BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY.

How the Pinch is Felt in New York. Summarised from the New York Times.

In the grocery trade the feeling appears to be that business generally, not only in this city, but through the country, is on a sonder basis than ever.

Spirits Turpentine. Five births in Shelby in three days, and that is what we call a banner time.

THE PANIC AND THE WORKINGMEN. In all the leading cities in the country and wherever else large manufacturing establishments are established there has for some weeks past been a gradual showing of the effects of the money stringency upon the industries.

It seems to be the general opinion among mechanics that owing to the low price of gold and the threatened stagnation of business employees of all classes will unite this winter and largely reduce the scale of wages.

Charlotte Democrat: Gov. Caldwell ought to employ counsel to resist the schemes of the holders of fraudulent bonds, and Messrs. Johnson and Cushing ought to be exposed for engaging in a black-mailing and dishonest suit.

Great Railroad Loans. The Reading Railroad Company, which has gone so largely in monopoly using Pennsylvania coal lands, wants subscriptions to a $10,000,000 six per cent. gold loan, which was put on the London market on the 22d instant.

The Monroe Enquirer publishes an old legend of the early settlement of that portion of Union called "Nigger Head."

Gift Concert. The Gift Concert for the benefit and under the auspices of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, which takes place on the last day of the Fair in this city, will be under the management of Dr. T. B. Carr, whose well known energy and business tact will doubtless make it a grand success.

A Narrow Escape. We learn that Mr. Andrew Gardner, residing on the corner of Eighth and Wood streets, had quite an exciting adventure a night or two since, and one which might have proved serious in its results.

ROBBERS' RAIDS.

Thieves on the Rampage—They Make an Organized Raid on Stores and Dwellings—A Few of the Sufferers, &c.

There seems to be no doubt that there is a regularly organized gang of thieves and burglars in this city, who choose the most suspicious occasions for carrying out their nefarious undertakings.

To commence with, the store of Mr. Fred. Heyer, on the corner of Market and Second streets, was entered, the thieves boring a hole in one of the shutters in the rear of the store, through which a hand was inserted and the bolt withdrawn, which admitted of a free ingress.

An entrance was effected into the store of Mr. John C. Heyer, on the corner of Princess and North Water streets, by breaking the hinges of one of the side doors opening on Princess street.

Mr. L. Solomon's meat store in Carr's block, Second street, between Market and Dock, was also entered, the thieves gaining admittance into this establishment by means of a skeleton key.

Next hear of them on Fifth, between Dock and Orange streets, where they entered the dining room window of a dwelling, went through the pockets of the "good man of the house" and abstracted therefrom the sum of $3 or $5 in currency.

An attempt was made to enter a residence next adjoining the above, but in the act of raising a window the lady of the house was aroused, who called her husband and the thief "skedaddled."

In this connection we would remark that the City Marshal has instructions from the Mayor to institute a thorough investigation with the view of ascertaining if the policemen on the various beats were in their places and attending promptly to their duty during the night, and in case it shall be found that there was any neglect on the part of any of the officers on duty they are to be suspended at once and brought up for trial.

Before Justice Gardner yesterday: Allen Pettiford, charged with committing an assault on the person of Elizabeth J. Hattell. Case dismissed on the payment of costs.

Allen Pettiford, on a peace warrant sworn out by Elizabeth J. Hattell, was required to give bond in the sum of $50 to appear at the next term of the Superior Court and to keep the peace.

THE LATE ACCIDENT—Capt. Morrison's Condition, &c.

The latest accounts from Capt. Geo. Morrison, received yesterday afternoon, represent very little change in his condition. He appears very quiet, cheerful and resigned and seems fully aware of his situation.

We would state in this connection that there seems to be a diversity of opinion as to the cause of the accident, some thinking that it could have been prevented and that there was carelessness shown on the part of those who left the car on the track.

Yesterday a family residing on Market street were alarmed by the cries of a servant in the yard, and upon going out she stated that a large snake was protruding its head from an open space between the ceiling and weatherboarding of the house.

LARGE DIVIDENDS.—In times like the present, when banks, bankers and mercantile firms suspend; when railroads seem paralyzed, and dividend are either reduced or altogether withheld, it is consequently to know that there is one institution that is not only unshaken but unshakable, and which pays large and steady dividends, is a great advantage to the stockholder. This is the Public Library of Kentucky; and the dividend for the year 1873, when $100,000 will be distributed on each of the ticket holders, the larger gift being $30,000 and the smallest $50—being $100,000 in all.
