medical profession are requested to call and see her.
This circus has several female performers, one of whom, Miss Kate Lake, daughter of the famous John Lake, formerly of Robinson & Lake's circus, is pronounced one of the best female equestriennes in the South. Add to these attractions a lot of famed male equestrian vaulters, and the like, and if the promise of the bills is fulfilled, the Great Eastern will well deserve full patronage from show-goers.

Colored Firemen's Convention.

The Convention of the colored firemen of the State meets in Raleigh to-day. A delegation of some eight or ten, representing the two colored companies in this city, went up yesterday morning and City Marshal Price and others were to go yesterday evening.

Dr. Closs.

Certain resolutions, a memento of respect, are published in the Christian Advocate, emanating from the quarterly Conference of the Bladen Circuit, warmly eulogizing the venerable Wm. Closs, D. D., whose term as Presiding Elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church for this District expires shortly.

I. O. O. F.

We have been asked to make the announcement that every Odd Fellow in the city is requested to call as early as possible at the office of Mr. R. J. Jones or Col. W.
L. Smith, on business of importance.

Postponed.

Deputy Grand Master Gardner received a telegram yesterday stating that the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new Methodist Church at Weldon, alluded to in our last, had been postponed until Wednesday, the 23d inst.

the Presbytery to order and exhortated it by prayer. The Rev. Joseph Evans was then chosen Moderator, and Rev. N. T.
Bowden and Walter J. Smith, Ruling Elders of the Church, were elected temporary clerks. The attendance was full, all the ministers in the Presbytery being present, but two; and the churches were very generally represented by the Eldership. The Presbytery of Fayetteville is one of the
