

"pooling and scaling," as it is called, is then to cease. The reserves are now gaining a million greenbacks a day, and we are not sure but that the banks of this city could with advantage have begun to-day to resume their ordinary methods of payment. Our people will now find it less difficult; however, to get currency for ", pay-rolls at home or for remittances to the country. The Treasury disbursements of currency have had a sensible effect, and have amounted to nearly $8,000,000. As much more is expected to be paid out during the next ten days, as the taxes are expected with somewhat more freedom. and the Treasury warrants on disbursements are now coming forward on the Sub-Treasury here. The Savings Banks are some of them still holding fast their greenbacks; but before long they will see if to be their advantage to pay them out in purchase of governments or to place we find that in this fifth week of the panic there are few marked indications of trouble. The additional failures that have occurred have taken no one by surprise. The banks are sustaining those merchants who have vitality enough to justify sid; and the ability of the banks to render liberal aid where it is merited is increasing every day. Every one knows that the true way to check a panie is to discount freely. But the trouble is that our panics often find the banks too weak to lend and the borrowers too poor in the right sort the enormous liquidation of debt is gradually laying a foundation for an easy money market in the fall. The short crops in Europe promise also to afford us an unlimited demand at good prices for our immense accumulations of breadstuffs.
